

McALLISTER TO CONVENTION

It has just been revealed that 'Big Jim' McAllister, owner of Central Heating Co., S.D., and resident of Alpine, has been named alternate delegate to the national Democratic convention in Chicago this summer.

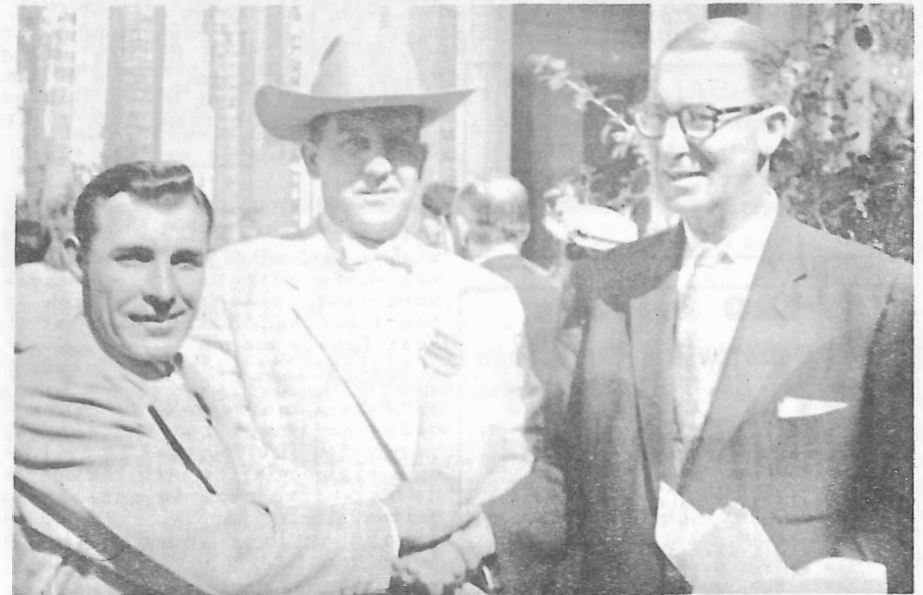

When Sen. Kefauver was in the area on Memorial Day, McAllister and Clarke Irvine of the Sun, accompanied him on the speaking tour, Jim driving the car in which the Tennessee statesman rode.

SCHOOL, FIRE ELECTIONS DUE

On July 30 and 31 Alpine voters will cast ballots for two measures to produce funds for school and fire department. On the first one the school board adopted a resolution last week to hold an election to permit the school tax to go to $1.51 in order to raise funds for operation this coming year. The measure failed last season, but it has been pointed out that it is imperative that the funds be raised for the 1956-57 season, due to the unusual growth.

Kefauver' says Irvine, 'and I only wish we had space to tell all about the day's adventures in memorial exercises, speeches, rallies and the final handshaking tour of the East County Fair'.

Although defeated at Tuesday's election, Sen. Kefauver is optimistic, still has a chance to make the nomination, if not this year, then in 1960, and is building up a big popularity with the people. He is a fine man, an outstanding fellow, human, kindly, serious, yet always smiling and a real good American.

BANK OF AMERICA FOR E.C.
 Continued growth of the Mountain Empire is reflected in the news told the Sun this week that a branch of the bank of America will open this summer at 161 E. Main in the building to be vacated by Benbough Furniture. Earl Stolte of the bank's S.D. main office verified the news. El Cajon's rapid growth is drawing national attention, with the result that business and industry are eyeing this area for locations.

Note- Last year the Sun endeavored to get a national bank to come here. They sent an executive who spent the day with us going over the area, but sad to relate the project could not be realized, he reported, until Alpine gets a water supply so that the FHA and banks can make loans which would spark building. -CI

SUMMER MUSIC CLASSES ON
 Although school is out shortly, the Grayson Studios of Music, S.D., holding classes at the Youth Center, will carry on during vacation, says Raymond Grayson, jr., in charge here. They will have private, semi-private and class work, as most of those taking lessons plan to continue their studies through the summer.

'TEEN TIME' PLAY TONIGHT
 Alpine's 8th graders will present their annual show this evening at 8 in the school auditorium. It is a lively comedy about some teenagers who try to get a youth center for their activities.

JOINT BARBECUE READIED

The annual combined barbecue of the fire department and the Y.C. is about ready for noon Sun. June 17, report those in charge. Tickets may be had from any firemen. They always put up a good home-cooked meal and everyone has a fine time. It benefits both organizations.

At a lively session of directors and guests Monday night under the gavel of Pres. Phil Hall, they voted $50. to the new Little League team, decided to install a phone so that parents might contact their youngsters playing at the Y.C.

