UNIFICATION OPPOSED BY ALPINE BOARD

RESOLUTION ADOPTED GIVING REASONS FOR OPPOSITION

At their regular monthly meeting last Monday night the Board of Trustees of the Alpine Union School District unanimously adopted a resolution opposing unification of the Alpine Union School District with the other elementary school districts within the Grossmont High School District to form a unified school district.

The resolution set forth a number of reasons for opposing unification at this time and states that the Board desires to continue the present local district organizational system for the Alpine School District.

Prior to the adoption of the resolution, Mr. John Willson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Dehesa School District, stated to the Board of Trustees that representatives of the Boards of Trustees of the Barrett School District, Dehesa School District, Dulzura School District, and Jamul-Las Flores School District had had two meetings to discuss the question of unification and after a thorough discussion each of these Districts had adopted a resolution opposing unification at this time and stating their reasons therefor.

A representative from the Alpine School District had been invited to these meetings but had been unable to attend.

Mr. Willson explained the reasons set forth in the resolutions for their opposition to unification and discussed with the members of the Alpine Board the similarity of the four districts which had gone on record opposing unification with the Alpine District.

Trustee Fred Rushing who had attended a meeting conducted by other school districts within the Grossmont High School District stated that he agreed with the reasons for opposing unification at this time and that the matter

CofC Board Sets Annual Dinner

The Board of Directors of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night and approved plans for the annual dinner meeting which will be held at the auditorium in the Alpine School on Saturday, January 18, 1964.

The dinner had previously been set by the Board to be held on December 7th, but due to the mourning period for the late President Kennedy and the coming holidays, the dinner was postponed and the committee of Member Corky Jones and Director Orville Palmer was instructed to obtain information regarding the possible time and place for the dinner.

The committee has made arrangements for the dinner and for the installation of the new officers who are traditionally installed at this meeting.

A communication was read from the County Planning Department and County Surveyor Department advising the Chamber that a new master County road plan for the County was being prepared and that a presentation would be made of its preliminary draft on Friday, December 13, and requesting that the Chamber send representatives to obtain information re-

"Light, the Symbol of Christmas" will be the theme for the annual Christmas concert presented by the El Capitan Choral Music Department on Thursday, December 19th at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The Bel Canto Choir will set the mood for the evening with a candlelight procession followed by an original reading by Alumna guest, Lisa Baecht, soprano, winner of last year's Golden Quartet award. Miss Baecht will also sing "Ave Maria" by Gounod.

The school's five choral groups will participate with the choir singing "Gloria Patri" by Palestrina, led by student director, Diana Karabotsos, "The Drummer Boy" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah." The Madrigal Singers will offer "The Holly and the Ivy," "Dixit Maria," and "Jesu Bambino," with Tom Price as bass soloist. The Madrigal girls will sing a special arrangement of "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" and "Balulalow" from "The Ceremony of Carols" with Dorothy Carlton, soprano soloist.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

It's here again, that season when bells ring in our heads and we see red and green and tinsel, and silly looking reindeers and far too many Santa Clauses, and tired, tired, tired people weaving their way through the shops with the look of over-worked adding machines in their eyes. We know they are mentally checking off their Christmas gift lists and trying desperately to balance it with their bank accounts. Each year it seems more and more people determine to simplify Christmas. We hear more sober declarations of sending fewer cards, fewer gifts, drinking and eating less, going to fewer parties. Yet in the end most of us go right ahead and take on the same over-load as we did last year and the years before that.

When it gets to this point isn't it past time to take a good look at what's happening to the Christmas spirit? Seems to me it's being seriously strained when what it

Vandals Sought In Deerhorn Area

Anyone having information, license number, or knowing whether it carried an out-of-state license or not, on a '54 Ford, blue 2-door station wagon with primer paint spots on it, is asked to please convey this information to Mike Wiman or to the Deerhorn Valley Lodge.

The car was seen in Deerhorn Valley last Sunday between noon and 3 p.m. with several young occupants, apparently intoxicated. They were driving at excessive speeds in a reckless manner and dragging on the roads in the central and Monte Robles Acres area and on Joe Eaton's ranch. These youths also effected acts of vandalism on Mike Wiman's ranch.

Part of Hiway 80 East to Open Soon

Barring unforeseen difficulties, the uphill section of the Mountain Springs grade project on U. S. 80 (Interstate 8) in the vicinity of the San Diego-Imperial County Line, will be opened to traffic Wednesday, December 11. This new ten-mile section of freeway which extends from the joint County line to State Sign Route 98 was completed by the Isbell Construction Company of Reno, Nevada.

J. Dekema, Assistant State Highway Engineer in San Diego, stated that the project will provide two lanes of an ultimate three-lane westbound facility for the uphill traffic, which will eliminate long lines behind slow moving vehicles. The new section of freeway is in Devil's Canyon and separated from the existing downhill roadway which lies about 1½ miles south.

Isbell Construction Company will start a parallel project in this area to straighten and widen existing U. S. 80 to two of an ultimate downhill three-lane east-bound facility, the beginning of 1964.

Dekema stated that temporary connections will serve from the existing road to the new work until the freeway construction on the eastbound lanes is completed.

The project will result in a time savings to the motorists by decreasing the present length and by the elimination of congestion caused by the extreme curvature of the existing roadway. There will also be a considerable increase in safety.

ANNUAL ALPINE CHURCH BAZAAR ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS

Once more the ladies of the Alpine Community Congregational Church have made a success of their annual Christmas bazaar. Held in Fuller Hall Saturday, December 7, the bazaar realized a nice profit from the several booths represented, and from the luncheon served at noon.

