ALPINE ECHO

Serving a Growing Area of Homes and Ranches

BEA LaFORCE

ALPINE, CALIF.

WHAT NEXT FOR DEER SPRINGS?

One of the most attractive country homes in the Alpine area, the Otto place, is awaiting a buyer, and the community is wondering who the new owner will be and what future he will give to Deer Springs.

Elmer Otto bought the place in July 1953 from Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy who had lived there with their family for some years prior to that time. When the Sheedys made their home at the ranch it was a very active place, with the swimming pool in constant use during warm weather, the skeet shoot in frequent use, and the tennis court very popular with family and the many guests the Sheedy's entertained. When the Ottos took over they wanted only a quiet retreat and the recreational facilities were retired, the pool covered over, and no guns snapping at clay birds.

The ranch is a perfect sylvan retreat with its huge sycamore and eucalyptus trees and many shrubs and flower beds. Two water lily ponds give an almost Oriental effect of solitude and serenity in the moving shade of the big trees.

On July 30, 1963, Mrs. Gladys Otto died. Mr. Otto followed her on November 14, 1963. A rich man, he bequeathed one million dollars to each of three main beneficiaries: the Zoological Society of San Diego, the New York Zoological Society, and the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. $243,000 was designated for special bequests divided.

Chamber to Hold Membership Meeting

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce will hold its quarterly membership meeting on Wednesday, August 26th, at 8:00 p.m., at the Alpine Women's Club.

The ballots for the election of four new Directors for the Chamber will be tallied at this meeting. Ballots have been mailed to all members of the chamber and should be returned to the Chamber office before the meeting, or be brought to the meeting.

Mr. Hickman, Terminal Manager and Mr. McClure, Supervisor, of Western Greyhound Lines will conduct a question and answer program to explain the bus service in Alpine. They will show a film, "Freedom Highways" in addition to their talk.

All Alpine residents are invited by the Chamber of Commerce to attend this meeting whether they are Chamber members or not.

KATHY FALKENBERG
Harbison Fiesta Queen

Harbison Fiesta to Have Western Motif

The Western Days and Fiesta, sponsored by the Harbison Canyon Volunteer Fire Department will be held on Saturday and Sunday, August 29th and 30th, in the area of Jack and Jean's Cafe, in the heart of Harbison Canyon.

Reigning as queen over the two day festivities will be Kathy Falkenberg, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Falkenberg of 208 Almyra Road. Kathy is a 1964 graduate of El Capitan High School in Lakeside.

The Fiesta will begin Saturday at 11:00 a.m. and have a carnival type atmosphere with all decorations done in a western theme. The carnival area will feature kiddie rides including donkey rides. There will be wheels-of-chance booths, also food and refreshment booths. Throughout the day, there will be various types of entertainment including a trick roper and acts from Frontler Town. Door prize drawings will also be held intermittently. Dancing will begin at 8:00 p.m. and continue until 1:00 a.m. in the patio, with the Blue Grass Valley Boys furnishing the music.

Sunday morning a pancake breakfast will be served between

INTIMATE GLIMPSES

By BEA La FORCE

If you were a child before the television set was the evening gathering place for the family, you probably remember another piece of furniture round which the family used to congregate. This was the dining room table. After dinner when the dishes were cleared away, the school age members gathered at this table to do their homework; the cross-word puzzle fan searched out his words, asking help from time to time and giving help off and on in arithmetic, spelling, composition or whatever; listening to a passage from a text book; a letter writer pulled up a chair, while others kibitzed everyone, just to be in the circle. Ideas were born and grew at the dining room table in the quiet sound of pages turning, pencils and pens scratching and often a typewriter clicking busily.

Home work was not a lonely chore then, but a shared one and students learned, where some are failing to learn now. Many grade school children are sent to their rooms to study alone in the evenings, with the noise of the television riding through the walls. Study becomes a chore and a kind of punishment, instead of part of the warm family circle as it was around the dining room table. The school child knows no one is really interested in what he is doing in spite of what he is told. Alone in his room he feels shut away from the fun, and his books become dull companions. Children I asked said they pretended to be finished with home work, lied about assignments, anything to escape what one 6th grade called "solitary," and join the family before the TV set.

Our dining room table was a big old round one that would seat ten easily. It was in almost constant use. Between meals it served many purposes; cutting table for the family seamstresses; drawing table for the artists. It was the place for addressing Christmas cards, and party invitations, for wrapping gifts and making decorations for the Christmas tree. Club

Republicans Open Alpine Office

The Alpine Republican Headquarters is now open at 2353 Highway 80, Alpine. Office hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. every day except Sundays.

Persons wishing to register to vote may do so on Saturdays at the Republican Headquarters, or weekdays at the residence of Mrs. Harry Colby, 1546 Tavern Road, phone 445-2888.

To be eligible to vote in the November general election, persons must be registered on or before September 12th. Mrs. Colby reports that one the last day of the time for registration at the last election, 69 persons crowded her office seeking to be registered. This made an unnecessary burden on the registrar. If you desire to register, it would be appreciated if every one does not wait until the last day, but stops at Mrs. Colby's before the September 12th deadline.

Alpine Fire Dist. To Buy Pumper

At their meeting last Monday night the Board of Fire Commissioners of the Alpine Local Fire District appointed a committee to prepare specifications for a pumper fire truck that would meet the standards set by the Board of Fire Underwriters and that would be of the proper type for the Alpine District.

The Board then passed a resolution that the District would call for bids for a pumper as soon as specifications were prepared that met with their approval.

Two other committees were appointed; one for the preparation of an administrative and a set of Rules and Regulations governing the operation of the Fire Department and another committee to review all the other possible ways besides the pumper and regulations of upgrading the equipment, facilities and operation of the Department.

An order was passed requesting necessary to close down the kitchen at 4:30 p.m. after serving 1350 persons. The committee had estimated that between 1300 and 1400 meals would be served. The kitchen personnel served meals continuously from noon until the meat ran out at 4:30.

The winners of the main raffle held at 5:30 p.m. were: Mrs. Sar-ranto of Guatay won the Persian rug, Mrs. Mary Sucetti won the TV, and Mrs. E. Peterson won the transistor radio.

The activities which seemed to appeal most to the contestants and spectators were the games for the children, the 24 free gifts which were raffled off all during the day, and the egg throwing booth.

All of the eggs for the egg-throwing booth were donated to the barbecue by Mr. Ed. Zimmer of the Adobe Hacienda Egg Ranch of Alpine. The eggs were sold three for a quarter and thrown at the head in the hole of the tarp. The boys who were willing to take the chance of being hit on the head received free meals

Area 4-H Members to Attend Conference

A number of local 4-H Club members will be delegates from their respective clubs at the state-wide 4-H Leadership Conference on August 31 to September 4th. The conference will be held on the Davis Campus of the University of California, and will attract some 1400 boys and girls throughout the state. This is the biggest state event on the 4-H calendar.

The conference has as its theme "Learning for Living" and is designed to help the 4-H Club member develop his leadership capabilities.

Delegates from this area will be: Lawrence Brereton, Martin Raish, Lou Brewer and Richard Dence all from Live Oak. Ronald Mangels and Kathy Smith from Jamul. Kenneth Vockrodt and Diane Reed from Sycuan. Donna Schwenk from Alpine. Louis Simard from Sagebrush. Lorna Henriksen from Japatul. Chuck Reid from Delzura.

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

By MARGARET LOWTHIAN

We will all be in Santa Barbara by the time you get this issue, and right in the middle of the Western Appaloosa National Show. Frankly, I'm getting quite excited about it—it's the biggest one I've had anything to do with. Will let you know all about it when I get home.

