P.O. RECEIPTS RISE

Postmaster Phil Hall's records show that Alpine is steadily growing as reflected in monthly business. The first five months of 1953 are $200. over the same period last year.

On July 1 box rates get the first general rental raise since 1907, small boxes being 65¢ a quarter, large 90¢, in keeping with the class of this office which is from $5000. to $10,000. annually.

COUNTY BLAMED IN BOY DEATH

Monday a coroner's jury blamed the county for the ballgame death of Parke R. Rickman, 17, of Alpine who died after falling into a ditch at Anthony home on May 21. County economy was an element in the mishap, it was declared.

PENALTY OF COUNTRY LIFE?

Recently we have received requests to write something about the phone service here.

First complaint is that too many talk too long. Second, that children often babble on the line, leave receivers off the hook. Third, that incoming calls are difficult because so many are using a line, holding up from two to 10 parties.

Well, perhaps party lines are one penalty of living in the country. Many women are not able to get out when hubby drives to work. The phone, after all, is a great American intimate contact between friends, relatives and business.

At our house we have a policy: when we are talking and someone clicks to see if the dial tone is buzzing, we get off the line just as soon as we can. Unfortunately many do not believe in the golden rule to this extent.

Perhaps we would all be happier if we remembered the other fellow, shared the line. I do not consider this problem a penalty, because the beauties of Alpine so far compensate us, that we shrug, and wait for the line in patience.

SORORITY AIDS WACO

Due to the recent disaster in Texas the Gamma Gamma group sent the entire proceeds from their booth at the Carnival, also $25. from their treasury.

The last meeting of the year was at the home of Barbara Gardner. Committee Chairman Grace Buchmiller, Dorothy Hall, Ruth Rooklidge, Ava Anderson and Barbara Gardner were in charge. Guests: Margry Waddel, former Alpine sister, Margaret Fulk's sister Mrs. L.A. Fricke, and Mrs. Howard Ball, last year's sponsor.

Portland, Ore.- Dear Mr. Irvine: Enclosed is check for $2 for the paper. John Brewer sent me several and I enjoy it, so don't want to miss any.- Opal Spencer (Mrs. Sid Spencer ex-Alpine.)

FIRE AT SHERMAN PLACE

Sunday morning a three-way unlawful fire burned over ¼ of an acre, menaced the Art Sherman house and a trailer occupied by a Schoonover family leasing from J.R. McAllister who bought from Shermans. Alpine fire records show that they were burning out of hours, without an incinerator or permit. Alpine volunteer department controlled the blaze quickly. The trailer people lost some clothing and damaged an awning.

Officials warn: it is now very dangerous, get a permit, burn only in incinerator and before 9 a.m. and after 6 p.m.

Bill Hostetter, Foster's Trailer Court, is happy again, his wife Lilly being home from the hospital, but is still not able to move around too much.

BALLINGER WEDS MISS RUSSELL

Two great events just happened in the life of Vince Ballinger. Sunday he and Marie Russell drove to Yuma and were married, and his song 'You're My Heart's Desire' has just been published and recorded.

He is the son of Mrs. Ether V. Ballinger, Oak Glen. Miss Russell is from Redlands, coming here last December. His sister, Mrs. Elmer Pierce, Yuma, arranged the wedding at the Baptist church there. Vince closed his music shop, will spend two weeks on their honeymoon-vacation then will conduct his music business at their home in Alpine, as he has another song due to be published soon and desires to compose more.

ALPINE GETS PUBLICITY

Several national magazines devoted to health and nutrition are running stories on the debate held last week at Unitarian church hall, S.D., by the Abundant Living group, in which Clarke Irvine, Alpine, defended the vegetarian-fruitarian diet against Walter Den Herder, S.D., for the meateaters. The several hundred present were given a lot of Alpine climate and good living news by Irvine and Chairman Elmer Grimm, S.D. Health food storeman.

Painting of Alpine Community church is finished and the last touches are being put on to the interior so that services may start here any day. The shingle roof is not to be treated.

If you are interested in buying 8th grade graduation pictures contact Henry Nelson at H4-2988.

After nine years in Linda Vista, A.A. Gussa and family have bought the Geo. Raab place on the hill above Marshall rd. having moved here recently and established his chicken business. He has three boys in service, one other here. He is now delivering 300 birds each week to S.D. markets, sells some locally.

NORMAN PERDUE BURIED

Services for Norman O. Perdue, El Cajon auto salesman, of Harbison Canyon, who suffered a fatal heart attack, were held Monday week at Paris Mortuary. He had lived in the county 45 years, in the canyon one.

