Serving a Growing Area of Homes and Ranches

Rex Hultz, Crest fireman of the month, mans the hose at a recent practice control burnoff held in Crest.

Crest Fireman Of the Month

Rex Hultz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hultz of 339 Estronino Lane, has been selected as the first Crest Fireman of the Month.

A letter of commendation has been sent to Fire Chief Roger Dutton from Lieut. Paul Mon Dragon. The letter reads, "This man has shown himself to be reliable, trustworthy, a hard worker, and most important, of all, cheerful, no matter what the task."

Hultz has been with the Fire Department as a junior fireman for five months, and seems to show the qualities which are appreciated in men, regardless of their length of service.

The commendation concludes, "The Department could do well with more firemen like Hultz."

Congratulations, Rex, keep up the good work.

San Diego Planning World's Fair in '69

Grover Advises Fire Commissioners

At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners of the Alpine Local Fire District last Monday afternoon, Mr. Clyde E. Grover, San Diego Branch Manager of the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau, outlined to the Commissioners the steps required to be taken and the information furnished to the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau in Los Angeles in order to be able to determine what is required by them to obtain a more favorable fire prevention rating.

Mr. Grover advised the Board that it would be necessary for them to submit all of the data regarding the fire district, the fire fighting equipment available, and the

The Showboat Is on Its Way

The production of "Showboat," a minstrel-type show, is presently in rehearsal and will be presented on Friday, April 10, at the Alpine School Auditorium.

This is a joint venture being given by the Kiwanis Club of Alpine, the teachers of the Alpine Schools, and the school children. Approximately 75 persons will take part in this extravaganza, which will include a Dixieland band, a chorus, a colossal bathing beauty contest, and two or three professional acts from the Lakeside Kiwanis Club show.

The participants in Showboat are having a hilarious time during rehearsals, and all reports indicate that this production will be marvelous entertainment. The enthusiasm of the participants is contagious, and everyone who has heard about the fun is looking forward to attending the show. Tickets will be available next week from all Kiwanians, the teachers, and at businesses in Alpine. Cost of the tickets is 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

New Residents In Alpine

Newcomers to Alpine are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chamberlain who came here from Corvallis, Oregon.

Mr. Chamberlain was born in Texas, finished High School in Los Angeles then moved to Oregon where he received his B.S. in Forestry at Oregon State and his M.S. degree in entomology. Later Mr. Chamberlain received his Doctor's degree at Stanford in 1931. He taught entomology for 40 years at Oregon State University with time out for World Wars 1 and 2. During the first World War he was a pilot and during the 2nd World War he trained young men as mechanics. Mrs. Chamberlain was born in Oregon. The Chamberlains have four children all married. They have purchased the attractive home on South Grade Road owned and built by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Halverson of San Diego. Sale was negotiated by Charlene V. Brown of Pierce Realty Company here.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA LA FORCE

Why today, the Friday before Easter Sunday, is called "good" Friday is not definitely known, according to the reference books I've consulted and a phone call to a very patient reference librarian who checked further on the subject. One theory says it comes from "God's Friday" and, according to another, the word refers to the good which came to the world through the life and death of Jesus. It's also called Holy Friday and Great Friday by certain church groups. It is observed as a holiday in Arkansas, Maryland, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Minnesota, New Jersey, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Texas, and in five counties in Arizona. Church of most Christian denominations hold Good Friday services in commemoration of the crucifixion. All our local churches will hold these services.

A part from the religious observance of Good Friday, we have the pleasant custom of eating hot cross buns on that day. This custom was introduced to America from England, but where England got it is lost in the confusion of history. Some authorities suggest that it may have begun as a species of sacred bread offered to the gods of mythological times and, like many such customs, have been adopted by the early Christian church when converting the heathen. They say the first buns were ornamented with the horns of the sacred bull or ox and when the church adopted the bun for its converts the horns were changed to a cross. However this interesting theory is not accepted by the lexicographers. Historians of early English customs prefer to think that bakers, envious of the profits of the church, began to make the buns marked with the cross to increase their own profits. Anyhow, in the 18th century London there was the OLD CHELSEA BUN-HOUSE to which people flocked by the thousands on Good Friday morning to buy the buns. Records say that as many as 50,000 of them were sold on that day. A rival bun house set up and began a furious competition. But George III showed his preference for the Chelsea house by going in person and buying his buns there. Talk about pressure advertising! In those days that was the ultimate. So the rival bun house got only the left over clients from the King's favorite. Do you suppose he had a financial interest in that Chelsea bakery?

Easter to many women, I suppose to most of us nowadays, means a new outfit of clothes to wear, whether or not we go to church. Women who never wear hats throughout the rest of the year, are often seen in a new Easter bonnet. Where this custom originated is not so hard to imagine, since it's spring, and women, like the lilies of the fields, long to bloom afresh with the springtime. We have heard people speak disapprovingly of the new Easter

Alpine C of C Holds First Quarterly Membership Meeting

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce held a membership meeting last night at the Woman's Club. The Chamber's by-laws, which were revised last January, had previously provided for only one annual membership meeting. The revised by-laws now provide that the Chamber hold a membership meeting at least quarterly. Last night's meeting was the first under this new provision.

The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. Ed Houser, General Manager of the Rio San Diego County Board of Supervisors, representing the second supervisorial district. He has filed his nominating petitions for the non-partisan office.

Boney Outlines His Candidacy Program

Henry A. Boney announced he will seek election to the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, representing the second supervisorial district. He has filed his nominating petitions for the non-partisan office.