Last Friday morning Hazel Foster and Tina Zeigler took a riding lesson at Bright Valley Riding Stables in Galloway Valley. They report that it was wonderful. Some of you may not know that Hazel was a member of the famous Balboa Drill Team for a number of years, but this is the first she has ridden for quite awhile. She said that she was surprised that she remembered how to ride so well, and was well pleased with her mount. She stated that the horses at this school are very well schooled, and capable of doing some of the teaching themselves. Tina and Hazel would welcome other Alpine ladies joining them at Bright Valley each Friday morning at 9 o'clock to make this a weekly riding group. Call either of them if you are interested.

The Pine Valley Trail Riders show to be held in Pine Valley on Sunday, Sept. 27th, will be an approved point show for the San Diego County Professional Horse Trainers Association. Mr. Gaylord Parks of National City will judge this one-day event, and there will be full Western Pleasure. The Palominos, Quarter Horses, Appaloosas and Morgans will each have a class in Western Pleasure.

Chief Joseph, yearling Appaloosa at Willow Glen Farm, caught one of his front legs in the crotch of an olive tree in his corral. He got out himself with just a small scratch, but it was enough to start an infection. He now has a badly swollen leg which seems to be pretty sore.

This was not the only leg infection in the area. One of the

The Smokey Bear Summer Reading Club members look forward to Saturday, August 29 at 1:30 when the group will get together at the Library to recite their conservation pledge and to receive their pins. Those children who haven't yet read 10 books on nature are urged to complete their assignments.

For the benefit of those youngsters who attended the Alpine Summer School and studied Malasia several colorful books were assembled at the Library. Mothers and fathers who want to understand the background for what is happening these days in South East Asia should look at the following:

"Getting to Know the two Vietnams" by Fred West.

"Illustrated Book of the Far East" by Martha Sawyer with introduction by Lowell Thomas.

"Let's visit Southeast Asia—Hong Kong to Malaya by John C. Caldwell.

"Main Streets of Southeast Asia" by Hal Buell.

Library hours are Tuesday and Thursday 1 to 5; Saturday 10 to 2.

CREST

By JANE MON DRAGON

My elder son, Paul, was 18 Aug. 13. Eighteen! Where do the years go? All I could think of were the words of that tender-sad song, "Turn Around." I wonder if parents are ever given the wisdom to understand growing-up, until the years have flown — or do we always have to just blunder through as best we can, and pray our children can do better? A life-time is not enough-time. Bless 'em all. Happy manhood, son.

Mrs. Fern Podvin, Crest librarian, gave a buffet luncheon Sunday, Aug. 16, at Nancy Jane Park in honor of Miss Karen Knieps, who will be married to Fern's son, Charles, on Sept. 26. Six families were represented, and Karen was introduced to 34 members of her soon-to-be family. With three family weddings coming up this September, Fern is going around like a brace and bit.

The Crest Teens held a very successful bake sale at the Fire House Saturday, Aug. 15. The girls did the baking, the boys did the selling, and made $11.69 to help swell their depleted treasury.

Sharon Syzmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Syzmore of 2549 Eucalyptus Drive, returned home this week from a three-week visit with her aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Deitchman, in Palo Alto. Sharon flew both ways. The trip was a present from her parents for her 14th birthday, Aug. 13.

Former Crest resident Alicia Northrup and Maroa Maxey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Maxey, also long time Crestians, now living in Spring Valley, are on a vacation trip through Washington and Canada. They will stop off at Shelton, Wash. to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Thurman, and pick up Alicia's son, Steve, who has been spending the summer with the Thurmans. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thurman of Lento Lane. The travelers will then go through Seattle, visiting some of Maroa's relatives, and they also plan to spend some time in Victoria, Canada. The Ken Spaulding family also live in Hoodport, Wash., so it will be a real Crest reunion.

Harold Hofer's vacation came due from his position as custodian of Crest School, and he and his wife had planned to visit their son and his family in Texas. When the time came, Harold was not well enough to undertake the long trip, so Bud Hofer, his wife, and their two children, Russell, 5, and Francine, 3, came for a week's visit from Victoria, Tex. The Hof-

Phone Number for Highway Emergency

It's a good idea to have this telephone number written down somewhere in your car—ZENITH 1-2000. "You probably won't use it often, but when you want to report an accident or some other highway emergency, you will need it in a hurry," pointed out California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden. "By asking the telephone operator for ZENITH 1-2000, you will be connected to the nearest Patrol dispatch point. This is the proper procedure to report a highway emergency in unincorporated areas. If within city limits, the local police department should be contacted." "Since ZENITH 1-2000 is reserved for emergency messages, routine inquiries and business calls should be made to the Patrol's regular business telephone number."

By PAT MARTIN

The big news of the week was the outstanding success of the pit barbecue on Sunday at Pair-a-dice Park, which was sponsored by the Blessed Sacrament Church. Approximately 1300 people were served before the food ran out, and everyone enjoyed an afternoon of square dancing, games, and prizes. The cake baking contest had many delicious entries, and was judged by Mrs. Buono, Mrs. Sue Condon, and Mrs. Marcia Cicceri. First prize was won by Mrs. Al Reynolds with her entry of a mayonnaise cake; Second prize went to Mrs. Walter Leroux for her fruit and nut cake; and Mrs. Reynolds won third prize for her applesauce cake. Many other prizes were won during the course of the afternoon, including a collectors item doll, donated by the Hollander Shop in La Jolla, which was won by Miss Jean Buono. Mrs. Pete Peterson won a portable TV and Mrs. Frank Succetti won a transistor radio. Mail order packages were auctioned off, including a package sent by Danny Thomas, which was a leather credit card holder, autographed by him in gold, and also a package from Sid Melton, of the same TV Show.

Anita Costantino celebrated her fourth birthday on Sunday night at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Serafin.

Guests for the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Serafin were Mrs. Serafin's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambert Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thrals, all of Los Angeles.

Allen and Pearl Doers, Lyle and Pam, have left Descanso after selling their home off the old Viejas road. They are taking a vacation trip, going north, and are looking for a new place to settle on the way.

The Chapel Crusaders report the huge success of their ice cream social on Saturday night at the Chapel of the Hills. There was a very good turnout, and everyone enjoyed all the delicious homemade ice cream. They made approximately $50, which will go to-law respectively of two "Johnny Appleseeds" who three-quarters of a century ago, planted now-stately eucalyptus trees all over the Crest. The then-seedlings, imported from Australia, had to be hand watered by the father, Thomas, and his son, Ralph, who slept under a wagon while the elder built a barn.

Thomas, unable to afford to buy a gun, fed himself and his son with rabbits he killed with a whip, Mrs. Saunders says. The Saunders saga began more than 100 years ago, when Thomas, fresh up from Texas, stood in the brush among the silent sentinel stones on "the crest" of a mountain, and realized that his asthmatic breathing was much less labored than down in San Diego town where he had settled his family.

Today, his son's widow looks out of her living room window and sees the original wheels from Thomas Saunders' wagon in which he drove up and down the "Old Grade," then nothing but a wagon

La Jolla Playhouse To Star Zsa Zsa

Zsa Zsa Gabor arrives in La Jolla to star in Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit." Opening Aug. 24 the Curtis Roberts Production will run through Sept. 5th and complete the 18th La Jolla Playhouse Theatre season. According to Mr. Roberts, the Playhouse production of the Coward classic is the only professional presentation currently being produced anywhere in the world. Roberts stated that Mr. Coward and the New York producers of "High Spirits" were very cooperative in granting permission to present the Coward play.

"High Spirits," the musical version of "Blithe Spirit" opened on Broadway with Bea Lillie and Tammy Grimes. The musical is enjoying a highly successful run.

