Del Mar Fair Opens 10-Day Run Today

ALPINE CHATTER

Paul Guiles, husband of Sue (Jeffers) Guiles arrived June 19 from Chapel Hill University of North Carolina after completing two years of medical school.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kenevan are driving back to their home town, Austin, Minnesota. They plan to be gone two or three weeks in order to visit with all their relatives.

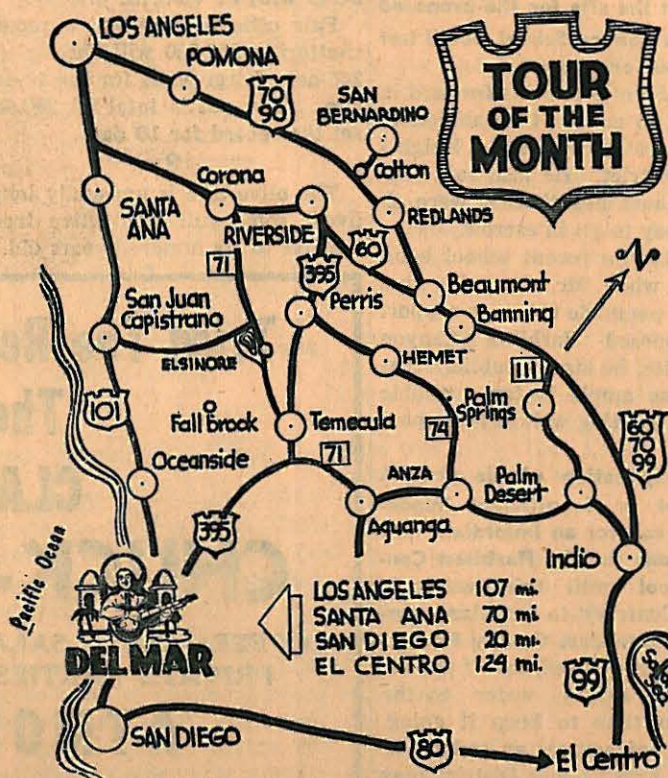

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Drennon, parents of Mr. Kenneth Drennon, arrived last Tuesday from Renton, Washington, to spend most of the summer with the Drennons and the Earl McKinneys.

Wells Gowdy, former Alpiner, recently completed a physics course at San Diego State College.

Olive (Ball) Smith left the other day for a pleasure trip to Mexico City. She hopes to spend a couple of weeks there.

FUN AT THE FAIR...

This month's recommended tour is to the Southern California Exposition and County Fair at Del Mar, June 26 through July 5. It is easily reached from all parts of the Southland. Features include a five-acre flower and garden show, world's largest horse show, John Sheedy Indian Museum and daily free grandstand entertainment at 2:30 and 6:30 p.m.

ALPINE CHAMPIONS HAVE MANY EXHIBITS IN THE JUNIOR FAIR

The 20th edition of the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair will open a 10-day run today in Del Mar. Gates open daily at 11 a.m. Admission price for adults is $1 and 25 cents for children.

Many representatives of the Alpine Champions 4-H Club will have exhibits in the Junior Fair. Members of Future Farmer and 4-H Clubs stage their own complete fair, competing in livestock and home arts. Premiums, totaling approximately $16,000, are offered the youngsters. Listed below are the Alpine entries in the Junior Fair:

TRAVELING ABROAD

With Bea LaForce

Paris, France
"The Paris shops are full of beautiful things, but very little that we can't duplicate in San Diego at better prices. On the streets the people dress just as we do. Few women wear hats or gloves even in the most (reputably) fashionable districts. Skirts are not, as we were told by certain style commentators via TV at home, above the knees at all, but are an inch to three below. Most women of all ages are now in the full-skirted version of the shirt-maker—wide belts and wide collars are featured and bright gay colors. Very little black. This, they say, is more true now than in winter when a little more black is worn.

Evening attire is very festive, but only for the most formal, and private parties is the long dress, or formal dress for men, worn. At the Lido, Paris' famous number one night club restaurant, most people were in dressy daytime clothes, but with lots of glitter of real and phoney jewels. Fur stoles were very prevalent. The general impression of Paris now, is one of great informality in dress and in living. Dining is still an art and one to be indulged in all its old perfection—waiters in tail coats—and the many gourmet dishes—course after course and with each its special wine. Sandwiches which you can get at tea time are eaten with a knife and fork, as they are all over the continent. There is one kind they serve at certain sidewalk cafes that is eaten in the hand. This is made in a long hard roll and is delicious with beer.

