GROSSMONT STUDENTS BUILD HOUSE OF MANY HANDS

The Associated Student Body of the Grossmont High School conducted a preview of a model home which had been constructed by some of the High School students as a project for obtaining experience in a design and construction of homes.

On account of the number of persons involved in the planning, supervision and execution of the project, the model home is known as the "house of many hands." This year's home is Grossmont's fifth annual model home and is the result of the combined effort of 14 of the school's carpentry students under the direction of Mr. Lewis Orr who was backed by professional advisers, a citizens' advisory committee and an enthusiastic faculty. This year's model home is a 1248 square foot residence and was built under a non-profit program sponsored by the school's

KIWANIS HEAR 'EL CAJON STORY'

Mr. Charles Berkitt of the Title Insurance Company of San Diego was the guest speaker at the Alpine Kiwanis Club meeting this week. He showed the members present about 60 colored slides which depict the life and times in El Cajon from 1876 until the present.

The slides are the result of considerable research by the Title Company, and Mr. Berkitt explained the research and work necessary to produce them.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

This age in which we live has been given various grim labels such as, Age of Nuclear Threat, of New Diseases, Wonder Drugs, Deadly Insecticides, Juvenile Delinquency, Alcoholism, Taxes-on-Taxes, Drug Addiction, and Wig Wearing. But to most of us ordinary citizens this is beyond much doubt primarily the age of the Discount or Savings stamp. Prior to the invention of this little glue-backed marvel, shopping for our daily needs presented simple decisions like whether we had enough money to pay for our purchases and choosing the best brands.

Now in addition to these we are also confronted with the task of deciding which color stamp to save. Shall we shop where they give pale blue stamps, or green ones, or turquoise ones, or tan ones, those with pictures of money on them or of hearts and flowers? It's no longer the mere question of where we can get the best cuts of meat or the nicest smile from the grocer. We are now tempted to ponder the items in the gift catalogues distributed by the competing stamp companies before we spend out money.

Now if we were faced only with the market-place appeal to our na-

ALPINE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Emblem Design Contest

The contest to find a suitable emblem for the Alpine Chamber of Commerce will continue through July 10th. Submit your entries to the Chamber office on Highway 80. Contestants are not limited to one entry, but may submit as many as they wish. The person who submits the design chosen will receive $50.00.

Local Students Graduate From State

Three local students have been approved as candidates for graduation with a bachelor's degree from San Diego State. They are Shirley V. DeLong of Alpine, William E. Pipes III of Harbison Canyon, and Terry L. Miller of Jamul.

William Pipes graduated with a B. S. degree and with distinction in engineering. Terry Miller graduated with an A. B. degree and with distinction in chemistry. Mrs. DeLong graduated with a B. S. degree.

These students will also have the distinction of having President John F. Kennedy as the Commencement speaker at the Commencement exercises for their graduating class.

YOUTH CENTER PROGRAM PLANNED FOR THE SUMMER

At the regular meeting of the Youth Center last Monday evening, the summer program was planned.

Mr. George Zeigler, of Tavern Road, will be in charge of the program. Mr. Zeigler was formerly a high school principal, and the coach of the school's athletic program. Tentatively the summer program will commence on July 8, and will be held in the afternoons from 1 to 4, Monday through Friday.

A number of the suggested activities are: Badminton, volleyball, shuffleboard, tennis, table tennis, softball, basketball, six and 11-man football, handball, horseshoes, swimming and track and field work. Less active sports are: Checkers, chess, cards and jacks. Anyone interested in any other activity than those listed is invited to contact Mr. Zeigler at 445-3066.

Technical coaching will be provided for softball, both six-man and 11-man football and for track and field events. Especial attention will be given to children with athletic ability in these fields.

No event will be scheduled for less than a half hour basis, and the major sports for not less than one hour. Each person will be responsible for his, or her, own equipment and materials. Community property will be issued to the individual or group leader for use during the scheduled time of the event. All community property is to be checked in by the close of that day's activity.

Mr. Zeigler has prepared an activity schedule form which may be obtained at the Youth Center. These forms should be filled out showing the activities the children are interested in and returned to Mr. Zeigler so that a final schedule can be set.

SURPRISE PARTY HELD AT SINGING HILLS CLUBHOUSE

Last Friday evening, May 31st, School Superintendent Clyde Gilley was the guest of honor at a surprise party which had been planned by a group of Alpine citizens to express to him their appreciation for the services that he has given to the citizens of the Alpine School District for the past several years.

Noted Local Resident To Address C.A.P.

Mr. Balfour F. Darnell, Mining Engineer who resides in Alpine will address the Alpine Civil Air Patrol on Saturday, June 8th, 1963, at 1:00 p.m., in the Alpine Youth Center.

Mrs. Hilda Naylor, Commander of the C.A.P. announced that Mr. Darnell will speak on "U. S. Free Enterprises in Latin America" and will accompany the talk with slides.

Mr. Darnell is a veteran of 28 years of experience in Latin America. He was vice-president and manager of the Moabay Mining Company of Cuba. Moabay is a subsidiary of the Sulphur Company of N. Y. valued at 75 million dollars. Moabay was a nickel-cobalt mine which was confiscated by Fidel Castro while Mr. Darnell was its vice-president. Darnell is a member of the Alpine Kiwanis and an experienced pilot. The general public is cordially invited to attend his presentation. This is Mr. Darnell's first public appearance other than organizations in Alpine and the C.A.P. feels very fortunate to have him as their guest speaker.

The party was sponsored by over 100 of the citizens of the Alpine School District, most of whom have been active in the recent campaign for sufficient funds to maintain the School District. Mrs. Marjorie Cooper, Mrs. Carmen Hoistad and Mrs. Renee Adams were the committee to handle the arrangements.

For a period of six weeks the party was being arranged, and Mrs. Cooper states that for the whole six-week period she was afraid that the surprise would be given away to Mr. Gilley. However, he was completely surprised when he and Mrs. Gilley, who were supposedly spending a quiet evening for dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cooper, entered the dining room at the Singing Hills Country Club to be greeted by a large gathering singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

After the group had enjoyed dinner and good-fellowship, Mr. Gilley was presented with a gift. It consisted of an office desk and a chair to go with it, both wrapped and tied with large bows, which were especially selected for the study in the Gilley home. The gift was presented to Mr. Gilley by Mr. Jack Hoistad as spokesman

GROSSMONT COLLEGE HOLDS FIRST AWARDS BANQUET

A banquet held at El Nadadero in El Cajon, Friday evening, May 31st, honored Grossmont College Students with an exceptional record of achievement in Curricular and extra-curricular activities.

The coveted man of distinction award, donated by the Fletcher Hills Business and Professional Club was won by James Richardson, of Spring Valley, student body president this year. The woman of distinction award, donated by The American Association of University Women, La Mesa Branch, was won by Mary Woodruff, of El Cajon, president of the Associated Women Students.