At the suggestion of Jim McAllister meat from the Y.C. booth at the fair in E.C. was sold. A few pounds are on hand which may be had from Mrs. Frank Doerr, HI5-2428, hams 31¢ per lb, bacon 46¢.

It was also voted to call the event Alpine Youth Day and they will sponsor a field day, horseshoes, soap box derby and so forth, with everyone invited to a real country get-together. Mrs. Mildred Smith needs help for the barbecue, volunteers call her, HI5-2548.

RAMONA KELLER

Services were held Monday in Paris Mortuary for Mrs. Ramona W. Keller, 62, who died in a hospital Saturday. The Rev. Kenneth Miller, L.M. Methodist Church officiated with burial in Greenwood.

Survivors, besides the widower, Earl A.: a son, Donald, of Alpine, and two grandchildren. Donald's wife formerly was checker at the Empire Market. The senior Kellers ran a grocery on El Cajon Blvd.

MUSTANGS TO HAVE RUMMAGE

At the Friday night meeting of Alpine Mustangs they voted to hold a rummage and bake sale to raise money to build a bed and stock rack on a truck donated by Tibby Thibault.

Many young members have missed valuable instruction as well as being unable to take part in activities because they live too far afield. Having transportation they could also attend parades, shows and so on. If you would like to help these kids on horseback, call HI5-2509, 2767 or 3094. Members will gladly pick up clothes, utensils, etc. for the rummage.

After the meeting the Mustangs entertained members of the So. Calif. Gymkhana Assn. with a weiner roast and dance. Some 60 horse lovers of all ages enjoyed it. Noteworthy were compliments of visitors for Alpine's facilities at the Y.C.

TRAILER BOOMS NEW PARKS

A modern 200 space trailer court is being built on E. Main in El Cajon, and many other parks are to be erected soon, it was revealed by building permits. The western trailer The western trailer association president recently predicted that 1 out of 10 will be living or vacationing in the 11 western states by 1966. Roger Babson some years ago said the same thing for the nation which seems to be coming true. In the past two years length of the big residential trailers jumped to 55 feet, with widths from 6 to 10 feet.

READING PROGRAM STARTING

Mrs. Lillian Oliver, new librarian is presenting the county-wide children's reading program which awards a certificate to each youngster that reads 10 books from school's close to Sept. 1. It is to spark interest in children to read more good books which are available at the Alpine library.

New hours are Tues. & Thurs. from 1 to 5, Saturday from 10 to 2. Mrs. Oliver has made many friends among booklovers, is always happy to order any book from county headquarters.

7 COMPLETE CD COURSE

Certificates for the four weeks' course in Civil Defense were given Alpiners by Joe Gump, S.D. instructor. They were taught emergency procedure, included; Mmes. Ed Bike, Sam Randazzo, Mike Leibert, Ruth Wood, the H.D. Trails and the Wm. San Soucies.

Mrs. L. Carolyn Finch, owner of the Candy House, 105 W. Main; E.C., has expressed her thanks to the many folks of Alpine area for visiting her shop during recent weeks.

Members of Alpine Fire Dept., attended the meeting Friday in E.C. of East County agencies interested in coordinating efforts for disaster, called by L.M. Peelyon of Grossmont Hospital.

ALPINERS IN FAMILY REUNION

Myron Bradley who runs Fairview Grocery & Service Station, his wife and two children were hosts at a big family reunion Sunday at their home when 20 members of the family enjoyed dinner and a lively gabfest. It was the first time in 28 years that the mother, one son and six sisters had been together. See photo for names.

The Bradleys have been here 1 1/2 years, coming from S.D. where they lived for 20 years. He is a retired CBM, USN. The Maher family are natives of Missouri, except Bradley who was born in Ashland, Ky. Those who came out from the east are returning Sunday.

In the picture are Patricia Ann Bradley, 18, who is to wed Thos. Steel Hodgins, 23, of E.C., at St. Philomena Catholic Church on Fri. June 22. She is to be graduated from E.C. Valley H.S. next week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Hodgins, of E.C. is a Grossmont graduate.

THRILLING NEWS FOR TEACHER

Hazel Hohanshelt has just received exciting reports from publishers of her father, Don Alonzo Taylor's book 'Old Sam, Thoroughbred Trotter'. This thrilling new book on life on the prairies in pioneer days, sold 4,000 copies in its first 2 1/2 months. Note- This is a fine gift for any youngster, sold by the Sun Bookshop, at $2.95 plus 5¢ tax, postpaid. If you have a child or young friend, here's a nice graduation gift. Send to the Sun, Rt. 1, Box 191, Alpine.

