HOUSE NUMBERS FOR ALPINE

Due to persistent effort, investigation, and final approval, The Sun is happy to announce that early in 1954 Alpine will be given house numbers on all streets and Highway 80. We have sent the official request to the County Street Address Coordinator, who reveals that numerous communities desiring this facility have piled up a 6 month backlog of work.

This will be of great benefit to every resident and property owner in directing friends to an address, for all emergencies, fire, police, ambulance, doctor, deliveries and so on. We interrogated the assessor, tax collector, electric and phone

THIRD TERM FOR MARY DOERR

At the election of Alpine Youth Center, Mrs. Mary Doerr was re-elected for the third year. Jerry Klipp becomes vice-president; Mrs. Velma Trail, secretary, Fred Rohr, incumbent, treasurer, and Mrs. Pat Doerr, publicity.

Little Linda Williams is mourning the disappearance of her puppy Butch who left home sometime last week and didn't return. If anyone has seen him, a small white dog with a black head, please call H4-2913 and make a little girl happy again.

Sgt. Norman Reabold is home from Okinawa for a wonderful 30 days' leave with his parents here. He was 26 months overseas, will be out of the army in January.

The Grossmont Hospital auxiliary will have its meeting Aug. 14, at 10 a.m. in the La Mesa Woman's club. All interested are welcome.

Hal Dempster of the realty firm bearing his name in S.D. has subscribed for The Sun.

EDITORIAL

HOW DO WE FIND YOUR PLACE?

Well, you drive up 80 to town, turn around and go back down Arnold Way, then turn left at the first cross street, that's Tavern road, then go south about a mile and a half till you see some white houses on the left and our name on the mailbox in front of one--that's our place. (Or some other more difficult direction.)

How long have Alpine folk thus suffered in directing friends to their homes- for many years, but within a few months this will be forever remedied due to the persistence of The Sun in working for the allotment of house numbers on all local roads.

Another matter is the placing of a highway sign at Tavern rd. and Hiway 80 informing people that it is Tavern road. We are working on this and hope to accomplish something real soon. Our officials are busy and funds have to be spread thin, but this is a must for all who live along this primary county road.

One lady called us to relate how a man refused to buy in Alpine because the highway sign told him it had a population of 410. That must be remedied. We have about 2400 living here now.

What is your pet peeve, or desire, for something to improve our wonderful community..

Work on the new medium-security Viejas Grade prison camp above here has just begun. It will relieve county jail crowding. Inmates from the nearby honor camp are doing the work. It will accommodate 48 from the S.D. jail.

BRINGS IN 3 NEW WELLS

S.O. Brooks, A. Wotring and Walter Reabold are joyful over the wells that Frank H. Brigham general engineering contractor, has completed for them on ranches above Alpine, pumps just having been installed by his busy crews.

Ice cream has been added to the list of products now served to the mountain area by the Model Dairy, S.D., which reports growing trade in the back country.

CHAS. KERN SELLS RANCH

Spearl Ellison, one of the owners of the Manor Hotel, S.d , has just purchased the C.W. Kern ranch as an investment property. The Kerns have moved to El Cajon temporarily. The ranch will be operated by Ellison's brother-in-law, Zane McNutt, former salesman of San Francisco, who comes here with his wife and 5-weeks old daughter, Sharon. He will install chicken equipment on part of the 12½ acre place.

Jim Blackton has contracted to erect a 50' mast and antenna for the C.E. Durbin ranch, Japatul. He started pouring concrete Monday. Durbin owns the feed store in E.C.

HINKLE REVEALS EXPANSION

Due to steady growth of the back country especially Alpine, Al Hinkle is completing his fine new showroom, soon to be given a grand opening. He engaged Roy Crane, well known Kiwanian and worker in the Community church, to act as manager of the new home furnishing department, now being readied.

Tex Jones, electronics navyman, long experienced in radio and now TV, has joined the firm to manage the TV department for sales, service and installations.

And finally, the big Kaye-Halbert Television Corp., has granted Al exclusive franchise in the mountain area for their splendid line. Don't miss the early opening of the new showroom.

RECORD GETS NEW MANAGEMENT

Neil Langlois and Irene M. Baker have relinquished operation of the El Cajon Record, which has quite a circulation in the back country, to James Frost, Edmund Cordova and Wm. Mockler. They will run it, and the Lakeside Star, as a joint venture till plans for purchase are completed in the near future. Three fine chaps and we wish them continuing success, assured due to their interest and hard work.

New reporter for Alpine is Clarizetta Standen, two-year resident here, a firm believer in the future of this community. News received at H4-2857. Ed Bike is selling subs now, to benefit the Scouts.

J.P. Colburn is back home from Mercy hospital where he underwent an operation by Dr. Peter Crabtree, for three stomach ulcers. He made fine recovery, was up in three days, at the wheel of his car in 15.

Bill Doerr, teacher, and wife, are back from a tour to Zion and Yellowstone National parks with fishing as the main objective, which they achieved.