Other students to receive highest achievement awards in specific fields were drama, the trophy donated by the Alpine Woman's Club, won by Mary Cook of Spring Valley; forensics, the award given by Suburban Toastmistress Club, was won by Vicki Gleissner of Santee and Sam Edgar of Lakeside. The science trophy donated by Mr. Leonard Werne, was won by Gary Hagan of Spring Valley; the art award went to Mrs. Patricia Wood of La Mesa and was donated by the Foothills Art Association.

Contest awards won during the year were presented to Gilbert Hunt, Lakeside for physics; Paul

Postmaster Attends State Convention

Mr. Phil Hall, Postmaster of Alpine, together with Mrs. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoistad, attended the Annual State Convention of the California State Postmasters Association in May.

The Convention was held in Santa Barbara, and while the convention was convened, the ladies enjoyed shopping and sightseeing. The foursome had a pleasant time, eating in Santa Barbara's fine restaurants, and having a short rest.

Mr. Hall was one of a number of San Diego County postmasters attending the convention. Others were those from Julian, El Cajon, Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, La Mesa and Bonita.

The National Convention of the National Postmaster Association, of which the California group is a branch, will be held in Hawaii in October. Mr. Hall states that his present plans do not include his attending this convention.

New Cacti Book Available

Dr. George Lindsay, Director of the Natural History Museum in Balboa Park, is the author of a fine new book, CACTI OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY. It is a non-technical guide to our native cacti. There are 48 pages, six colored and 19 black and white illustrations and one map. Any cacti enthusiast will find valuable assistance in this work.

Natural History Museum Has New Exhibit

The bird exhibits in the Natural History Museum in Balboa Park are unusually fine offering more than 300 specimens from San Diego County. Until very recently there were no exhibits designed to show the biology of birds.

Wesley Farmer, Curator of Exhibits, and Duane Hull, artist, are now completing a series of displays which will correct this omission. Mr. Farmer considered many specific topics of bird biology, and from them selected 14 for presentation. For each sketched the basic ideas and developed the interpretative text to accompany it while Dr. Richard Banks, Curator of Ornithology, approved the information being presented. Armin Schmidt, Preparator, mounted the specimens which are included in some of the cases. The artist, Mr. Hull, has done all the art work illustrating the exhibits.

Twelve of the panels are now completed and on display on the main floor of the museum. The first panel, titled, "In the Beginning" shows the origin of birds from reptilian ancestors. Number 2, "The Feather;" 3, "Structure and Adaptation for Flight;" 4, "Bill and Feet Specialization;" 5, "Nesting;" 6, "The Egg" (this one includes a $1,000 Condor egg); 7, "Embryology;" 8, "Twenty-eight orders of living birds are found in the world;" 9, "Feeding habits of the Owl" (this one not yet finished); 10, "Territoriality and Song" (this one not yet finished); 11, "Migration and Navigation;" 12, "Westward movement of the Starling;" 13, "The Extinct Passenger Pigeon," and 14, "Salt Excretion."

Pleasing colors and modern design attract visitors to the new displays. Studying them, students at all levels will learn fundamental facts about birds.

WRIGHTS ATTEND CANTATA

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright of Arnold Way, Alpine, attended a finished and moving performance Sunday, May 26th of Benj. Britten's cantata "St. Nicholas" held at the La Jolla Presbyterian Church, honoring its pastor Robert W. McClellan and his wife.

The performance was just delightful, reported the Wrights and a special thrill for them to hear their daughter Corinne Bonham, pianist, and Corinne Brewin, organist who provided the cantata's splendid accompaniment.

The text of the cantata concerns the famous 4th century Bishop of Myra (in Asia Minor) endeared to the children of the world as Santa Claus and revered for his benevolence and generosity.

The chancel choir and a choir of women's voices with string and percussion players from the San Diego Symphony under concertmaster Robert Emile provided an evening long to be remembered.

Fran's Gift Shop In New Location

Fran's Gift Shop is now open at its new location on Highway 80 in the building at Tappy's Motel formerly used as the motel office.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall are living in the adjoining apartment, which is part of the building. Fran says that the convenience of being "at home" and "at work" all in the same building is very helpful. Jim is working as maintenance man for Tappy's, and does housepainting and roofing jobs on the side.

The Gift Shop carries a line of gifts, and ornate, decorative candles which are designed and produced by Fran herself.

LOST LANDMARKS The Hermit's Hut

By Bea LaForce

They say that each small town, especially a mountain one, has at least one hermit. Alpine used to have one who lived by himself all his years here and who was characterized by some of the peculiarities attributed to all genuine hermits.

Junior Theatre Installs Officers

The San Diego Junior Theatre will install newly elected officers and directors at their annual dinner to be held at the Foothills Athletic Club on Saturday, June 8th. New officers are Mrs. Vera Alwars, president; Mrs. Ralph Hixenbaugh, vice-president; Mrs. Lester Harvey, secretary, and Dr. Paul Carrick, treasurer. New directors include Mrs. Paul Eshenbaugh, Mrs. Leason Strong, Mr. Thomas Thale, Mrs. Arthur Jensen, Mrs. Adrian Steckling, Mrs. Mel Beck and Mr. Jerry Rosen.

Re-elected directors are Mr. Keoth Richard, Mr. S. Sanford Engel, Mrs. C. William Broyles and Mr. Yutas Morris.

Mrs. Robert I. Elliott outgoing president, and John DePuglio, executive director will be among the honored guests. Invited to the banquet are San Diego Junior Theater Guild members, past presidents, former board members and patrons. The program will be conducted by mistress of ceremonies Molly Morse and a surprise element will mark the evening's entertainment.

The theater's summer program this year will include classes in creative drama and puppetry for eight through 13-year-old students. There will also be a special teenage workshop program in which students receive the basic training offered younger groups, but with a more formal approach to drama and includes creative acting combined with rhythmic movement with Pat Haworth of Lemon Grove as leader. Oral interpretation leader is Tom Thale, while a new creative writing class has been added under the guidance of Rollin Haworth also of Lemon Grove.

Alpine Community Church School

An invitation to all children in Alpine between the ages of 4-14 is extended by the Alpine Community Church to attend their 14th annual Bible School.

The theme, "Widening Relationships" is to be made more meaningful by a visit and program to be presented at the close of the school by children from Casa de Todos Protestant Church school in Tijuana.

An extension of the Arts and Handicrafts program will be a baking class for those junior and junior high children who are in Steve Arimenco was the man and all who knew him speak of him the same way. He kept to himself, seldom going among people at all, and then only on business. For Steve Arimenco was a man of property with a sharp eye for the American dollar. He came to Alpine in 1945 when he purchased the Old Winery from the Flegals. There is a nice dwelling on the place, now owned and occupied by the Homer Spears, but Arimenco did not live in it. He rented it and made a small, rather primitive apartment for himself in the attic above the winery. This is where he lived for several years while he was landlord over the house and cottages on the place and farmer of the vineyard.