Miss Gabor, recently returned from London where she appeared in "Night of a Thousand Stars" with the Beatles, is currently finishing a starring role in "Burke's Law" for television.

While in La Jolla for her Playhouse debut Miss Gabor will be accompanied by her husband Herbert Hutner and daughter Francesca Hilton.

COUNTY POTATO HARVEST EXCELS

That San Diego is one of the leading agricultural areas in Southern California is not news to anyone well informed regarding the country, nevertheless new developments can take us by surprise sometimes. Take the fact that just over the hills to the north of us in San Pasqual Valley, farmers have raised, this season, the largest crop of Irish potatoes ever raised in the County.

Seven hundred acres were planted to Russet and White Rose potatoes and came up with a bountiful top grade crop now being delivered to the markets in the County and northward. The crop, estimated at three quarters of a million dollars, was raised by the San Jacinto Packing Company of Hemet, who have leased the large acreage from the City of San Diego.

Acquisition by the City of 6000 acres of the San Pasqual Valley was necessary for Water Rights when the San Vicente Dam was built. Many of the former owners remained as tenants, but some moved out and the land was leased to others. The potato growers are one of the many tenants now farming the huge valley which is recognized as one of the most fertile and agriculturally valuable in the County.

The potato crop was harvested almost entirely by machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Ison of Rancho del Campo celebrated their 30th Wedding Anniversary on August 13, and Mrs. Ison (Marguerite) received an anniversary gift of a beautiful Thomas Transistor Organ from her husband. Their neighbors had a last minute get-together and surprised them with a beautiful cake and helped celebrate the occasion with them. Many more happy years are wished for them.

Members and guests of Mt. Empire Woman's Club gathered at the Pine Valley Park on Wednesday of last week for luncheon and meeting. The President, Ladonna Muhlhauser and Muriel Utt were hostesses. They served cantaloup filled with gelatin fruit salad and punch. Some of the members thought it was pot-luck and brought various dishes that were also enjoyed. 19 were present, including two out-of-town guests. Another bus trip is being planned with October as the tentative date. The next affair will be a luncheon and card party at the home of Pearl Glick in Descanso on Aug. 26th at 12:30 p.m.—$1.25 donation. Non-members are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. George Talor entertained their niece Pat Karr and Tracy and Alaina Strand at a barbecue dinner Saturday evening, Aug. 15. Chicken was the main dish along with lots of other wonderful things to eat.

Last week on the girls night out, mentioned in last week's paper, some of them decided that the roller coaster at Belmont Park looked a little too dangerous for their generation, so they decided to try the Wild Mouse. Anyone who has ridden it will tell you, it will scare you a lot more than the roller coaster, but they rode it anyway. Aside from a few black and blue marks Betty Williams' prayers were answered and they all came out safe and sound, but mighty shook up.

A surprise wedding shower was held at the home of Mrs. Fran Stethens of Crest in honor of Mrs. Patti Huntington Biagini. Co-hostess was Mrs. Judy Reynolds also of Crest. The decorations were all of pink and white. On the gift

Refrigerator-Freezers

No-Frost-Ever Type

The refrigerator-freezer which most families buy today is actually two-appliances-in-one. It has a separate refrigerator section and a true freezer compartment which maintains zero temperature.

A big new feature of this refrigerator-freezer combination is the absence of frost in the freezer compartment as well as in the refrigerator section. This means that frozen food packages don't stick together, and, being frost-free, the labels can be read easily. And, of course, a distinct advantage is the fact that you never have to defrost either the refrigerator or freezer compartment.

Types That Frost

Next to the no-frost-ever type of refrigerator-freezer, the most desirable type is one in which no frost forms in the refrigerator but does form in the freezer where it is defrosted automatically. A variation of this is the type which calls for manual defrosting of the freezer in which you do the defrosting when necessary. Also, there is the old-fashioned refrigerator-freezer which has to be completely defrosted by hand. With either of these last two types, you have the messy defrosting job to do.

Bigger Inside, Not Outside

Because of advancements in insulation, outside walls are thinner in today's refrigerator-freezer. You get more storage space. They are bigger inside, but not outside... so they don't take up any more room in your kitchen. In the refrigerator section, there is more space between shelves and some doors are so deep you can store half-gallon bottles in them. Many families find that the spacious freezer section adequately meets their frozen-food storage needs.

A Size For Every Family

The size you buy will depend upon the number and the ages of people in your family, your shopping habits, and the kind of food you buy. Remember that with a big freezer section you can stock up on freezer specials and freeze more leftovers. Also keep in mind that you are buying a major appliance that will serve your family and its growing needs for years to come. (Women are always telling us that they wish they had purchased a larger one.)

Features Galore

Automatic ice dispensers, special meat keepers, juice dispensers, roll-out shelves, crispers and other conveniences vary from model-to-model. Also, refrigerator-freezers come in colors, as well as white, and have both left-handed and right-handed doors. Manufacturers make a model to meet most every family's needs. (One manufacturer alone produces over 20 models, with many variations of each model.)

So, when you see a dealer, remember you are buying a refrigerator-freezer to meet your family's needs for both now and years to come. And, of course, absence of frost in both compartments is the big, exciting new feature you will insist upon in order to be free of messy defrosting chores.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

As we predicted after the Republican National Convention, the Democrats wouldn't behave like sophomores in college, but would be gentlemanly, and orderly, and carry on their business with dignity and decorum.

The first few days of the Convention activities now being held in Washington, D.C., bears out our prediction.

However, there appears a fly in the ointment in the form of two groups of delegates from Mississippi, which are each asking for recognition as the true, bonafide, group of delegates from that great sovereign State.

It seems that one group claims the other group was hand-picked from those who oppose integration, and that the group making this charge claims that they truly represent the people of the State.

The situation may become embarrassing since one of the groups is composed mostly of colored people.

The delegates from the other States will have to decide this issue. They would like to sweep it under the rug, but can they?

RIOTS

It can't happen here, but it is. Race riots in the South race riots in the East, race riots in the Midwest, and race disturbances in the West.

If anything similar to the race strifes now going on in the United States were to happen in any other country, we would rise up in righteous indignation and criticize the countries in which they occur.

The worse part of this situation appears to be that it is getting worse instead of subsiding.

Bird for Supervisor Aides Named

Past President of the Coronado Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the Chamber's Major Projects Committee.

Commodore Wyatt said, "I'm working for Dave Bird because I have every confidence in his ability. I admire his honesty and his thorough knowledge of his job. That knowledge has brought Dave a national reputation and influence. One instance of his influence is the way he brought the 1965 convention of the National Association of County Officials to San Diego. We need Dave Bird because he can help to make this county known nationwide."

Also Arthur L. Lynds and C. C. Alley have been named to head the Chula Vista area of Bird's campaign.

Lynds, has been very active in civic and community affairs in recent years. He was city councilman in 1961. He was a chairman in the United Success Drive, president of the Chula Vista Rotary Club, director of the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce, and was on the original board of the San Diego County Water Authority for eight years.

He served five years on the Chula Vista Elementary School Board, and was founder and member of the Board of Trustees of the San Miguel College Preparatory School.

Art is the President of Hobart Homes, a firm that has built over 4,000 homes and developed 48 subdivisions in the San Diego area.

C. C. Alley, named Co-Chairman, is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the South Bay Highway Development Commission.

In recent years he has been President of the Board of Cities Conference and President of the Better Schools Committee.

He served in the Air Force during World War II.

Accepting his appointment, Lynds said, "Dave Bird has one of the most difficult districts in the county to represent. There are business and labor people and city and farm people, as well as Republicans and Democrats in the Second District. Dave has done a remarkable job in serving them all. It has required a great deal of integrity. There's no substitute for that kind of man."

