Tax Study Group Form Committee

The citizens of the Alpine and Harbison Canyon areas who have announced to the School Board at its last meeting that they intended to form a committee for the purposes of conferring with the School Board and School Administration during the preparation of the school budget for the next year, met last Friday evening for the purposes of formally organizing the committee. As reported to the School Board, this group plan to study the budget needs of the school with the intention of supporting a tax increase election to provide the funds that are determined to be necessary for the proper educational program in the Alpine schools.

The Committee chose permanent

Old-Fashioned Auction

The old-fashioned auction to be held Saturday, October 27 from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. by the Alpine Woman's Club at the Community Clubhouse grounds promises to be a gala event reports Mrs. C. P. Vancil, chairman.

Many lovely and useful items have been donated by the merchants of Alpine. Members of the Woman's Club also have been asked to donate interesting and worthwhile items and all will be sold to the highest bidder.

Mr. Cy Hebert of San Diego, a licensed auctioneer, will donate his services. Proceeds are to be used for the club's various worthwhile charities.

Refreshments will be available under the supervision of Mrs. Markus Schaeffer. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Local Girl Finishes Nurses Training

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown attended the graduation exercises of Class 9 of Vocational Nurses held at La Mesa Jr. High School. Miss Mary Applegate who lives on South Grade Road was one of the 27 graduates, having completed a year of training. A very nice program was presented. Miss Applegate, who was president of her class, presented corsages to the faculty and made a short speech.

After the program, a reception was held and refreshments served. Miss Applegate took her State board examination in Los Angeles last weekend.

New Sale In Alpine

Mrs. Mary V. Garner of Hugh L. McCoy Realty and Mrs. Charlene V. Brown of Alpine La Mesa Realty cooperated on the sale of the Elmer Cooke property consisting of three bedrooms, two baths and family room on one acre, 1531 Alpine Terrace Road.

The sellers are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cooke who have moved to Birmingham, Alabama. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Reed of San Diego. The Reeds have three lovely daughters and they plan to get them a pony or horse. Later on they plan to improve the property with a nice swimming pool.

Mr. Reed is a landscape architect and plans many improvements to their new home.

New Civil Defense And Disaster Plan

A new civil defense and disaster plan is now in effect for the unincorporated areas of the county, having been adopted recently by the Board of Supervisors. The previous zone operations structure has now been replaced by a program establishing 17 "Service Centers" in populous areas.

The new plan was required because of the change from an evacuation policy to that of dispersal of individuals to homes and shelters. "Civil Defense in the unincorporated area must now think in terms of recovery of stricken areas rather than in terms of reception of evacuees," William B. Marty, administrator of the Unified CD Center said.

Identified as Service Centers are the following communities in the county: Alpine, Borrego, Campo, Fallbrook, Jacumba, Julian, Lakeside, Lemon Grove, Pine Valley, Poway, Ramona, Rancho Santa Fe, San Marcos, Spring Valley, Valley Center, Vista, and the coast area from Solana Beach to Leucadia.

Historical Society To Hear Talk

Mrs. Hazel Hohanshelt will address the regular meeting of Alpine Historical Society this Sunday at 2 p.m. The society meets in the Woman's Club and all members are invited to bring along a guest for a most interesting talk by Mrs. Hohanshelt. She will also have many pictures dating back to her early days of teaching here in Alpine, plus many pictures of the school itself and Alpine.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, chairman of the Hospitality Committee will serve refreshments following this program.

Kiwanis Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Alpine Kiwanis Club, a movie entitled Ship of Hope will be shown. This film is brought to us through the courtesy of Bill and Mary Grunhut.

The previously announced ladies night has been postponed. Ladies' night will be scheduled at a later date. Next week's program will feature a most interesting talk by Mr. Harold Jow, a Chinese clergyman who has just returned from Hong Kong and is in much demand as a speaker. Mr. Jow has a fine collection of pictures which he will show in connection with his talk. This will probably be one of the most interesting Kiwanis programs of the year. Don't miss it.