A naturalized American, Russia is said to have been the native land of Alpine's hermit. Just when and how he left there no one seems to know. But he brought with him some ideas foreign to us, strange beliefs in black magic, attested to by all who knew him. They say he used to put poison ivy up to his nose to keep the Devil away, and he occasionally wore a clothespin on his nose and ears for the same reason. He has been seen to put his ear to the ground to cure a head cold.

One time I went to his place to buy some grapejuice advertised by a sign at the roadside and found him trampling out the juice with his bare feet, trousers rolled up to his knees. I bought grapes instead.

Finally he plowed up the vineyard because taxes on the bare ground would be less than no the planted acreage. Then he sold out the home place to the Spears and built himself the shack in the picture. It's on the side hill of the old vineyard out of sight from the county road (Arnold Way) but right on the little tributary road that curves round the hill.

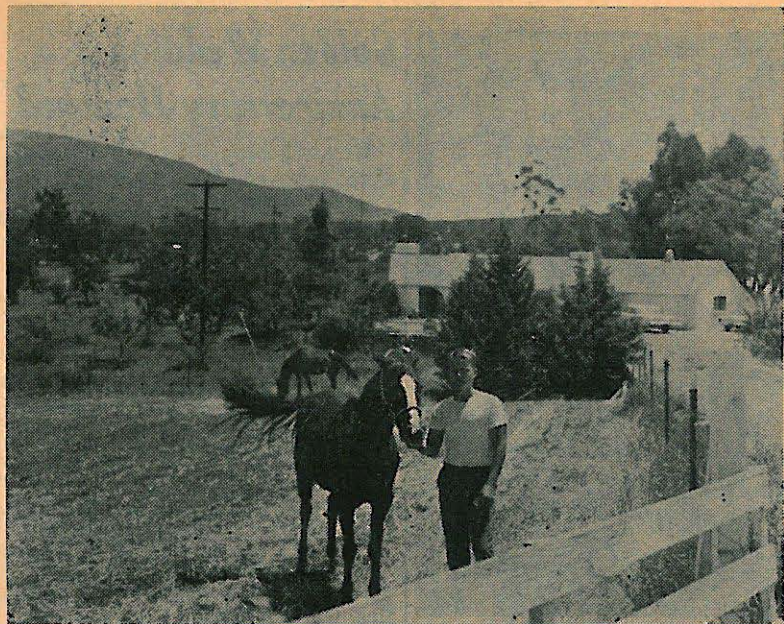

Those who saw the process of building say that the shack was really a sort of cave which he dug out of the hillside, then put down a cement floor and added front walls and a roof. He lived there for about five years, until he was persuaded by a nephew from Canada to sell out the remaining acreage and go to Canada to live. No one knows where Steve Arimenco is now, but all say that wherever it is he will be living as a hermit.

You can't see the handwriting on the wall if your back is to it, can you?

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

By Margaret Lowthian

Mr. Jack Berg and his family of Tavern Road, are relatively newcomers on the Alpine scene. They purchased their home recently, did an almost complete job of remodeling the inside of the home, built a number of buildings, including a three-stall stable, and miles of chain link fences. Probably the busiest place in Alpine these days.

They also acquired a small band of good mares, two of which are now bred, as the beginning of a program of breeding fine horses. Their pride and joy, and rightly so, is Sultana Mist, a three-quarter Arabian mare. Misty, as she is known to her friends, is now bred to the fine Arab stallion, Asil Altair, owned by Harry Harness. Another mare is bred to Cheyenne, another Harness Arabian. She is Dolly a quarter-type mare.

At the present time Jack feels that this is enough of a beginning in the breeding business, so his Palomino mare, Babe, is open. A pony rounds out the horse population. But, by no means the animal population. Four dogs and a large number of pigeons also calling for new buildings and yards along with the facilities for the horses.

The Berg family, Jack, his wife, his son, Jim, and his daughter, Geri Lynn, are a fine addition to the "horsey" set here in Alpine.

This coming Sunday, June 9, is the date for the Pony of Americas show to be held at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds in Pomona. Mrs. Jackie Dalzell, formerly of Alpine, and well-known to all of us, is managing this show. It will be a one-day show, but follows the annual two-day pony sale at the same location. There will be full halter and performance classes for these little Appaloosa-colored ponies, and a large entry is expected. Alpiners Norman Foster will do the announcing for the show, which will be judged by Morgan Smith.

Paul Boardman is the envy of the horse-minded people on Alpine Heights Road. He purchased the two-year-old gelding, Cochise, from Willow Glen Farm. Cochise was born on the farm and has long been the favorite of Renee Adams, who named him, Pete Viviano and Bob Smith. Cochise promises to become an outstanding saddle horse, and Paul is planning to start his training immediately. When he is ready, maybe Paul will allow Cochise's friends to have a ride.

Terry Bowles of Tavern Road has acquired a second donkey. The Meads have given him their six-year-old donkey, Jezebel. Terry's other donkey is Mavis who is now 21 years old. How do they get along together, Terry?

Every time I think I have the horse census of a given section, another horse, or two, or three, shows up on the scene. It is getting to the point that the census taking at this time is outdated be-

Local C.A.P. Group In Ceremony

The Alpine Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol participated in the Memorial Day Services held at the National City Airport. Taking part in the ceremony were Gilda Naylor and Tony Allain and a boy from Chula Vista who presented the wreaths to Chaplain Cornet who blessed them and which were then presented to Col. Trenzel who in turn gave them to pilots who carried them out over the bay and dropped them in commemoration of those who gave their lives in the service of our country.

Other local members in the ceremony were Donna Whitman, Marcia Whitman, Renne Harris, Lula Schrock, Wanda Naylor, Billy Hopkins, Steve Foster, Roger Russell, Jackie Ralston, Forrest Brant, Steve McKinley, Wanda Clevenger, and Jeffrey Smith of Mt. Helix.

After the ceremony each member was taken on a 15 minute flight over the bay area and for many it was their first plane ride. They arrived home in time to see themselves on television over Channel 10.

Acacia Club To Meet

The Alpine Acacia Club will hold their regular monthly get-together, June 14, at Fuller Hall.

The evening will be a "pitch-in" dinner with the Club furnishing the meat dish and members contributing salads, desserts and vegetables. The hour is 6:30 and all members are urged to attend.

Alpine Cub Scouts Honored At Fair

The Alpine Cub Scout Troop No. 350 was given recognition of their display at the Scout Fair last month by being selected out of a large number of displays to participate at the Del Mar Fair this month.

The scouts had a booth in which they built and assembled bird houses and wheelbarrows. Mr. Bill Sans Souci is the Scoutmaster for this Troop. He was assisted in the arrangements for the display booth by Mr. George Brant and Mr. Warren Young.

Mr. William Bowlus, Chairman of the Cub Scouts parents group in Alpine, states that these men, and the den mothers and their assistants, are responsible for transporting the display and the Scouts to the Scout Fair, and in making all the arrangements for the booth. The Cubs won the honors with their handiwork.