The hours of 7:00 and 9:00 a.m. A parade, forming at Old Ironsides Park, will get underway at 10:00 a.m. The queen will grace the parade, riding in a convertible, and other participants will be the Chula Vista Mounted Police, cowboys and Indians, a stage coach, covered wagon, a couple of riders clubs, individual riders, and other units.

A pit barbecue will be served on Sunday only at 12:00 noon. Sometime during the course of the day a 19 in hctelevison will be raffled. Dancing, again, will be the order of the hour at 1:00 p.m. lasting until 6:00 p.m., winding up the two days of festivities.

Intimate Glimpses

committee meetings from cub scouts to grandma's poetry society were held at the dining room table. It was the most useful item of furniture in the house and the best loved. It served as a kind of family altar where prayers were said, and dreams were born, where ideas could be aired and shot down like the clay pigeons they often were, or set soaring as they occasionally deserved to be.

King Arthur, according to myth and legend, had made the first round dining table for his knights. It was built especially to end the hostilities existing between the knights as to the seating at the usual long narrow table with its head and foot. The knights had been slaughtering each other in disputes as to who should be regarded as greatest deserving the place at the head of the table. A Cornish carpenter, hearing of the trouble told Arthur he could make a table at which all the Knights could sit without fighting for the place of honor. Arthur ordered the table made and the Cornishman constructed a huge round table in four weeks. This first round table made many stories about its Knights and started a fashion down the centuries.

Eating off trays while gazing at strangers on television is enjoyable at times, but it seems a poor substitute for the evening renewal of close ties. And to let it become a fixed habit, to allow it to control the family time together at meals, to allow voices of the air to replace the talk of children home from school and adults from work seems to me a real loss. I feel sorry for school kids with private rooms and their lonely homework in the small boy's "solitary." Maybe the family's return to the dining table a few evenings a week would do something towards giving education one of the important things it may lack.

Rio San Diego MWD to install two Fire Hydrants on Highway 80, one at Louis Landt Building and the other approximately 1000 feet further east. The Board last year had ordered that four fire hydrants be installed by Rio to be paid for with District tax funds. Two of these hydrants were installed, one near the Rocket Service Station on Highway 80 and the other at the intersection of Victoria Drive West and Highway 80.

The installation of the other two was held up early this year by a motion made by former Commissioner J. C. LaForce, seconded by former Commissioner Phil Hall who both stated that it was their opinion that the installation of hydrants with tax money was not the proper way and that the installation of hydrants should be delayed until an equitable way of payment could be determined.

No study has been made by the Board on the method of payment.

The ordering of the installation of the other two hydrants was questioned by Commissioner E. L. Freeland who stated that he was opposed to having them installed with tax funds for some property owners when other property owners were required to install them at their own expense and that an equitable method should be determined. The order however was passed with Commissioner Al Hinkle, Corky Jones and Orville Palmer voting for the order, Freeland voted no and Commissioner Fred Rushing absent.

Mrs. C. P. Vancij was appointed District Clerk by the Board to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Mark Beresford, who is moving to Texas for reasons of his health.

The baking contest had an entry of only 10 cakes, and Mrs. Price, chairman of the contest indicated that cake baking seems to be a lost art as it is easier to buy box cakes. Judging the cakes entered were Mrs. Marcia Cicceri, Mrs. Sue Condon and Mrs. Frank Buono. Winners in the Woman's Division were Mrs. Bea Reynolds with a first, Mrs. Irene LaRoux, second, and Mrs. Reynolds with a second cake, third. Winners in the Junior Women's Division were Jerry Blackbird, first; Roberta Burrows, second, and Candy Pittman, third.

The Bar-B-Q committee has already started to make plans for next year's 27th Bar-B-Q. They have set a goal of serving over 2000 persons, and plan to offer more activities and good food for all.

Camping Equipment To be Displayed

Camping enthusiasts by the thousands from all over the Southern California area, will converge by camper, car, trailer, and even by plane to a private landing strip, on the big two-day San Diego County CAMPER-AMA to be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 22 and 23, from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m.

It's the first event of its kind giving outdoor lovers a chance to inspect the very latest in sporting and camping equipment.

The great CAMPER-AMA will take place on beautiful Barrett Lake, 25 miles southwest of San Diego on Honey Springs Road, which is off Highway 94, the turn-off from the Highway being just beyond the town of Jamul.

Families attending will park in acreage marked out for their particular type of vehicle and then take shuttle busses to see the extensive exhibits that will include everything from the latest "luxury land yacht" or houseboat, to the simplest of apache ten units (all self-contained). Every phase of camping equipment, outdoor food preparation, automotive, boating equipment will be shown, plus the latest fishing, hunting, and even fire-fighting equipment.

All-day activities will include a chance to fish in Barrett Lake, to swim in the lake or the sportsmen's lodge swimming pool, to ride horseback or to participate in entertainment provided.

This will include a Western hoo-down, an exciting treasure hunt with hundreds of valuable prizes, Western-style entertainment, band music, a horse show, and a Miss Camper-ama contest to choose the loveliest camper present.

Free hot dogs and root beer will be provided, and there'll be other delicious food available. (Chicken, for example, cooked by a unique new method that can transform it from "au naturelle" to fried at the rate of 600 chicken dinners an hour.)

ed among members of the family and to charities. $50,000 each, was given to the San Diego Branch of the American Cancer Society, San Diego County Heart Association, and a medical education fund, while the United Cerebral Palsey Fund received $25,000.

In addition to the above mentioned amounts the residue of the estate, which, according to Mr. John Bundy, executor, with the Trust Department of the San Diego Trust and Savings Bank, will be slightly in excess of $2,000,000, is to be divided equally among the three main beneficiaries, the two zoos and the museum each of which will receive around $700,000 more. The $1,000,000 bequests have already been delivered to them, Mr. Bundy said.

The 272 acre property named for natural springs, which, once flowing abundantly were a watering place for native wild life, including deer, has five dwellings, a barn and stables, all connected by winding footpaths through the trees.

An executive of the Pfizer Drug Company of New York, Mr. Otto and his wife came to Alpine to retire in the fine climate and enjoy peace and seclusion. They had no children. Mrs. Otto's two sisters, Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Henry, who have shared the ranch with them, still live on the place.

Alpine Lively Oaks Continue to Grow

The relatively new senior citizens club in Alpine, the Lively Oaks, now have a membership of 77. Mrs. Jeanette Smart, newly elected President, emphasized at their meeting held this past Monday, that she would like to see all persons over 50 years of age in Alpine and its environs becoming members of the group. Her aim is 100 members by December of this year.

A good attendance of 26 members enjoyed games of cards and dominos and some scrabble players at Monday's meeting. A sack lunch proceeded a short business meeting.

The La Mesa Senior Citizens have shown their interest in the Alpine Lively Oaks, and have shared with them a number of interesting trips and recreational activities offered to Senior Citizens in San Diego County. The two clubs plan to attend the Del Mar Races on August 31st, and a tour of San Diego is planned for the near future. The local group has been invited to share in the enjoyment of the dance, card and entertainment evening the La Mesa group will hold on Saturday, August 29th.

The Lively Oaks are in need of a record player to be used for their sing fests, according to Mrs. Julia Sachse, Pobjlicity Chairman.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Crest Couple

Miss Cheryl Sue Woodhouse, daughter of the Rev. erend and Mrs. Gerald Woodhouse of 203 Holly Road, became the bride of Robert Glen Montague, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Montague of 406 La Cresta Heights, in services Friday evening, Aug. 14, at the First United Presbyterian Church, El Cajon.

