War Gets Ex-Alpiner

Mrs. Blanche McCall of McCall's Ranch School received some sad news this week, the death in Viet Nam of a former Alpine student who lived at their ranch for several years in the early 1950's. He was Sgt. David Baumgardner, 27, of SD, killed last Saturday while serving with the USMC. His mother, remarried, lives in SD, his wife Geraldine, in Topeka, Kans.

Population up Here

Alpine is growing! According to figures just released by County Planning in its Population and Housing Report, as of July 1, 1965, Alpine is shown to have a population of 3733, with a total of 1264 housing units. The county total stands at 1,212,925.

INTERCHANGE on new Interstate 8 (Old Hwy 80), at Fairview Station, will give access to Dunbar Lane, and a road to Harbison Canyon, shown in Editor Irvine's plane photo of this area. Two bridges will allow traffic in and out for Dunbar Lane, a fast growing little community in this area.

Plan War on Litter

John Amundson, head of the back country campaign for the War on Litter, reports that Harry LaDou, sub-chairman came up to Alpine School last Thursday to present a fine film on "The American Heritage", showing how the people are working to eliminate litter on roads and highways. A campaign is starting to get litter cleaned up in Alpine area.

Tomorrow at the Youth Center Bobby Sox Girls, ages 9 to 14 are slated to play soft ball starting at 10 am.

Ronald J. Lute, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Lute, 2424 Hwy 80, was recently promoted to the rank of sergeant in the USMC, where he has served for six years. He made the grade while with the Marine Barracks at NT S in SD. Promotion was based on time in the service, rank, military appearance and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

He is now with the 32nd Street Naval Station. He is a native of Michigan, and is the husband of the former Sharon K. Ebaugh of Bryan, Ohio. Sgt. Lute is a graduate of El Cajon HS. His father is a machinist at Rohr Aircraft.

Criticize Freeway Land Valuations.

With 10 home and land owners quite unhappy over the state offers for their properties needed by the freeway, based on appraisals of staff experts, an attorney and his appraiser are working for these people to get what they think is rightfully theirs.

Seemingly to aid them comes a story out of Washington, D.C., by John Pierson, quoting Rex Whitton, US Highway administrator for the Department of Commerce, highlighting the attitude of some states on buying or condemning properties for the new interstate freeway system.

Whitton said they should be nicer to property-owners, and they should not be reimbursed unless prices are somewhere right, as the federal government pays 90% of the cost of lands thus acquired.

He added that it should not be necessary for people to have to bargain with these state highway departments who have offered less than the true value of property.

He scored condemnation proceedings, chiefly where states had not even contacted owners personally, said they should observe more compassion toward property owners.

In Alpine it is known that many landowners accepted the state's first offer, but with some unhappiness, yet several have received high compensation for comparable land and old buildings, when compared with some of the newer and more costly homes, it is no wonder that they are campaigning for a more fair price. -CI

Pres. Al Adams of the Youth Center says they had a nice meeting Monday night, heard Ben Cairo, Soule Steel Co., on proposed new buildings.

"They are fine steel structures, good looking, with block sides and steel roofs", says Adams, new prexy of the center.

TOWN COUNCIL LAYING PLANS

Friday night the Town Council met with Pres. Ben Polak in the chair. Most of the evening was spent discussing charter and organization procedures, the body going ahead well.

It was decided to work up a letter to send to all registered voters inviting them to join the organization. Next session is on Friday, April 1.

SON LIKES SUN

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Vigneault received an interesting letter from their son Bill McAllister who is in charge of the copy desk at the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram. They sent him copies of the Sun and as he had lived at Sleepy Hollow when the Vigneault's owned the property, was happy to receive the Sun with all the news of people he knew. Bill lives in Hurst, Tex, with his wife and two children, Mike and Allison.

LITTLE ANNIE had been to school for the first time.

"Well, darling, what did you learn?" asked her mother on Annie's return.

"Nothing," sighed Annie hopelessly, "I've got to go back tomorrow."