NEW OWNERS OF PAUL ROBERT

On June 1 Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Allen bought the well known Paul Robert Valley Studio, 200 E. Main in E.C. The Allens operated a studio at Hotel Coronado for nine months. Previously they had one in San Francisco for 15 years. They like the climate in E.C., hope to spend many years here.

GLENVIEW MILL NOW GRINDING

The first mill in E.C. Valley to serve that, Alpine and back country areas is now producing all sorts of feeds under the Check-r-Mix of Glenview Feed Co., report Geo. Palmer and Hunk Anderson, owners. Capacity is 50 tons daily and volume is increasing since its opening only two weeks ago, 'has far exceeded our expectations', say the owners, who feature the famous Purina line.

In addition to Check-r-Mix they do custom mixing whereby they balance local grains with concentrates in making up any desired type of feed. They have a field service for poultrymen and animal raisers at no extra cost. By buying here at home one may save 50 to 75 cents a cwt on freight alone which is passed on to patrons. In addition they carry a complete line of seeds, garden supplies and so forth.

ALPINE PAINTERS TO SHOW

Several local artists are to exhibit at the Old S.D. Chamber of Commerce's third annual art fiesta as part of the Fiesta del Pacifico, July 14-16, 11 a.m. to sunset, reports Mary E. Fowler, director. From 70 to 100 county artists will show. Any wishing to enter may contact her at the chamber.

DR. LARSON TO EUROPE

On Monday June 25th Dr. Roger Larson, pastor of Community Church, leaves on his annual vacation, on a tour of Europe. Other ministers will take over the pulpit.

Lt. F.O. Geroy, USN, is back from overseas duty, is presently in S.D. for a month, then will be at S.F. again. Mrs. Geroy spent a month with him in the north. They recently bought the Butterworth home.

The Kensington Youth Choir under direction of Miss Gail Wilson, former organist at Community Church, pleased the congregation Sunday.

HAM RADIO FIELD DAY HERE

Starting Sat. June 23 Alpine amateur radioists will hold a field day at the Evelyn Hartman Ranch, 2690 So. Grade Road. (Old de Mott place). Clicking starts at 1700 (5 p.m.) lasts till the same hour Sunday.

'Purpose of a field day' says Don Deskins, founder of the local club, 'is to demonstrate the preparedness of ham radio for emergency and competition between operators'.

Three transmitters will be going at all times, running on emergency power and conversing with other amateurs all over the world, especially with nearby hams who might aid in such emergencies as a quake, disaster, fire, etc.

'We need a generator of at least 3 kw so if any good folks of this area have one they might loan us it will help the group' requests Deskins Contact him at HI5-2706.

Alpine brass-pounders on hand will be Deskins, K6IHF 'I have fun' H.K. Magnussen, K6 DWH 'Dirty working Ham'; Jay Penney KN6PLA 'People love apples'; Don Fordney KN6PWW 'Poor Weeping Willie'; Wallie Johnson who just made his ham test and Dick and Dannie Splitatoesser of Fairview, who recently joined.

All these lads are doing a good job and would appreciate many visitors during the field day so follow the signs and see a really worthwhile, educational and protective hobby.

CHURCH PICNIC AUG. 18

The Parent-Teachers of Community Church set Sat. Aug. 18 for the annual picnic at the Youth Center with dinner and graduation exercises for the conclusion of the daily vacation Bible school, reports Dr. Roger Larson, The picnic will be for church and Sunday school.

Mrs. Nola Oakley is in Long Beach where her daughter, Mrs. Opal Shaw is recovering from an operation in Naval Hospital. When school is out she will return with her granddaughter. Pat is holding down the ranch while the Missis is away.

ALPINE ROMANCE REVEALED

It was only recently that the many friends of Jack Hoistad and Carmen Bailey learned that this popular couple had stolen a march on all and gotten married on March 1st, surprising even her two sons Paul and Claude and Jack's boy William, now at the School of Journalism, U. of Mexico. The Bailey boys are at Woodbury Business College, L.A.

Hoistad, who operates Alpine Trucking Service, has been here for 13 years, Carmen for 12. They enjoyed a brief honeymoon, going to San Francisco where Carmen saw Fisherman's Wharf for the first time along with many other sights. They visited Jack's sister in Pasadena, took in Ensenada and a night in L.A. with the boys.

They are still receiving congratulations from their many Alpine friends, are making their home in the bungalow adjoining Bailey's Cafe which they operate.

The Hugh D. Trails are back from a three week's vacation drive to L.A. where they visited their daughter and her husband.