The bride's father officiated at the candlelight ceremony, assisted by the Reverend Clifford Stauffer. Mrs. Erma Kubik was the organist, and Robert Harrison Jr., sang "At Dawning" and "The Wedding Prayer." Shelia Harmon was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's gown was of white peau de soie, with a fitted bodice and a skirt which swept into a chapel train. The embroidered bodice was accented with seed pearls which were also sprinkled down the skirt and touched the train. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of a white orchid nestled

Mrs. Elizabeth C. West, Alpine Librarian, is enjoying a visit from her husband's niece, Sally Jane Saunders, M.D., of Toronto, Canada. Dr. Saunders is in general practice in the Canadian city where she is established in a medical clinic with five other doctors. She expressed delight with Southern California and the expectation of returning for another visit.

During her visit, Mrs. West showed the charming young lady medic the Laguna mountain area and other local places of interest. Dr. Saunders flew out from Toronto and will return by air also.

The LaForces, Bea and Clayburn, flew to San Francisco for a two-day visit with friends on Wednesday and Thursday. Both wanted to stay longer in the exciting northern city, but neither could spare more time away from work.

While Mary Green, and daughter, Martha, are visiting relatives and friends in Cleveland for this past month, husband, Les, and son, Jimmy, are busy erecting a new gate at their home on Alpine Heights Road. They are putting up the gate that was formerly at the entrance of the old Viejas Valley Ranch, and plan to repaint the name of their place, Rancho Caballos, on the cross bar. Also planned is a horse head to be painted as an Appaloosa by neighbor Rich Zuelke. The whole effect is very handsome, and makes an attractive addition to the Alpine Heights area.

Speaking of Les Green and Rich Zuelke, we are sure you have all seen the beautiful red, white and blue Goldwater sign at the Highway 80 property owned by Les, and where he formerly had Green's Hay Barn. Les wanted to do his share to support Goldwater in the coming election, and commissioned Rich, Alpine's creative designer of signs, mailboxes, etc., to make the sign.

Natalie and Bill San Souci, and their two sons, Billy and Michael, of Alpine Terrace, returned last week from a two-month trip to New York and Vermont. They went back to Schenectady to see Bill's mother who had undergone an operation. They are happy to report that she is feeling fine, even to the point of being able to take a number of side trips with them to visit many of the historical points of interest in the area. Two days were spent at the New York Worlds Fair which they found fascinating, but so big that they couldn't see everything in two days. A memorable visit was made to Readsboro, Vermont, Bill's birthplace where they enjoyed an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration. Another trip to Fort Ticonderoga and Lake Champlain proved of great interest to the boys. Natalie reports that they tried to show the boys as much of the historical interest and museums as possible on the trip, and feels that they all gained a lot of knowledge. The old covered bridges which they crossed in both Vermont and New York fascinated the boys. They are happy to get back to Alpine and our climate here, as most of the time they were gone the weather was hot and sticky.

DEERHORN VALLEY

By ROY WALLIN

As a postscript to my report of the Deerhorn Civic Club's August meeting in last week's column . . . Mr. John Amundson, the club's president, voiced a suggestion, previously made, that Mr. Bird and Mr. Bonney be invited to the September meeting of the Club to state their respective platforms for the November election for Supervisor of the Second District—each candidate to be given thirty minutes to state his platform (with the incumbent speaking first), followed by a fifteen minute rebuttal by each, which, in turn, would be followed by a thirty minute open question and answer period, with questions from the floor directed to either candidate. The membership agreed to the suggestion, and following the meeting Mr. Plumlee, Mr. Bird's Executive Assistant, accepted the invitation on behalf of Mr. Dave Bird. This meeting promises to be most interesting and informative to the neighboring land owners and registered voters so let's all be on hand so we can cast an intelligent and informed vote next November the Supervisor of our choice.

A small "didyan" item . . . did you know that one of our neighbors in the Monte Robles Acres section of our community was a gen-u-ine disc jockey for radio station KDEO? Yup! The name's Noel Confer.

Well, Win Sellers' son is in the news again, but this time it's her youngest, Pat Briggs, who'll be ringing those wedding bells on Saturday, the 29th of this month, with the help of Susan Brasseur of Pacific Beach. Pat and Susan will be leaving hereabouts on the 21st for her folk's place in Michigan where they'll remain 'til after the ceremony.

P. S.: Despite the postponement on Bill and Kay's wedding, they tied the knot without further interruption, a week ago Tuesday, August 11th. Congratulations to two fine young couples from all us "Poison-Oakers" on the "Hill."

Well, we've got us a temporary bachelor up hyar for about five weeks . . . Otto Becker, of Fletcher Hills and our Valley, bid "Adieu" to his wife, Marila, last Sunday as she left on the S.A.S. polar flight, with an over-night stop in Copenhagen, for Frankfurt, Germany. Mrs. Becker was accompanied on her trip by a close friend from San Diego, Mrs. Ida Ursino. Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Ursino joined Mrs. Marta Krause, of Spring Valley and Deerhorn Valley Ranch, who left last Monday morning, in Frankfurt. The trio will journey to the university town of Freiburg in the Black Forest where they will enjoy an extended vacation, visiting relatives, places of scenic and historic interest, including Mrs. Becker's and Mrs. Krause's (who are sisters) home in Kiel. Good luck to you all, and we'll look forward to seeing you in the middle of September.

Another trip in the offing, but in a more serious vein is Walt (Jim) Wolfe's trip to see his folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolfe, in Fort Scott, Kansas. Jim's dad had a series of heart attacks recently which prompted this trip . . . our best wishes to you Dad, Jim, and let's hope it's not serious.

Vandalism continues in our community with a report from Ralph Okey, of Hidden Valley Ranch, stating that a number of manzanita trees were uprooted and butchered with an axe on his place. This latest example of juvenile or adult delinquency is despicable . . . let's all keep an eye out for suspicious people or activities on our own as well as our neighbors' ranches and STOP this wanton waste!

We bid a reluctant "Farewell" to the Whites of "Ranch del Blanco." Our very best wishes to Terry, Randy, Byron, and Glen as they move to their new home in Spring Valley. Terry said she'd be visiting us all up here from time to time, and invited her friends and former neighbors to stop in and have a cup of coffee on our way into the big city.

 ers particularly enjoyed their time together, because they hadn't been together for four years, and Grandpa and Grandma had not seen Francine at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stamback of North Lane attended the monthly meeting of the Mission Bells Trailer Club, a branch of the Travel Trailer Clubs of America, Aug. 8 and 9 at Holiday Ranch on Highway 80. Mrs. Stamback says the teenagers of the Club were in complete charge of this month's affair, picking the site, planning, preparing, and serving the pot-luck dinners, supervising the parking, presiding at the business meeting, and even conducting the church services on Sunday morning. The unanimous verdict was "The young people did a wonderful job!" The September meeting will be held at Paradise Park, Guatay.

Mrs. John (Ethel) Whitehurst, one of the original settlers of the Crest passed away last Tuesday night at the age of 76. Mrs. Whitehurst, known to all as "Topsy," had lived here for over 25 years, and had one of the first summer cabins on the Crest. She is survived by her husband, John.

The children who attended this summer's Daily Vacation Bible School at the Crest Community Church, put on a graduation program at the Church Thursday evening, Aug. 13. The Nursery class did a take-off on Art Linkletter's program, being introduced and interview over the public address system. The first graders sang, and recited memory verses, the second grade gave three finger-plays, the third and fourth graders presented "The Teacher's Nightmare," with the pupils really going wild. The girls of the fifth and sixth grades acted out the story on Moses and the bullrushes, and the boys filled in a gigantic cross-word puzzle with answers to questions on the Bible. The junior high school pupils presented gold keys with promises from the Bible. There was a display of the arts and handicrafts the children had made during the summer, and the teachers and staff were introduced and thanked by parents and friends who made up the audience.