In announcing his candidacy, Boney, 49, a longtime San Diego County resident and founder of Speedee Mart, Inc., declared, "The growth and development of the southern and southeastern parts of San Diego County, while impressive in recent years, have not been up to their full potential. The municipalities here have had effective leadership. What is needed is fresh, dynamic support from county government. I plan to provide this support, to see that the economic development of this area is stepped up, and to provide the completely modern, thoroughly practical leadership that is needed."

"It's easy enough for any candidate to say, 'We need more jobs,'" Boney declared, "but just talking doesn't do the trick. We need new jobs, right enough, but we need an effective approach to getting them. The Board of Supervisors, by taking an up-to-date approach to the matter can provide the leadership that will stimulate business, increase tourism, create jobs, and help the south county area enjoy its exciting potential. It follows that what will help this particular area will help all of

New Manager for Del Mar Fair

The 22nd District Agricultural Association board of directors today announced that Roy Welch, former secretary manager of the Yuba-Sutter Fair, Yuba City, has been named secretary-manager of the San Diego County Fair.

Mr. Welch, 56, has served in the same post for the 13th Agricultural District in Yuba-Sutter counties for the past 16 years. He is a past president of the Western Fairs Association.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Welch is a World War II Navy veteran.

Harry B. Sugarman, 22nd District president, said "we are pleased to obtain the services of Roy Welch as our new secretary-manager."

"Mr. Welch's extensive experience, the fact that he was one of the two men considered to manage the California State Fair, and his deep involvement in community affairs recommended him highly to our directors."

Welch will take over his duties on or before May 1, 1964. He succeeds D. Robert Jones who died suddenly Feb. 3. John R. Russell, 22nd District controller, has been serving as interim manager.

Lively Oaks Plan Chili Luncheon

On the dot of twelve on Monday, March 30, the Lively Oaks will serve a special chili luncheon. Everyone is cordially invited. Members will be served for a 50c donation and non-members will be asked $1.00. On the menu there will be featured chili with beans, chili without beans, and chili-mac, which should satisfy all appetites, according to Mrs. Myrtle Hoffelder, President of the Club.

Last Thursday a group of ladies from the Lively Oaks visited the Alpine Convalescent Home and attended a craft session while there. Those attending this tour were Mmes. Schiek, Earl, Frazier, Hoffelder, Bratt, and Norse.

CAMPO

By FAY FARRIS

The terrible fire in the Los Angeles area has made everyone very fire conscious, so much so, that someone in Morena Village had a permit to burn some brush, and a neighbor who noticed the blaze and smoke called the fire fighters and they came with their available equipment, only to learn that it was a false alarm. Best to be safe than sorry, though.

Margaret Rolland hosted the Lake Morena Combo Club on Wednesday of last week. She lives on Buckman Springs Road. Guests were Helen Pate, Fay Barrish and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Blahah from San Bernardino.

The Liquid Embroidery Class met at the Farris home in Lake Morena as usual on Thursday of last week, and after several months' absence due to illness, the instructor, Ruby Blakeney was present. She had a great many new supplies of articles to paint, and everyone enjoyed her display. She will be coming to the class regularly on the third Thursday of the month.

The strong winds of last week blew part of the roof off the Ella Griffith home in Lake Morena. The house is rented to tenants, as Mrs. Griffith lives in Boston.

Houseguests at the Nick Martin home in Morena Village for three days last week were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Risse from Inglewood. They are cousins of Mrs. Martin.

Visiting at the David Lindemann have been Mr. and Mrs. Perk Cravens from Summerton, Ariz. They were all invited to the Nick Martin home for dinner last Sunday.

Type 'A' Flu in San Diego County

The San Diego Department of Public Health today reported two laboratory confirmed cases of Type A influenza in San Diego County.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said these were the first laboratory confirmed cases of influenza to occur in this county this winter and that they are among the first to be reported in the State.

The cases occurred in a man and a woman, both of National City. Both patients have recovered. The same physician submitted blood samples from both patients to the Virus Section of the Department of Public Health Laboratory for testing. Dr. Askew said the physician reported that this Type A influenza was somewhat milder than the original Asian 'flu.

"It is quite apparent that the Type A influenza virus is in our community," Dr. Askew said. "There are also many other upper respiratory infections going around that are not influenza. We believe that these two laboratory confirmed cases are sporadic and that we will not be confronted by a widespread outbreak of influenza."

Dr. Askew cited these reasons: The incubation period of influenza is only 24 hours. Since the woman became ill three weeks ago, and the man two weeks ago, there would now be many cases if a sizable outbreak was occurring.

School absenteeism, another clue, has not reached the critical level of 10 percent.

There has not been an increase in admissions at County Hospital for any epidemic respiratory disease.

Neither has there been any marked increase in the number of blood samples submitted by physicians to the Public Health Laboratory

MOTHER GRUNDY

By OLIVE WOOLDRIDGE

Peter has wanted to know in his letters what it was like here in the winter time. I'll show this picture to show that once in a while it really looks like winter but it doesn't last for long and most of our winters are mostly just like spring and we don't have the many long months of frozen weather that they have in Germany.

View of paddocks with hail on the ground.

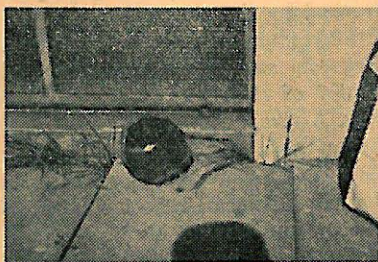

In case any one would like to write to Peter or Erika here are the addresses. In the last letter Peter said he was out of school and going back to Koln with his parents so that address is:

Peter Happe

And for Erika her address is:

And now to speak again to Range and Helga Cloyd and their family. We have some pictures to send to them but just never get time this time of year to keep up our correspondence. Range and Helga and their lovely children are responsible for a week or more of our successful trip and stay in Germany. We stayed in Hamburg with them and because of Range got to see several trade fairs and partly because of these our whole trip seemed more like an international experience than one would think when we say we just visited Germany.

