PREMIUM FUND BARBECUE

The Benefit Beef Barbecue to be held Sunday, May 1, at the Alpine Youth Center will be an elaborate affair.

Smokey Rogers will furnish the fun and entertainment. The funds go to help the youth of this area and the project deserves your support. Remember 12 noon to 5 PM Sunday, May 1st.

FAIRYLAND?

About a week ago The Echo was informed that the old Peacock Ranch may be sold to be used for an amusement park.
The promoters of this project call their idea a fairyland and they plan to have some attractive architecture if they are able to put over the idea. We understand, however, that they expect to raise about $500,000 dollars from the people of Alpine and we doubt if the project is likely to materialize if it depends on such funds from local sources.

We also doubt the value of such a project because we believe it would make Alpine a less desirable place for good residential development.

ALPINE KIWANIS TO HEAR ABOUT HELICOPTER SERVICE

William P. Simons of the Coast Rotors Company will speak on interurban heliocopter service at the Kiwanis dinner meeting tonight at Fuller Hall, 7 P. M.

The Coast Rotors Company offers jet 'copter service between Lindbergh Field and Gillespie Field and downtown El Cajon. The El Cajon helistop was obtained from Bradley Properties with the cooperation of the El Cajon Chamber of Commerce and is located on the North-

SENIOR CLASS BENEFIT

There will be a May Day square dance at El Capitan's Foster Gym on May 6 from 8 to 10:30 P. M. Tim Clark of La Mesa and other guest callers will call. Admission, 50¢ a person. Coffee and cake will sold by the senior class parents.

ST. MARYS GROUP

ST. MARY'S GROUP TO MEET

The St. Mary's Group of St. Philomena's
Ladies Guild will meet tomorrow, April 29, 2 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Robert Earickson, Victoria Drive, Alpine. Father Bolton will address this group of ladies who live along Victoria Drive and in the Alpine proper area, according to Mrs.
Danold J. Kenevan, chairman.

JUNIOR COLLEGE NEWS

The special session of the California State Legislature came to a close the the first week in April, having taken action or no action in three areas of particular interest and importance to the Grossmont Union High School District.

First, the Legislature approved a $350 million dollar bond issue to continue the program of state aid for school construction. Voters will vote on bonds at June primary elections. It is important to the Grossmont District which will need fund-from the State Building Program for additional sites and classrooms.

Second, the Legislature killed bills designed to assist communities in financing current expenses and capital outlay for the junior college. Bills which were part of the Master Plan for Higher Education have been approved, although fiscal independence proposed for state colleges was eliminated. The Master Plan calls for the systematic transfer to junior colleges (locally financed) of 50,000 students who normally would attend the University of California or state colleges in the next 15 years. One bill proposed a $35 million dollar, three year program for interest-free loans to junior colleges. Another would have helped junior colleges meet future construction needs by foundation-type grants.

Third, the Legislature approved the Master Plan for Higher Education with certain deletions which will give the state colleges control of their programs rather than placing the programs under jurisdiction of the State Department of Education or the University of California.

BORN ON GOOD FRIDAY

Montague Robert Boers was born on Good Friday in Grossmont Hospital. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Boers, of Willows Road, Alpine, have three other children.

Mrs. A. Wotring, of Willows Road, will leave tomorrow for a month's vacation. She will visit her sons, A. W. Wotring in Springfield, Massachusetts, and Rev. R. L. Wotring in Indianapolis, Indiana.

OPPORTUNITY

Various phases of the investment field will be explained in a series of free lectures which will be presented by Paul Scheibner in Fuller Hall, Alpine, beginning on May 10, 8 P. M.

The first lecture will be on "The Monthly Investment Plan, everyman's opportunity to be a part of America's strength as made available by the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. Scheibner is associated with the Norman C. Roberts Company of El Cajon, brokers and dealers in securities of America's leading companies. The Roberts Company is East County's only New York stock exchange member.