Bert Fuller Appointed To VFW Office

Mr. Bert Fuller has recently been appointed Assistant First District Service Officer for San Diego County VFW, which will take in the whole San Diego County. Mr. Fuller has for many years served the VFW and wishes to take this opportunity of notifying all veterans of his phone number, 445-2484 and the location of his office which is directly across from the Shell Station at the Willows and can be readily seen by the flying flag in front of his home.

Mr. Fuller is available to assist all veterans in this area on such details as insurance, pension, claims, and other pertinent matters.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

If you want an interesting and enlightening experience, go into one of the little photographic booths such as you see in many stores. There is one in Woolworths. I stepped in it the other day just for fun.

You put in a quarter and read the instructions. Look into the mirror, it says. A light flashes and your picture is taken. This happens four times for 25 cents, giving you a second to readjust your pose in between flashes. I looked into the mirror wondering if I should take off my hat, but before I could move the light clicked and the picture was taken. So I just tried to look pleasant for the next three and let it go at that.

In about five minutes the four finished prints popped out and I looked at them in a mixture of horror and amusement. The four shots looked like quadruplets lined up before a firing squad and wearily resigned to being shot. I couldn't stop at that. So I put in another quarter and tried again. This time I sat up firmly concentrating on that sneaky little mirror with a very forthright expression. The result was four lady missionaries determined to save the heathen's souls or feed them to the crocodiles.

All right, I said, I will not accept this verdict either. I will get in that booth and make a decent picture. So now, with the fever of a slot machine gambler, I put in my third quarter. Smile, I told myself grimly. Remembering how I always tell people who face my camera to say "all right." I said all right for two shots and laughed merrily for the next two. Turns out the first two looked like a Cuban spy agreeing to dynamite Civic Center, and the other two victims of laughing gas.

Now I really had the fever. I must try again. I could not lose to that hidden camera. Next time I'd be lucky. But I was out of quarters and when I returned from making change at the nearest counter, another woman was in the booth. It was a San Diego friend of mine who stepped out. We chatted and I decided not to mention my 12 shots as we waited for hers. One glance at them and she stifled a shriek. A mild looking mother of four, the photographs of this woman needed only a number under the chin to brand

Big Turnout For SOS

Dr. John A. Bishop, Chairman of Sabin on Sunday for San Diego County reported 1,060 persons turned out for the polio vaccine program at the Alpine Elementary School on Sunday, October 21. This represents a little over 20 percent of the eligible persons. A total of 280,757 participated in the whole county. This figure is much less than what was expected.

Type I polio vaccine will be available this next Sunday, October 28 and all persons over the age of three months are urged to take advantage of this service. The cost is 25c per persons and the clinic will be held at the same location, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

ALPINE PTA PLANS CARNIVAL ON HALLOWEEN

Look out all you witches, goblins, and spooks! You might get lost in the shuffle of plans for the annual Halloween Carnival.

According to Mrs. Leah McCarty, general chairman for the big event, things are really shaping up nicely and a good time for all is for sure. Starting at 6:30 on the evening of October 31 the game booths and food concessions will open. At 7:30 p.m. the costume parade will take place under the direction of Mrs. Bowler (cash prizes for a boy and girl from each age group).

The game booths will close at 9 o'clock—but don't think this is the end of the evening. A dance will start at 9 p.m. until 11 with live music for your enjoyment. Mrs. Wake is in charge of this part of the celebration.

Food will be served all evening so as you dance up an appetite you can satisfy it with a fine selection of goodies including chili, hot dogs, pie, doughnuts and punch—just to mention a few. Mrs. Norman Foster is chairman for food.

The game booths will include fishpond, fortune teller, darts and balloons, egg toss, penny pitch, baseball pitch and grab-bag.

A new and interesting booth featured this year will be a green thumb booth under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Smith and Jerry Webb. Now that water has come to Alpine all you gardeners can find some real bargains here. All plants will be very low in cost and are eagerly waiting to find a new home in your garden.

A favorite for many years, the cake walk will also take place on the stage and many homemade cakes will be there for your bidding.

Mrs. Clinton will be in charge of showing movies in the kindergarten room. This will give all the goblins a chance to take it easy for a few minutes while viewing some short features fitted for children.