Among items made especially for the sale, by the local women, were fruit cakes, and other baked goods, such as cookies, cakes, fruit breads, jams, jellies, pickles and candies; a variety of dainty and useful needle work articles, aprons, pillow cases, luncheon sets, dish towels and other such items; lovely wreaths made of nuts, cones and seeds, were fashioned by Ferne Latham, who also made impressive large candles; there were also corsages, and some beautiful cut flowers. The very popular White Elephant table was a large section of the bazaar where many unusual items were offered for sale, from antique saddle brushes, to modern what-nots, dishes, books, old phono-

Students to Have Work Opportunity

Students of Grossmont Union High School District's seven schools will be excused from classes between December 16-20, the final week before Christmas vacation, to work during the pre-Christmas period, Mrs. Virginia Clapp, work experience coordinator announced today. A student over 16 with a job and a work permit may submit to the counseling office of his high school a request for an excuse. This is checked with his teachers for a report on his progress and his conduct. His attendance record is checked. If all three—progress, Continued on Page 6

Sights & Sounds Of Our Town

BY BETTY ISAACS

In the last week, I found much to my surprise, that a person could satisfy all their Christmas shopping needs right here in Alpine and come up with a bag any "Santa" would be proud to have filled.

If this sounds slightly commercial, I truly don't intend it to be so. What I found for those bags was by merely scratching the surface and with more time I'm sure it would be absolutely amazing the many more things to be found.

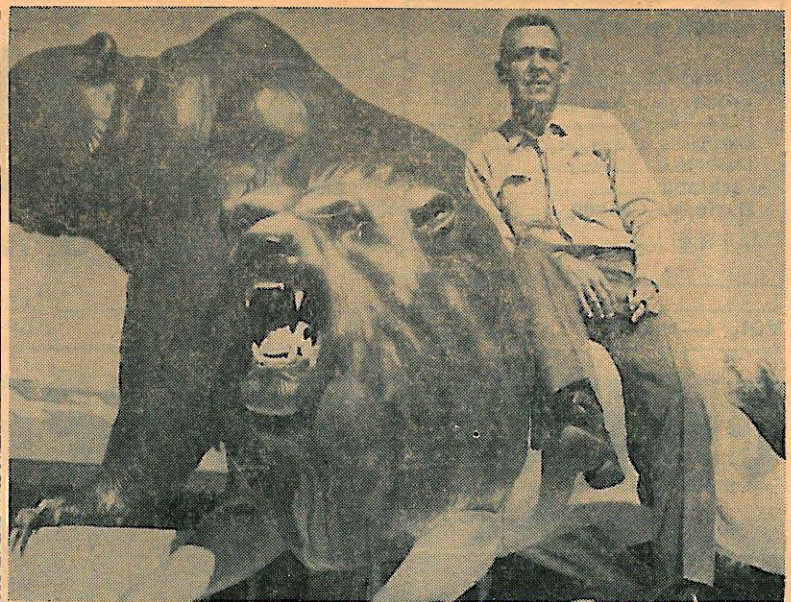

So, with a quick, but sometimes necessary, stop at our Security Bank, away we go. First down Arnold Way to Pine Acres Nursery in search of a live Christmas tree. Having found one, let's start filling that bag with gifts. Knowing Alpine has more than its share of talented artists, how about a painting. One by Mrs. Jean McCullough, South Grade Road would seem especially appropriate because of her various picturesque local scenes.

What little girl wouldn't love one of the hand made wooden cradles I found in the rather new shop next to the Alpine Cleaners? They range in sizes for a small doll on up to ones for actual use in a nursery. Also noticed some beautiful redwood jewelry boxes in the window. I understand pillows and coverlets for the cradles are also available.)

Happen to have a book lover on your list? How about Bea La Force's new mystery novel "The Sound of Hasty Footsteps." This I know cannot be bought here in Alpine, but a more "native" product of our town couldn't be found. Hunter's Book Store in Grossmont Center, La Jolla Book Shop and Vroman's in San Diego are featuring this intriguing novel, however, any such shop could order it for you.

On down the list we come to animal lovers. For a gift that you can love and treasure year after year which returns that love also, what about a dog. Wonder how many know we have right here in our town breeders of some of the finest dogs in the whole country, Lamarde Perro Kennels, Alpine

Fiberglass Menagerie Display Now Touring South and Midwest

Jim Rorie, owner and operator of the Fiberglass Menagerie Company of Alpine, is due to return home this week from a selling tour through Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arizona.

The picture shown with this article was taken in

Queen of Angeles Christmas Services

Rev. Thomas A. Bolten announces that there will be a special Novena of prayers to the Holy Spirit in preparation for the Great Feast of Christmas immediately after the 8 a.m. Mass each day from Dec. 16 to Dec. 24 consisting of Rosary-Benediction and special prayers to the Holy Spirit. At the end of the Novena a High Mass will be sung on Christmas Eve at midnight. Two Masses will follow on Christmas Day. One at 10 a.m. and another at 5 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend any of these services.

Those Catholics who wish to enjoy the privilege of going to Confession may avail themselves on Monday, Dec. 23 from 4 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. and on Tuesday, Dec. 24 from 4 to 5 p.m. only.

He also wishes the Peace of Christ to rest on all those who cannot possibly avail themselves of these services during this Holy season.