Mrs. Sandy Syzmore and Mrs. James Hunter took Trixie Merrifield to lunch at the Bit-O-Sweden smorgasborg restaurant Wednesday, to celebrate Trixie's birthday, which is Saturday, Aug. 23. The gals went to a movie following lunch. Sounds like fun.

Pioneer Spirit Still Strong

 track, as he homesteaded 1,000 acres put to fruits and vegetables which he sold in the "big city." He once owned Black Mountain all the way to what is now the Flying Hills Golf Course.

Still living in the house her late husband built himself on the site of the old barn his father had erected, Mrs. Saunders daily surveys what Crest residents consider one of the most breathtaking views from the scenic mountain.

A Spanish American War Navy veteran, Ralph raised cattle, pigs, turkeys, geese, chickens, peaches, quince and vegetables on his property following his father's death 37 years ago. For seven years, he ran a riding academy at the site.

Fifteen years ago when he was 70, Ralph brought his bride, Dora, to the Crest. There were then no utilities, and Dora drew water from a nearby spring, burned oil lamps, and cooked on a wood stove.

The very next year, Ralph was stricken with cancer and when he came home from Naval Hospital, it was to face 12 years as an invalid, with Dora taking care of him, doing the man's work around the place and her own daily chores as well.

Dora was directly responsible for electric cables being run to the Crest by a sympathetic power company which gave her back her $45 contract cash.

During her husband's protracted illness, Mrs. Saunders, besides administering his nightly medical treatments, assumed the entire responsibility of what was by then their 150 acres of property.

Once she took a pipe wrench and connected 280 feet of water line to her plumbing, and when neighbors complained that the pipe was exposed on their land, Dora, in the middle of summer, with the earth packed as solid as rock, dug a trench and laid the pipe underground.

And then there were the times she reroofed the house.

Three years ago, Ralph suffered a stroke and was beridden until his death in 1962.

Alone now, Dora picks up a rake to attack the chore of clearing her miles of mountain-top land, leans on a century old wagon wheel, and tells a visitor, "When a thing has to be done, you do it!"

Who says the pioneer spirit is dead—not on the Crest, it isn't.

 ward the purchase of a projector for the church.

We are saddened to hear of the death of Martha Crawford's mother, Mrs. Ozena Craig of San Diego. Mrs. Craig was a native of Julian. Our sympathy goes to the family.

Ray Crawford was home on a 14 day emergency leave, so he could attend the funeral of his grandmother. He will leave at the end of the week to return to Texas where he is stationed.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wolin on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolin, of El Cajon.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Campbell of Chula Vista were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Martin.

Mrs. Roy Silva has returned home after a three week bus trip, which took her to Thief River Falls, Minnesota, for a family reunion. She also visited in Wisconsin and upper Michigan, and reports that she had a wonderful time.

Mt. Empire Republican Women, Federated, are having a Pancake Breakfast, on September 3rd at 9 a.m. at the Roberts Ranch on Japatul Valley Road. Mollie Martin will be hostess. Donations will be $1.00 per person, and everyone is invited to attend.

The parking lot at Perkins Store was dug up on Sunday, and a new gas tank was installed there.

Cissi Walters, of Lakeside, spent the week visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Martin.

We're glad to report that Mrs. John Schmucher is feeling much better, and is staying in town part of the time. We hope she will continue improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Malevenda have returned home after a three month vacation which took them over thirteen thousand miles, and a tour of eastern United States. They started out with their pickup and housetrailer, taking the southern route, east on Highway 80 through Arizona. They toured the state of Florida, and on up into New York, where they went on a tour of the city and spent a day at the World's Fair. They spent several days at Niagara Falls. They also went through Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Washington, D.C. where they stayed for five days, taking in all the historic sights. Before returning home, they also went to Yellowstone Park. They had a very enjoyable and exciting time.

ALPINE GARDENER

By JEAN McCULLOUGH

It is getting time to harvest part of that crop of herbs you doubtless planted in the Spring. There are any number of ways to preserve their flavor which you will enjoy during the winter, and be glad you took the small amount of trouble it was to do the job.

You can take branches of sage, thyme, sweet marjoram, savory and others. Just hang these upside down in a cool shady spot until thoroughly dry. These must be perfectly dry if you intend to strip the leaves off and store them in jars or boxes. You can also dry them by spreading the leaves out on a cookie sheet, putting them in a cool oven, 125 degrees heat, and turn them occasionally. The purpose being to desiccate, but not bake, the leaves.

Another way of keeping herbs is to freeze them. Chervil, parsley and sweet basil are most successfully done this way. Take entire stems, wash them and put them in small plastic bags. Seal, and quick-freeze. Blanching is not required. When ready to use them, just chop the herbs while frozen as they wilt quickly, but they do retain their flavor.

Still another way to preserve these fine flavors, especially sweet basil, tarragon, dill and thyme is to put them in vinegar. Let stand 10 days. Then filter through cloth into glass bottles.

Then there is mint, which is almost a must to go with lamb. If you want to be real fancy, you can make decorations of candied mint leaves, rose petals and violet blossoms. This is done by brushing the dry leaves or petals with egg white then dusting all over with fruit sugar (not confectioner's sugar).

Take your choice of these methods and see if you don't come up with some concoctions you will be glad to have this winter.

COKE'S KITCHEN

Here we are on vacation in Northern California. "Coke" is definitely not in her kitchen this week.

We're visiting our friends, Paul and Irene Hathaway, in a warm little town called Calousa, only two blocks from the Sacramento River. The town is lined with pretty trees and surrounded by rice fields with lovely spots along the river for trailers and campers.

Paul keeps their boat in a convenient little inlet called "Cruise 'N Tarry." Today we all piled in the Lucy II and headed downstream with many detours on sand bars for swims. The boys are fascinated with the current of the river, so Paul stretched a rope close to shore, complete with markers, in order for them to swim safely.

The sun is extremely warm, but wonderful for water fun. During the trip, we stopped for lunch at a floating restaurant. In the next few days our plans include a boat trip down this beautiful river to Sacramento, about 75 miles and a three-hour trip.

Because of the warm weather, our thoughts turn to salads, therefore the salad dressing recipes. The roquefort dressing makes one gallon and is delicious used as a dip.

See you next week, possibly from Lake Tahoe. We're sure having a wonderful time!

ROQUEFORT DRESSING (One Gallon)

- 3 qts. Mayonnaise
- 1/2 lb. Bleu cheese (grated)
- 1/3 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 1 qt. Buttermilk
- 2 tsp. Celery salt
- Mix well.

SOUR CREAM-BLEU CHEESE DRESSING

- 1/2 cup Crumbled bleu cheese
- 1/2 tsp. Salt
- 1/8 tsp. Pepper
- 1 Tsp. Finely chopped onion
- Few drops of Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tsp. Lemon juice
- 1 cup Dairy sour cream

Blend all ingredients except the sour cream. Mix well. Fold in sour cream. Chill thoroughly.

BACON DRESSING

- 2 slices Bacon (fat from bacon)
- 1/4 cup Vinegar
- 2 Tsp. Sugar
- 1/2 tsp. Salt

Fry bacon until crisp and crumbly. Add vinegar, sugar and salt to fat and bacon. Pour hot over salad greens. Finely chopped onions may be added.

table a church steeple was made of pink wedding bells and gifts were placed inside. Patti received many nice gifts and was very surprised indeed. The guests included Patti's grandmother who was very pleased and many of Patti's friends from the Crest area.