All in all you can plainly see there will be lots of constructive fun on tap at the Alpine PTA Halloween Carnival. As usual, lots of help is needed, too, so since you will be bringing the family why not offer an hour of your time in a booth. Call Mrs. McCarty, at HI 5-3615. She'd love to hear from you.

New Manager Named By C. of C.

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce has named Bill Tragsdorf as their new manager to replace McKie who found it necessary because of his work to resign from the position.

Mr. Tragsdorf assumed his duties this past Monday. He will be in the Chamber office next door to Bailey's Cafe every day Monday through Friday between 1 and 4 p.m. The phone at this office is 445-2722, and Mr. Tragsdorf will be happy to assist Alpine residents as much as possible.

The new manager brings a wealth of experience to his position having been the manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Springfield, Oregon, as well as considerable related business experience.

C of C Expresses Concern About School Situation

The Board of Directors of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting last night at which was discussed the events that have transpired at the last two meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Alpine School District. Many of the members of the Board of Directors stated that they felt that the publicity which has been generated by these events would have an adverse effect on the community. It was felt that the present situation would have a deterring effect on the desire of prospective new residents to make their homes in a community where the school situation was as reported in the County newspapers.

The Board of Directors determined that it was one of the objectives of the Chamber to call attention to adverse conditions in the community and they unanimously adopted a Resolution which reads as follows: "The Alpine Chamber of Commerce is extremely alarmed with the current adverse publicity in connection with the Alpine school situation, and urges the community to take an active interest in resolving this pressing problem."

The Board announced the employment of Mr. Bill Tragsdorf as manager of the Chamber who spoke to the Board members outlining his past experience in connection with Chamber work, and presented suggestions of ways to further the Chamber activities.

Mr. Orville Palmer, a member of the Board and one of the Fire Commissioners of the Alpine Fire District, who had been requested by the Board to obtain information regarding federal aid for installing fire hydrants in the Alpine area, reported on the steps required to make application to the federal agency for such federal aid.

A committee was appointed to contact the residents of the Fire District to determine whether the property owners would support a program of installing the fire hydrants based on obtaining a federal grant for one half of the cost of the work. The committee members are Al Hinkle, Dick Harris, Jack Hoistad, Orville Palmer and Al Adams.

Daylight Saving Time Ends

California will return to standard time on Sunday, October 28 at 2 a.m. At that time clocks will be turned back to 1 a.m. and an extra hour is gained. If you feel a need to get some extra sleep, this will be the day.

The hour of closing for the sale of liquor will not change, however. Bars and liquor stores must close at 2 a.m. even though the clock goes back to 1 a.m.

Dr. Woodall Attends Convention

Dr. Earl Woodall and Mr. Harold Gano left Tuesday for the annual meeting of the California Hospital Association held in Santa Barbara. This convention brings together all California hospital directors and administrators. Dr. Woodall went as a director of the El Cajon Valley Hospital and Mr. Gano as the administrator.

Worldwide, Nationwide And Local Turmoil

Maybe when we realize the seriousness of the worldwide turmoil as exemplified by the Cuban situation, and when we consider the somewhat bitter fight between the various political rivals seeking public office nationally, our local problems may not appear to be stupendous. However, no good can come to any community when one of its institutions as important as the school system is thrown into the confusion that now exists in our school system.

As we have previously reported, our school system has two major problems. The first of which is the lack of funds for the proper operation of an educational program. The second is the rift between certain members of the School Board in regard to the re-employment of the School Superintendent, and the resulting confusion raised among the parents of school children and property owners in the District.

Two events have transpired in the last few days which we hope will lead to a plan for solving this problem in the best possible manner. First, a committee has been formed for the purpose of working with the School Administration and the School Board to endeavor to determine the proper amount of funds required to operate the school system and to obtain a favorable vote for a tax levy that will provide the funds. Second, the Chamber of Commerce has issued a proclamation to the residents of the district stating their concern in the matter and requesting that all of the inhabitants of the district become aware of the situation and lend their aid in solving the problems.

We urge the residents of the school district to heed the request of the Chamber of Commerce and lend their aid in order that the problem will be solved at the earliest possible date.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters must have signature and address, be subject to being condensed and will not be returned. The opinions expressed are the opinions of the writers and may not necessarily reflect the opinions of the Alpine Echo.