Fire Department To Rescue

The Alpine Fire Department was called to aid the California State Division of Forestry when a lighted bale of hay was dropped on Highway 80 last Wednesday. The Alpine Fire Department furnished one truck and the fire was quickly extinguished.

Monday morning at 8:15, the resuscitator was furnished an elderly resident on Louise Drive, Alpine. An ambulance was summoned and the patient quickly despatched to the County Hospital.

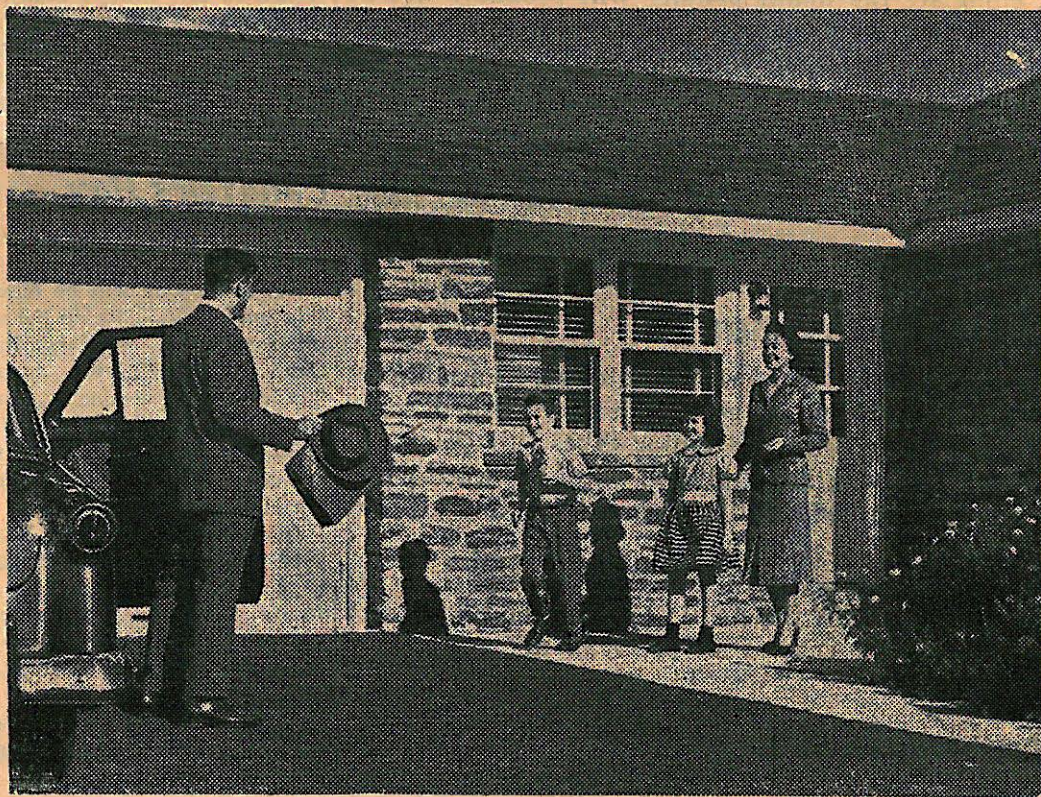

GAMMA GAMMA ACTIVITIES

On May 22nd Mrs. Frank J. Doerr was hostess of a potluck dinner with Temo Brown, Verlie Boyd, Grace Buchmiller, Bunny Riggs, Joan Manuele, Joanne Nichols, Bea McKaskle, Jeanne Ziegler, Irene Cady, Marge Cooper and Renee Adams as guests. There was a secret sister gift exchange and a presentation of birthday gifts to those who have summer birthdays plus a gift exchange among guests who attended.

The Epsilon Sigma Alpha State Convention was held May 24, 25 and 26 at Hotel del Coronado. Alpiners who attended the Mixer Party on the evening of the 24th were the William Hoffmans, Robert Beales, Mace Bratts, Larry Landholms and Malcolm Hueys, Jr. On Saturday, the 25th, there was a general assembly, luncheon, workshop and formal dinner dance. Elsie Hoffman and Elna Bratt attended all three days as representatives of the local Gamma Gamma chapter. On Sunday a memorial service was held followed by a brunch and workshop assembly. Jolaine Huey and Jo Ellen Svansson attended the workshop assembly and brunch.

Janie Woodall To Edit 'Horizon'

Miss Janie Woodall, daughter of Mrs. Earl C. Woodall and Dr. Woodall, has been made Editor of the El Capitan High School paper, "Horizon," for the coming year. Janie will be a Senior next semester.

No Comment

In reading the news, we note from an editorial published in an almost daily newspaper dealing with the lay-off of the employees of a tuna cannery in San Diego, that the writer of the editorial appears to be dead set against the law of supply and demand. In fact, from the tone of his editorial, he would definitely vote for its repeal.

But, it would seem that he is for the law of demand. Demand this, and demand that etc. He argues that the cannery had no business laying off the workers even though there was no market for their product. Which just goes to prove that free enterprise is a dismal failure. If the Government were running that cannery, judging by his philosophy, the workers would be retained in their positions no matter what the cost to the taxpayers.

Again No Comment

In reading the news, we note from the news releases published in the daily press that the proposed law that would eliminate the death penalty will probably not be passed. Which would eliminate the possibility of our leaders being assassinated with nothing more than a life sentence penalty for the assassin.

Also, that the proposed county-wide tax for the support of schools will not be passed. Does this mean that there are more sheriffs in the Legislature than Robin Hoods?

And Again No Comment

Also in reading the news we note from an editorial in a publication which states that it is published semi-monthly on Friday, that the Editor takes full credit for his publication having accomplished all of the worthwhile projects that have been instituted in Alpine for the past several years.

He modestly states that the publication does not want plaudits, but he wants the public to know and recognize the tremendous influence of his publication.

Old Fashioned Thinking

An ancient Chinese proverb states, "Self-praise stinks." This, of course, is just an out-dated idea.

HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Stevenson Warns Of Fire Danger

Stanley R. Stevenson, Supervisor of the Cleveland National Forest, said today that all fire crews on the Cleveland Forest are now manned. He stated that 1963 could be a very serious fire season as this has been one of the driest years in recorded weather history.

Stevenson also stated that all portions of the Cleveland National Forest were closed to smoking effective May 26. This is done under local County Ordinances and through Federal Regulation T-1. As other aids to fire prevention Stevenson listed the following:

1. Persons using or owning property within the boundary of the Cleveland National Forest are reminded that county ordinances require that they maintain at all times, a clearing of all inflammable material for a minimum of their property. Stevenson stated that all Cleveland Forest Fire Prevention Officers are currently inspecting all structures within the forest for compliance with county ordinances.

2. Forest users must have a campfire permit before any type of fire is built or used within the national forest. Permits may be obtained at any U. S. Forest Service Ranger Station.