A man dropped his wig in the street and a boy picked it up and handed it to him. "Thanks, my boy," said the owner, "you are the first genuine hair restorer I have ever seen."

The store is being remodeled and readied for the opening next week. Cut stones will be made into almost anything and special objects of wood art will be produced.

FIRE BOYS' HOUSEWARMING

Finishing touches are being put on Alpine's new fire house, the former Alpine Barn which was abandoned as a nite spot. A number of citizens have inspected the place, approved the improvements which include living quarters for the all night and day fireman on duty. As soon as the equipment is moved, the department will hold a housewarming for the public, date to be announced in next issue.

Russell Brown, son of Capt. and Mrs. Horace Gates Brown of Beverly Hills is on a 15 day furlough from Stockton, his Navy base. He is visiting the McCallis, his Alpine address.

Alpine Terrace streets are now finished, reports Sam Hanson, in charge of Alpine road station making quite an improvement. The sweetwater river bridge and the 1.3 miles of new road eliminating curves, has also been blacktopped and the bridge covered with 135 tons of topping.

Sgt. Wallie Way who loves these mountains, built his home up off Victoria Dr., recently back from Korea, is adding a bedroom and porch. Grace and the two boys are doing fine, too.

Thelma Price, of Harbison, is enjoying a visit from her son Wm. G. Price recently returned from Korea. He bought her a lovely set of China. He is to report for duty at Roswell, N.M.

Claude Bailey is now running a Mobilgas station in Ramona, living there temporarily.

Tom Daugherty, Alpine Heights, suffered shock and bruises Sunday week when his horse tossed him off.

MORE NEWS AND PICTURES?

Yes, The Sun will be happy to print more interesting news, interviews, pictures, verse and jokes, when we grow a bit. Suppose you pass the word along to stores that do not advertise when you buy or pay your bills, here, in El Cajon and in S.D. That'll help.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Grant and their four children will be welcome residents sometime soon as they have bought the Murray property on Victoria Drive. They plan to build a home in the near future.

WATER FOR VALLEY CENTER?

An example for numerous towns that will need more water within the next few years, such as Alpine, which has ample now, has been set by the lively little community of Valley Center. They raised $1000. by public donation so a local committee may seek information. They plan raising $3000. for lawyer's fees and surveying of the district to bring in Colorado river water.

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce has as its chief objective the same idea on water, which, when and if supplied here, will work immense benefits to the area, now and in future years.

661 PHONES IN ALPINE

Wm. Rank, new manager of the E.C. branch, Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., was a visitor to The Sun office and Alpine area recently, revealed that the Harrison exchange here has 661 subscribers, a huge growth indeed.

It is amusing to note that the highway sign says population 410, when P.O. boxes number over 600 which means 3 1/2 persons per box the population would be 2100. With those who don't get mail here, Alpine has around 2400 population today, and growing fast.

PIONEER BRISBOIS PASSES

After 30 years' here, Chas. B. Brisbois, 68, retired auto mechanic, native of Wesley, Ia., passed away in his home. Cancer was the cause of death. Funeral was at Bonham Bros. Mortuary, S.D., with cremation. Survivors are three sons, Elmer, Charles and Clyde.

PERRY'S GETS MECHANIC

Steve Toich, for 20 years a garage-man in Cleveland, has bought a home here and moved in with his family, having signed with Perry's Mobilgas station for duty, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. except Sunday.

Jim Rorie is down over 500 feet with his new well, being drilled by Kenneth Hittle, owner of Butler Drilling Co. Says there is surely a lot of rock under Alpine.

"Chee - Chee"

A survivor was camped up in the Cleveland forest. Every morning he was awakened at 4 by a little chipmunk, calling chee chee, chee chee. He would throw a stick at him and the little animal would jump on to the bole of a small tree, run up to the top and continue to call chee chee. So in desperation the survivor cut down the little tree. Next morning, same thing, his little friend called chee chee. This time he threw his foot out at him, and the animal jumped on to the tree and ran clear up to the top before he realized it had been cut down!

Oh yes, we lied a bit ourselves, he won $10.! - Editor

Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Bennett, Alpine pioneers, who last September sold their Texaco service station business and leased it to Bob Wilson have just concluded sale of the entire property to Wilson who takes possession Sept. 1. They reserved their own home where they will continue to live. Wilson, his wife, Iris and daughters, Linda, 5, and Patricia, 7, are moving from the Weiwei house on Arnold Way, into the house vacated by the Frank Heatons who are moving to S.D.

Included in the property are six rentals and the complete service station occupying the northeast corner of Hiway 80 and Marshall rd. Frontage on 80 is 132 feet.

Bob is a firm believer in the future of this community and has won many friends in the short year that he has operated this popular business. They came here from El Cajon.

JIM HAS NIFTY SHOWROOM

When Jim Blackton opened his TV and radio shop next to the Alpine Bakery, he tore out partitions, furnished the place with rugs and easy chairs, dressed it with new Admiral TV's and coined a motto 'Come in, Relax and Enjoy'. That is just what folks from all around are doing-- and buying sets.

