New Members Day at Womens Club

The Alpine's Women's Club will have a New Membership Day at their May 10 meeting in the Women's Club House, at 2 P. M., according to Mrs. Ben Cerveny, chairman for the day. Mrs. George A. Fordney will be hostess.

The program will consist of a one act play, "The Book," written by Bea La-Force and directed by Roland Haworth.

Fran White and Wendy Burnett are the actors.

There is also to be a one act play by Roland Haworth and a monologue by Fran White.

MAYTIME SQUARE DANCE

El Capitan High School senior parents extend an invitation to a Maytime square dance to be held in Foster gymnasium from 8 to 10:30 P. M. Friday, May 6. Jim Clark, well-known La Mesa caller, will be host for the evening of fun, according to Mrs. Taylor Stevens, chairman for the event. Mrs. Stevens promises lots of dancing and a variety of guest callers.

Senior parents will sell refreshments during the evening. All proceeds from food and the modest donation will go toward senior class activities, which include the Prom May 28th, and the graduation party June 15. Tickets will be sold at the door.

NEW SCHOOL

The new Harbison Canyon School is almost completed. On a recent inspection made by the architect, the contractor, Inspector Hohanshelt, Superintendent Gilley and one of the board members, it was found that the building was complete and in good order except for a few minor details which are being corrected. It is probable that the board will be able to give final acceptance on May 9th, their regular meeting.

A supplemental contract for a little additional blacktop and fencing was granted at a special meeting on May 2.

ALPINE MEDICAL CLINIC

Alpine is soon to have an enlarged Medical Clinic according to Dr. Earl C. Woodall. In addition to Dr. Woodall and the consulting specialists who now serve Alpine, Dr. Carl Sturkow, M. D., is expecting to begin practice at the Clinic after about four to six weeks during which he is completing his duties with the Veterans Administration in Los Angeles.

A dentist, Dr. Richard Russell, is expecting to arrive and begin a local practice in about a month. He is now with a clinic in San Francisco.

NEW P.T.A. OFFICERS

Next Tuesday evening, May 10th, the newly-elected officers of the Alpine P. T. A. will be installed at the 8 P. M. meeting at the school. The new officers are Grace Wilcox, president; Wanda Frey, vice-president; Shirley Byer, secretary; Marjorie Cooper, treasurer; Gloria Harris, historian; and Eleanor Kidder, parliamentarian.

The pledge of allegiance and the inspiration will be given by the Alpine Tri-H-Y girls. Sixth grade room mothers will be hostesses. The evening's entertainment will be a musical program.

BAND and CHOIR CONCERT

The band and choir of El Capitan High School will present a concert, "An Evening of Music," Friday, May 13th, at the school. Admission will be fifty cents each which will go into the El Captus fund as the music department's contribution to the fund. Arthur C. Schwuchow is the music instructor.

ALPINE ACACIA CLUB

The Alpine Acacia Club will have a potluck dinner on Friday, May 13, 6:30 P. M. in Fuller Hall.

The evening's entertainment will include a travelogue by Mrs. Katherine Black as she shows the pictures she took during her European trip.

EL CAP CHOIR VISITS ALPINE

While at the Alpine School recently we heard most of a thirty-minute program given by the El Capitan choir. It was an excellent program and we noticed that the Alpine students seemed to enjoy it too.

Mrs. W. J. Way, of Holly Rd, Alpine, is in Navy hospital for an operation. Good luck, Mary.

GAMMA GAMMA

Officers of the Alpine Gamma Gamma Chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority will be installed at the home of the incoming president, Betty Landholm, of Anderson Road, on Wednesday, May 11th, 8 P.M. The other officers include Patti Blankenship, vice-president; Wilma Watton, recording secretary; Dorothy Mosier, corresponding secretary; Jackie Ballbach. These officers were elected at the meeting held at the home of Rennie Adams, with Patti Blankenship assisting as co-hostess.

Mrs. Adams, as the chapter's delegate, attended the sorority's state convention in Las Vegas with her husband. She came home with the state trophy for the Alpine chapter's rushing program. The local chapter rushed fifteen new members into the sorority, while the closest runner-up only had seven to its credit.

Mrs. Clarence Stearns is back home to Alpine after her recent operation. Speedy recovery wishes, Inez.

BASE BALL

With the practice games all over, the Alpine Junior Baseball Association is eagerly awaiting the start of the regular season which will begin May 16th, the day following the dedication barbecue.

The dedication barbecue is to be held on Sunday, May 15, at the Alpine Youth Center starting at twelve noon and then will be followed by the diamond dedication which will involve all ten teams in the association. Guest personalities will be on hand along with the V. F. W. Post of Alpine who have graciously consented to cook and serve the barbecue. All money derived from this barbecue will go toward helping defray the cost of operating the association. This is to be the ONE BIG money-raising function of the association for the year.

The building of this ball diamond is about the biggest undertaking by an organization in this community's history. It deserves the backing of the whole community at this dedication. Although the work is not completely finished, we'll all continue working together until it is.

BUSINESS and EDUCATION DAY

Business and industrial leaders of the community will visit high schools of the Grossmont Union High School District, on May 11, touring various departments, participating in discussions, and meeting students, teachers and administrators. The day, called "Education Welcomes Business and Industry Day, is sponsored by the the Grossmont District under direction of Mrs. Virginia Clapp, work experience coordinator, and will include members of service clubs, city officials, and chamber of commerce members on the guest lists.

A general meeting for the group will begin at 10:00 A. M. at El Capitan where Nicholar Mallek, Vincent Muzzo, and Dudley Graham of the faculty will speak. A tour of the new campus will follow until noon when lunch will be served and where available faculty members and Russell Savage, principal, will answer questions the community leaders want to ask.

Alpine Teacher Chosen

James Dyer, teacher of agriculture at El Cajon Valley High School, is one of thirty agriculture teachers from the United States to be invited to serve as a youth counselor at the American Institute of Cooperations' annual meeting in Berkeley in August. Over 1500 students will meet on the Berkeley campus of the University from August 7 to 10 to study cooperatives and to discuss marketing and marketing processes.

Mr. Dyer, chosen on the basis of his experience in education, his knowledge with farm cooperatives, and his interest in young people, will stay on the campus and work with a group of fifty people.

In classes at El Cajon Valley High, Mr. Dyer teaches a three week unit on mar-