Below is a prize for size mushroom that Range and Helga's oldest girl found on one of our hunts in the woods. Only this one she found in someone's front yard, and you should have seen her. We had found nothing that morning and were walking down the road in front of homes, she gasped or squealed or something and was afraid that the people in the house wouldn't want her to take it, but she couldn't resist it and did her best to walk over casually to pick it. As you see it here it was something to be proud of as it measured eight or 10 inches across. We propped it up in front of the front door and snapped this picture. It was much too old to eat and is called at Steinpilze.

I would like to print here a draft of my letter to friends, neighbors and other interested, in behalf of Farm Bureau and for the purpose of soliciting new members to this important organization.

Dear Friend,
I am sending you a copy of the Farm Bureau News in hopes that you will find time to see the value of its contents. This is only one of several publications that would come to you as a Farm Bureau member.

I know your life is like mine and it is impossible to read even the things that are most important to you. However, knowing that you take an active interest in legislation and your community, I felt that I should ask you to consider

Realtors Endorse Housing Initiative

While some three hundred pickets marched outside a California Real Estate Association Directors' meeting in Palo Alto last Friday, Art S. Leitch of San Diego, CREA President, pledged that "We intend to do everything we can to inform the people about the real issue involved in the Housing Initiative."

Over 1500 Realtors, real estate salesmen and their guests attended the meeting.

"The real issue is equality," Leitch said, "Should the individual citizen of California have the right to decide for himself, freely, without dictation by the State, to whom he must sell or rent his own property?"

"And we are talking about

ECHOES OF THE PAST

NOTE THE CHANGES MADE BY TIME

At first glance you'll know what this picture represents: THE ALPINE WOMAN'S CLUB building and the County branch library in the left hand corner. But look closely now. No church across the way to the right on Victoria Drive there. No doctor's office in the left rear space. An open drive-through maintained in front of the building where now the stone wall encloses a patio. That little white shed out front used to cover the pump to a well which was long inadequate to serve the bust social life of the building. Look even closer and you'll see that the bit of Victoria hill visible right behind the trees is houseless.

Yes the years do make changes, but we can be thankful they leave some things unchanged, like this historic old building, loved by its women clubbers, and many who enjoy it as a landmark.

Reader Identifies an "Echo of the Past"

Regarding "Can You Identify This Picture" in the March 12th issue of the Echo, indeed I can as it is of The Willows where I was born, also my brothers, Douglas and Donald. My parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Walker, and five other brothers and sisters came to Alpine in 1894 by horse and wagon, and in 1902 started a boarding house which in time grew, and one by one cottages were built and it became one of the famous resorts of San Diego County. It was in the Walker family for 63 years until sold to a Mrs. McDonald, later to Mr. and Mrs. Graham, and then to the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. Richey. The land surrounding the 6 acre resort part is still owned by members of the Walker family.

The present new Highway 80 south of the resort was built in 1950, and the old original road was named Willows Road. At that time there were several homes across Willows Road, but since then many more have been built. In the early days, where the homes now are was owned by the Walker family and was a large peach and prune orchard.

The clearing in front of the old adobe home shown in the picture taken over 30 years ago was once a miniature golf course where many old San Diegans played golf at the time of Halley's Comet as I remember many of us watching for it. To the right of the picture was the famous croquet court under a large oak tree well known to many old San Diegans who enjoyed a game of croquet with Mr. F. B. Walker, who was shown playing croquet in one of your earlier pictures of "Echoes of the Past."

There are no houses in that clearing, as you stated. At the present time there are eastern lilac trees along the highway which were not planted at the time the picture was taken, so I know it was over 30 years old.

I hope this will help the Echo in identifying the picture.

JAMUL

By THERESA EGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Buras announce the arrival of a daughter, Bertha, at 7:57 p.m. March 9, at the San Diego Naval Hospital. She weighed 8 lb. 6 oz. at birth. Mother and daughter are doing well. Bertha has a big brother, Edward 10 and a big sister, Carmel 6.

Evelyn Parrott, 4-H rabbit-raising instructor, holds meetings for a group of five about once a month. She and George have 50 working does, 10 bucks. Sunny West's rabbit had its first litter of five this week, and she learned how to fix the nest box beforehand with shavings, and the amount to feed a doe after its litter. As unforeseen problems arise she will have Evelyn's help and moral support by phone between meetings. Members hope to take their rabbits to the Fair in Bonita in April. Bob Parrott is junior leader.

The Rebecca Circle of Jamul Bible Church had a meeting at Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown's home, 16 or 18 were present. Plans for a trip to Disneyland were discussed, then Mr. Brown spoke on the school bond issue. Grace Brown served a delicious ham dinner, the proceeds going towards paying off the Church piano. The Circle has been responsible for providing drapes and rug on the platform that holds the choir and piano, grading and oiling the drive and parking area, enlarging and building more Sunday School rooms. Their missionary work includes sending baby clothes to the Cumberland Mts. and leftover bazaar and rummage items to a local mission.