RUMMAGE SALE MAR. 24-25

Ladies of the Circle 7, First Methodist Church, La Mesa, are holding a 2-day rummage sale from 10 to 4: at 4690 Palm Ave, First Methodist Church. Proceeds will be added to a building fund for a new nursery at the House of Hope orphanage. A white elephant booth, bake sale and snack bar, will also be part of the program.

The group held a successful one last year with many coming from Alpine and the back country and the Circle 7 Ladies "invites everyone to come and enjoy the day."

CANYON SCHOOL NEEDS HELP

At their last PTA meeting a plea was sent out for Teachers' Aides to work an hour or two at the school typing, cutting out pictures and anything that would help lighten the load. If you have time to give, go to room 5, Wednesdays at 10 and give them a hand.

Jim Pinkerton, former real estate here, is back from a second session in the hospital, making good recovery.

Horse Talk

By Cynthia Irvine

The 4H Amigos Horse Club is busy getting ready to attend the FFA and Farmerettes all-day horse show March 26th that will be in the Ponderose Corral, 1582 Vista Way in EC. The kids will be able to enter 14 events and from what I hear most Alpine members are going to try to get their horses down and compete.

Donna Hart has her 4-year old buckskin mare Maxie up for sale again. She doesn't have the time to ride. She is a real pretty horse, good for someone that wants a gentle but spirited horse. Call Donna, 445-2804 if you are interested.

I have been working on a horse that I modeled in clay and if Mrs. McClinton doesn't care we are going to mount it in cement and put a plaque in front and put it on his grave. We know he would like that and several kids we have talked to think it is a swell idea. We talked to Mrs. Mac while she was still here and she wanted to think it over so will see what she says. There isn't anything on the grave now and we thought it would be a nice gesture as we all thought so much of him.

The Sortinos have given up waiting at night for their mare Fancy to show up with her foal. She was due last week and they all thought for sure it would be here, but they will just have to wait. We are getting anxious too and counting the days. Mama and Alice Villa have worked week-ends to build a corral for ours so it won't have a chance to get hurt in barbed wire. Colts are so inquisitive and active they might take a dive right through, so we are not going to take any chances with ours.

Saturday Mr. Barrett took his horse Bar Mack and my mare Wendy down to Dr. Immenschuh for a check up. Wendy wasn't gaining weight like she should so thought it best to have her checked and wormed.

Linda Wake took her sister Libby, and their friend Sue Baily and Cecile down to the Imperial Fair and Rodeo last week-end. They stayed at the Desert Inn Motel, went to the rodeo two days and had a wonderful time. They said it wasn't as big as the Silver Spur in Yuma but lots of excitement and fun.

Last Saturday we said good-bye to our sweet little Shetland pony Taco. We sold him to Sandra Dobbs of Lake-side. She is five years old and fell in love with him on sight. Celeste saddled Taco up and gave Sandra a few short lessons in our ring and we hope she gets along with him. He has the best disposition of any Shetland we have ever known.

Lost Angel is Found

Last Thursday the Sun received a call from Paul Davis of Peutz Valley saying he had a beautiful Dalmation dog at his home. He said it wandered in and wanted to stay and asked us if we knew of anyone owning the pup.

The week before we had run a picture of Stephen Brown with Dr. Samptor giving Angel her radiis shot. Paul got out his copy of the Sun and said "sure enough", it is the same dog. He called the school to get Stephen's phone number and they rushed down to get the dog. When they got home they called and thanked us for being so helpful as Angel is really their "Angel" and they wouldn't part with her for the world.

Last month when Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frey were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, they received a long distance call from her mother, Mrs. Lula Weikert, Greenville, Ohio, who is 93. She asked to talk to Ralph and Carol, their son and daughter, and was simply thrilled to hear their voices.