Be sure to mark this on your calendar. The Southern California Gymkhana Association are going to sponsor a Gymkhana and Horse Show, Sunday, Sept. 6 on Mt. Laguna. Among the things already planned is a snack bar. There will be no admission but there will be a small fee for entering each class and there will be trophies presented to those who place in each class.

Horses! Horses!

Rileys' young horses injured himself, and overnight has a swollen leg way up into his shoulder. It seems that sometimes the smallest scratch can cause the most damage. Am happy to say that both horses are coming along fine, partly due to the immediate attention of the veterinarian. Catching these things in time can often make the difference of curing or not curing.

A number of local riders are planning to take part in the parade which will be held in connection with the two-day festivities in Harbison Canyon on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 29th and 30th. The barbecue and games will be for the benefit of the Harbison Canyon Fire Department.

County Potatoes

Large power equipment operated by trained men, include three combined harvesters, three loaders and sack handlers, two vine cutters and several 10-ton trucks. The operation gave work to many men and a number of women. We've tried these fresh home grown potatoes and recommend them highly. Next time you go to market look for the clean, white skinned San Diego County grown Irish potatoes.

Handy Household Hints

(For Harried Homemakers)

Lemons are plentiful now, and if a kind neighbor offers you more than you think you can use, don't turn her down. Juice 'em, pour the juice in your icecube trays. When frozen, dump the cubes in a plastic bag and store them in your freezer. You will always have fresh lemon juice for cooking, and those tall, cold summer beverages.

Did you know that you can also successfully freeze green peppers, without blanching? Simply freeze them, diced, sliced, or whole.

Housewives in a hurry (harried) sometimes forget that the vacuum cleaner needs brief attention at frequent intervals. Take a moment every two weeks to put one drop of oil in oil caps or oil holes (to keep the motor in better working order), and also to empty the dust bag faithfully. If the bag gets too full, the motor has to work against back pressure, which creates unnecessary wear.

Don't toss out that old stiff hairbrush—use it to remove hair and dirt from the brushes of your vacuum cleaner, it's work better.

Got those "ring-around-the-bath-tub-blues"? Add a few drops of kerosene to the suds, and watch those telltale markers disappear.

Window sills can be cleaned with practically no effort if you give them a coating of wax. The wax protects the paint, and rain and dirt wipe off in a jiffy.

4-H Projects Offer A Wide Choice

The National 4-H program is building boys and girls into better citizens of tomorrow—responsible young men and women who will be a credit to their communities.

Each year the 4-H member chooses one or more projects he wishes to complete. Minimum requirements are set up for the different projects, but the club member, assisted by parents and the local leader, strives to go beyond these requirements.

San Diego's rural boys and girls find a large choice of projects. If his choice is crops, the member may select vegetable crops, home beautification, nursery, fruit, or forestry. For livestock projects, beef, dairy, sheep, and swine usually fill the requirement. Others may have rabbit or poultry projects.

Other projects include electricity, tractor maintenance, agricultural engineering, and such miscellaneous ones as entomology and beekeeping.

The most popular projects in home economics are clothing, food preparation, food preservation and home improvement.

Those members interested in leadership may enroll in the junior leader project which offers them an excellent chance to obtain leadership training and also help their young club members.

For more information on joining 4-H, contact your local 4-H club leader or the Farm and Home Advisor's Office, Building 4, 5555 Overland Avenue, San Diego, 92123, telephone number 278-9200, Extension 431.

Mrs. Russell Shoemaker, 478 Harbison Canyon Road; Mr. and Mrs. Federico Adame, 210 Francis Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, 513 Rosalie Way; Mr. and Mrs. James Casteel, 407 Silverbrook Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon L. Johnson, 240 Patrick Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan E. Dunstan, 431 Harbison Canyon Rd.; and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thomas, 480 Patrick Dr.

We have a very sad little girl in our midst and we sincerely hope that there is someone who can help her. Laurie Naud of Silverbrook Dr. had a cat named Smokey and he has strayed from home, having been gone about two weeks. Smokey was solid black, and was wearing a silver collar with a tiny bell attached. Anyone having seen or heard anything about the whereabouts of Smokey is urged to call 445-3157 and let Laurie know.

The fire hall was the setting of a bridal shower, last Tuesday evening, given for Miss Marsha Buttrell with Pat Meeker as hostess. Marsha received many pretty things and the guests enjoyed cookies and punch or coffee.

A group of the Community Church's youth group and some of the parents enjoyed a cooked-out meal and a baseball game at El Monte Park last Saturday evening.

Mr. Joe Sherwood of Harbison Canyon Road, recently returned from a business trip to Missoula, Montana, and Eugene, Oregon. While in the neighborhood, he stopped in and visited Frank and Kathy Wruck, formerly of this community and now residing in Creswell, Oregon.

Junior Malone suffered a fall and injuries to his feet and ankles when he fell from the tandem of a bicycle. The fall was caused by Junior getting his foot caught in the spokes. Hurry up and get well, Junior, but do watch those mean old spokes in the future.

The Jines family of Silverbrook Drive took niece, Renee Harris home to the Los Angeles area, and spent a few days visiting with the Roy Harris family. While so close, they all took in Disneyland.

The Norman Kear family of Santa Barbara have traded one Whitman daughter for another. The Kears drove down to bring Donna home, last Tuesday, and took Marsha back with them for a week or ten days.

Happy birthday is really in order at the Bob Sanders home on Silverbrook Drive. B. J. is celebrating hers today (Monday), Mary's is on Thursday and Bobby's on Friday. Happy birthday, you-all.

The Pat Presley family is having their turn with birthdays, too. The twins, Howard and Vincent, celebrated on Aug. 7th with a patio party and ten guests were invited to share all the goodies that mother fixed for them. One of the highlights for their birthday, even though it didn't arrive on time, was a Hawaiian coconut from Aunt Eva and Uncle Slim, who are vacationing in the Hawaiian Islands. This was the gift the boys had asked for when Uncle Slim wanted to know what they wished from Hawaii. On the following Thursday the family helped Pat celebrate his birthday with a fried chicken dinner and apple pie and ice cream followed by a trip to the movies.

Planning to make their home in National City, are Mr. and Mrs. John Dill, who were married, Saturday, Aug. 15, at the Naval Chapel at the 32nd Street Naval Base. The bride is the former Marsha Ann Buttrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Buttrell of Harbison Canyon Road. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore of Douglasville, Ga., are parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jackie Norman was matron of honor, Pat Meeker, bridesmaid, Mr. Robert Normand, best man, with Mr. Bill Cartwright and Mr. Bob Varnhold serving as ushers. A reception, immediately following the wedding, was held at the Spur Valley Ranch. The newlyweds will be at home to their friends after Aug. 29th, at 821 E. 28th St. in National City.

By THERESA EGAN

Mrs. Lillis Mobbs, said goodbye to Lee and Jack and family and headed for Odessa, Tex. to see her granddaughter and great-grandchildren, then to San Antonio to visit Jack's brother before heading home to Oklahoma.

Still not registered to vote? You must be registered by Sept. 10 in order to get in on the Presidential Election. Margaret Connors 466-2358 on Lyon Valley Rr., 2 blocks past the grammar school, is a deputy registrar and will be happy to take your registration. And this week Helen Van Norman became Jamul's other deputy registrar. You'll find her at the Brotherton Realty and Van Norman Insurance Office, on 94 near the Branding Iron. The new phone number there is 465-2141 with a line to the house for after-hour calls.

Linda Wache, Senior at Monte Vista, is making her own Fan uniform for the Fan and Foil Club, which performs at school activities. It's of delustered satin and full-skirted. Linda tells us the Fan group is composed of shorter girls, the Foils, of taller girls.