When Jim leaves Alpine on one of his selling trips he has a complete selection of the 14 different models produced in the Alpine shop. All the animals are life-size and included are African lions, grizzly bears, horses, elk, deer, and the usual steers. The display is carried on Jim's pickup truck and a flat-bed trailer, and create a great deal of interest wherever they go. According to the Pampa paper the owners of the motel at which Jim stayed in that community estimated that more than 100 cars stopped to look at this unusual display of life-size animals.

According to Mildred Rorie, a black and white horse was sold by Jim in New Orleans which will be used by the purchaser in a display for the Mardi Gras in that city. The animals are purchased in the most by city parks, playgrounds, steak houses, motels and many other commercial establishments.

Church Programs To Honor Seals

Christmas Seal Sunday will be observed throughout the county on Sunday, Dec. 15, when more than 57 church pastors use program covers, provided by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of San Diego County, for their services.

Alpine Community Church will participate.

The program is blank except for the reproduction of four Seals at the bottom and a community health message seeking support of the annual Christmas Seal Campaign on the back.

Mrs. George C. Jessop, Jr., chairman of the county-wide appeal, said Christmas Seals make possible year-round research and educational work directed against TB and related respiratory diseases.

"Most of the money we raise in the county is expected here," Mrs. Jessop said, and the remainder is used to improve the tools with which we work.

"Our appeal for support is made only by mail and it is directed to individuals in their homes. We urge all to respond now," she said.

DEERHORN VALLEY

By ROY WALLIN

More "liquid gold" showed upon our valley the early part of this week, the ground's soaked and the grass is green—now, we await the longer and heavier rains that will set the creeks burbling and fill our ponds and lakes, remember, the winter of '63-64 will be known as the year of the big rain.

With sadness in our hearts we note the passing of Miss Hazel Schiller, 59, last week of a heart condition. She was a frequent visitor to Bratton Valley Ranch, and almost a daily visitor, with her mother, to the San Diego Zoo, where several of our neighbors here on the hill, employed as keepers, passed a few pleasant moments in conversation daily. Hazel was the daughter of Mrs. Leo (Rose) Schiller, and the niece of Charlie Bratton our local old-timer, co-owners of Bratton Valley Ranch. Your community's sincerest condolences to you both.

It seemed like old times with Henry "Hank" Aldridge, formerly of our valley and presently of Descanso visiting us this past weekend. We miss his "Cat" chugging around our mountain roads, and his dust-blackened face, broken only by the whites of his eyes and his wide grin. Hank mentioned that he'd be back in a few weeks to catch up on bulldozing work that's piled up for him in our area in his absence.

Also gracing our community this past weekend with her presence was Mrs. Martha Krause, co-owner of Deerhorn Valley Ranch, and her houseguest, Willi Kehret, originally of Germany and recently of Vancouver, British Columbia. They sprechized a little Deutche with the Jr. Mrs. Evans, which added a little homelike atmosphere to her visit to Deerhorn Valley. Mr. Kehret has been sailing as an electrician for the past year or two on various merchantmen to save sufficient money to tour our country in his auto, and then visit Germany, Australia, and Hawaii. The Pageant of the Shepherds and the Kings, annual Christmas play of the Nativity, will be presented for the 11th consecutive performance on Sunday evening, December 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the Alpine Community Congregational Church.

Mary will be played by Helen Cost who has been in the pageant each time from its first production when she played one of the littlest angels. Her sister, Carol who will play Elizabeth this time, has also been in each production since she too, began as one of the littlest angels. Joseph is played by Chrales Sylvas, who was Gabriel last year, while Gabriel will be played by Ray Partridge jr. who was Joseph last year. Lynn Rathbun who was Mary for the two previous years, will be the singing angel this time.

Mrs. Cost again directs the music, Dr. Larson reads the scripture story and Bea La Force again directs the play. The community is cordially invited to attend.

MOHAMMED AND THE MOUNTAIN

The mountain would not come to Mohammed so Mohammed went to the mountain.

Mountains are a stubborn lot. But so are some people. If Mohammed had been as stubborn as the mountain, the two of them would never have gotten together.

All self-respecting mountains have a name and depending on the name, they are either very proud or thoroughly ashamed of it.

Proud is the mountain whose name has been bestowed because of honorable reasons; such as, a mountain named for a famous explorer or early settler, but sad indeed is the plight of a mountain named for a calamity or disaster.

A case at hand deals with the stately mountain which has a name bearing on its history in which it played a vitally important role in the lives of the ancient inhabitants that lived in its area. It is apparent to all who view this mountain, whether it be in sunshine or rain, in times of war or peace, prosperity or depression, that the mountain is proud of its name and the role that it played with its friends since time immemorial.

Comes now those who would try to persuade this mountain to change its proud name from one that clearly proclaims to the world its past honorable existence to a name that does not have the slightest connection to its past, present or future life. We all know that mountains live on and on and watch many generations of frail human beings come and go, and remain stubborn.

Just as the mountain would not go to Mohammed, we believe it would be impossible to persuade this mountain to adopt a new name.

We are referring to Viejas Mountain.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

needs is replenishment. As I see it, once a year is now too often to go through this so-called festivity. Long ago, yet not so long ago that most adults of voting age cannot remember easily enough, there was some sense in this annual binge. There were fewer entertainments throughout the year. We worked and saved, and lived modestly, and shopped infrequently, and celebrated a few special holidays in an unlavish manner. Now every week has some gala to which we must give something of ourselves and our substance. We are kept busy all year long buying and selling tickets to countless benefits, wrapping and sending gifts for every manner of reason. There's no let up at all. So when Christmas comes at the end of the year it's no wonder we find our enthusiasm weak for a final big festival.