The Jamul Bible Church invites all of you to go on its trip to Disneyland, Wednesday, April 29. All will meet and board the bus at the Union 76 Service Station at College Grove at 7:30 a.m. Breakfast will be eaten at a restaurant across the highway from Disneyland, but lunch or snacks while in Disneyland will be up to the individual, as there is a wide choice of type and price. The entire day will be devoted to the playland, the bus leaving for home at 5 p.m. You pay $3 for the bus trip plus entry price to Disneyland plus meals. Through the bus company you may get a group rate price of $3.55 for a book of 10 coupons or $4.45 for a deluxe of 15 coupons. You cannot turn in S&H stamps for the coupon books at Disneyland—this must be done at a redemption center at home before the trip. For further information and reservations call Mina Carver 463-3747.

Jamul 4-H was invited by El Cajon 4-H to attend an ice skating party Friday, March 20, at Iceland in La Mesa. Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Jerry's Hayride took a group of about 15 from Jamul. Some, like Marsha and Rhonda Nicholls, had never been on ice before, but took

LAKE ELSINORE STATE PARK TO BE OPENED APRIL 4

Lake Elsinore State Park will be formally opened April 4. An all-day dedication celebration, attended by state officials, will be topped off by a street dance in the evening.

The dry years have been hard on business, but those who had faith in the return of water stuck it out. Owners boarded up their homes rather than drop their selling price: "Things'll pick up when the lake's filled." We smiled, thinking it the pipe-dream of a town that refused to admit it was dead. The pipe-dream has become a reality. Watch Elsinore boom!

Elsinore's Park and Recreation Board worked 12 long hard years to make April 4 possible. Many plans were proposed, many disappointments suffered, before it was finally decided to make the Lake a State Park. The Park Board purchased the dry lakebed and surrounding lands and gave them to the State of California. A State Park was set up on the West Shore and has been used for picnicking and camping. The State spent $750,000 to fill the Lake: $500,000 for water and $250,000 for valves and channel work to bring the water to the Lake. The Division of Beaches and Parks borrowed the money from the Small Craft Harbors and hopes to repay it from lake-use fees. The water, purchased from the Metropolitan Water District, had to travel 16 miles down the San Jacinto riverbed into the Lake for sixty days; 30,000 acre feet are needed to fill the Lake to ten to fifteen feet deep, and it will be kept up to that level.

Boats are already in use on the Lake and will be open to all kinds of water sports after the April 4 dedication. Use fees are $3 per boat per day, $25 per quarter year, $40 per half-year, or $75 for an annual permit. There will be a $2 fee for parking and launching at one of the new marinas. Overnight camping in the park will be $2 per car per night. Available will be fifty-six campsites, with tables and stoves at each campsite, and hot and cold showers.

In Elsinore four hotels and motels and trailer parks are conveniently located. Cleveland National Forest camping is eight miles away, and Idyllwild's within one hour's drive. To get to Elsinore from San Diego, take U.S. 395 and turn off on State Hwy. 71 at Temecula. It's 75 miles North of San Diego, 75 miles Southeast of Los Angeles.

El Cap. Frosh Train On Job Application

Ten El Capitan freshmen will face a professional interviewer from the Pacific Telephone Company, on the morning of April 3, before their twenty-six classmates in Richard Brimhall's social studies class. The students, who have filled out application forms for specific jobs, will be interviewed by Miss Sandy Hoffman, school relations supervisor.

"We hope," said Mr. Brimhall, "to let these freshmen have the actual experience of applying for a job in an interview with a trained person, so they will know what to expect in such a situation in real life. Most of the students in this class will be applying for work right after graduation and many of them before." Each student will be told by Miss Hoffman what he must do to improve.

The following day, those interviewed will talk over the experience for the class, sharing their ideas and feelings. "It is hoped that they will learn that everybody is nervous, that one must accept this fact and go ahead anyway," Mr. Brimhall said. The self-confidence gained by those students who have experienced the interview should show in other classes, too, and it is hoped that all the students will be stimulated to seek jobs this summer.

Accessory Mfrs. Oppose Pay TV

The Television Accessory Manufacturers Institute has indorsed the initiative campaign to repeal California's Pay-TV law, Don Belding, state chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Free-TV announced today.

Morton Leslie, of New York, president of the national Institute, declared:

"There is no doubt in our industry that Pay-TV will wipe out Free-TV as we know it and severely curtail the production of television sets in the United States.

"It is certain that Pay-TV will pirate the major attractions on Free-TV and leave millions of viewers without adequate programming. This can only result in a drastic reduction of the number of TV sets in use.

"Therefore, we feel that we are acting in the public interest when we support the initiative to strike down Pay-TV in California.

"After all, the public has invested some $20 billion in its 60 million TV sets which are serviced by 577 commercial stations and 87 educational stations. Surely this public has a right to speak out on whether it wants its free programming grabbed off for the enrichment of the promoters of Pay-TV.

R. "Christy" Christianson, 49, of 10751 Fuerte Drive, La Mesa, who has announced his candidacy for the County Board of Supervisors from the 2nd District, an office currently held by David Bird states "When a public official holds the same office for two decades you can't expect the vibrant, enthusiastic approach to problems of a growing community. New blood is necessary to rejuvenate the thinking. Many people feel that the time to get that new blood is now, and I have been asked to run.

"Too many voters and tax-payers don't realize the extent of powers in the hands of the Supervisors. I feel the public should be made aware of this arm of the government, so close to them, yet so far from comprehension."

Mr. Christianson is the owner of Christy's Products of El Cajon, manufacturer and distributor of Christy's Caramel Corn. He is Vice-Commodore of the Southwestern Yacht Club, is Past Commander of the San Diego Power Squadron, and is a member of the San Diego Grocery Sales Club.