Stevenson added that all Federal, State and County fire laws will be strictly enforced. He also stressed the need for all forest users to be careful with fire at all times, if we are to get through the critical times ahead without a disastrous fire.

for the group. Mr. Hoistad expressed the keynote of those present by stating "it was not our thought, or our wishes, that you are leaving your present position."

Many of the teachers of the Alpine schools and the Harbison Canyon school attended the surprise party. The teachers of the District presented Mr. Gilley with a gift from them to go with his new desk. It is a desk lamp, and was presented to him from the teachers of the Alpine Union School District.

Dancing and visiting followed the presentation and the acceptance of the gift. On Saturday, the desk and chair were transported from Singing Hills to the Gilley home on Victoria Drive and installed in Mr. Gilley's study. Mr. Gilley stated that they will be a most convenient and helpful addition to this work room where he spends so much of his time taking care of his duties.

Children's Day Services Planned

Children's Day will be observed this Sunday, June 9th, in the morning services of the First Baptist Church of the Willows. A special Sunday School session is planned which will include the annual Promotion Day exercises. Awards and certificates will be presented to the students.

During the morning Worship Service an important message will be given to parents, and an Open House featuring displays in the Sunday School rooms will be held after the morning service. Rev. Vaughn Steen, Pastor of the church, invites the public to attend these services and bring the children.

FLEET RESERVE STEW DINNER

Good news for all members of the Fleet Reserve and their friends in San Diego County. The group is sponsoring a delicious stew dinner to be held at the Alpine Youth Center, 12:00 o'clock noon, Sunday, June 9th, reports Mr. James Radford, Committee Chairman for the event.

There will be stew with all the trimmings to serve approximately 200 persons and the event a very worthy one as the Fleet Reserve is hoping to raise money for their treasury to be used for many of their worthwhile projects.

Last year, you will remember, the Club served hamburgers—this year there will be a little different twist—good old-fashioned stew. As of this writing the two cooks assigned are Mrs. Stella Barton and Mrs. Janet Radford, but additional help is expected.

Keep your fingers crossed for some of Alpine's lovely weather—come out and enjoy this delectable luncheon. It is a wonderful chance itive greed, we could be less befuddled by the stamp gimmick, but there is the appeal to our conscience as well through the stamps dignified by the name of Seals, those we must buy and paste on our letters to prove that we are of the right stamp-sticking status. We have Christmas Seals, Easter ones, Nature Seals, and religious ones, those celebrating National and International causes and events, and many lesser glue-backed testimonials to our enrapturement.

Ten years ago a housewife felt virtuous when she had all her mending caught up. I can remember the real satisfaction with which I replaced my empty mending basket on my sewing machine. These days a woman feels this sense of a duty well done when she gets her savings stamps all pasted into their books.

I was visiting a friend the other day and found her conversation a little difficult to follow. As we sat talking she pasted stamps into books, and her words sounded like this, "Arryer thowwerzzers this year?" I hesitated to answer not being sure what she'd asked and there are so many new allergies popular this season. At my perplexed look she stopped licking savings stamps to explain, "How are your flowers this year?" Then she picked up a new page of stamps and said, "Are your (slurp) pathunzueeys pretty as ever?" Turned out she meant petunias. Well, it went on like this until I decided I might as well learn the stamp-sticking language since it seems an imminent phase of our social life. I helped her paste in a big basket of loose stamps (enough for a new steam iron) and she's coming over next week to help me paste in mine. I may ask some neighbors in and have the equivalent of a quilting bee.

Another feature of the stamp age is the bridal shower. It's a fact! A recent social note in a County paper related a shower for a bride-elect where the guests brought savings stamps in lieu of other gifts. Seems the girl had indicated which ones she collected—as some girls leave their silver pattern listed at stores.

But the burden is not all on the consumer. Merchants are having their problems, too. Customers stalk out if they are not treated to the stamp of their choice for every dime they spend. They count their stamps instead of their change. Just last Saturday I saw a woman toss a handful of change carelessly into her purse then suspiciously count her savings stamps while the merchant watched with a weary sigh. I expect soon the stores'll have to add a paste-in service along with the stamps. We'll see big placards affixed to the stamp signs on store fronts which say: "We not only give stamps; we

Golden Wedding Anniversary Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffith who were married May 28, 1913, in Kansas, observed their golden wedding anniversary last weekend with a party in their home on Victoria Drive.

Three of the Grifith's four children were present for the event, including Dr. Glen K. Griffith of Wichita, Kansas, Col. and Mrs. C. F. Deem of San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffith of Imperial Beach. Also present were Mrs. Griffith's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Emigh of Henderson, Nevada. A beautiful three-tiered cake was made for them by Mrs. Gordon Wilson who was present with Mr. Wilson for the party.

Woman's Club Plans Installation

June 11 will mark the final meeting of the season of the Alpine Woman's Club. To be held at the County Park in Pine Valley with Mrs. Ed Orbom as hostess, the meeting is the annual pot-luck picnic and play-day. Mrs. Orbom requests that members bring a dish of their choice and their own table service. Drinks will be furnished.

A special patriotic program of music and readings has been prepared by Lenore Lusk, in honor of Flag Day. Installation of officers will be the main business feature.

Dean Craft, grandson of George and Ardelle Craft of Morena Village and Claudia Elizabeth Conner of Lemon Grove were united in marriage on Decoration Day last week at the St. Phillips Episcopal Church of Lemon Grove. Dean is the son of Paul and Jean Craft, formerly of Spring Valley, California, now of Manhattan, Illinois. They have been visiting at the George Crafts for a few weeks waiting for the wedding day, and they left for their home last Tuesday. Claudia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Connors of Lemon Grove. The bride wore a ballet length white peau de soie wedding gown and carried a nosegay of white bride's roses and white carnations. The best man was Ronny Craft, brother of the bridegroom, and the bridesmaids, dressed in yellow gowns, and carrying nosegays of white carnations, were the bride's sister Miss Conner and Judy Sjordstrom. A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony.

Ronny Craft has been employed at the Scripps Hospital in La Jolla, and he went home with his parents to continue his medical studies.

Ed Roberts of Campo is in the Scripps Hospital in La Jolla, and Roy Brown of Morena Village is in the El Cajon Valley Hospital, having undergone surgery last Friday. Roy's wife Alice returned by bus from Brigham City, Utah, a week ago Wednesday where she had been visiting her daughter.

For those who would like to know, the new son of Arvilla Leach Johnson was named James Clark Johnson, after his two grandfathers, and he weighed 7 pounds and 14 1/2 ounces at birth.

Word has been received that Marie Martin was in the hospital only one week following her recent operation, and she and her husband have been staying with a friend, Ann Rehers, in Los Angeles until she could be released to come home. She was expected back in Lake Morena last Monday.

Dehesa School pupils are enjoying books received from Padre Kino School of Tecate, Mexico May 23. The book exchange is one of the projects which began a year ago, when the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of Dehesa visited Padre Kino School. This is to be an annual event with alternating visits being made. Thirty-four pupils were accompanied by Professor Francisco Brizuela Amador principal of Padre Kino School, two teachers and the wife of the mayor of Tecate.