Investment Trust Funds and their position in coping with inflation on investors with fixed incomes will be the subject of Mr. Scheibner's talk on May 24.

He will discuss Over The Counter Stocks a proven social approach to investing, on June 14.

These free lectures which are open to the public are your opportunity to learn the down-to-earth facts of the investment field and how you can invest your money wisely.

PAUL SCHEIBNER

Cub Derby

Alpine Cub Scouts of Pack 350 will have a Pinewood Derby contest at their pack meeting April 29. They will race the little cars they have made. The cars, not weighing more than five ounces total weight, will race down a 32 foot incline. With all the run-offs necessary it sounds as though it will be an exciting evening.

However, there is a serious side too. Several new boys will be inducted into the Cub Scout program during the evening program. Also several advancements will be presented.

A new Webelos den will be formed soon for the Cubs who are ten and a half or older, according to Cub Master Ken Jerney. This will make space in the existing dens for more younger boys. Parents whose boys wish to join Cubbing are invited to bring their boys to the pack meeting at the Youth Center to learn about the Cub Scout program.

ALPINE CHAMPIONS PLAN PICNIC

Members of the Alpine Champions 4-H club will enjoy a picnic and hike at Green Valley Falls this Saturday. Taking sack lunches with them they will leave at 8 A. M. from Landt's Store.

SUMMER PROGRAM AT YOUTH CENTER

The summer program of the Alpine Youth Center will be discussed next Monday evening, May 2nd, 8 P. M. at the Alpine Youth Center. Interested persons are welcome to attend this board of directors meeting.

B for B

TRI-HI-Y PLANS SALE

Do you know what "B for B" means? Our girls of the Alpine Tri-Hi-Y Club do. In fact they are doing something about it! "B for B" means "Building for Brotherhood," which is a part of World Service in the Y. M. C. A. There are Y. M. C. A. s in 79 countries of the world. Many of these are in need of aid from us to help them to help themselves. To teach a trade, a better place to live, a strong desire to be self-sufficient and to hold their heads high among people of their land.

Sharon Chynoweth, president of the group, said that members of the Alpine Tri-Hi-Y club will be selling butter toffee peanuts this Saturday to benefit this worthy cause. The booth located near the post office will be open from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Girls who will work are Sharon Chynoweth, Vicki Douglas, Leone Dyer, Laredene Homesley, Byrdine Rex, Joyce Dowsey, and Melodie Earickson. They have a wonderful spirit of fellowship. Drop by and say "Hello" and buy a can of butter toffee peanuts, to help them to "Help others".

Gardener's Checklist

by California Association of Nurserymen

1. The long-stemmed, long lasting, many hued Transvaal Daisies are to be found in bloom at nurseries these days. Plant them with the crowns exposed to prevent rot. Good drainage is essential.
2. Divide tall bearded iris after they go out of bloom.
3. Potted geraniums are happier for more, rather than less, water. Don't let the pots dry out. Contrary to popular opinion, geraniums don't really like drought, but need good drainage.
4. The best assurance against runoff on a sloping lawn is to water it with a soaker. It's a slow but sure way to success.
5. Set out chrysanthemums this month and start them on their way to the fall blooming period. Watering, feeding, pinching back to prevent spindly growth are the three requisites to chrysanthemum culture.

Job Martin announces that a dedication service will be held at 7:30 P. M. April 30th at the new church he is organizing at 1945 Highway 80 in Alpine.

CAMPO NEWS

BY FAY FARRIS

The Mountain Whirlers Square Dance Club held its regular dance on Saturday evening, April 16, with Walter Ellis calling for Al Schaeffer the regular caller, who was unable to be present. Seven persons from the "Below C's" Square Dance Club from El Centro were visiting guests and helped to make the evening very enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herring were host and hostess.

The Caslon Thompsons have been vacationing for two weeks with their son Malcolm and family at their farm near Corvallis, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Skonberg of Morena Village and grandchildren from Los Angeles area spent the Easter vacation fishing at the Colorado River in Arizona.