LACK OF CANDIDATES

The terms of office of two of the Fire Commissioners of the Alpine Local Fire District expire next month. The State law provides that an election be held each year on the first Tuesday in April to fill the expired terms unless no candidates have filed for the positions and no petition has been submitted signed by registered voters requesting that an election be held.

This year the two commissioners whose terms are expiring were both appointed by the Board of Supervisors to fill vacancies created on the Board, one by resignation and the other by the death of a Commissioner. Neither of these appointees filed nomination papers for the positions and have not indicated any interest in becoming candidates, and also no other persons filed nomination papers within the time specified by law.

However, a petition signed by the required number of registered voters was filed with the Board requesting that an election be held which would, of necessity, be a "write in" election since there could be no names on the ballot.

In order to clarify the election and reduce the confusion that might arise due to writing in an individual's name in several different manners and spellings, at the suggestion of the county registrar of voters, the local newspapers offered to publish the names of all persons seeking these offices, or being sponsored by individuals or groups for these offices.

To date the Echo has received word from only one person that he is a candidate and his name has been published with the spelling requested by him.

The petition calling for the election was signed by 71 registered voters which is nearly ten per cent of the registered voters within the fire district. If only one person announces his candidacy, and there are two positions to be filled, the election might result in a large number of persons each receiving a small number of votes and with a large number of variations in spelling of the names.

The Echo will be published once more prior to the election which will give an opportunity for additional names to be proposed and published of persons who will become candidates and serve if elected.

Surely the signers of the petition must have had something in mind more than just holding an election and saddling the cost thereof on the taxpayers of the District. At least a few of them must have some idea of eligible qualified candidates. Let's hear from them.

LOTS OF CANDIDATES

In contrast to the situation regarding the coming Fire District election, the reading of the daily news will reveal the large number of candidates that are seeking the positions to be filled this year in County, State and National elections.

It seems that most everybody wants to get in on the act. With the exception of the Superior Court judges, most incumbents have one or more opponents seeking to obtain their positions.

At the State level, the Senatorship is all in confusion, including a hopeful who has been residing in another state for the past several years.

On the National scene, in the contest for the nomination for President, the confusion is even worse. Strange things happen, like bickering between the Republican big shots and a "sneak in" vote in a State primary by an Ambassador who did not campaign and was not in this country when the election took place. There seems to be confusion in the Democratic ranks where, by all of the proper rules of politics, the incumbent President should have an edge that could not be overcome.

Fortunately this country falls back on a battle of ballots instead of a battle of bullets to settle their political differences.

bonnet custom, but we can't see what harm it does, or how it detracts from the religious significance of the day—a day of renewed hope and joy in life. Human beings have always needed some visible symbol of their beliefs whether it's a hot cross bun, or a new hat, or a cross on a hill top, or a candle lighting the darkness.

Orville Palmer, Secretary of the Chamber, reported on the membership stating that at present time there are 16 paid up business members and 17 paid up non-business members. President Mallette remarked that the small number of paid up members at this date was due to the confusion of the revision of the by-laws which changed the classes of membership and the fact that dues are currently being collected for a nine-month period instead of a full year period in order to make the payment of dues coincide with the Chambers fiscal year which commences on October 1 and ends on the next September 30.

The information to be furnished would include maps of the district showing existing water mains, the pressure in the water mains, the number of fire hydrants and blow-offs, the topography of the country, and the streets and roads on which fire fighting equipment can be moved, a complete description of each piece of fire equipment, an inventory of the miscellaneous equipment, the type of alarm system, the number and previous experience of each member of the volunteer force, the method by which the volunteer firemen are contacted, and all other information which would pertain to the department, personnel and its equipment.

Mr. Grover advised the Commissioners that the proper person to contact is Mr. John Colton in the office of the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau in Los Angeles who would review the information furnished and advise the Commission on improvements that could be made to obtain a better rating, which in turn would result in lower fire insurance rates for any area within the first district that could obtain a better rating.

The Commissioners had previously started the study by obtaining a portion of the information that will be required, and will now concentrate on accumulating the balance to be able to develop a plan of upgrading the department to the greatest extent practicable at the earliest possible date.

San Diego County."

A native of Texas, Boney moved to San Diego in 1940 and entered the produce business, later entering the grocery field. In 1956, he founded the Speedee Mart chain of neighborhood convenience food stores, pioneering the "small super market" concept in the San Diego County area. Boney recently sold the chain of 128 stores to the Southland Corp., of Dallas.

Long active in local civic affairs, Boney is president of the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America, and is on the board of directors of both United Community Services and the San Diego Convention and Tourist Bureau. In 1961, he was chairman of the United Fund campaign. He is a trustee of California Western University and is a past Lieutenant-Governor of Kiwanis International, Division 11, in San Diego County.

He is a member of both the Board of Trustees and the finance committee of the La Mesa First Methodist Church. Boney currently is a director of the California Grocers Association and is a past president of the San Diego Grocers Association.

mittee, according to Co-Chairmen Hamilton Marston and Norman B. Foster.

Committee members will hear Antonia de Grassi, representative of the New York World's Fair for the Far East, at the April 6 meeting. De Grassi will discuss with the committee prospects for international participation in a program focused on the countries of the Pacific Basin.

The co-chairmen also revealed that Mrs. James R. Phelan, a former public relations worker well known for her creative abilities, will outline a variety of ideas for an anniversary celebration.

"The committee has not established the format for the event which will be staged in 1969," Co-Chairman Foster pointed out. "We have a variety of ideas, in fact, and have asked Mrs. Phelan to head a group that will create additional ideas."