"Apparently, from our experience, wherever we visited in this Catholic country, every Frenchman

Supervisors Approve Alpine Water District

At a meeting of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday, unanimous approval was given of the election results favoring formation of the Alpine Heights Municipal Water District. The Board stated that the election results were in good order and that Sacramento officials would be notified of the formation of the new Alpine District.

Dr. Roy Ledford, spokesman of a group opposing the Alpine Heights District and favoring the proposed East County District, and John Reynolds, Chairman of the Alpine School Board, made public statements voicing opposition to the action of the Board of Supervisors.

Significant Statements By Interesting Californians

David Travis, S. F. salesman—"People still are very romantic about getting married... even if it's for the 13th time."

Doris R. Fabich, San Diego, on charity—"All of us, regardless of the amount in our pocketbooks, may contribute prayer, leadership and effort toward bettering this world."

Jimmy Durante, comedian in Hollywood, on being 65—"Me retire? What would I do, just dry up and blow away?"

John L. Rose, Auburn, on public power—"Competition between government and free enterprise should not be encouraged because in doing so we break down the foundations of the things our forefathers fought for."

Mrs. Jay Solomon, Millbrae housewife—"The flattery of some man will do more for a woman's beauty than all the creams and lotions in the world."

Summer Program Starts Monday At Youth Center

The Alpine Youth Center Summer Fun Program is about to begin. Monday, June 29, will be the first day of the eight-week summer session.

Every Monday will consist of a play day with all children invited to use the equipment and facilities the Youth Center has to offer. Children may come and go between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Milk will not be provided. During the hours mentioned above John Thompson, recreation director, and one assistant will be on the grounds at all times.

The day camp session, consisting of six days, runs over a two-week period with a charge of 50c for each child. Milk will be provided and each camper is to bring a sack lunch.

Tuesdays the day camp group will meet at Shadyrock for swim day. There is an extra charge of 25c for the use of the pool, and girls must wear bathing caps.

Wednesdays and Fridays day camp will be at the Youth Center. All sorts of activities are planned such

High Fire Hazard Causes Restriction In Forest Areas

Forest Supervisor Stanley R. Stevenson advises that on July 1 the Regional Forester, under authority vested in him by regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture, T-1, Section I, will restrict public entry to certain areas within the Cleveland National Forest that have been designated as having extremely high fire hazard potentialities during the summer season. Special entry permits may be obtained to carry on necessary business, and no permit will be required of actual residents going to and from their homes.

Maps and complete descriptions of the restricted areas are available at the headquarters of the Forest Supervisor in San Diego and at all Ranger and Fire Stations throughout the Forest. All campgrounds and main roads within the area are open to public use. Restricted areas will be duly posted on-the-ground for the information of the traveling public.

Forest Supervisor Stevenson has called attention to the fact that the 1959 fire season has started off with many small grass fires, and predictions are that serious fire conditions will continue through the summer season. He asks that the traveling public continue to give to CARE WITH FIRE the same fine attention that they have manifested in previous years.

Phil Hall On Naval Reserve Cruise

Postmaster Phil Hall left last Saturday for a two-week naval reserve cruise on the U.S.S. Wiseman DE667.

He will spend one weekend in San Francisco and then return to San Diego. The U.S.S. Wiseman will be docked in San Diego for Open House on the Fourth of July.

Students Receive Honor Awards

Each year awards are presented to the boy and the girl of the graduating 8th grade class for outstanding grades received during the year; for citizenship; and for student council service.

This year Jane Reabold and William Dalton received the awards for highest scholastic achievement. Shirley Watton and William Dalton were named by their fellow classmates to receive the citizenship awards. Shirley also received her award for service as student council president during the past year.

The special honors were presented by Mr. Warren H. Strohte.

Robert Shepard

Mr. Robert Shepard of Japatul passed away at his home early Wednesday morning after a lengthy illness.

YOU'RE INVITED...

Red haired Shirlee Brown, Fairest of the Fair, calls your attention to the Southern California Exposition and County Fair at Del Mar, June 26 through July 5. There's 265-acres of entertainment and educational attractions.

Editorial

You might meet some new neighbors at the Del Mar Fair this year. We figure it this way.

Take another look at the map on page one. This week all Southern California roads lead to the Fair. It is reported that about 2000 new families move into the Los Angeles area, mostly from out of state, each month. Los Angeles has smog, a severe air pollution problem.