Dehesa School graduates and their parents enjoyed a banquet at the Chuck Wagon Wednesday evening May 29. Those in attendance were Nancy Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fields, Wilma Thompson, Mrs. Walter Thompson, Judy Howell, Mrs. Howell, Donald Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Slack Sr. Graduates not attending, Kathy Vockrodt and Cathy Hasbrouck who were showing their 4-H animals at the Fair, and Susan Bennett who was ill with the measles. Teachers and board members attending the banquet were Mrs. Carol Stout, principal and Mr. C. Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Wildman, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reese. A party followed at Dehesa school for the graduates, pupils and parents of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The theme of the party was "Baby Days" with decorations in pink and blue, and baby pictures of the pupils. Games and broom dancing made for an enjoyable evening. Refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fields, Mrs. Walter Thompson and Mrs. John Heinz.

The Valley Vagabond Club plan a trip to Knotts Berry Farm and Wax Museum on June 4. Three Tuesdays a month visits are made to scenic and historic places in Southern California. One Tuesday each month a pot-luck lunch and meeting is held to plan activities for the following month. Mrs. Al Tift was hostess for the month of May.

Mrs. James Fields is the leader of the newly formed Girl Scout and Brownie groups in Dehesa.

Richard Noel has undergone surgery at Mercy Hospital, on his back. Dick was at Heartland Hospital in El Cajon for treatment previous to his transfer to Mercy.

Mrs. Carrie Marshall has just returned from a two months trip to Texas. She visited her son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Dorothy in Port Lavaca. They made a trip to Fort Banning, Georgia, to see her grandson and then to Michigan to see Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Larabee, and other old friends. Welcome home, Mrs. Marshall.

The WSCS of the Methodist Church held their rummage sale last Saturday. The money earned will be given for the new carpet fund for the church. Kay Baker was in charge and did a very good job.

Rev. Meier was honored at a birthday supper at the home of Mrs. Echo Atkins, later in the evening friends dropped in to wish him happy returns, with cards and gifts.

Mrs. John Anderson is home recuperating after undergoing surgery. She is scheduled to undergo further surgery at a later date.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship has elected their new officers for the coming year. They are: Pat Ricardson, president; Dave Ricardson, vicepresident; Jackie Thompson, secretary; Rick Winkelmen, treasurer; Lorna Henriksen, chairman of Christian Witness; Margaret Van Oort, chairman of Christian Outreach; Jean Posey, chairman of Christian Fellowship, and Rita Schak, chairman of Christian Citizenship.

The Girl Scouts, Troops 66 from Pine Valley and 798 from Descanso, plan a camping trip to Camp Davidson, near Julian, in July. The money for camp has been earned by dues and the sale of Girl Scout cookies. The leaders and girls are: Carol Preston, Norma Schultz, Grace Thierans and Ann Sykes, leaders; Julie Preston, Geri Mayhorn, Pam Calease, Judy Pohle, Ann Arnold, Norma Blair, Roberta Burrows, Pam Doers, Rina Kor, Maria Herbertson, Carolyn Martinez, Helen Perkins, Cheryl Salgado, Mercedes Still, Paula Sturz, Martha Sykes, Peggy Thierans and Jackie Tyrell, Girl Scouts.

Jeannie Ferguson's family and friends surprised her with a small get-together last Saturday night in her home. Cake and ice cream were served to her aunt, Mrs. Frances Barta, her cousin Chuck, her brother Pug and his wife Sandy and their two little girls Terry Lynne and Dawn, Donna Whitman, Karen Wallace, Linda Sanford and Sheila Benson, and of course, Jeannie's mother and dad. She received some lovely birthday gifts and is proudly showing off the sharp little bedroom radio her mother and dad presented to her and the lovely bedspread brought to her by Aunt Frances. Happy birthday, Jeannie. Wish I'd been there to spank you 14 times.

Mrs. Charlene Bloom won Queen for a Day. Mr. Bloom works for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. on Mt. Laguna. Mrs. Bloom won a room full of appliances, a wardrobe, dining room set and chairs, gift certificate from Spiegel Catalog and many wonderful educational toys for their son, Bobby.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Van Fleet and daughter Sherry left for a vacation Wednesday, May 29th. They plan to camp on their way to Burns, Oregon which was their home before coming to Mt. Laguna. Before the Van Fleets left they were quite concerned about their horses Satin and Shane. The two horses got loose in Pine Valley. Shane was found in the Pine Valley Elementary School yard. He had a badly cut foot but was in good condition otherwise, but Satin could not be found. Two weeks later, June 1, Satin was found on Mt. Laguna. Both horses are resting and convalescing at the Snow Flake Ranch under the guidance and care of Carol Stoneking.

It's getting about that time again on Mt. Laguna for the teens. A small group of teenagers had a party at the Mt. Laguna Community Church. Music was furnished by Bob Stuart with hi-fi and records. The chaperones were Rev. and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Jean Christensen and Mrs. Ruth Stuart. The group numbered eleven. The teenagers are planning more of these get-togethers for the summer.

Rock and Ina Hudson hosted the C Bar's (Citizens Band Air Radio) Club Convention at the Blue Jay Lodge, Saturday, June 1. Door prizes, auctions, good food, plain fun were the plan of the day. Of course dancing in the evening was provided with a good band from San Diego.

Bert Kendrick and John Souza took off for Lake Arrowhead to spend the weekend with relatives of the Mallons at their cottage.

Seems as though these boys find something mighty attractive in that mountain and lake resort.

Our new neighbors, Mr. Harry Darnsey, who bought the Glen Simmons' lovely home is from Delaware and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Clark who live with him are from New Jersey. Mr. Darnsey who is retired from the army is in Delaware at the present, returning in about a month with many things he wishes to put in his home here, among them is an original Indian collection valued at approximately $1200. In the near future the collection will be shown to the public at an open house affair. They have already received inquiries as far away as Los Angeles and San Francisco as to the date of the showing.

Ella Belle Tondro, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilmot from Vista and their cousins from Georgia for luncheon at her beautiful home, The Shangrilla, on Spruce Drive, May 29.

Winnie Starr and family were here over the Memorial Day weekend, industriously working on their grounds to get it spic and span for the summer weekends they are planning on spending at their cabin on Corta Madera Road.

It is with deepest regret Pine Valley residents noted the death of Arthur J. Nichols, he has been a long-time resident of this valley, having lived at Casa Manzanita on Spruce Road which he purchased over 25 years ago. Mr. Nichols was a retired Chief Warrant Officer in the Navy. He also retired a year ago from the post office as superintending engineer, he had a combined government service of 51 year. He was born in San Raefel 71 years ago. His death was caused from a fall off a step ladder. Services were held last Monday under the auspices of John D. Spreckels Masonic Lodge. Mr. Nichols was a member of the Al Bahr Shrine, and Branch 9 of the Fleet Reserve Association. Our sincere sympathy to his wife, Mary, his son, Arthur, his sister and grandchildren.