Christmas, or the Celebration of the Nativity, was not one of the Feasts of the early Christian church. Observance of birthdays was condemned as a heathen custom repugnant to Christians. In the last of the second and first of the third centuries, Clement of Alexandria held the first Christmas celebration of which there is any record. The name for the day in English dates from the 11th Century when it was called Cristes Maesse. The English frequently call it Yuletide as well as Christmas, though scholars have not found an acceptable explanation for the name. The Puritans used to ridicule the celebration of Christmas in England by calling it "Footide" in burlesque of "Yuletide."

As I listened to the old Christmas Hymns and carols flowing through the shops the other day, I wondered what the early celebrants of the Nativity, to whom it was entirely a Holy Day, would feel if they could come suddenly upon the scene and hear their songs so broadcast. English carols and French songs were first sung in honor of Christmas in the 13th Century and from all I can find out they were as often sung on street corners as in churches. So perhaps those ghosts of Christmas past would not be outraged at all. The first hymn for the Nativity was written in the Fourth Century.

Some people argue that the annual year end festival is as old as mankind and whether religious or not, must be carried on. But in its beginning, the tribes did not celebrate any except their spring and winter solstice. Now our constant state of Festival, with its dinners, parades, and obligatory public meetings defeats this once-a-year-date. No, I do not think we should abolish Christmas. I love Christmas—all its sights, and sounds, and smells, and the spirit that somehow shines through with many people in spite of the weariness. But couldn't we cut down on some of the between season doings? I'd like to see us live a simpler, less celebration saddled existence throughout the year so that we could really have the strength and appetite for the big annual holiday.

Dear sir:

With a great deal of pleasure, I wish to use this means to express the opinions of the 55 people in all walks of life, that I have contacted about the article in the Alpine Sun, Dec. 6, 1963 issue, stating "Viejas to be Mt. Kennedy?" Here are the facts I came up with, 53 of the 55 persons that I contacted to date, December 9, are utterly opposed to changing the name of Viejas. Only two have approved it. I was very surprised at the many fine reasons that these people had for keeping Mt. Viejas as it.

I do hope this information will benefit all Alpiners who are concerned about this matter. I will gladly give anyone the complete details on this article, if they will contact me.

Sincerely,
Edward J. Brandt

WILMA JOYCE ARBALLO

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) for Mrs. Wilma Joyce Arballo, 31, who was killed when her car plunged into a canyon off Sunrise Highway, north of Laguna Lodge, last Monday, December 9.

Mrs. Arballo, a waitress at the Pine House, was for five years the owner of a cafe in Solana Beach. She had been a resident of San Diego County since 1958 and a California resident for 28 years. She was a native of Fletcher, Oklahoma. Mrs. Arballo resided at 582 Sunrise Highway in Mt. Laguna, where her husband is employed at Mt. Laguna Lodge.

Survivors include her husband, Robert T. Arballo; a daughter, Deborah, 11; a son, Steven, 9; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hollingsworth of San Diego, and a sister, Mrs. Imogene Morgan, also of San Diego.

Mrs. Arballo served as piano accompanist for the children's choir of the Community Presbyterian Church in Mt. Laguna and was a member of the Mt. Laguna Parents and Patrons Club.

Services were held in Goodbody's Ivy Chapel with Rev. Harris E. Lidstrand of the Assembly of God Church of National City officiating. Interment followed at Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery.

Local Developer Featured Speaker At Deerhorn Valley Civic Club

After calling the monthly meeting of the Deerhorn Valley Civic Club to order last Friday, President Walter "Jim" Wolfe called for a moment of silence to mourn the passing of former President of the United States, John F. Kennedy, and Miss Hazel Schiller, daughter of Mrs. Leo Schiller and niece of Mr. Charles Bratton of Bratton Valley Ranch.

The president then introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. Paul Haughey, Jr., developer of Barrett Lake Estates, a $35,000,000 recreational community development. Mr. Haughey pointed out the dire need for the strength of a united effort when we are faced with a national calamity or disaster such as the assassination of President Kennedy or the infamous attack on Pearl Harbor 22 years ago last Saturday. This need for understanding and united effort on a national scale was compared to the same needs in this community. Mention was made of the economy of the community being dependent upon its ingress, egress, utilities, etc.; and the obvious growth of Deerhorn Valley with its road, power, and telephonic progress. He expressed the community's fortune in the road connecting Highways 80 and 94, and eventually the South Bay area, being renovated, almost completed, and passing through the area. He further stated that landowners are now being contacted by the county to obtain permission to cut high banks causing blind curves on the road from Bratton Valley east to the Monte Robles area. The decomposed granite, thus acquired, will be used in final preparation of the renovated Honey Springs Road prior to blacktopping.

Mr. Haughey further mentioned that he plans to continue his road to connect to Barrett Lake Road in one to two years, and also that the county plans to renovate Lyons Valley Road in the next three to six years. The speaker was distressed by the fact that in speaking to Mr. Theo Yakel of the County Building Department, who has been working with the community on the road-naming problems, he had been informed that telephone threats had been made by anonymous persons to Mr. Yakel. This surprised and shocked the membership.

The road-naming issue was discussed. A question was asked regarding the thoroughness of the circulation of the Haughey et al petition requesting the name Honey Springs Road, and clarification was made of the document the students of Monden High School, El Cap's sister school in Hiroshima, will be sung by the Girls' Glee Club. The Mixed Chorus will sing a Spanish carol in the native language and a note of gaiety will be added by the Girls Ensemble in "Silver Bells." The combined groups will assist Richard Bond, baritone, in "O Holy Night" by Adam.