Mrs. Earl Bonner, Director of the Youth Choir at Jamul Bible Church, tells us the group has voted to call themselves The Choirlets. The Ice Cream Social, Thursday the 20th, is the first occasion for their performance under the new name. Mrs. Bonner and her husband operate Bonner's Nursery.

Bill and Shirley Sawyer have had a house guest, Cherry Bunker. She could be here only a week as she had to get back to Anaheim to register for her senior year of high school.

One on me. Listening to the interesting account of a summer vacation, I commented during a pause, "So you went through the Carlsbad Taverns on your way home." "Good Heavens," she exclaimed, "Don't tell the readers that! It's the Carlsbad Caverns." Whew!

The Roy Connors family, after an early dinner Sunday, went riding with friends to share their joy in a new Plymouth station-wagon, looked in on Blessed Sacrament Church's Barbecue in Descanso, and ended up in the chow line. Irvin Wache and family were among the hundreds attending.

When the Parrott's guests from New York were here Evvie and the children shared their sight-seeing at the Zoo, Spanish Light-house, swimming surfside at Mission Beach and enjoying the rides, and viewing the Old Mission, Presidio, Sea World and Tijuana.

Those taking in the Ringling Bros. performance at Westgate Park included Mr. and Mrs. Jausaud and two grandsons. The other grandson, Terry Mobbs, attended with the Rukstelis family.

Joe and Sharon attended the monthly Shooting Tournament at San Ysidro Sunday and in the evening Sharon was the guest of Linda Wright of Casa De Oro at the showing of "It's a Mad Mad World" at the Cinerama Theatre. This was her second viewing and she still thinks it's great.

Blanche Brand, who'll marry Dave Bassham Sept. 5 was guest of honor at a Bridal shower given in the home of Shirley Sawyer Tuesday, August 11. Shirley's co-hostesses were Linda Whitaker, who also plans a Sept. wedding, and Judy Ferraro. On Blanche's arrival she was presented with a white carnation corsage with green ribbon.

The 17 present played the glove and nylon game, and other games. Then as Blanche opened her gifts at the coffee table Shirley itemized gifts and givers for Blanche's later reference, and recorded by hand her comments. A lime sherbet punch, Linda's creation, was served in a Fostoria punch bowl. Two sheet cakes had been decorated by Mary June Cheatham, talented along that line, in white, green and yellow. Special guests were Mrs. Bassham, Dave's Mother, and his two sisters. Blanche and Dave were both graduated this year, she from Monte Vista, he from Jr. College.

When Ron Mangels was selected to go to Leadership Conference at Davis, Cathie Smith was his alternate, to attend if he couldn't or if there were enough space on the bus. We hear both will be able to go, leaving the last Sunday in August and returning Sept. 14.

Last week on TV Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, in expressing what the family farm in Texas meant to her, told of mother quail and their babies going down to the watering place. Outside our front window at that very moment, tripping along like prima donnas, were a covey of quail, evidently in search of breakfast. The most we've ever counted is 21.

A group of 8th grade friends who've been together at Jamul-Las Flores since the 2nd or 3rd grade had an overnight get-together at Bonnie Vik's house Thursday: Pam Rukstelis, Sonya Lorah, Mary Ann Parrott, and Patty Connors.

Vince and Lorene O'Gara and son Pat had their mobile home moved to Sweetwater Lodge in Spring Valley, closer to Vince's work. Lorene was very active in church work. We will miss them, but wish them and Mark, their son in the army overseas, the best of luck.

Andy and Mary Ann Anderson, Lee and Jack Mobbs, Hugh and Joan Miller, and Mina and Slim Carver spent the weekend of the 8th and 9th at Lake Elsinore.

Last Thursday June Hatherill had Evelyn Parrott, Irene Impink, Margaret Connors for coffee and doughnuts. Guests report a very interesting time, as they explored the political scene, anxious to know all the facts before election time.

PINE VALLEY

By LADONNA MUHLHAUSER

Of interest to the valley people will be the announcement of the marriage of Russell Haas to Mrs. Lillian Lakins of Calexico. The Haas' will make their home in El Centro in a brand new house at 1009 So. Eighth Street.

Checked in at the new Laundromat on Monday morning to find it a hustling bustling place with every washer busy and folks from Laguna and Guatay besides the local folks. Funny how friendly people are even though they were strangers when they walked into the door, when they leave they know and talk to everyone. Sandy was right on hand with hot coffee, punch and rolls for everyone who stuck their head in the door to wish she and Tony the very best of luck in their new venture.

On Saturday evening a farewell party is being planned for Albert Mullins who is going to Johnson's Island to work for a year. The men are unable to take their wives and must stay for a year. Judy and the two girls are undecided yet about whether they will stay here in the valley or move into town.

Kay McFarland took advantage of her day off and took little son, Ricky to see the circus on Wednesday at Westgate Park.

Harry Kendricks, genial grocer of Pine Valley was really floored last Sunday morning when he looked over at the Hobart House and saw a dog on the roof. At first glance he was sure he was seeing things and had to ask some one else if they saw the same thing. They did and it was Punky Evans.

The women interested in helping the fire department have been having many Stanley parties with the thought that they could receive something nice for a hostess gift and then sell chances and give the donations to the Fire Department. At long last they obtained two beautiful lamps and started selling chances, then on Sunday Mary Ellen Harter and Cecil Herring set up a booth at the Annual Barbecue and the lucky winner was Bob Garin of Pine Valley. He in turn turned the lamps back to the women to again be raffled off.

Jim, Ann and Teresa Hans drove down from Canoga Park over the weekend to visit with her mother. They really enjoyed the nice clean air and hated the thoughts of returning to the smoggy air they have to breathe.

The Ed Giesbraechts are happy to have their niece and Alma Giesbraecht visiting with them from Manitoba, Canada. It was quite a mess trying to meet her train as this is the first time any of them have met and after meeting all trains for three days finally made contact.

Connie made a surprise visit to Pine Valley on Tuesday, since the helicopter has broken down, decided that was a good time to bring his mending and laundry home and visit for a short time.

The Homemakers met in the Park last week and made plans for their Bazaar to come up early in the fall. The women work very hard each year with the thought in mind that the monies that are made by them will help some worthy youngster on the way to a higher education. All of the women are working on a nice quilt and this will be sold via chances. It was so pleasant in the park that none of the women left until almost dinner time.

On Friday Cecil Herring held a Stanley Party and Pot Luck. Although not too many turned out, it was most successful and the food was wonderful.

Bob and Joyce Garin flew up to Salinas last week to gather up one of their brood who had been visiting with her grandmother.

Lois Roe and some of her family drove up to Colton last week to visit with Jerry and family and to get acquainted with young Gerald Gratus, the newest member of the Roe family.

in Stephanotis on a white Bible. The matron of honor was Mrs. Laura Pinnell, a cousin of the bridegroom. She wore floor length rose taffeta, with inverted back-pleats of pale pink. Her hat was of seed pearls with a short veil, and she carried white carnations on a pale pink backing.

Misses Judy Cross, Joyce Cross and Sandra Cavesin served as bridesmaids. Their dresses, fashioned after that of the matron of honor, reversed the color scheme, being pale pink with rose inserts.

Miss Carrie Swift was the flower girl and Master John Berlinguette was the ring bearer.

The groom's brother, Gene Montague, served as best man, and the ushers were Joseph Madej, Jr., Duane Cross, and Leroy Gibson.

The reception at the Church Fellowship Hall was in the capable hands of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stamback. The bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through central and southern California, and upon their return will be living in El Cajon.

The young couple are both graduates of Granite Hills High School, and the bride also attended Pasadena College.
