SHEEDY RANCH FIRE

Last Sunday evening a guest cottage at the Sheedy ranch was damaged by fire caused by a heater being left too near a bed. Damage was $500, might have been more, Jack Sheedy reports, had the Alpine fire apparatus not made a swift run to check the blaze.

'Often people try to put the

ARCHIE HILLS TO BUILD

Because her arthritis was helped so much by Alpine's salubrious climate, Mr. & Mrs. Archie Hill decided to make their home here, so bought the Williams house and acre in Peutz Valley, will start building a new home. He works at Consolidated, has commuted for a year, living at McDermott's.

fire out by themselves before calling us,' says Chief Randazzo, 'but it is better to call us then do everything possible to control the fire'.

WARWICK BUYS CAFE

Van's Alpine Grove Cafe, on 80 above Alpine center, is being remodelled by the new owner, Edwin E. Warwick, former automobile man of La Mesa. They have moved here, occupying the living quarters of the cafe. He plans to build two more courts on the property in the near future. This popular eatery will reopen soon.

SEWER PETITION GOES

Now that 85% of procurable signers are on Alpine's sewer petition, it goes to the board of supervisors at once, reveals President Lewinson of the C. of C. Only 51% were needed. Then comes the election.

"Why, I should think you would like

Alpine's showman resident, Curt Massey whose popular CBS program every day at 4 is so popular, has been away from his beloved ranch here for a couple of weeks due to his having to catch up on recording with Martha Tilton. He generously entertained at the Community church benefit last fall,

Sure

"The Prodigal Son" was the subject of the Sunday School lesson, and the teacher was dwelling on the character of the elder brother.

"But amidst all the rejoicing" said the teacher, "there was one to whom the preparation of the feast brought no joy, to whom the prodigal's return gave no happiness, only bitterness; one who did not approve of the feast and had no wish to attend it. Now, who can tell me who this was?"

Silence for several moments. Then a small sympathetic voice: "Please, ma'am, it was the fatted calf."