The two lovely teenagers, Mary and John, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Giesbrecht had Sally Nelson and Bill Ketchum as their house guests after the school prom. The next day a group consisting of the above mentioned and Elaine Strand, Marlyn Dunn, Conrad Muhhauser and John Shock spent the day at that fabulous playland for children as well as grownups, Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey had a surprise visit over the holiday. Frances Schwank and Lillian Bullard from San Diego dropped in for a picnic lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hoff from Chula Vista spent Sunday with them. Harold and Lee Gilbert spent part of Memorial Day helping Jim load the camper onto his truck which took all three men a good two hours due to the sloping driveway of the Harveys. Friends in need are friends indeed, the Gilberts more than proving their neighborliness and friendship.

Schrade Reports On Legislation

The last few weeks of any regular legislative session are always a hurly-burly of activity, of pressures and counter-pressures, of frantic efforts to get things going. This one is no different from its predecessors. With less than four weeks to go as I write this, most major issues are still before us, though some of them may be finally decided within days.

Our real legislative "iceberg"—nine-tenths concealed for the time by controversial measures—is the $3.25 billion state budget bill. Fiscal committees in both houses have been laboring with its many details for months. Until it is reported to the floor of each house for action, some time in the closing days, much legislation will back-log behind it, including $230 million in proposed appropriations for many special purposes. We know that changes in the budget will be made, but just what is anyone's guess right now.

The administration tax program started to move recently, but is involved in hot, and sometimes bitter controversy. The bill to speed up insurance tax payments, but which opponents claimed would actually raise them some $66 million, passed the Assembly by a tight vote. The keystone measure, which would put personal state income taxes on a withholding basis, has crawled over its first hurdles, but observers don't think its chances for enactment are great. The third major measure in the group, to speed up bank and corporation tax payments, has come out of committee, but is still strongly opposed.

Involved in the fate of the budget and tax bills is the important question of state support of public schools. The administration program calls for an increase of about $30 million per year over the amount needed to meet normal growth. In addition, a property tax to "equalize" resources as between school districts is recommended, which would raise about $25 million annually. The bill supported by most educators calls for additional state support of $100 million annually, as well as the equalizing tax. If this latter measure were enacted, the administration budget would be thrown greatly out of kilter.

The bill to provide more money for local streets and roads by raising the gas tax one percent and other highway user taxes proportionately has passed the Senate. It was amended to require action by the supervisors or city council before it could go into effect in a county or city. In the Assembly, the bill has already been amended again to permit local levy of an additional one-half percent ad valorem tax on vehicles, the proceeds to be used for mass transit needs. About $30 million annually would be raised by this new tax. In this form, the measure is given a good chance of passage, but there is still speculation as to whether it would be signed into law.

As might be expected, the legal deadlines set for consideration of its own bills by each house (June 6 for the Senate, June 11 for the Assembly) are creating some problems for us Legislators. This is particularly true as to social insurance legislation. Significant workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance and disability insurance bills thus affected are being carefully watched by all interested.

The going during our closing weeks will be rough on all of us. Our responsibility will never be greater, and the results of our labor on these and other important issues will, to an extent, shape the future of California.

Coke's Kitchen

Summer is almost upon us with loads of fun gatherings in patios and out-of-doors. Would love to share two delicious casseroles to make your dinner guests rave with delight. These recipes have all been tested so feel free to try them on your family. Would love to hear from my readers, if there are any, with any of their very "specials."

Shrimp and Macaroni Casserole
 Spread 1 cup macaroni (4-oz.) cooked over bottom of greased shallow 16-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup of sliced stuffed olives. Place 2 tablespoons of finely diced onion, 2 sprigs of diced parsley, in saucepan with 3 cups of milk. Add 6 tablespoons of melted butter, 1 tsp. of salt, 1 tsp. of dry mustard and 1/2 tsp. of paprika. Blend thoroughly. Add 10 oz. can of shrimps. Bring to a boil stirring constantly. Pour mixture over macaroni and olives. Bake in oven at 375 F. until browned and bubbly (about half hour), cover baking dish with foil and place on pre-heated hotray.

Salmon and Lima Bean Casserole
 1 package (12 oz.) frozen lima beans
 1 tall can (1 lb.) salmon
 1 can (11 oz.) cream of celery soup
 2/3 cup milk
 1 tsp. lemon juice
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup crushed potato chips or cereal flakes
 Cook lima beans in boiling, salted water until tender. Flake salmon and remove bones; combine with lima beans in a greased, 1 1/2 quart casserole. Mix together celery soup, milk, lemon juice and salt and pour over salmon and lima bean mixture. Sprinkle potato chips over the top. Bake, uncovered, in a moderate oven (350 degrees), for 30 minutes or until bubbly and well blended. Serves four.

fore it gets printed. Suffice it to say for the time being that horses! horses! horses are becoming more and more plentiful in the Alpine area. Which, to my way of thinking, is how it should be.

At the show at La Jolla last weekend, Willow Glen Farm's new stallion, Joker Red took first in a large Appaloosa Western Pleasure class. For the first time he beat the Willow Glen mares. Marvel was third in the class, and Bonnett down the line with a sixth. For the first time in a long while Appaloosas came from the Los Angeles area to compete in a San Diego show. Hope they enjoyed themselves so much that they continue to show up down here.

Early last Tuesday morning, a filly was born to Midge, the shetland pony owned by the Everett Reed family of Alpine Terrace. Jackie and Denise Reed have named the newcomer Summer Lady. Midge was a first place ribbon winner in the recent show held for Alpine children only, and her foal was a complete surprise to the Reeds. The Reeds have not had Midge very long, and although they knew she was in foal, had no idea when the foal was due. In any case, they now have a lovely, new filly.

News About Books And Flowers

Over the past few weeks, Mrs. Elizabeth West, librarian of Alpine, has had displayed on her "special" shelf nearly 30 different wild flower many of which have been donated by Mrs. McPherson Coats, Mrs. Mildred Kendall and Mrs. Marguerite Burns.

Drop into the library soon and see the beautiful display of monkey flowers and pearly everlasting. Oh, by the way, don't forget a good book on your way out. The Alpine branch of the library has a new shipment of books just received this week.

Tennis Tournament Set In La Jolla

World's largest tournament in variety of divisions, the 47th La Jolla Tennis Championships, will be held on June 29 to July 7 in La Jolla and Pacific Beach for an expected field of 600 players ranging in age from 7-75.

Adults will compete in 15 classes on the two weekends, while juniors will vie in 20 divisions from Monday through Friday. Combination adult-junior family events will be on July 3-5. The total of 38 divisions has no equal anywhere.

The colossus of netfests is co-sponsored by the La Jolla Tennis Club, La Jolla Town Council and the San Diego Park and Recreation Department. Tourney headquarters is La Jolla Playground, but matches will also be played at La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club, Mission Bay Tennis Center, The Bishop's School and at private courts in La Jolla.