A memorial anthem, "In Solemn Silence" will be sung by the choir in honor of the late President. John F. Kennedy. Incidental solos will be sung by Cheri Miller, Greg White, Mike Shepherd and Sandi Patience. Accompanists for the program are Susan Carpenter, Linda Tyler, Charles Lindquist, and Carol Varner. The program will be directed by Mrs. Angela C. Marshall.

"Last year's audience was so impressed by the beauty and inspiration of the program," says Mrs. Richard Naylor, President of the Choral Parents Club, "that many have asked that it be repeated." The public is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Woman's Club Holds Christmas Party

Members of the Alpine Woman's Club enjoyed a wonderful Christmas party at their Club House, December 10. After the regular meeting, conducted by President, Mrs. H. W. Johnson, Music Program Chairman, Mrs. Lenore Lusk presented a reading in her very dramatic resonant voice, in the spirit of Christmas holidays, entitled, "The Carpenter Went His Way."

Following was Mrs. Lusk's arrangement of Christmas songs with all Club members participating under the lead of Mrs. Marcus Schaeffer, Mrs. Judy Ellis and Mrs. B. L. Barrett. Next came the three talented accordionists from La Mesa with Christmas melodies. Two solos by the beautiful accordionist, Lynne Singleton were received with much applause.

When Ronnie Gleason played his solo of "Holy Night," the melodious bass tones were brought out like a professional and the highlight of the program was when the youngest member of the group brought down the house with her playing and singing of a fun song entitled, "I'm Getting Nuttin' for Christmas."

After the trio's closing number of "Jingle Bells," Santa Claus entered with his, rather "her," Ho-Ho-Ho, since it was LaDonna Muhlhauser dressed as Santa, and gave out gifts to all attending.

The afternoon closed with most delicious refreshments being served by Hostesses, Meses. E. J. Orbon, Harry Colby, Hollis Mancil, J. C. LaForce and Miss Margaret Lowthian.

The lovely home of Mrs. Hank Moxey, Alpine Heights Road, was the scene Thursday of a gathering of PTA board members, room mothers, and several other guests in honor of Mrs. Paul C. Clay, wife of the Alpine District Superintendent of Schools. Mrs. Moxey was hostess of the get-together and refreshments and snacks were served throughout the morning and early afternoon hours. All were delighted to meet again with Mrs. Clay in such a nice homey atmosphere.

Early Sunday morning a car ran off the road pulling a tree up completely by the roots on the front portion of the Harold Johnson residence on Victoria Drive. The car also knocked down the post bearing the owner's name.

There is much activity in Alpine with a number of organizations participating in gathering "white gifts" for Christmas baskets. The Woman's Club has already collected some, the cub scouts are now collecting their's and the PTA will have boxes in each of the school rooms starting Monday for any children who will be bringing in white gifts to school. These white gifts are used in making up the baskets distributed at Christmas time to needy local families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ellsberg have moved into the guest cottage on Sky Mesa Ranch.

The Harry Colbys will initiate the holiday season with their first Christmas party of the year Sunday evening.

The Mt. Empire Republican Women, Federated, met at the Antler Lodge on December 5 for their Christmas dinner and party, which was held after a short business meeting and a report from the nominating committee. There were 32 ladies attending.

Mrs. Evelyn Howell's 92-year-old mother, Mrs. Charles H. Schindel of Grand Junction, Colo., passed away quietly last week. Father Prince wishes to invite the public to visit the Blessed Sacrament Church, which has been in the process of renovation since last June. Paneling and acoustical tile has been installed inside, and also a new speaker system, and the church has been painted. A statue of Our Lady and an altar has been installed on top of a natural formation of rocks near the church, and around the grotto there is a path with the Stations of Our Lady of Sorrows. This is similar to a shrine in Portland, Oregon, and we understand it is quite beautiful.

Water—that word which turns neighbor against neighbor or brings one visions of a swimming pool and green lawns—that was the word that brought out quite a large crowd to the Community Building last Thursday night. It was the regular meeting night of the Farm Bureau, so after general business was discussed, the subject of bringing water into the area was brought up. A representative of the Otay Water District spoke and didn't paint a rosy picture money-wise. There were people who didn't want the water even though they had hauled it for some time and then there were people who have had remarkably good wells thinking water in the district would be a blessing. The question is, is it worth the effort and expense? Well, we are a long way from it if it would be agreeable to the majority. Meanwhile, does anyone know a good rain-maker?

They arrived from Fairfax, California over a week ago and will remain here until they receive word that their housing has been arranged at Subik Bay in the Philippines where Bill is stationed with the Navy.

This is not straight from the horse's mouth, but I heard that the Carbaugh children are the proud new owners of the gelding which Pat Brown gave them. Also heard that Pat is showing off a fine quarterhorse mare that is quite a prancer and a natural for parade purposes. Happy prancing, Pat.

The Missionary Sewing Group of the Community Church which meets every Thursday will have a luncheon and gift exchange on December 19 at the Church. The meetings of Dec. 26 and January 2 have been cancelled due to the holiday busy days but will be resumed on January 9.