Marston said that the generating of ideas is a necessary prelude to adoption of a definite celebration format.

"We want to live up to our early assurance that the 1969 celebration will be a real credit to San Diego," Marston said.

Annie and Mary. Cappy Howard, 83, presently of Colton, California, visited our community the 23rd of last month. Pat, Annie, who later married into the Dennison family, old-timers in our community, and Mary, who later married Wrenn Watts of our valley, are now deceased.

In 1889, the family moved to the mountains of Idaho for a period of five years, pursuing their occupation of farming and supplementing their income by working in the local saw mills. Laurel and Fred, both of whom have since passed away, were born during this period.

Early in '94, Albert Walker bundled his family aboard a covered wagon and headed south for California. On July 31 of that year, having set up their tents and campsite on the ranch of a widow woman in Walla Walla, Washington, it became obvious to the widow that Sarah Walker was about to give birth, so in the best traditions of oldtime country hospitality, the widow and her grandchildren temporarily vacated their house to occupy the Walker's tents while the ranch house became a delivery room to welcome the arrival of Leo Glenn Walker.

The wagon then continued south, with Albert Walker working his way in vineyards and orchards, finally arriving in the Jamacha Junction area on March 4, 1895, taking up residence in the old abandoned Shanks' house (located a short distance East of the present Bratton ranch house, at the entrance to the "Blue Gap Ranch"). Albert Walker homesteaded 160 acres in '96, and while he built a home, the family lived in the Bratton house for about a year while the Bratton family lived in San Diego operating a butcher shop.

In 1905 or '06, another 160 acres was purchased in the general area of the present Eaton ranch. Albert Walker established the first school in a barn close to Joe Eaton's present home, with Mrs.

CREST

By ROSEMARIE RAIFSNIDER

The Youth Group of the Crest Community Church has its bus! Mrs. Thomas Cross says that the Church succeeded in obtaining a 1955 GMC bus in good condition. The vehicle will seat 36 children, and will enable them to participate in activities and go on trips which they have had to miss in the past, due to lack of adequate transportation. The kids plan to paint the Church's name on the bus, and when enough money is available, they will re-do the entire exterior. The church as a whole wants to thank everyone on the Crest who has helped to make the fund-raising projects a success, and the bus a reality.

The Crest PTA will no longer have to face next year without a president. Mrs. Caleb (Marguerite) Stevens, who volunteered her services, was nominated, elected and installed at the last meeting of this year March 19. The entire slate of nominees for the PTA board for 1964-65 was elected and installed by last year's corresponding member, at this same meeting. Anyone interested in serving on one of the PTA committees next year, or in helping the PTA in any way, call Evan Cramer at 444-8500 or Mrs. Ken (Polly) Jensen at 442-5855. Polly says, "This is an excellent opportunity for newcomers to the Crest to get to know other women in the community, and we could use some help."

The Crest Community Church is planning two special Easter services. On the evening of Good Friday, March 27, at 7:00 p.m. there will be a candlelight and communion service, featuring special music and scripture by the choir, from "The Agony of the Garden of Gethsemane to the Cross at Calvary." Joyce and Judy Cross will sing Alfred Hay Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." Mar. 29, Easter Sunday, at 10:55 a.m., a special Cantata will be presented by the Sanctuary Choir and will take the place of the regular service. The Choir will offer "Hallelujah, What a Saviour," by Dr. John Petersen. Joyce and Judy Cross will alternate as soloists. Mrs. Gerald Woodhouse, wife of the Pastor, will narrate for both services, and Mrs. Stanley Kubik will accompany the presentations on the organ. Communion will be served around the altar rail at the close of the Good Friday Candlelight Service.

Ellen Lux, 17, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Lux of 1523 Park Boulevard, became the bride March 21 of Dave Gibson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gibson of 156 Albatross Place. Reverend Gerald Woodhouse officiated at the candlelight ceremony. The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with a lace overlay and train, a tiara with veil, and carried a cross made of white carnations and pink rosebuds with a white orchid in the center. Her sister, Donna Lux was maid of honor, and Mrs. Clovis Gibson, Jr., of El Cajon and Miss Carol May of Clairemont served as bridesmaids. The bridegroom's brother, Clovis Gibson, Jr., was best man, and another brother, Leroy Gibson, and Duane Cross were the ushers. Following the ceremony the 100 guests joined the newlyweds for the reception, held in the church chapel. The young couple honeymooned in the Laguna mountains for the weekend, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huntington, former Crest residents, while they were there.

VFW Post 1052 and the Crest Fire Department are joining forces to hold an Easter egg hunt at Nancy Jane Park, Easter Sunday at 2 p.m. All youngsters up to the age of 13 will be welcome to participate. The sponsors plan to hide 30 dozen eggs, which the women of the two groups will color. That's a lot of eggs. Maybe they will hang them in rows, and spray-paint 'em. There will be 10 eggs with a silver star, and any child finding one of these especially marked eggs will be awarded a silver dollar.

The Church of Saint Louise de Marillac will hold special Holy Week services on Holy Thursday at 7:30 p.m., Good Friday at 7:30 p.m., and on Saturday at 7 p.m. There will be High Mass celebrated by Father Stephen Kolozar on Easter morning at 8 a.m., followed by regular Mass at 10 a.m.

The church will hold a bake sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, April 4, in the basement of the church. The sale will be repeated on Sunday, April 5, from 9 a.m. until noon, with home-baked cookies and cakes offered.

Easter Sunday evening services at the Chapel of the Hills will feature Gospel songs by the O'Neil Wile family. Rev. and Mrs. Boone invite all to attend the 7 p.m. service.