Dear Sir:

We people of the Alpine School District are somewhat in a state of shock after the lid came off Pandora's box.

This unsavory situation leaves us weak in the knees and weaker still in the head if we fail to get to the root of this trouble. I wish I had known about the board meeting Monday night. There would have been 111 people there instead of 110.

Let me say, "I think it's high time to call in the laymen and women."

Seems to me that a great many evaluations are in order when our school superintendent is called on the carpet and accused, falsely or otherwise. It is time for a little soul searching on all of our parts. Whom is guilty of what?

Education is a God-given privilege in America. Let's not abuse that privilege.

The schools are temples of knowledge and sacred property dear to all of our hearts. Teachers are dedicated people or so I've always thought. I believe that 99 out of every 100 teachers are morally clean, spiritually true, academically qualified and completely dedicated to their profession. I believe that Supt. Gilley is a dedicated teacher. So far, all the complaints I've read are petty and cheap. They sound like mud slinging politicians or a couple of eight-year olds fighting in the street over a lolly pop. All of our school troubles cannot be laid at the teacher's door.

We, the people of Alpine School District must assume a part of the blame as also the School Board must.

Many of us didn't know of any trouble until we read it in the papers. The School Board did know and they goofed, but good. It would seem that Supt. Gilley's services were satisfactory in the past. Why not now? And why in heaven's name bring up all this dirty laundry now just at the start of school? So far, there are no concrete complaints. I believe that Mr. Gilley is being railroaded and someone is trying to force him to quit under fire. Who could be so cheap? Don't you people realize that you are not only hurting Mr. Gilley, but the children and our schools?

When a thing like this breaks into print, it spreads like a forest fire out of control. The children hear it, they ask questions and how can we answer them wisely when we didn't even smell trouble until it hit the papers. I for one, am ashamed of the way our School Board handled the whole thing. If anyone came to me with such cheap petty charges to bring before the Board, I'd tell them in no uncertain terms that I wouldn't be guilty of such a thing. I think we need a new School Board. This one seems to be playing politics with our schools. It seems quite evident that the Board has not been back of the teachers and is failing our schools.

Betty Miller's statement that she was asked to talk school business over a cocktail or a beer is all the evidence needed to disqualify one man. Mrs. Hattie Campbell's statement and I quote, "Left the Alpine School District because of the unprofessional attitude of the Board took toward the administration and the teachers." I agree with Mrs. Campbell, it is most unprofessional to ask a teacher to talk school shop over a cocktail or a beer. We need some clear, sober thinking and it's high time the people of this district demanded it. It's our teachers and our schools that are being smeared. We have lost good teachers. Are we just going to sit and sip a cocktail and let this kind of thing go on happening? Mr. Gilley should be heard by the C.T.A. and by the people of Alpine District. He should be given every opportunity to defend himself against these petty accusations. None of us are perfect but we can stand up and fight for the right and what is good for our children. Jesus said, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." Not many of us would dare cast that first stone. How would we?

Maybe Mr. Gilley has made a few mistakes. Who hasn't? But the important thing is he has tried. Have we? How much help have we been to our schools and teachers? Before we start down grading a teacher, let us sweep our own door steps. If our School Board knew there was trouble in the making, it was their job to settle it before it made headlines and not wait until school started and then drag it out for airing.

What may we expect of Mr. Gilley for the rest of the term? Can he go on as if it had never happened? Could you, if you were in his place? Do you expect your children to have the respect for our teachers that they had before all this happened? They won't know, and who is to blame?

Now let's take these complaints in the order they were given. No. 1. "He kept trying to get his wife hired in a teaching job. Ans. Is there anything wrong about that? We need all the good teachers we can get and no doubt she is well qualified to teach.

No. 2. "Numerous reports of discourtesy to the public." Ans. I don't believe it. I never saw it or heard of it. What kind of people reported discourtesy? A school superintendent doesn't have to socialize with every Tom, Dick and Harry. He is hired to run a school and did just that.