The Tommy Thompson family were also at the Colorado River during the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sharp, their daughter and family were vacationing at their cabin in Morena Village the week before Easter.

The Mexican Canasta Club met at the home of Marie Lindemann on Wednesday, April 20, and the following were present: Alice Liggett, Gertrude Haskell, Ardelle Craft, Dell Nielsen, Marie Martin, Jane Ham, Fay Farris and the hostess. Prizes were won by Fay Farris and Ardelle Craft.

The board members of the Mountain Empire Republican Women, Federated, also met at the home of Marie Lindemann decided to have the regular meeting on Friday, May 6, at the Stone House in Campo. This will be a potluck luncheon. The day was changed from Thursday to Friday because so many members belong to the Homemakers Club, which is holding a "Cookout" breakfast in the Painted Canyon in Imperial Valley on that day.

It is reported that all of the tickets were sold for the Swiss steak dinner given by the Elementary P. T. A. at the Mountain Empire High School on Saturday, April 23, for the 1960 Cancer Drive. There were 150 tickets. The dinner was excellent and the Variety Show afterwards was enjoyed immensely.

The Parents and Patrons Club of Mt. Empire are having a fish dinner on Friday night, May 20, in the high school cafeteria at 6:30 P. M. -- adults 85¢, and children 50¢. After the dinner there will be a fun show called "Mt. Empire Blackouts of 1960" for a donation of 25¢ each

BETTER HIGHWAYS

ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Citizens of Alpine may soon have a fast through route to San Diego.

Last Tuesday (April 21) bids were opened on the construction of the Highway 80 Freeway from just East of Magnolia Avenue to the intersection of the present junction of Broadway and the highway. If the bids are found to be satisfactory the contract will be awarded and work will proceed quickly. It is hoped that both this and the other section in El Cajon will be opened for use in the fall of 1961.

WATER

The Alpine Heights Municipal Water District has approved a four-year, $32,000 budget.

The money, to be borrowed from a bank after a legal report on the district is completed, will be used to defray the costs of attorneys, office supplies and engineering surveys, according to A. L. Adams, board president.

The Alpine district is in the process of annexing to the Rio San Diego Municipal Water District.

FIX UP CONTEST

A summer-long contest for homeowners who make improvements in their outdoor living areas this summer has been announced by Hazard Products, Inc., of San Diego.

Dubbed the "Sun and Moon Spot" home improvement contest, the competition will run from April 24 through August 30. There will be a series of three preliminary contests, leading up to "Sweepstakes" finale during the month of August.

According to Bruce Hazard, president of the firm, the contest is open to any resident of San Diego County. Homeowners may enter any improvement they have made in their yard or patio area person. The money raised will be used to help pay for the new stage curtains which have already been hung in the auditorium.

Delphine Wilson, home advisor of the University of California will conduct a course relating to the new Textiles, and the laundering of them, at the Stone House in Campo on Tuesday, May 3 between 10:00 A. M. and noon. Everyone is welcome.

BAPTIZED

Last Sunday morning several babies were baptized at the Alpine Community Church. Included were Larry Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rushing; Janelle Marie and Gerald William, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frederickson; Jodie Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judd; and Bodil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Mansson, of Clairemont. The Man-family is acquainted with Dr. Larson's cousin, Oke Larson, in Sweden.

Local high school girls in the Senior Girl Scout program went on an encampment last weekend. They camped at Camp Davidson, the new Girl Scout camp near Julian. These Mariner Scouts who belong to the M. S. Admiral Deckership went camping last fall during the first snow of the season and then last weekend snow again... ohhhhh, what luck.

ALPINE CHAMPIONS

ALPINE CHAMPION WINNERS
Members of the Alpine Champions took several prizes at the 4-H Dress Review last Sunday. First place awards went to Paula Templeton, Joyce Earickson, and Martha Green; second place awards went to Terry Hallett, Phyllis Sumner, Maxine Kinikin and Jane Reabold. Their leaders are Mrs. F. E. Hallett and Mrs. E. Sumner.