COKE'S KITCHEN

This week we have had lovely rains and cooler weather so how about some recipes from Mexico, our neighboring land? Most of these recipes were given by the S. D. Gas & Electric Company at their monthly cooking school. If you haven't had the pleasure of attending, it is certainly worthwhile. All the recipes are given to those attending and demonstrated by Thelma Walters, Home Economist. The next meetings, at no charge, are March 10th at 12:30 p.m., and March 31 at 10:00 a.m., and are held in the auditorium at 104 No. Johnson Ave., El Cajon.

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

There always seems to be something around your garden that demands attention. If your Camellias have finished blooming, then look around for some liquid fish or other acid-type fertilizer to put on them. Also, a pinch of iron chelate which will help make the foliage more luxuriant. Directions for the use of these will be on the containers.

Now would be a good time to cut back those geraniums which may have become spindly. And you should have cut back those fuschias a week or so ago, and when a little new growth shows on them, start watering and feeding them with liquid fish or other acid fertilizer.

If you are looking for something to give you lots of color a good part of the year, and a plant not demanding at all in its needs, has nice feathery foliage, and some varieties getting to be four to five feet high, it's a daisy you want. Or better still, get several of them. They last well as cut flowers and come in white, yellow, pink, and yes, there are blue daisies. You can get small plants in flats, or larger ones in cans.

There is another daisy that goes under three names, Transval, Gerbera or African. This one requires a little better treatment, likes humusy soil and demands perfect drainage. Plant it with the crown a quarter of an inch above the ground in sun or partial shade.

While you are getting your daisy plants, get some little violas to go along as a border for them. Or perhaps, some alyssum.

Now is the time to go full speed ahead with your plants.

The Charles F. Jaussaud's daughters, Lee Mobbs and Charlene Botos, drove to Long Beach to give Charlene's husband, Danny a send-off. His ship, the USS Berkeley, nuclear-powered and carrying nothbut missiles, was due to stop in Hawaii, and then on to the Philippines. He's made the trip before, but this time it'll seem extra long because a new member of the family, expected momentarily, will be on hand to welcome daddy on his return in mid-September. Overnight liberty before his ship's departure left him free to drive the girls to Corona del Mar where Lee's husband, Jack at present is working with heavy equipment at the Irvine Ranch. The four had dinner and stayed overnight in a motel. Lee and Charlene watched four ships leave Long Beach, part of a group of 40 that left San Diego and Long Beach. Danny Botos, on his second hitch, attended Nuclear Power School in Philadelphia, before being stationed aboard the Berkeley.

Our daughter, Sharon celebrated her 17th birthday Friday, March 20. She requested an ice cream cake roll instead of the traditional cake and candles, and money to get her own presents. Will 17 be this easy the whole year through?

Mrs. Mary Pasqualone, Madeline Colombo's mother, arrived from Miami for a visit. She flew as far as Phoenix, and her grandson, Jack took the opportunity to drive her the rest of the way and visit the family at the same time. He's received notice of his induction and will report to the bus station March 26 for further orders.

Services will be held on Easter morning in Jamul's churches. Those at Jamul Bible Church will begin at 11 a.m. Rev. Coy Zumwalt's sermon will be on "The Power to Live," and special music will be featured under the direction of Mrs. Joyce McKinney. At Piux X Catholic Church Mass of the Resurrection will be sung at 8:30 a.m., and there will be a low Mass at 11 a.m.

It was announced at this meeting that the music for the adult dance at the Fiesta would be furnished by Vic Spies and his Master Music Makers quintet. This music will be furnished gratis through the Musician's Union of San Diego County, Local No. 325, under a grant from the musician's performance trust fund of the American Federation of Music. Tickets are now available for the Fiesta, $1.50 per couple or $1 single. Teenagers will be admitted free. There will be a gymkhana, carnival fun booths, snack stands, a barbeque, and a sock hop for the teenagers separate from the adult dance. Do not miss this event—the funds raised are for a good cause.

Do not forget the coffee to be given at the Elmer Wolin home in Descanso for Assemblyman Hale Ashcraft on Saturday, March 28, at 1:30 p.m.

Only one death in the county has been attributed to influenza by the attending physician so far this year. There has been no appreciable rise in the number of deaths attributed to pneumonia.

Dr. Askew said influenza warnings last year had apparently been effective.

"The public has been alert to the possibility of influenza," he said. "Many physicians have advised us that they have had a large number of requests for influenza vaccination from those needing protection the most—the elderly, chronically ill and pregnant women."

He said anyone who is concerned about his health should see his family physician.

It is impossible here to mention the many ways in which the organization represents the farmer and rancher all the way up the line to federal legislation. You may be interested to know that our county is adding to its commodity representation on the board the "commodity" of horses. As far as I know this is the first time it has been considered.

Don and I are both hopeful that somehow we can stimulate an interest between the various "horse" organizations and the Farm Bureau. Each have advantages and power that they can share with the other.

Hopefully, that you may become a member, I remain,

"CREA believes this right of free choice is too precious for the people to give up without their consent.

"The Initiative Constitutional Amendment we are sponsoring says the State must remain neutral. It says the State must not force anyone, against his will, to choose a particular buyer or renter of his property.

"This is the real issue. We want the people to decide it for themselves at the polls."

DEERHORN VALLEY

Morris as the first teacher. She lived in the Shank's house for two years while teaching in the school. Leo completed his grammar school education in this school.

Archie and Suzy were born to the Walkers in our community. Albert Walker and his sons ran cattle, raised hay and other crops, kept bees, and worked for the county road department on local roads after the passing away of Sarah Walker in 1901.