Ruth Scott is nursing a miserable cold and is staying in and staying warm to avoid being ill over Christmas. With the help of antibiotics it looks like she'll do okay but she did say she's wrapped

The Teenagers Club is holding a dance on Monday, December 23 at the Community Hall from 7:30 until midnight sponsored by the Cooties and Cootiettes. The Pharoahs are slated to provide the music. The kids are out selling tickets and since this dance will be open to adults it is hoped that a nice sized crowd will attend. Refreshments will be on sale and pop will be available. Y'all come.

Reaction from Germany. Following is a quote from a recent letter from Peter Hoppe, our young friend in Germany. "I think I will never forget that shock of the message of the death of your president. I believe all Germans were as sad as you over there in America. He was your beloved president and our best friend. The reaction in Germany was enormous. I don't know any person in the whole world for whom we—and I'm speaking for all Germans—would spend more tears. It is terrible—shot down like a rabbit. You have lost the best president you can have—we have lost our best friend and the whole world has lost a MAN. Just in that very moment when he was murdered I posted the last letter to you. It was about 8 o'clock in the evening over here in Germany."

Mr. Theo Yakel, of the San Diego County Building Inspection Department, has indicated his intention to meet with the residents of the Honey Springs Road area, where disagreement still exists over the naming of roads. Since there is not at this time a community association that can be considered representative of residents of the area, there will be a special meeting called in January 1964, at which Mr. Yakel will be present to clarify any misconceptions and answer any questions that interested residents of the area have to ask. This will not be a meeting intended to settle the whole issue but to enlighten those present about the problems involved and the methods that are available to achieve a satisfactory solution. Mr. Yakel also indicates that there is no time limit involved and that residents should not feel hurried in making their decision. Democratic processes will remain in force and all possible methods for a fair and equitable solution will be enacted.

The Mt. Laguna Community Church Christmas Pageant will be held Dec. 19, at the Community Church. The children's choir will sing and there will be the traditional Nativity scene.

El Cap Student Get Nat'l Award

Linda Gollehon of El Capitan High School is one of 870 outstanding students of high school English in the country. The National Council of Teachers of English has named her a 1968 national runner-up in its annual Achievement Awards competition.

Last spring a committee of English teachers from the high school nominated Miss Gollehon to represent El Capitan High School in the competition. The nation's schools nominated almost 6,800 students for the NCTE citation.

The Council recommends these students for college scholarships in 1964. In previous years, 99% of the Awards winners entered the college of their choice. Approximately 80% of those applying for scholarships received financial aid.

The NCTE sends to all winners and runners-up scrolls of recognition. It honors their high school departments with certificates of merit. The Council also sends the names of these students to their respective congressmen and governors.

Mr. Robert Danielson, Dr. Adrian Cohn, and Mr. Paul DeKock have been Linda's English instructors at El Capitan High School. Linda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Burett Gollehon of Lakeside.

Old Globe Presents Christmas Program

On Saturday evening, December 21, something special is offered at the Old Globe Theater in Balboa Park. This will be "An Elizabethan Christmas Concert" a variety of vocal and instrumental Christmas music of the 16th and 17th Centuries.

Introduced at the concert will be an original dramatic Christmas narrative by Mimette Wishart who will perform it with Joe Angarola.

For the concert music will be played on ancient instruments including recorders, viol da gamba and the lute. English, German, French and Croatian Christmas songs will be played by the musicians including Harry Davis, Anne Jones, Dick Lawrence, Bill Lindley, Frank Myers, Pat Myers and Gunther Schmitz.

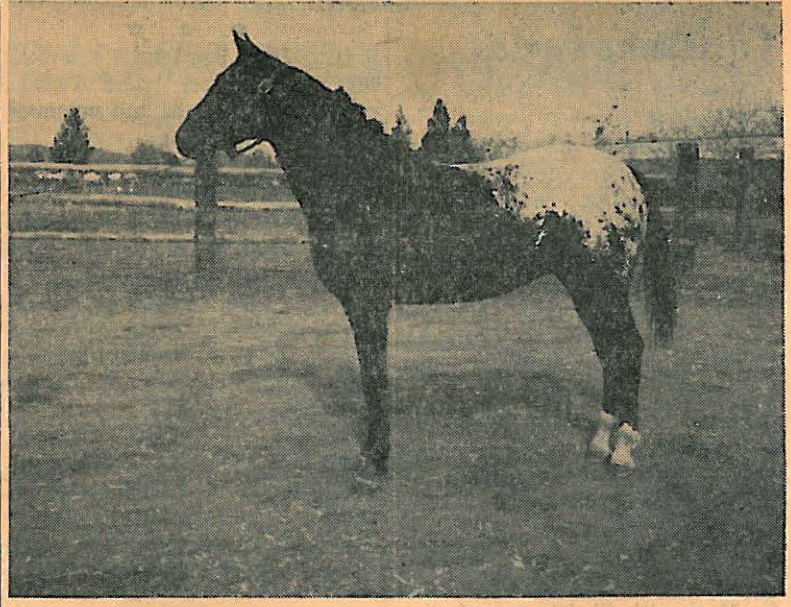

A chorus of 12 voices will sing old English carols.