Richard White was also a winner at the recent County 4-H demonstration. His goat demonstration took second place.

OPEN HOUSE THIS WEEK

There is open house all this week at the Alpine School. Visitors are invited to come any time this week during the regular school day.

YOU CAN HELP

Your Legislator At Work

by Assemblyman Jack Schrader
New smog legislation is now on the statute books, having been signed by the Governor, but it does not actually go into effect until one year after two exhaust fume control devices have been legally approved by the state department of public health.

Smog experts tell us that as much as fifty percent of dangerous fumes may come from the crankcase or fuel system of a car, or as much as eighty-five percent from the exhaust pipe. Two promising types of devices are well along in development. The "catalytic" variety forces the exhaust fumes through a bed of chemicals which change the dangerous materials into harmless carbon dioxide and unburned fuel. Either type, it is felt, can reduce polluting products the 90 or 95 percent believed necessary.

A thirteen member motor vehicle pollution control board, nine appointed by the Governor with Senate consent, and four representing state departments concerned, is established by the law. Its jobs are to adopt needed rules, have the devices tested, certify those passing the tests, exempt certain kinds of vehicles (such as motorcycles, farm vehicles, and other special types) from the law. The board is required to make regular reports to the Legislature. Penalties for violations? Refusal of car license, plus a fine or county jail sentence for making a false statement about a control device on a car.

ALPINE JR. HIGH ENTERTAIN

Students of the Alpine Junior High School entertained at the Alpine P. T. A. The program was under the direction of Miss Thelma Myers, teacher. Mrs. Leah McCarty and Mrs. Roberta Homesley, eighth grade room mothers, were hostesses. last Tuesday evening. A youth panel discussing teenage problems was presented by Margaret Pottinger, Ray Partridge, Virginia Miller, Larry Chynoweth, Grant Cooke, and Pat Doherty, Janie Woodall was moderator for the panel.

The eighth grade did several drills in calisthenics. The Girls' Pom-Pom Corps performed their routines. Virginia Miller played a selection of waltzes on her chord organ that she brought from home. June Perkins did a tap ballet.

KITCHEN GARDENS

THE GARDEN AS A KITCHEN PROVIDER
by California Association of Nurserymen

Does the aromatic freshness of garden herbs accent your cooking? Are fresh-picked vegetables featured at your table? If you answer "no" to these then you need a kitchen garden.

Kitchen gardens are commonplace in France, where their contribution to the good life is legendary. and any serious gourmet--or anyone who aspires to culinary success---should consider planting such a garden in his back yard.

A check with any member of the California Association of Nurserymen reveals that growing a kitchen garden is as simple as growing annual flowers. Many of your favorite garden herbs and vegetables are available as seedling plants, while those that aren't come easily from seed.

If your space is really limited, the C. A. N. suggests that you start with a basic few and add their enjoyment to your life. Start your kitchen garden with a half a dozen herbs and an equal number of salad greens and other vegetables.

Sage, Thyme, Savory, Marjoram and Rosemary take up little more space than a potted geranium and often not as much. They are available as seedlings this time of year. A packet of parsley seed, soaked overnight in tepid water to encourage germination, will come on easily in a few weeks.

Lettuce of several varieties is a good starting point for gardener-chefs. You'll notice the difference in your salads right off. Broccoli, cauliflower and celery are also to be found as small plants in nursery flats. And it takes only a few tomato plants to keep the average family happy right through summer.

From seed will come the likes of string beans and summer squashes -- two or three hills of squash is enough for most families; four or five will feed your neighbors, too, which isn't a bad idea. So take your pick. All are easy to grow and if space is available, all should be grown. If you have room for only a minimum kitchen garden, don't hesitate to plant it. The few meals it provides will give you a taste of the good life.