No. 3. "Gilley fed us informations through a medicine dropper." Ans. Probably because you were such weaklings you couldn't take the full dose. It takes men with a strong backbone to serve on a school board. You can't sit and sip a cocktail and just agree to disagree. Serious problems confront a School Board and these problems must be faced with courage, and determination to do what is best.

No. 4. "Gilley continued to employ a principal against the advice of the Board and the situation meant that he and I were called before the Grand Jury because of conditions at school."

Ans. Well! You came out with a whole skin and was Mr. Gilley anymore to blame for these conditions than you or I?

No. 5. "The superintendent ordered water tanked to save some flowers at Alpine School without authorization." Ans. I'd have done the same thing and so would you for we all take pride in our school property, or we should.

No. 6. "Gilley calls the mileage to Civic Center 70 miles while most Board members notice it is 61 miles. He reports the extra is for side trips?" Ans. Now that's a petty one if I ever heard one. Our speedometer says more than 61 miles. Also, I can understand a school superintendent would quite often find it necessary to make a few side trips. All in the line of duty.

So far you haven't come up with any concrete complaints. Yet you try to smear a man who have given his life to the field of education. What a noble profession.

If you can't come up to it, don't belittle it. Every man and woman in the Alpine School District should re-evaluate themselves and keep ourselves above political mud slinging. I believe Mr. Gilley has done a good job and is worthy of our support. After all, he is operating the schools on a pared down budget because people didn't get out and vote the money to run the schools. You can't cook a meal if you don't have the money to buy the groceries. Neither can you operate a school on a shoe string. Of course it would raise taxes a few dollars but what is a few dollars compared to our children's future? Maybe you are retired and your children are no longer in school. I am retired, too, but I believe in investing in the future generation. If you don't you have got one foot in the grave.

Let's come alive and make Alpine District the best in the county. If we all work together we can do it, but not one alone. "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." I pray these words will fall on receptive ears.

Schrade Reports On Legislation

How to pay for the cost of giving higher education to our gifted California students raises some tough legislative problems. As a state, we cannot afford to neglect them, because we urgently need their brains and ability, developed to the highest potential. Yet the question of state support by way of scholarships to students in colleges of their choice, private or public, is a knotty one, and is certain to come before us again in 1963.

A subcommittee of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Education held a recent meeting, at which possible legislation for improvement in our present system of scholarships was discussed. Appearing at the session were spokesmen for the independent college association, the state college system, and the state scholarship commission.

California began its system of college scholarships in 1955. The scholarship commission was set up to pick the recipients. Grants are limited to the costs of fees and tuition, and are based on the need and ability of the student. The top grant was fixed at $600 per year prior to 1960, $900 since then. Including renewals, the legal maximum of 3200 scholarships were awarded for 1961-62. About two-thirds go to students at independent colleges, about 30 percent to those at the University, and the remainder to those at state colleges.

The subcommittee was interested in hearing the priorities the educational authorities would set as to various alternative proposals for improvement in the system, as a guide for action at the 1963 Legislature. Among these alternatives are (1) raising the maximum of the grant; (2) providing grants for the cost of board and room; (3) giving fellowships for graduate study; and (4) establishing a student loan system.

As to the first, witnesses said that tuition costs are rising fast, so that the percentage of tuition covered by scholarships has fallen by an average of about 10 percent in the last five years. One recommendation for a change in this

A group of 70 teenagers have been invited from this area and among other halloween games there will be a scavenger hunt.

Mrs. Elna Bratt will assist the hostesses with serving the young people refreshments after the activities are finished.

The Gamma Gamma Sorority will meet this evening for their regular project night at the home of Marion Wickens, at which time work will be done on the various charity activities of the sorority. The women of the group wish to announce they now have available fancy cans of Cherrydale Farms candy, which may be bought and proceeds will go towards the charity affiliations of the sorority. If anyone is interested in having a box of this delicious candy, you may contact any member or call Elna Bratt, 445-2215.