Refreshments will be served following the concert in Falstaff Tavern. Reserved seats are now available at the Old Globe box office. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

It was heart-warming to note the attendance of nearly 40 friends and neighbors, representing all sections of our community, Monte Robles Acres, Barrett Lake Estates, central, western, and Mother Grundy T. T., as well as the enthusiastic participation in the business of last Friday's Deerhorn Valley Civic Club meeting at Deerhorn Valley Lodge. A spirit of truth and unity pervaded the meeting embodying the principles of American democracy in action. Marring the evening's business and later festivities was a mention of allegedly implied or actual phone threats from an anonymous individual or individuals to Mr. Theo Yakel, who is in charge of Road Naming and House Numbering with the County Building Inspection Department, and with whom the community has been working in the naming of the road from Bratton Valley to Reed's place, and the road from Lyons Valley to Bratton Valley. The statement shocked the entire membership as an unwarranted and shameful action. I will report the facts next week after ascertaining them with Mr. Yakel personally.

 conduct, and attendance—are satisfactory, he will receive an excuse form to be signed by one of his parents and returned to the counseling office.

Teachers then sign each excused student out of class after he has made arrangements for making up work missed. Most teachers require that the work be made up in advance.

Purpose of the special work excuse is to give students a chance to earn money while temporary jobs are available, to assist employers who need extra Christmas season work, and to let students gain work experience. Many students are experienced and have special skills ready to put to use. El Capitan offers a sales training and wrapping course each year. Last Christmas season students were employed in decorating stores, in providing music for parties, in helping with deliveries and in assisting in offices overloaded with Christmas work.

 ever to be held. At least that is the goal they are working toward.

While in Riverside we took a picture of Willow Glen Farm's new young stallion, Blue Admiral, who is staying there pending the completion of new corrals at Willow Glen. This black and white yearling Appaloosa stallion for 1963 in Southern California. He was bred by Frank Gerhardt of Riverside, and is a half-brother to Frank's top halter and performance stallion, Mister Blue. Blue Admiral rounds out the planned breeding program at Willow Glen being a cousin to all of the prize-winning mares now owned by us.

Virgil Wake sold his nice Appaloosa mare last week. She was purchased by Walt Rhodes of Santee. You can always count on Walt to find a good one, and this mare figures to be good for both breeding and performance. Virgil would like to have kept her but felt that he could not devote the time required to breaking and training her to her full potential.

A lot of the horses in Alpine are enjoying all the green grass which has resulted from our recent rains. Remember, if your horse has not been getting green feed, start out slowly for about a half hour the first time and be sure that the grass is dry. Also remember that when your horse is feeding on green grass you can cut down on dry feed, but they should continue to have at least a half portion of their regular dry feed.

Grossmont Board Backs Contract

An attorney for the contractor who had submitted the low base bid to the Board of Trustees of the Grossmont Junior College District for the construction of college facilities in the amount of $4,984,430 protested to the Board at their meeting last Monday night that his client should have been awarded the contract.

Alternate bids on certain phases of the work had been requested and when the Board made a determination regarding the approval of alternates another contractor with a base bid of $5,113,100 became the lowest bidder and a contract had been awarded to him.

The Trustees made a determination that the contract awarded was a valid contract and rejected the plea of the low base bidder.

The facilities are expected to be completed for occupancy in the fall of 1964. Grossmont College students are now attending classes at Monte Vista High School in Spring Valley.

graph records, costume jewelry, shoes, hats and dresses. The ladies have a standing joke about this section saying that they come and buy stuff one year and bring it back to sell the next.

Lunch was prepared by Mrs. Helene Allen and her committee, except for the pumpkins pies which were donated. Waitresses were the misses Carol Cost and Rhoda Lynn Rathbun, and Mrs. Cost.

Mrs. Vivian Drew was general chairman of the event and was assisted by Mes. Fern Latham, Rennie Hollet, Eve Coppock, Grace Palmer, Beula Ford, Gladys Wotring, Emil Sachse, Vernon Rood, Lillian Lyman, Myrtle Ingles and others.

Clothing and other useful items left over from the bazaar will be taken by the church workers to Casa de Todos, the protestant school and orphanage in Tijuana.

Sights & Sounds

Heights Road.

The more I looked, the more I found, such as lovely hand woven rugs and stoles at Badgers Weaving Studio, Alpine Heights, ceramics from Isobel's, plus the works of a couple of creative women in town who have several holiday items they've created.

On with the list and we come to the children. There's always of course, "Toyland" at Sauter's Department Store; and for our special gals, two stops, first at the Rexall store which has too many lovely things to mention here and second, on up to Cindy's for lovely things in the line of clothing.

Let's not forget the men now. Just about any of the stores in town offer a big selection, such as Hinkles, Rexall drug store, appliance shops and, we've completed filling our bag.

Now for shopping at each market and store for the food needed, not forgetting Florence's Market almost always stocked this holiday season with those special extras in the way of food and drink.

COKE'S KITCHEN

With the holidays almost near, why not turn off your oven and for a little change, whip up a batch of candy which can be safely stored for later use, if it lasts that long. My mother always prepared a dish of candied walnuts for the holidays in addition to everything else.

Have you ever heard the story about one of Mrs. Sees, the famous candymaker, employees giving out her secret recipe for fudge because she was unhappy in her work? Whether or not you believe the story, the fudge is almost fool-proof, requires no beating and is delicious even though you use margarine instead of butter.

CANDIED NUTS
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup white sugar
1 can condensed milk, large
1/2 tsp. cream tartar
Cook over low fire and stir often—test as for fudge, cook about 45 minutes, flavor with vanilla.

EASY-CREAMY FUDGE
2 cups granulated sugar
1 small can condensed milk
10 marshmallows
1 package chocolate bits
1 cube margarine
1 tsp. vanilla

UNCOOKED FUDGE
Cream together, 8 oz. cream cheese, two cups powdered sugar, add two squares melted chocolate, dash of salt, half tsp. vanilla and three-quarter cup chopped walnuts.