In 1928 Albert Walker passed on and Leo took over in his father's footsteps, the other brothers having passed away or moved on and his sisters having left with their husbands. On May 2, 1933, Leo joined Senneth Rynerson (and her son, Jack), a botanist with a homestead in the near vicinity of Skye Valley Ranch, in marriage. Leo homesteaded 640 acres and bought another 80 acres in Bee Valley, presently the Barrett Lake Estates area. Senneth Walker passed away on January 17, 1960, succumbing finally after a long siege with cancer.

In January 1961, Leo became a co-owner of Deerhorn Valley Ranch and Lodge with the late Alfred Krause, Marta Krause, and Rory and Roy Wallin. In April of that year, Leo, with the Krauses, travelled by steamer to various ports in South America, through the canal, and to France, Germany and Switzerland, visiting Kehl, Hamburg, Stochach, the Black Forest and other places of interest, flying back to San Diego, via a short stop in New Jersey and New York City.

At a festive Halloween masquerade party at Deerhorn Lodge in 1960, Leo met Helen Daly, of East San Diego and Monte Robles Acres, and after their courtship, the couple were married on May 20, 1962, in Winterhaven, Calif. Helen, a native Californian, was born in Los Angeles, but spent her childhood in Coronado. Her oldest son, Louis, is a Senior Master Sergeant based at Offut Air Force Base in Omaha, where her youngest son, Kenny, is an airman, third class. Her son, Bob, is married and living in San Diego, owning and operating his own tractor on cross-country hauling.

Leo was a pioneer member of the Vigilantes, a now extinct men's social club of the community, and a pioneer member of the Deerhorn Valley Civic Club.

Leo Walker today.

Your friends and neighbors of your community herein pay you tribute, Leo Walker, and to your wife, Helen, as one of the families constituting the backbone of our community, and as one of our oldest-timers and a link with the past of our community and one of its early developers.

Real sorry to hear about your brother passing away last week, Charley. Charley Armstrong's (resident of Monte Robles Acres) brother, Gene Armstrong, succumbed to cancer at the U. S. Naval Hospital in San Diego.

Had a college fellow in these hyar hills last Sunday by the name of Chuck Jones. He's doing post-graduate work for his thesis at USC on Salamanders, and was in our area looking for an abandoned mine up on Barber Mountain. Leo Walker pointed out the location of the mine, the rest is up to you, Chuck.

Talking about the school, I reckon you've noticed the new school bus which makes the morning and evening runs here on the Hill. Seems to be comfortable, safe, and the students are pleased with it, so perhaps we should be just as quick to transmit our satisfaction to the school as we oft-times are to criticize or transmit our dissatisfaction.

By JUDY MULLINS

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Johnson are new residents in the valley. They have recently moved here from Sherman Oaks, Calif. They are now living in the pink house on the corner of Deer Creek Road and Lilac Lane. Welcome to the community, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and sons were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mullins. When they left the Mullins home they were going to Los Angeles and San Francisco on a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Spangle and family are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hauck over the Easter vacation.

Please excuse the error in last week's column, in the article about the Evans family. Mr. Evans' name should have been Charles, not Frank. My sincere apology to the Evans family.

The Pine Valley Improvement Club will meet in the clubhouse on Saturday, April 4 at 7:30 p.m. There will be a Crazy Hat contest, and the gentlemen will have the pleasure of modeling the creations.

MT. LAGUNA

Members of the Mt. Empire Jr. and Sr. Chapters of the Future Homemakers of America, attended the spring convention at El Centro High School Saturday, March 7. The convention is held annually for election of officers for Section 12 (San Diego and Imperial Counties). The M. E. group arrived a little late for the scheduled 9:30 a.m. opening time because of the snowy roads, but they put in a full day of balloting. Three officers were elected from the M. E. Jr. Chapter: Pam Brown, historian; Collette Chance, parliamentarian, and Janice Welch, reporter. Installation of the new officers followed the voting. "Mrs. America," San Diego's own Mrs. Mitchell, gave a most interesting speech. Two exchange students, one from Iceland, the other from Switzerland also added to the events of the day by telling about their native countries. The 14 girls attending the convention from M. E. Jr. and Sr. Chapters were accompanied by advisor, Mrs. Margurite Darnall.

Mrs. Gloria Ketchum of Jacumba, president of the M. E. Parents and Boosters Club, was the hostess of a luncheon held at her home Mar. 20, for the co-ordinating committee of the Fiesta de Abril. Those attending were Mrs. Connie Jones, general chairman of the Fiesta, Potrero; Mrs. Pearl Fullerton, of Campo; Mrs. Kathy McManus, Mrs. Ruth Stuart, of Mr. Laguna; Mrs. Naomi Prince, Mrs. Beverly Woodward, of Jacumba.

Mrs. Jones received a letter from Mr. Vic Spies that he and his "Master Music Makers," a five-piece orchestra, will furnish music free through the Musicians' Union of San Diego County, Local 325 Music Performance Trust fund of the American Federation. This orchestra will play for the adult dance starting at 8:30 p.m. in the M. E. High School auditorium at the Fiesta de Abril, April 11. Admission will be $1 per person, $1.50 per couple. Don't forget that there will be a tennage dance held in the cafeteria that same night.

Latest news on the Gymkhana plans for the Fiesta to be held on the Mt. Empire football field is that there will be 10 events. Open to any contestants, entry fee $1 per event, starting time 1 p.m. Four events set up so far are the barrel race, pole bending, flag and balloon, and lance race.