CAMPO

By FAY FARRIS

Members of the Lake Morena Woman's Club enjoyed a most unusual party on Tuesday evening, Oct. 16, at the Stone House in Campo, where Bee Boyd, Daisy McCoy, and Bobbie Hasenmaier were hostesses. It was a hobo party, and everyone came dressed for the occasion—mostly in ragged coveralls, shirts pinned with safety pins, whiskers penciled on their faces, ragged shoes, and one with a wig. Irish stew, hot biscuits, apple pie and coffee were served for dinner, on tables covered with newspapers, sprinkled with dry leaves, with artificial bugs scattered about. Large branches or bushes were placed around the room to make it look like the outdoors. After dinner everyone gathered around the piano and sang appropriate songs accompanied on the piano by Bee Boyd, after which cards were played.

The Lake Morena Card Club met at the home of Fay Farris in Lake Morena on Wednesday, Oct. 17, and the following were present: Gwen Leach, Margaret Rolland, Marie Martin, Gertrude Haskell, Jane Ham, Helen Smyth, Lydia Nesbitt and the hostess. Marie Martin and Fay Farris had high scores.

The Liquid Embroidery Class met for the second time at the Farris home in Lake Morena on Thursday, Oct. 18. The representative of the "Tri Chem" paints was present to teach the art of painting roses, and she will meet again with the group on the third Thursday of November at the same place. She will teach the group how to make and paint small Christmas trees at this gathering. The time is 10 a.m. to 3:30 and everyone brings his sack lunch. A hostess is appointed each time to serve dessert and coffee at the next meeting.

The Sabin Polio clinic was held at the Mt. Empire High School Auditorium in Campo on Sunday, Oct. 21, under the supervision of Al Acerno and Beverly McClendon, with the Homemakers Club acting as hostesses. Another clinic will be held at the same place on Sunday, Oct. 28. Clinic will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Everyone, regardless of age, is urged to take this Sabin oral vaccine, and the charge is only 25c per dose.

Mr. Empire Woman's Club hodge-podge was held at the Pine Valley Clubhouse instead of the Pine Valley Fire Department quarters on Saturday, Oct. 20. A luncheon was also served, and was prepared by Catherine Hadley.

Congressman James Utt met with the Mt. Empire Republican Woman at their headquarters in Pine Valley on Saturday, Oct. 20. He was there to meet the public all afternoon, and was entertained at a luncheon at the Hobart House at noon by the Republican women. He also gave a very fine talk.

The Homemakers Review that was presented at the Mt. Empire High School at Campo on Oct. 12 was repeated at the Pine Valley Clubhouse on Saturday evening, Oct. 20 under the sponsorship of the Mt. Empire Woman's Club and the Homemakers. A few changes were made and one of them was the square dance which was given by the Pine Valley firemen, instead of the little tots from Campo. The finale was also changed. A large crowd attended, and the show was well received.

The Martha Circle of the WSCS of the Community Chapel of the Hills met with Mrs. Turbese Fiske at Laubach Literacy, Inc., and Project Amigos headquarters in Tijuana, Mexico October 17.

The group took car loads of clothing, bedding, furniture and miscellaneous items to one of the various buildings to be sorted and stored for the needy. They visited another building where Mrs. Fiske and her mother, Mrs. Frances De Kalb, live and have three classrooms. In another building there is to be a clinic which is now in the process of rehabilitation. They also visited the school and sat in a class.

Each one took their own sack lunch and every car took many gallons of that precious commodity, water.

The Martha Circle has taken this work as its project and contributes to its regularly. But I am told that many more hands and dollars are needed to further this "Hands Across the Border" project.

Mrs. Echo Adkins is leaving this week for Oakland to visit her daughter, Mrs. Edith Land and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She plans to spend the holidays with her family in the northern part of the state. We wish her a happy time.

Katherine Fischer left Monday for a visit with her son and daughter in Sacramento. She drove so that she could have her own car to go where she wanted, when she wanted she told me.

Mrs. Ray Dalen was hostess to the Forest Service wives at a salad luncheon at her home at the Descanso Ranger Station last Wednesday.

Don and Jody Perkins have a new baby daughter, Diane Lee, born Sunday, Oct. 21, weighs 5 lb. 9 oz. We all welcome this little one and best wishes to Mother Perkins.

