MRS. VAN NOTE INJURED

Falling from a table while reaching in a high closet, Mrs. Samuel Van Note, Victoria Dr., last week fell, striking her head on a bedpost. Two arteries were cut in a gash  $3\frac{1}{2}$  inches across her head. Fortunately she retained consciousness, was able to call her neighbor, Mrs. Jerry Wiwel who rushed her to the doctor. She spent one night

HIWAY 80 CHAMBER ELECTS

Renewed interest in Highway 80 Chamber of Commerce was evinced last week when an enthusiastic business meeting and election was held at Alpine Tavern. In the absence of Pres. Metcalf, K.K. Kendall of Japatul conducted the meeting.

Unanimously elected were Carl Schroeder, Ocean Beach, president; John Chalupnik, vice-president; May K. Marshall, recording secretary; Marion Norcross, corresponding secretary and Jack Wilson, treasurer. Mr. Schroeder was one of the founders, being first president, is deeply interested in better roads for the county.

Many new members were taken in, entered into discussion of problems of vital interest along 80, mainly completion of the tunnel and elimination of bad curves. The public is invited to meetings, to be announced in local papers.

EDITORIAL-- CANCER ON THE PARTY LINE!

A great physician once said that cancer is due not so much to physical causes but to the state of mind of a person. In short, the grasping, selfish, mean individual ties up something within that reacts in the dreaded growth which causes so much pain and sorrow.

Which brings me to the point: the party line reveals the character of a person, whether he, or she, be a jolly, generous, warm, Christian-like soul--or the other kind, the type that will clutch the line, never get off, or interrupt repeatedly until you finish.

Some months ago three children were burned to death because a woman would not yield the line to a mother who desperately tried to convince her that she needed the fire department. Recently another woman laughed sarcastically when a mother begged for the line to call for aid to save her child. It died because help arrived too late. Fortunately these sad events were not in the Alpine area.

Every party line is a daily test of how decent a person can be to his fellow man. It affords you the inner pleasure of observing the Golden Rule; of giving instead of receiving; of demonstrating to your own self that you are building jolly little cells within your body that perhaps will keep you from someday being struck by that dreaded disease, cancer. Could be! -C.I.

Alpine has the climate! Mr. & Mrs. James Hutchins came here last December from North Platte, Nebr., rented Olive Carey's place on 80 below Alpine, liked it so well, have bought it and now are full fledged Alpiners. Olive Carey moved to Lakeside to be near her work. Glad you're here, folks.

Buy at home-- Buy Here!

A middle-aged woman lost her balance and fell out of a window into a garbage can. A Chinaman happened to pass by, and said:

"Melicans velly wasteful. That woman good for 10 years yet."

Spiritualist: "Ah, I hear the spirit of your late wife knocking."

Widower: "Who's she knocking now?"

ALPINE REPRESENTED AT S.D. CHAMBER 82ND MEET

For three years Alpine has been represented at the annual banquet meetings of the S.D. Chamber of Commerce by President Cecil Lewinson and Clarke Irvine, executive secretary. They report a profitable evening at the 82nd session last week.

Highlight was the absorbing talk by Gordon Dean, chairman, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, who left his Vista ranch to take on this, perhaps the most vital office of the century. Space forbids a report, but he pointed out that the billions America is spending on it--military for the moment--means that eventually this huge power will be used for civilian use and betterment.

Outgoing president, dynamic Harry Foster, in his outline of what the chamber is doing for the county, promised continued cooperation with all in this area, said "without a chamber of Commerce, a place just doesn't grow". President for 1952, Chester L. Dorman, made a fine talk, told the many ideals for this year, all of which will help growth and improvement of the county.

Alpine residents may inspect the interesting annual report and program at the local chamber office, opposite the Woman's club.

Quite A Sight!

Lawyer: You say you were about 35 feet away from the scene. Just how far can you see clearly?

Farmer: Well, when I wake up I see the sun and they tell me that is about 93 million miles away.

AH, SPRING, YOU'RE HERE!

The rain has brought myriads of wild flowers to Alpine's mesas, hills, and valleys. Each mountain gully is shadowed in the blue of lilac; the stony mesas harbor the lovely chocolate bell and shooting star; in grassy nooks under and around the oaks is nestled the fragrant yellow violet; wild sweetpeas are climbing up orchard fences, and the wild cucumber, with its green, spiny fruit is twining over the gray rocks. Lupine can be seen now, along the roadsides, and soon will come the golden poppy, penstemon, owl's clover, Indian paint brush, larkspur and a hundred others. We don't need a calendar to tell us it is Spring!

NAVY FOLK LIKE ALPINE TO MAKE HOME HERE

When Fred Hartson, Maine Boy, got his sailing orders for Japan, he brought his wonderful little family just about as near to the Orient as possible, got them settled in a cozy home at the Carlstrom cottages, where they are enjoying this community.

Hartson is a chief machinist's mate, aviation, in the navy, and when he gets out, plans to return here and make his home. Mrs. Hartson, Barbara, native of Illinois, reports that she has sent him the Alpine Sun--so it now has at least one reader in Japan. She considers coming here as a birthday present, on Feb. 1, one of the best she ever had.

The picture shows the Hartson family with little April Lee, now six, Baby Murray and Tommy, now a real western cowboy. Alpine welcomes the Hartsons, will be glad to see them soon reunited and enjoying life here.

She: "Men are contemptible creatures."
He: "Yes, I know. That's why I only go with women."

