HORSESHOW ON SUNDAY NOV. 4

At a meeting in the home of Wm. Hollenbeck Tuesday night plans for the horseshow were completed and everything is shaping up for the big event on Sunday, Nov. 4, at the Hollenbeck ranch, Tavern & South Grade Roads. It is the old Clitsome place where two successful shows were staged by the original Co-ordinating Council, forerunner of the present Youth Center. It is sponsored by the Alpine Chamber of Commerce and the Mustangs. Hollenbeck is manager.

Clark Bachelder, who announced

SCHOOL REPAIR STILL PENDS

At presstime Supt. David B. Everett, of Alpine School, told the Sun that the proposed repairs to the old schoolhouse will not be authorized till complete official and legal angles have been fully approved. It is legal to use up to $5,000 of public funds, which is the matter now being worked upon.

In the meantime the two new classrooms, from federal funds of $22,050. are completed and will be put into use by Nov. 1, but this will not eliminate double sessions, which can only come if the two

THINK BEFORE YOU VOTE

GUEST EDITORIAL BY CLAUDE BARTON, ALPINE.

The man you choose for president will not only be head of your government, he will be commander-in-chief of all our armed forces. His will is the order in peace or war!

So think before you vote. Choose the man most capable to lead our nation. Do not be confused by political differences, for politicians may confuse the issue.

Think. You cannot escape your responsibility, for in your ballot lies the power that will make leaders and direct the course of this great nation for four long years.

Think carefully. For in your hand is the greatest power on earth. The eyes of the world are watching, not only this generation, but those to come will be affected by your decision.

When you and your conscience are all alone in that little booth, remember, the conditions of the World's affairs today, and the safety of America in any crisis. So think, before you vote!

NO DRUGS AT ADOBE HACIENDA

When Ed Zimmer, poultryman on Highway 80 above town advertises 'finest eggs produced anywhere' he seems to be perfectly justified for, says Ed, 'our chickens are fed scientifically balanced food to put vitamin content in, our chickens need no vaccines or medicines which adversely affect the flavor in ordinary eggs.' (We'll buy that!)

THANKS FOLKS!

S.D. - Dear Clarke: Here's $2. Please get me back on your list. I really miss that little paper.

30 ATTEND BABY SHOWER

The Barney Ratliff home was the scene of a happy baby shower Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Jack Hoistad (Carmen Bailey) for Mrs. Paul Bailey, (Joan Budz). Games and refreshments were enjoyed by over 30 who saw Joan open 55 pretty gifts.

Mrs. Jack Spaulding, jr., and Mrs. Elna Bratt won the games prizes, Mrs. E.C. Bennett, the consolation prize.

The blessed event is due next month in L.A. where the Paul Baileys live. He is going to business college there, will be graduated in November after which he will accept a position, perhaps with the Beverly Hills citizen where he is now a district circulation manager.

'We wish to thank all our friends who attended and who sent the many lovely gifts' say Carmen and Joan.

Mrs. Mineola McGee has taken over management of Bob Frenzel's Alpine U-Wash, 2223 Highway 80, and will continue to serve this area and up Highway 80, Phone number remains the same, HI5-2242.

BOB WILSON AIDS YOUNG FOLK

The Redbook, a big national magazine, has lauded Bob Wilson, running for reelection in the 30th Congressional District, among 10 congressmen having 'done the most for young people'. He has worked on behalf of servicemen to enable them to make the service a rewarding career; securing their own homes and contributing to the communities where stationed.

Incidentally he is avowedly a booster for water to the parched areas of S.D. County.

The Ernest Charbonneaus have moved to Borrego vicinity after he resigned as bus driver here and she sold her florist shop in E.C.

NEW BUILDING FOR HAYSEED

Ralph May, manager of the Hayseed, Hardware emporium in E.C. says they plan a two story structure with basement within the next 18 months at Wisconsin and Magnolia. DEEP WELL GETS SALT WATER

At Del Mar they have abandoned a 1000-ft. well in the valley basin which was being drilled to secure more water for the fair grounds. It was the deepest in the area. Work was stopped because of salt water indicating the fresh water table is disappearing.