ALPINE GARDENER
By JEAN McCULLOUGH

While appraising the changes, if any, you are thinking of making in your garden, give some thought to the drainage problems of some sections of your yard, because there are few plants indeed which will tolerate wet feet.

If need be, raise some of the beds either by surrounding them with rocks or redwood boards, then fill in with coarse gravel with a good planting mix on top. You can easily find small trailing plants to cover the rocks or boards, then plant whatever other plants you want in the center part of the bed.

Stocks and snapdragons are good specimens to get started in cool weather, as are Calendulas, Foxglove, Coral Bells, Delphiniums and others. Start crabgrass control now by knocking the seeds with one of the available controls on the market. Paint thinner is another weed killer.

Prepare those places to receive the new roses you will doubtless be getting for the new varieties will soon be coming on the market. Get stakes, ties and labels ready for all those young trees as windy and rainy weather is ahead of us even in sunny California.

Just a few more lines about those Christmas trees, living ones, I mean. Plant them in those attractive redwood boxes and you can leave them there to do for another year for most conifers are rather slow growers. Deodar cedar is a popular choice, although the Norway spruce and the Colorado Blue spruce are becoming popular too.

 known as Cook et al petition requesting the name Deerhorn Road. This petition was written based on a report by Mrs. Crowley on a suggestion made by Mr. David Bird to have property owners adjacent to Road F20A write a simple letter to the County requesting the name desired, the name Honey Springs Road not to be considered. Mr. Roy Wallin brought up his motion which had been postponed from the November meeting to the effect that the entire community should vote on the road name at a neutral location and the name carrying the majority vote be submitted as the Club's choice to Mr. Yakel, thus assisting him and uniting the community.

Mr. Haughey moved that the Deerhorn Valley Civic Club sponsor a vote whereby all property owners of this community east of the Meanea residence vote on the name of the road from Bratton's to Monte Robles Acres on petitions to bear their signatures and addresses. These petitions to be publicly available at Meanea's garage until the night of the January Civic Club meeting and further to be available at the January meeting. A 51 percent vote for any name to be submitted to the Board of Supervisors by the Deerhorn Valley Civic Club as their choice for the road name. Prior to this petition being submitted to the Supervisors, those signing this petition to retract in writing their names appearing on the Haughey et al and the Cook et al petitions. The motion was carried.

Other business was a motion that the road from Bratton Valley to Lyons Valley Road be named Pringle Canyon Road. This motion was defeated. Mr. Wallin suggested that this matter be taken up after the name of F20A is settled. Mr. Wallin further suggested that the community name-board be brought up to date, and also, that due to the growth of the community, the elected Directors of the Civic Club be from a section of the community; such as, Barrett Lakes Estates section, Monte Robles section, Mother Grundy section, central section for equal representation. Further that these Directors be chairman of any committee for problems pertaining particularly to their section. The election of officers and Directors was postponed until the January meeting.

Unification Opposed by Board

 should be discussed by the Board and a determination made at last Monday's meeting.

The resolution adopted by the other four districts was then read and the items discussed. A motion was then made to adopt a similar resolution by the Alpine Board which was carried unanimously.

It was pointed out that there are eight elementary school districts within the Grossmont High School District, the other five being the Cajon Valley School District, Lakeside School District, La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, Lemon Grove School District and Santee School District. During the discussion regarding unification prior to the adoption of the resolution it was pointed out by Mr. Willson and by several members of the Alpine Board that the great difference between the other five districts and those who have adopted resolutions opposing unification is that the other five are urban areas with large population and large school enrollment within a small area while the five which have opposed unification to date are rural large mountainous areas with entirely different problems.

Since the five urban districts have not indicated their opinion regarding unification it is not known at this time whether they will favor or oppose it.

The question of unification which is now under discussion in the Grossmont High School District was brought about by a law passed by the Legislature last spring which requires that each district not now unified make a study of the feasibility of unification and make a report on their findings through the County School Superintendent's office to the State Department of Education which will make a recommendation for each district as to whether to hold an election on unification.

Other matters discussed by the Board included the purchase of science equipment and study material which can be used in both social and science courses and the cost of which would be shared equally by the District and the Federal Government under the National Defense Education Act. The cost of the material desired by the District is $1,829 and the Board voted to submit the list of material desired to the Federal agency for their approval and agreement for payment of half of its cost.

The Board also established an additional day of school to replace the school day lost because of November 25 having been declared a holiday. The day set for replacement will be Monday, June 8.

The Board also announced that the school Christmas program sponsored jointly by the Harbison Canyon and the Alpine PTA group will be held on December 19 at 8 p.m. in the Alpine School. Also that the Christmas school holidays will be from December 20 to January 6.

C of C Annual Dinner

 regarding their plans in the Alpine area. Al Adams, Director E. L. Freeland and Member Henry McKie to attend the meeting if possible and report back to the Board.

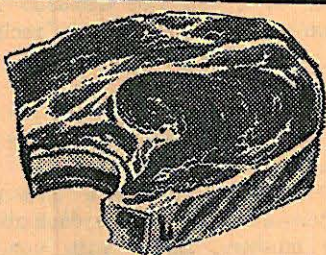

Mr. Henry McKie made a proposal to the Board that the Chamber institute a study to see whether the Alpine area could be included in a different County Supervisorial District than the present one which County Supervisor

Bird currently represents. He stated that in his opinion Mr. Bird was not interested in the Alpine area, that he resided in the South Bay area and that his interests were in that community and not in the back country. No action was taken by the Board on this proposal.