Boy Scouts of Alpine will soon have a new outfit, Explorer Post 105, application for which is now at national headquarters, sponsored by Kiwanis club of Alpine, reveals President Carl Schweiss. It is for lads from 14 to 18 and has already elected, for first quarter: Bob Randazzo, senior crew leader, Woody Stone, assistant, and Leigh Anderson, secretary; charter members: Leigh Anderson Bob & Dick Randazzo, Woody Stone, Jack Boyd, David Fookes. Kiwanis committee for the new post: Fred Rushing, chairman, Dr. Robt. Mercer, Sam Randazzo. Meetings are Thursdays at the library till the new scout house is ready.

VALLEY NEWS BIRTHDAY

Many Alpiners, writers especially, enjoyed the grand opening and birthday party given by the El Cajon Valley News for its 60th anniversary with Publisher Carlyle Reed as host in the attractive new building, 435 N. Magnolia. The entire plant was well planned for the purpose, from front office through various departments to pressroom and shipping dock. Bill Mockler and his staffers got out a nice birthday edition showing the original page 1, interesting sheet, reflecting the tremendous growth of the valley.

Mrs. Kate Carlstrom and son Paul are driving to Springfield, Mo., their old home. He is attending college at Costa Mesa. They will visit other eastern cities. Upon returning Mrs. Carlstrom will reside in La Mesa where she has many friends and relatives.

ALPINE MARINE IN KOREA

Sgt. Wallace Way, USMC, who worked feverishly last summer to complete his home above Victoria drive, before they shipped him to Korea, writes his wife Grace that it is horribly cold. They are holed up in a dugout, take turns going out to chop wood but they can't stay long it is so freezing. The Ways have two little healthy boys, Rusty & Spud. Way intends to live here when he retires from the Marines.

RUSHING'S THIRD YEAR

March 16 marked three years in business at Alpine for Fred Rushing, construction man who with his wife Van, has lived here for six years. The three seasons on his own have been busy, progressive ones, he reports, with the acquisition last fall of a huge new "Cat". His equipment now, in snapshot: transport truck and lowbed trailer, large D-4 and large D-6 with big heavy duty disc. Presently he is grading the old Flegal vineyard hill where George Dowdy is preparing to build a new home.

KIWANIS SEEING FILM

Tonight the S.D. Harbor Club is here as guests of Alpine, second inter-club session of '52, arranged through Chairman Ed Bike. Merle Baker is guest chairman. Bill Wells of the phone company presents a cine showing backstage action of the weekly broadcast of the Telephone hour (Mon. NBC).

Last week Marvin Musgrove, S.D.G. & E. exhibited his hobby pencils, gave an interesting talk "The story of the Writing Stix." He has collected for many years, has thousands, showed many strange pencils.

For the layman who thinks Kiwanis is a social club, here is one objective: To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

Professor: Jones, please explain your examination paper. Why do you have all your answers in quotation marks?"

DO YOU WANT BUS?

Since last month when Alpine Chamber of Commerce started work on a projected bus line from Descanso to El Cajon a number have signified interest. If a line is really desired, get in touch with the chamber through Pres. Cecil Lewinson by mail or leave it at the office opposite Alpine Woman's club. The proposed service would cover Descanso, Alpine, Harbison Canyon to El Cajon. Prospective operators must know the number who would use the buses, how often, what days. Put this data in your note to the chamber.

WANT TO CUT A RUG?

The Community Church guild is in need of a weaver since Mr. King left, but the ladies are still cutting and sewing rags in hopes that a new craftsman will appear. Alpine guild rugs are famous for their beautiful designs and fine quality, and they have added tidily to the funds of the church. It is a dandy hobby, say the weavers.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER

Mary Doerr and Mrs. Louis Landt warn that the days are few in which voters may sign the big book in order to cast at the primary election Tues. June 3. Deadline is April 10. This year it is expected that an all time large vote will be shown here as so many newcomers are signing.

ONLY ONE IN MOUNTAINS

Just as the Alpine Sun has the only printery in the back country, so has S.M. Chaille, of Descanso, the only shoe repair shop in these mountains, which he, too started as a hobby. He does not sit with a steel last, but operates the most modern machines in the country, he declares. Chaille runs the Richfield station up at Descanso Junction.

Due to there being two low bids in the race for building the new local school, the five offers opened have been referred to the state finance committee, as alternate bids had been wanted, so it still is not known who will put up the buildings, or when work will start, the school reports.

Kathleen Compton, of Alpine Heights Rest Home, had a bout with the flu, is now on vacation with her husband Albert who is a dispatcher for the Greyhound lines in S.D.

STRANGE BIRDS DINE IN ALPINE GARDEN

Hazel Hohanshelt of So. Grade road called The Sun last week to come over and see a very unusual banquet that was going on at her home for only a few days.

Every year when pyrocanthus berries ripen, the strange cedar waxwings come in flocks of hundreds to feast. They fly here from the higher mountains, perch in the tall trees, descend by hundreds to gorge on the bright red fruit. As they light, the branches slowly descend till they nearly break.

The jolly little waxwing is the most polite bird in the world, known also as the cherry bird, they will feed one another each passing on the fruit, seeming too polite to partake. They are friendly, have a silky coat, with crest, and get their name from the tiny red waxy tip on wingtips. They do not sing, but make soft, bell-like notes. They post watchmen who sound alarms when people or cats appear.

It is a most interesting study, comical to see some extra hungry fellow gulp a whole berry get it stuck in his throat and have to make comical neck antics to get it down.

"We always phone our friends" says Hazel, "who slip into the house to watch the sight closeup through the windows".

HINKLE OPENS NEW UNIT

Today Al Hinkle, lumber and ranch supplier, announces the opening Saturday, April 5, of his new unit just below town on Hiway 80. The attractive two story structure houses offices for his mother, Mrs. Jeanette Hinkle who has been in the real estate and insurance business at El Cajon for 25 years. The upper story is for living quarters. Alpine is proud of such a fine new building. Al plans to eventually move his entire business to this site.
