

RICHARDS' HOME DESTROYED IN TRAGIC SUNDAY BLAZE

Fire of unknown origin Sunday morning burned the Jack Richards home, two miles east of the Willows, to the ground. They had gone to church in Lemon Grove, had dinner with friends, the first time they had all been away since they moved here last July 4 after 8 years in S.D. Their place is the Hobby Horse Ranch, bought from the Jack Goulds,

FIREMEN'S DANCE DEC. 11

The 2nd annual benefit dance for the Alpine Fire Dept. is slated for Friday, Dec. 11, from 8 to 12, in the new school auditorium, with music by Mike Alesi's popular orchestra, which played at the firehouse open house. Funds are for the volunteer crew, to replace burned clothing, for injuries, and other emergencies. The public is invited, admission $1. including tax.

House and contents were insured, but it never covers the entire loss, and cannot replace personal valuables, pictures, etc. Naval Hospital men promise Richards aid in rebuilding the home with working bees. They already have the loan of two trailers so they will be settled right on the spot as the well, tank and septic system are uninjured.

'We never knew folks could be so wonderful' Richards told the Sun, his voice breaking with emotion 'and we certainly appreciate the help that has come to us'.

They bought from Bruce Shepersky who had gotten the place from the Goulds who lived there eight years till 1951.

Although the Alpine Fire Dept., went out of its district to aid the Descanso federal forestry truck, the blaze had gotten a head start so nothing could be saved.

If everyone in Alpine contributes, no matter how small, it will do your heart good to feel that divine glow when you realize that your dime or dollar is helping a close neighbor who is in real trouble. Let's all help restore the Richards home! in union there is strength, and that is what American democracy is based upon, which is Christianity in practical working action. -C.I.

WIZARD OF WOOD OPENS SHOP

Buying a nice Hiway 80 piece of frontage east of the firehouse, E.S. Almon, Rye, N.Y., started building last April, completed his shop-apartment this week, opened doors for business as Hobby-Craft-Alpine. He specializes in making original toys, novelties, gifts, souvenirs, carvings, models, etc.

Almon, native of Montreal, is an expert in his line, has produced thousands of beautiful miniatures which have gone all over the world. He taught the arts for 45 years, 15 in Rye schools, where he ran his own boy's club for 25 years. His originals are striking, and he likes to develop the art in anyone interested, plans classes for day or evening.

'Bring the children in to see things being made' he invites parents, and is open evenings now. The shop is a fine addition to the growing business area of Alpine. Almon is much interested in civic work, thinks Alpine has a promising future.

Dr. and Mrs. Robt. D. Mercer are due home after Thanksgiving from a three week's driving vacation to Texas, Louisiana and way points.

ALPINE SCHOOL DEDICATED

Almost a full house thrilled Thursday night at the dedication of the new $450,000. school. The beautiful auditorium, modern, well lighted and with the largest seating capacity in the back country, amply housed the enthused audience.

Jerry Klipp, chairman of the district board, presided in fine style. Greetings from the state were voiced by John Branigan, who had worked with the problem for over two years, said they 'hoped to add six or seven new needed rooms soon', told how the Alpine school is to be shown the national conference in S.D. next fall as it is one of the state's outstanding rural plants.

'Tonight we dedicate more than a school' highlighted the inspiring talk of Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, county superintendent, 'we dedicate ourselves to ideals, freedom, loyalty, and the courage that made our nation great'. He dedicated a poem to Hazel Hohanshelt who had given an absorbing talk on the 75 years of Alpine school history, 25 of which she has taught. He also praised the trustees, 'no group in any community works any harder with no pay' he said.

Mrs. Hohanshelt told of the early days when they had only 17 pupils. Today 415 are enrolled and 450 are expected before year's end, revealed Supt. Frank S. Brown, responsible for the program and many events.

Samuel W. Hamill, architect, presented the keys to Supt. Brown, then spoke on new designs in rural schools and how S.D. is now using the country scheme in building modern teaching plants.

Chester Powers, county schools vocational education coordinator, presented the unique speaker's stand, made by students, and matching the proscenium. It even 'has a step here for little people to speak from' he said. Marguerite and Ernest Charbonneau, E.C. florists, presented the curtains and shrubs, promised more.

The JHS mixed chorus, directed by Mrs. Elna Huey, Mary Lou Spires, and Lou Ann Mercer entertained. Open house inspection of the beautiful classrooms closed the delightful evening.

Teresa Louise is the name of a new Alpiner, born to Dick Leonard, former Grossmont boy, and his wife Johanna. Mother and daughter are doing fine.

CHURCH DINNER WAS A HIT

The fine community spirit of Alpine was shown when several hundred enjoyed the tasty and generous ham dinner at the Woman's club by the Ladies of St. Philomena Catholic Altar society Sunday. The girls did themselves proud in welcoming and serving everyone. A tidy sum was realized for the building fund.

Responsible: Sally Fitzgerald, chairman; Mary Kuitnik, president of the society; Mes: Leibert, Brotherton, O'Hara, Warren, Beach, Toich, Kelso, Kuphalt, Butcher, Miller, Armstrong, Scott, Vitalich, with Marion and Betty Kuphaldt and Sharon Dowdall aiding.

GAMMA GAMMAS GIVE

At their last business meeting, at the home of Mrs. Clarke Irvine, the ESA sorority voted to give $50. to the Alpine Christmas fund for the needy, raised at one of their many fund raising events. They also held a toy shower for the S.D. Children's home, held three times a year.

Money gleaned this year is to buy playground equipemtn for the Youth Center, to be purchased as soon as needed. At this time tickets are on sale from all members for a set of beautiful china. Drawing to be held Dec. 11th at the Chamber of Commerce meeting. Tickets are 50¢ or 3 for $1.