Because of this a lot of families are also moving out of the Los Angeles area, just how many we don't know.

The San Diego County Exposition is one of San Diego's greatest annual attractions. About 250,000 are expected this year.

Many Los Angeles residents are going to have their first look at relatively smog-free San Diego County while attending the Fair.

Many of these visitors may be coming back to San Diego County—to live. So, if you meet an Angeleno at the Fair, be neighborly. He won't need much encouragement.

There is mounting evidence that the advocates of Federal aid for education have come full circle and will from now on be openly beating the drums for full federal control of our school system. There have even been statements by highly placed professional educators that local school board control is "undemocratic!"

Those of us who feel that the monolithic school system of Nazi Germany and Soviet Russia are not the ultimate in educational methods, observe this trend with dismay. But our dismay must not lead us into apathy. If as parents we need inspiration to act in defense of the education we feel is best and most American, we might well listen to one professional educator who agrees with us, Lloyd J. Andrews, Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Addressing a statewide meeting of PTA last month he said:

"Determination and control of educational programs to a major degree must be maintained in the local districts where the unit PTA's operate so that your voices will be heard loud and clear and often in the determination of the guidance of the minds of our children. These are OUR children, not the children of the government."

Letter To Editor

The formation of the Alpine Heights Water District was approved at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday. A number of proponents of the large East County Water District, however, were there in an attempt to disrupt approval of election results.

Among this group was the chairman of Alpine School Board, John Reynolds. He reported to the Commissioners and a good sized audience that the under-ground water supply at the site for the proposed Harbison Canyon School would last only about one year.

He apparently put this forward in an effort to get the Commissioners to disapprove the Alpine Heights Water District. He also said that the purchase negotiations were almost ready to go in escrow.

Prior to the recent school bond election when Mr. Reynolds was trying to persuade voters to support the proposed Harbison Canyon School site, he stated publicly that there was ample water available from the existing well at the school site.

The implication of his present statement is of sufficient importance to call for an immediate halt in all plans for the Harbison Canyon School until this matter is clear. Contrary to popular opinion the large East County District has not been formed, and if passed, could not supply water to the school in time to keep it going. There is, of course, an indication that the East County District may not be formed. What to do?

melodrama scheduled five times daily; quarter-midget races for the youngsters, veteran car races on the fast mile track; a sports car gymkhana and a huge fireworks display.

Things to do and see are the hobby show, international salon of photography, home arts, agriculture and horticulture, livestock, collection of Indian culture, and numismatics sections, armed services equipment. The Promenade of Flowers, the West's largest, includes five acres with its colorful display.

Fair officials expect a record shattering 250,000 will throng the 265-acre fairgrounds for the 10-day run. Last year's total of 248,039 set the record for 10 days.

as archery, games, crafts, singing, stunts and all types of sports.

Only children registering for the two-week day camp session will be eligible for swim days during that two weeks.

There will be four day camp sessions: June 29 through July 10; July 13 through July 24; July 27 through August 7; and August 10 through August 21. Children may register any time previous to these sessions.

If you have a question, stop at the Youth Center or phone HI 5-3777 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Dr. Roger Larson reports that the Community Church Bible School had 98 pupils on opening day. This is the largest group yet to attend on opening day. It compares with 84 pupils last year.

New Well Rig Demonstrated

A large number of local residents and their families enjoyed the facilities of the Holiday Ranch on Highway 80 Tuesday and Wednesday of this week as the guests of the B and R Diamond Drilling Co. The feature attraction was the operation and demonstration of a new improved air hammer rotary method of blast hole and water well drilling at the Ranch.

Area Residents Meet To Discuss Permit

A meeting of several interested citizens of the surrounding area met at the home of Dr. E. R. Herring of Lakeside to prepare facts on a hearing of the Woodward Construction Company's permit allowing their trucks to use Ashwood St. in Lakeside. Ashwood Street fronts the new El Capitan High School.

Mr. Russell Savage, Principal of El Capitan, states that the trucks will be hazardous to pupils in cars or walking to and from school, and will cause dust creating sanitation problems. Mrs. Joanne Nichols and Mrs. Leona Wilcox attended from Alpine.

The hearing will be held before the Board of Supervisors, Tuesday, June 30, at 2 p.m. in Room 310, Civic Center, San Diego. All residents interested are invited to attend.

TEEN TALK