Survivors: His wife, Esther G, a son, Frank, U.S.N., two sisters, Mrs. E. Essex and Mrs. Gladys Danys, both of E.C.

Alpine kids are waiting for the arrival and concerts of the Tucson Boys' Band, due here July 2, for its summer camp, from where it will fill playdates around the county, directed by Chas. J. Hall. A lot of oldsters too, will be on hand to hear the oom-pah-pahs! (Including your editor)

Malcolm Huey, Jr., his father says, will spend another year in Japan where he is getting on fine, likes the country, and The Alpine Sun.

ROOM MOTHERS PLAN YEAR

At their first get together, Alpine room mothers for the coming year had a delightful potluck luncheon in the anteroom of the new auditorium. Wm. Doerr, president of PTA and Norma Kathryn Smith, room mother chairmar, presided. Many interesting things were discussed to help bring about a more friendly association between mothers, teachers, children.

DESCANSO CHURCH PROGRESSES

Rev. John F. Leigh, minister of Descanso Community church, announces that a great deal of volunteer labor has been donated for their new church soon to be constructed. Karl Brenner, plumber, assisted by Edwin Dye, will supervise and put in all the plumbing as their contribution, and Colonel G. D. Snyder will do all of the wiring.

ALPINE MAN PLEADS GUILTY

Judge Fenton Garfield has set June 25 for superior court trial of Lawrence Titus, 63, arrested Saturday by sheriffs on charges of child molestation of two boys. Bail was set at $1,500. Titus admitted in El Cajon municipal court that he had molested the two, one of whom had reported it to his parents.

TREES KILL SECOND MAN

Harry A. Haws, tree trimmer, Winter Gardens, was electrocuted while working in Peutz valley Monday, touching a 12,000 wire volt. Sometime ago another tree man was killed in Alpine when a tree crashed on him.

A mother received her son's college bills and was discussing them with her husband. "Look dear," she said, "it's the languages that cost the most: Scotch—50 dollars.

KIWANIS HEARS OF TV

Geo. Dye presented Kiwanians at the regular Thursday dinner in the Rendezvous Cafe, with an interesting talk on the future of TV, bringing out the magic possibilities of this new phenomenon of the air.

Pres. Chas. Kern happily told of attendance records at the weekly sessions, the District Bulletin revealing Alpine Club's April average was 95.39%.

Often local people who need a stenographer, or mimeographing and so on will be pleased to know that Fay Oldham, public stenographer, 135 So. Orange, E.C., is serving this area, as per classified announcement.

The other Sunday youngsters of Harbison Canyon Community church put on a fine special program for their parents, showing a lot of hard work and preparation.

cribed in the Sun for Jan. 15, with a picture of the 34 million gallon lake formed with the 1000-foot dam was built. the creek, coming out of Mt. Cuyamaca, runs all year, yields a million gallons daily.

The Scouts will make this 160 acres one of Americas finest Scout camps with all manner of recreational facilities, only 2½ miles in the great forest from Descanso. It has unlimited area for winter sports, camping, hiking, etc. Already the lake has been stocked by the state with trout and bass.

The Council could sell this water overflow to Alpine through a local water company, thus yielding funds for upkeep and improvement of this marvelous scout activity. Future plans include another dam at the junction of King and Poverty creeks, forming an even larger lake.

The ranch, owned by Hans Kern, was sold for $35,000. Kern, always interested in scouting, returned a check for $5,000. to the council.

It is hoped that speedy action will be taken by Alpine's far-seeing leaders toward the early acquisition of this surplus water supply so that this community may make deserved progress which will mean more business, residential and agricultural development.

CHAMBER ELECTION MONDAY

A general meeting of all members of Alpine Chamber of Commerce is slated for 8 p.m. Monday, the 22nd, announces R. Oeser, secretary. Purpose is to count ballots for election of the board of directors for the fiscal year starting July 1.

In addition, topics of general interest will be discussed. It will be at the Alpine Realty office, formerly A.B. Brown's place, South side Hiway 80.

Monte Hall, hero of Channel 8, (with the kids that is), and friend of many older folk, gave out with a lot of fun and entertainment at the Mountain Empire school for the fourth annual playday when the kids enjoyed a lot of games and so on. Monte is always ready to help entertain the youngsters.

Mike Cady has bought a David Bradley garden tractor for his Japatul Valley poultry ranch, rigged a cart for feeding his birds twice a day, says it pays off- saves walking, too.

Edgar Halliday, retired film man of Chicago, is observing his second year in Alpine at the Habit Motor Court, and like many newcomers, likes it!