TIME FOR XMAS MAIL AGAIN

Postmaster Phil Hall calls attention to the impending holiday rush says 'overseas packages are supposed to be in the mail by Nov. 15, and east coast ones by Dec. 1, or earlier'. He also asks that rural boxes be checked so names and numbers are legible as substitute carriers may be on duty during the rush and see that your correspondents have your correct address.

80 C of C TO HEAR HUSSEY

Next dinner meeting of the Highway 80 Chamber of Commerce will be at The Antlers Cafe, on 80 east of here, Tuesday the 24th, with Luther Hussey, Lemon Grove Foothill Bar association as speaker. Dinner will be at 7, announced Marion Norcross, secretary.

HARTMAN BUYS DE MOTT HOME

W.R. Koehl, realtor, who has acted as resident agent for the estate of John De Mott, reports sale of the 100 acre ranch and palatial home to W.J. Hartman, wealthy feed man of Calexico and frequent visitor to Alpine with his wife. They will move in, make extensive repairs, renovation and improvements as soon as the escrow is closed through Security Bank, trustee for the estate. The cash price was not disclosed, but is believed to be considerably less than the once asked figure of $75,000. It is one of Alpine's show places. The Hartmans have a large home in the valley which will be sold as they prefer the climate of Alpine. Koehl will remain on the property for a time.

4H MAKES AWARDS AT DINNER

Armistice Day was a big affair for Alpine 4H'ers when they had a potluck dinner at Santee with music, awards and talks. Bob Stranger introduced Buddy Smith, Security T & S Bank, El Cajon, who presented the awards: 1st year home economics, Eunice Hameron, Mary Lou Spires, Jeanette Jehl, Lou Ann Mercer and Marcine Bostrom; 2nd year, Roberta Runbeck; Agriculture, Alfred Randazzo, George and Louis Landt, Jr. Steven Mercer and Haaken Magnussen. Alpine was the only 100% club present.

TEENERS ORGANIZE CLUB

Tonight plans for a Thanksgiving dance and future events are to be decided at the second meet of the new Alpine Teen-Age Club which 55 young people started at the school auditorium last Thursday week.

Officers are Richard Kelso, president; Bob Randazzo, vice-president; Jeanette Williams, secretary; Sue Jeffers, treasurer; Jackie Mosier, historian.

The Youth Center will sponsor the club with William Doerr, faculty member and president of the PTA, serving as adult advisor. Other advisors will be elected.

Don Fuller of E.C., with his wife Marie & Don jr., will soon be living here, now building a home.

FIREHOUSE OFFICIALLY OPENS

Around 350 enjoyed the lively housewarming of Alpine's new firehouse on Friday, the 13th, and gave the volunteers an appreciative pat on the back for their fine work, enjoyed a program and dance till midnight. The idea was sparked by the Alpine Sun and put over by Mrs. Hans Kern and a committee of hard workers.

Highlight was the presentation of uniforms to the 10 laddies, paid for by donations secured by the committee who received $212.86, with more pledged. The uniforms and other expenses cost $167.97, which left a tidy sum for the firemen's fund.

M.C. was Clarke Irvine, who personally garnered the refreshment materials from generous local businesses, plus $18. in cash. He presented the beautiful new Greyhound Bus color-sound movie 'America for Me', which was run by Henry Nelson, Alpine photographer. Bill Suter sang two numbers, accompanied by his wife Meriel, then gave a 3-minute talk on Armistice Day. Carmen Bailey pleased with a costumed Spanish dance. Mike Alesi and his orchestra donated their time and talent for the enjoyable dance. The boys drove up from S.D., included Val Sayas, Bill Miller, Joe Lindy and Pete Alesi.

Mrs. Hans Kern then presented the uniforms, the balance in cash to Chief Sam Randazzo, with presents for Fred Whiteman and wife who reside in the firehouse, commissioners, McKie, Fredenburg and Oeser and flowers for wives of the firemen. She thanked the committee for its hard work in raising funds and preparing the buffet lunch: Mrs. Norma Katherine Smith, Mrs. Hugh Trail, Mrs. Elizabeth Fordney and Hugh Trail, who carved the great fowl.

The S.D. Union ran a 3-column picture of the event along with a story of the affair, splendid publicity for Alpine.

Caller: "Ma'm, I'm the piano tuner."
Pianist: "But I didn't send for a piano tuner."
Caller: "I know it, but the neighbors did."

Fred Rushing volunteered time and a bulldozer to fix the site for a radar station at the ground observation post in Guatay last week.

THIS IS GOOD!

"Electricity for cooking is so wonderful -- so clean. I've had my present electric range for 10 years."

THIS IS BETTER!

"You should do what I did -- trade in that old electric range on a new one. You'll marvel at all the new automatic features... plus the new look it gives your kitchen."

HAVE YOU SEEN THE NEW ELECTRIC RANGES?

If you already cook with electricity, then you know how clean and cool and quick and handy electric cooking can be.

But, have you seen the wonderful new models in electric ranges?

They give you all the basic advantages of electricity for cooking -- plus a host of new automatic features that make electric cooking more pleasant and more convenient than ever before.

Visit your dealer's display room and let him demonstrate the many new features of the electric range of today. Terms are long and easy.

And remember, when you both cook and heat water electrically, you buy your electricity at lower rates!

TWO OLDSTERS OBSERVE 70'S

Percy Foss, oldest pioneer around here, celebrated his 77th birthday Sunday the 15th, and Max Welker, father of Mrs. Carl Allen, chalked off his 75th on the same day. Both are sprightly, and fine gentlemen. They attribute their health and good spirits to the incomparable Alpine weather!