NEW PHONE SERVICE IN 1957

Alpine phone users may have the newly approved base rate area service next year in the good news from the Pac. Telephone office. The Public Utilities Commission has approved the plan, hearing for which was held here in August.

A single-party line will pay a flat $17.50 instead of $28.50 now. A two-party line pays a $5. flat fee as against present $14.45. Suburban service will be discontinued in the new area. Business phones will pay less accordingly, and outside the area HI5 numbers will get service with mileage based only to the new Alpine area, or to E.C. if that is shorter.

MAUSOLEUM STYMIED BY LAWS

Gail Morford, who has been working and standing heavy expense for many months to bring the Community Mausoleum into existence at the Alpine Cemetery, reports that continuous redtape and various legal angles have delayed the project. Although the state has given the green light for erection of the building and all is in order, the peculiarity of the business is such that construction cannot be started for some time. He reports that all is in order, that no monies have been collected and enough have signed to insure ultimate success.

FROM OUR HILLTOP

BY MARIE KRAMER

Hello again friends. I hope this little verse will let you all know just how I feel about my new Alpine home.

MY MOUNTAIN HOME

MY MOUNTAIN HOME IS VERY QUIANT
ATOP THE ROAD THAT WINDS
UP THE DRAW THE BREEZES BLOW
AND WHISTLES THROUGH THE PINES.

ALL DAY THE CHEERY SONG OF BIRDS
NESTING IN THE TREES
REFLECTS THE GLOWING HAPPINESS
WAY DOWN INSIDE OF ME.

I WOULD NOT CHANGE FOR ANYTHING
THIS PEACE THAT I HAVE FOUND
FOR NOW I TOO AM PART OF NATURE'S WONDER-GROUND.

- MARIE KRAMER

Mrs. T.F. Manley, Alpine Heights Road, is visiting her husband in L.A. where he is now working. Since her daughter Janet has gone to Duke University, Mrs. Manley spends her time between L.A. and here. She reports that Janet is doing very well working toward her Master's degree.

May I add a little thank you to all the folks who have been so nice to us since we arrived here. We have been warmly welcomed and are sincerely grateful.

If you have any news, call me at HI5-2003.

REPORT THAT ROAD ACCIDENT

The CHP warns that if you are in a traffic accident the law requires all injury and fatal ones in rural areas to be reported to the patrol; in the city, to local police. Be sure that all reports are made out. Financial responsibility is in addition to these, says B.R. Caldwell, commissioner.

OPPORTUNITY IN ALPINE: JANITOR SERVICE

FIRST PLAY DUE NEXT WEEK

Alpine lovers of the drama will have a chance to enjoy a new 3-act comedy drama 'Laugh A Little Tear' when it opens at the school auditorium Saturday the 27th for a two night run. It is presented by the Alpine Players Tryout Theatre, headed by Bea La Force and Sarabeth Magnussen. One will be produced about every six weeks.

In the cast are David B. Everett, Ruth Butler, the Misses Sara Smith and Carol Ann Magnussen, Duke and Christine Hem, Gerald Heinrich and Wally Johnson.

Gerald Sanford, author of the play, has just been accepted by the American Theatre Wing of the N.Y. City Writer's Workshop. The idea is to give S.D. area playwrights a chance to see their works on stage. Rehearsals are now on and the play is shaping up nicely says Director Tyler Winn.

DON'T SPEED WITH TRAILER

B.R. Caldwell, head of the CHP admonishes drivers that many new laws enacted recently are not being observed. One is the 45-mile speed limit when pulling a trailer, the litter law which applies to any road, and the 15-mile limit at a 'yield' sign, which in many areas is replacing stop signs; and no driving at any time with parking lights on.