PINE VALLEY

By JANE ORBOM

This has been a very busy week in our valley. The teenage birthday party last Friday was a huge success with their seven-foot torpedo sandwich which approximately 50 young people enjoyed. Saturday, the Mountain Empire Women's Club held their hodge-podge in the clubhouse, starting at 10 a.m. Just a few minutes later, Congressman James Utt arrived at the Republican Headquarters for an inspiring and informative talk to a large group. At 12 he was guest of honor at a luncheon at Hobart House. Then all returned to headquarters for another speech, followed by a question and answer period. At 8:15 p.m. the curtain went up on the Homemaker's Revue with a large crowd in attendance. So all in all it was a long, but most interesting day. Sunday several car loads of Pine Valley residents drove over to Mt. Empire High School for Sabin-on-Sunday polio shots. I was number 351 receiving a cup. How could anyone be bored with so many activities?

Harry Zimmerman is in Utah on a hunting trip. He and his group always bring back their limit.

Dale and Mary Gowdy drove over to Death Valley last week and on their return found that at least seven windows had been broken in the bicycle rental building by young hoodlums.

Bill and Nell Jones came in from Texas to visit friends and neighbors. When they arrived at the Roes they all decided to take a trip to Oregon. So off they went to enjoy each other and see the sights. Grandmother Roe is staying in Los Angeles while Gratus and Lois are away.

Jay Vander Schel, the Forest Service Prevention Patrolman, fell last Friday and broke a bone in his foot. The only consolation he has is that now he can be with his lovely daughter all day while he is forced to stay home.

Maisy Houck drove to Phoenix with her guest, Mrs. John Jones, they stopped in Yuma to spend the night with Judge and Mrs. McQuire, then persuaded Mrs. McQuire to accompany them, so the three could get in more visiting. They arrived for the 62nd wedding anniversary of Maisy's parents. Maisy returned home Thursday, says she is just about talked out.

The Ed Orboms have sold their home on Spring Road to the Winklemans. "Wink" is the California Highway Patrolman assigned to Pine Valley. They have two boys and a girl already enrolled in our schools.

The fire in the storeroom at the Evans last week did about $3000 damage. Thanks to our alert firemen they kept it from getting to the house, and spreading into the brush.

Better Than Mixes

Caramel Cake

Cream half cup butter, sift in gradually two cups brown sugar and beat together until light and creamy. Beat in four egg yolks, one at a time. Sift together one and a half cups sifted cake flour and one and a half teaspoons baking power. Beat these sifted ingredients into the butter mixture alternately with quarter cup milk. Add two tsp. vanilla and, if desired, one cup chopped nut meats. Whip four egg whites until stiff but not dry, beat into them half tsp. salt and fold gently into the cake batter.

Bake the cake in two greased eight-inch layer-cake pans in a 375 degree oven for about 20-25 minutes. Remove the layers from the pans to a cake rack to cool. Frost the layers and assemble.

Caramel Nut Frosting

Combine two cups brown sugar and one cup light cream. Stir until the sugar is dissolved and boil the mixture, without stirring to the soft-ball stage (238 degrees). Add three tbsps. butter, remove the syrup from the fire, and let it cool. Then add one tsp. vanilla and beat until the frosting is thick and creamy. Should it become too heavy for easy spreading, thin it with a little cream. Stir in quarter cup chopped nutmeats.

Waldorf Chocolate Cake

For best results do not substitute any of the ingredients and follow directions closely.

Cream quarter pound butter and two cups sifted sugar (half cup at a time), add four oz. melted chocolate that has been slightly cooled, add two beaten whole eggs, sift two cups all-purpose flour with two tsp. baking powder, add alternately with one and a half cups milk and two tsp. vanilla and half cup chopped nut meats.

Frosting

Melt two oz. chocolate, add one cup powdered sugar and two tbsps. hot water, mix well, then add one at a time, two eggs and beat well after each egg. Add one-eighth tsp. salt, one tsp. lemon juice and quarter pound butter softened, and powdered sugar to right consistency.

This time of year most plants are starting their resting period and as the chrysanthemums are taking over and putting on their fall show, this would be a good time to get some interesting succulents started for hanging pots and baskets to bring some of your garden into the house.