'This is the only showroom in the mountains' says Jim, 'and I want to make it comfortable for all to come in and quietly enjoy our displays'.

Diana Winslow has received a postal from Mandilay, Burma, which was on the plane that crashed over Calcutta in May. The plane was named Comet. 'Salvaged mail' was written across it. No lives were salvaged. One victim, Mr. Watumull, East India stores, Honolulu, was a friend of Clarke Irvine.

There is a great need for mature baby sitters as many requests come in for such service. If interested just place a classified ad in The Sun.

NEW CHURCH OPEN SEPT. 13

First sermon in the beautiful new Alpine Community church is slated for Sunday, Sept. 13, with dedication service on Sunday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m.

During Dr. Roger Larson's absence on vacation to Portland, where he is occupying the pulpit of the First Congregational church, four will substitute for him. The Rev. Joseph Baird Gleason, of E.C., is booked for Aug. 16 and 23, while next Sunday Michael Kern and Janet Manly, Pilgrim Fellowship, will give the sermon, and on the 30th, The Rev. J.W. Brownell, will be here from S.D. Dr. Larson returns on Sept. 1.

FREE DRINKING WATER

J. Harrison, retired navy chief storekeeper, has a standing invitation to anyone desiring pure, tested drinking water, to moor to the faucet at his ranch and fill up bottles-- without charge. His place is a mile east of town, north side Hiway 80, opposite Honey hill. That's a real public spirit! (And a good ad for Alpine.)

BAKER ON VACATION

Ralph Hose, the Missus and Caroline, of Alpine Bakery are off on a vacation of several weeks following remodeling and improvement of the bakeshop which should be open again before Labor Day. Business has been growing steadily since their opening, and more space and improvements were necessary for the coming winter.

Jack and Mimi Wilson, Alpine Store, are back from a much deserved vacation, featuring the ever-delightful Yosemite. Artist Edward Docker is busy there painting portraits while the Missus is checker in the busy cafeteria.

The Ray Wilkinsons are back from their driving vacation to Iowa.

LARSONS NOW IN CORONADO

After an enjoyable voyage from duty in Adak, Aleutians, and a nice drive down the coast via Hiway 1, Lt. Comdr. Lief Larson, Maree, and daughter Jenny, are glad to be home again, have taken a house in Coronado as he will be on duty at North Island. They stopped off to visit relatives in Spokane and Seattle. On a fishing trip Maree caught her first trout, five beauties. Jenny starts high school this fall. The whole family looks fine after their tour of duty in the far north.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Vasquez and children, Anita, 10½, and Jimmy, 9, have moved into the house adjoining Winjo Rancho, Tavern Rd., having moved from Spring Valley, before that Descanso. He is an electrician working for contractors at Claremont homes, S.D.

The R.F. Runbecks and Roberta are back from a delightful fortnight's motor vacation to Medford, Ore., where they visited cousins.

JOLLY PARTY AT RAMSEY'S

Friendship and fellowship key-noted the unique get-acquainted garden party Sunday at the charming Ramsey place on Victoria drive, overlooking Alpine and the sea. The event was sparked by an editorial in The Sun, which evoked verse from Siara Ramsey, inspirational writer, gardener and good neighbor.

"LET US GET TOGETHER FOR AN HOUR OR TWO: IT COULD BE OF BENEFIT TO SOMEONE- MAYBE YOU. OUR KIND EDITOR, CLARKE IRVINE, WHO SENDS OUT THE ALPINE SUN SUGGESTED THIS ONE. THAT WE SHOULD GET TO KNOW OUR NEIGHBORS, ETC."

So from 4 to 6,50 friendly folk really got acquainted with this delightful hostess, her family and neighbors. Mrs. Ramsey, 83 years young, does her own gardening, gave many bouquets to admiring folks, read some of her verse, served tasty punch 'without any sticks'.

We hope more Alpiners will plan similar events during this delightful weather. It really was thrilling to meet so many good people, and to see everybody having a really fine time.

PERMIT BURNING AGAIN

Since the extreme fire hazard seems to have abated, local fire officials are issuing burning permits, but not without an inspection, these to be on Wednesdays, obtained from Marshall Conard, Chief Randazzo or Commissioner McKie. Help prevent all sorts of fires!

Betsy McCall and her little friend Jillinda Baker celebrated a double birthday Monday week with a delightful party. Her pony Candy was the main attraction of the day with the children riding her. Those participating: Barry McCall, Jimmy and Johnny Baker, Cynthia, Cecile and Celeste Irvine, Pamela and Penny Cady, Sherry Rooklidge, Judy, Phyllis and Linda Williams, Merril Wilcox, Heidi, Peter and Danny Crosby and Michael Campbell.

Harry Clarke, of Florence's market, is in Mercy Hospital. Another operation may be performed.

officials, newspapers, postoffice and many residents, and all were in favor.

The utilities and newspapers have had a bad time in describing where anyone lives, this work of addressing and finding each home will be lessened. The plan allocates a number for every 20 feet of street so that no matter how densely it may grow, there will be no mixup in numbers. Hurray!