Deadline for entries is June 21 at 5 p.m. at Post Office Box 1677, La Jolla. Tournament directors are Dr. Ray Crimmel and Robert Bacon, while Archie Talbot is honorary director.

S.D. Radio Stations On C.D. Network

Two San Diego radio stations, KOGO and KCBQ, have been selected by the Department of Defense, Office of Civil Defense in Washington as part of the revised emergency broadcasting system to eventually replace CONELRAD, William B. Marty, County Administrator Officer for Civil Defense, said today.

The Federal Communication Commission announced that 284 standard broadcasting stations throughout the United States, including KOGO and KCBQ have been designated as participants in the emergency broadcasting system.

Alpine Gardener

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

With warm weather fast approaching many of us will be looking about and wondering if our barbecue equipment will be adequate this year or if some changes ought to be made such as redesigning the area we used last year—put a higher wall here or plant some shrubbery there to ward off a chilly evening breeze.

Try to see to it that access to the area is free of objects which anyone might stumble over such as rocks, down steps, etc., and also that the area is well lighted. Planting can provide privacy and shade. Some of the native shrubs would be well suited for such a purpose. The native wild lilac, manzanita, bush cherry, oleander and crepe myrtle, all of these shrubs are well suited to the Alpine climate and are fairly quick growers. By all means plant a few herbs in the ground or in pots near your barbecue either for flavoring or to scent the air, or both. Include a few pits of flowers around this area to brighten it and give added eye appeal. Here is something special to know if you should be troubled with nematodes or eel worms (a root disease) around any of your plants; get some French Marigold plants or sow the seed and plant them close around the infested area and you will rid yourself of this pest around either flowers or vegetables.

Freeway Driving

Your San Diego County Traffic Safety Council asks you to remember it takes two to make a freeway entrance: the driver entering and the driver already on the freeway. The entering driver should be certain he's using the proper entrance, keep to the right, increase speed in the acceleration lane so he can merge smoothly with the traffic flow. That takes good judgment and timing. The driver already on the freeway should adjust his speed and help the other driver get on the freeway. That takes courtesy and demonstrates the teamwork so necessary for safe freeway driving.

prompted them to move on where there might be some decent swimming weather and they ended up in Prescott, Arizona. Everything was lovely but the day they started home it was a blistering 106 and 25 miles from nowhere they had a wheel break. The next mishap was switch trouble and then after they arrived home the oil pump in the car went out. Trouble always does seem to come in "threes." However, the only complaint now is from John who is stiff from playing so much ball with the kids. While they were away daughter Del and her fiance Tommy made a sign to hang in the yard which reads "McConnell's Manor" and the fact that one of the kids' swings is a little higher than the other might be because the missing links are holding up the new sign. Sounds like they had a nice holiday trip though, in spite of minor mishaps.

The Scout Mothers held a meeting Tuesday night to organize for future activities and elect necessary committees to get the various jobs done. Coming up June 22nd will be a dance which will be held to raise funds for the pack activities for this summer. Watch for further details on this and be sure and support the efforts of these busy mothers.

Boy Scout Troop 375 is going overnight camping to Green Valley Falls this weekend so let's hope the weather turns off nice for this outing. Looks like the scouting activities this summer will be great, as the use of a pool has been promised and arrangements are being made for the use of the community hall which has been promised and arrangements are being made for the use of the community hall which has ping-pong tables and other facilities which should prove helpful in keeping these lively young un's happy during the summer months.

A nice family dinner was the chosen method for celebrating Carla Wallenborn's 17th birthday this past week. Her grandparents drove out from San Diego and presented her with a lovely what-not shelf which her grandfather lovingly made in his workshop. Many happy returns, Carla.

Mrs. Lelia Conley of 1903 Highway 80 has had house guests four different times during May. Mrs. Mary Andersen of San Diego visited and enjoyed the beauty of the back country. Miss Alta McGinnis and Mrs. Virginia Pennington of Santa Ana visited this part of California for the first time, and were much impressed. Mrs. Pennington, a former resident of Arizona, does landscape oil painting and was taken with the beautiful scenery around Alpine. Mrs. Mildred Henbree, daughter of Mrs. Conley from El Centro, drove over each week and spent time showing the visitors the spots of interest around Alpine, to Pine Valley and other short trips. Mrs. Pennington is seriously considering Alpine as a future home, as is Miss McGinnis, who has retired after teaching in California schools for 41 years. Mrs. Conley donates time to the Chamber of Commerce office and she deserves credit for selling her friends on Alpine as a friendly place to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Coppock have just returned from an 8000-mile auto tour to New York and the New England states, returning through Canada. They spent 10 days in Indianapolis, Ind., their former home. They especially enjoyed the magnificent scenery at Banff and Lake Louise in the Canadian Rockies.

Ten children have joined. Sandra Yates, Sandra Rutherford, Nanette Willis, Julie Carlin, Susie and Sally Fields, Nancy and Virginia Denton, and Elizabeth Thompson. The girls are knitting, drawing, and embroidering to earn their Arts and Crafts Medals. A camp-out is being planned in the near future.

The following Dehesa children won first ribbons at the East County Fair in the agriculture division of 4-H and Future Farmers of America. Billy Fields, hog and animal showmanship; Kathy Vockrodt, beef; Ralp Cockrodt, beef; Kenneth Vockrodt, FFA sheep; Steven C. Hasbrouck, goat; Kathy Babcock, goat; John Ballinger, goat; Kathy Hasbrouck, reserve grand champion goat. Nancy Denton placed second on dress review.

The annual Memorial Day Art Festival of The Swallows Club was attended by 425 visitors. Entries of oil and water paintings, sand carvings, sea shell crafts, and leather craft were judged by Los Angeles artists. A "Sing Along" was held Thursday evening around the open fire pit, with many musicians in attendance. The artist and model contest was held Saturday, with a new member of the Swallows Club taking model honors. A member of Lazy K Ranch of San Bernardino was chosen male model of the year. Swimming contests were held Saturday with Billy Zehner taking first in his class. The highlight of the three-day festival was the Artist and Model Ball Saturday night.

Mt. Whirlers Square Dance Club held its final class and dance for the season at the Mt. Empire School Auditorium on May 25, with Mitch Shean calling. If enough people will be interested in a new class next fall, same will probably start again in September, and Mr. Shean will try and be available. It is necessary to have at least three squares in order to pay for the caller. It is suggested that anyone wanting to join a class contact Mrs. Alden Farris, Rt. 1, Box 76, Campo, or phone 478-5396 any time between now and September.

Gen. and Mrs. G. A. Counts of Coronado were dinner guests of Mrs. Gus Molchan on Wednesday of last week. Gen. Counts is a retired Professor of West Point and was on the academic board in the Physics Department when John Molchan, son of Mrs. Molchan, attended West Point. Ann Counts, daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Counts and John's wife Connie are very good friends, and they were both married on the same day, when John and Ann's husband graduated from West Point in 1946.