One succulent vine is the Heart-vine, a small heart shaped leaf and tiny dark flowers. Once it is established it will grow yards long, so cut it back to where you want it and start other plants from the cuttings. The Mistletoe cactus is another dainty cactus which grows in a pendant manner, small flowers and mistletoe like berries. The Burrotail is a splendid subject for a hanging pot. It likes some moisture and not much sun, a great grower. Pink chain is another dainty trailing succulent. Rice cactus is another somewhat trailing type cactus. Peperomia is a succulent trailing vine, comes in variegated cream and green leaves and of course, the Christmas cactus is an old favorite for hanging pots. It can also be trained into a standard (tree form) which takes a deal of patience to do.

Now all these cacti like a loose soil, equal parts loam coarse river sand and peat moss. Try these few and you will soon want to add to your collection. Keep the soil damp, but not too wet.

grant was that it be put on a sliding scale, so as to give students of the future about the same comparative grant as in the past, despite any increase in costs.

As to subsistence grants, it was pointed out that the approved Master Plan for Higher Education calls for these. A bill to provide them was introduced in 1961, but not acted on. The scholarship commission recommended that they be provided, since an estimated 60 percent of award winners need them.

Scholarships, or "fellowships" for graduate students, also drew considerable support. It was said that graduate study is becoming more and more the level at which leadership personnel is identified and trained.

The hearing made clear that some major improvements in our scholarship program are necessary, if the state is to benefit fully from the educational resources of all its independent and public colleges. Just what is to be done will be a major topic at our next session.

officers at last Friday's meeting. Mr. Auren Pierce was chosen to be chairman of the group, Mr. E. L. Freeland to be vice-chairman, and Mrs. Mary Alice Griggs was chosen to be secretary-treasurer.

The name Progress Committee was adopted as the name of the group.

The Committee adopted the following objectives: 1. The retention of Mr. Clyde Gilley as superintendent of the Alpine School District for the next year for the purpose of operating the school under the budget determined to be required. 2. To confer with the School Administration and the School Board during the preparation of the school budget. 3. To support an election to request the tax increase which is determined to be necessary to obtain the proper school budget. 4. To support candidates qualified to carry out the program determined to be necessary.

The chairman of the Committee, Auren Pierce, appointed a sub-committee for the purpose of conferring with the School Administration and to sit in on the preparation of the budget. This sub-committee is composed of Chairman Auren Pierce, Mary Alice Griggs, Hazel Foster, Al Adams and Jack Hoistad.

Another sub-committee, composed of Irene Pipes, Virgie M. Presley, and Jack Hoistad, was appointed to confer with members of School Board to find out whether Dr. Hardesty had been asked to form the committee that the School Board had voted unanimously to request.

The Progress Committee adjourned until last Monday evening to hear from the sub-committee which was to find out about the Hardesty committee. Mr. Jack Hoistad reported that School Board Chairman John Reynolds advised the committee that Dr. Hardesty had not been requested to form a committee and he had nothing to discuss with the members of the committee on this subject.

The members of the Progress Committee are: Chairman Auren M. Pierce, Vice-Chairman E. L. Freeland, Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Mary Alice Griggs, Mrs. Virgie M. Presley, Mrs. Hazel Foster, Mr. Norman Foster, Mrs. Renee Adams, Mr. Al Adams, Mrs. Irene Pipes, Mr. Fred Rushing, Mr. M. F. Cooper, Miss Margaret Lowthian, Mrs. Jeanne Pierce, Mr. Jack E. Hoistad, Mr. Stuart Day and Mr. Zane Dana.

Back she plunged into the booth to try again. And again we waited for the results as she told me she had tried to look especially high-minded. In the first of the next four, one of her eyes was crossed, in one a lip was curled, and in two she wore a nasty sneer. Declaring this thing had to be conquered, she tried another quarter and came up with a quartet of expressions which made her a candidate for a sanity test.

After squandering another quarter apiece, we decided the thing was rigged. Like those con games at carnivals; you can't win but you have to keep trying. We couldn't possibly look like those pictures. Still, it makes you wonder, and laugh at yourself, and both are good for us all.