BUILDER WEEKS RETURNS

Back Sunday by car from a brief visit with his parents is Ted Weeks, Lakeside builder, well known brother of Willard Weeks of Alpine Heights Road. He spent a few days in Thomaston, Conn., saw his father, Ted Weeks, Sr., and mother, who had been ill recently, in Camden, Del. He says it was quite a trip with all kinds of weather which added interest to the journey.

Carl B. Strauch, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Strauch, he runs Carl's Ready Mix here, who is in the Air Force stationed at Gunter Field in Montgomery, Ala., wrote home with the news that he was in the top 8% of his class, won 128 points out of 130 in an intelligence test, was chosen to be trained as a laboratory technician. The Strauch's are mighty proud of him.

GUILD SEES MOVIES

Mrs. Harmon, guest of Mr. & Mrs. Vernon Rood, showed films of missionary work of the NY Bowery and work for children in Pennsylvania and NY, directed by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale.

Mrs. Moore of LM, who spoke to the guild on Material Aid branch of missionary work, was accompanied to Alpine by Mrs. Holmes, wife of the minister of the Lemon Grove United Church. Next session is on Mar. 16 at 10 am.

DOLL SHOW AT LIVELY OAKS

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

Monday night we all were in the 2nd Street Shopping Center looking for earrings when we spied a small white poodle. At first we thought he was with a man that went into the Thrifty Drug but in a few minutes the pup dashed out and ran down by the Taco Bell and onto the street. We followed and saw a car bump him so went over. The people called the police and a Vet and when we got home we called to see how he was and fortunately he was only bruised but the owner had not shown up. He was clipped and seemed to be a pedigreed poodle so we hope the owner claims him.

We wonder if C.H. Parks of 412 Harbison Canyon ever recovered the two cows that got away. He had our milkman Ed Wagner keep an eye out and several others were trying to find them.

We were happy to hear that the Hagemans, they are renting the Willingham house in back of Danny Place's, found a home for their young red setter Blaze. They have some friends in SD that have children and he just loves his new home. His mother Pepper kind of misses him but she will get to see him once in a while when they bring Blaze out in the country to visit Hagemans.

Janis Beckman, a student of Santana High School and a friend of ours, had some sad news to tell this week. Her father was leveling off some land near their Lakeside home when he went too far. The tractor flipped over and crushed him. It is really horrible to think about.

Bad news always comes in twos they say. Monday Wendy Estrada, who lives down the street from Brenda Bradley, told us that her little sister Michelle, who is 13, had died of the flu. They They took her to the hospital, but she died before they got there. They live in Lakeside.

Richard F. Irely, (USMC) Viet Nam, son of Mr. and Mrs. F.W. Irely, Tavern Road, got caught in a trap last week and took off at a fast clip down a hill, literally running for his life. He only recently has his ankle in a cast and the get-away twisted the weak bone, making him limp the rest of the way back to camp. The Irely's have not heard how their son is but hope to get a letter this week.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MET

Thursday the Missionary Society of the 1st Baptist Church of the Willows met at the church to work on their White Cross project. Mrs. Maude Bratt has charge of the department and the group collects clothing and sends them out where they are needed most.

Kenneth Hittle, he owns Butler Drilling Co., had word from his father Henry Hittle who lives in Hebron, Ind. that he had broken his leg, has to spend 6 months in a cast. He was out cutting wood when a huge limb let go and fell on him, causing a bad break.

Goodrich Surplus Opens

Another new business has started in El Cajon just a few doors west of Hatch Chevrolet that is an excellent addition to the valley's growing list. It is Goodrich Surplus, opened Dec. 15th with Harry Wilson, manager, longtime resident of EC and former manager of Pacific Surplus in SD for 9 years, so is well qualified to help with any item you have need for. He is assisted by Don Williams.

Store hours are 9 to 6 except Friday when they stay open till 9 and Sundays from 10 to 5. Harry invites folks from the back country to "come on down and look around". They have all kinds of tools, sleeping bags, camping equipment, you ask for it, he has it!

They started advertising in the Sun this issue. Store is owned by Murray Goodrich who also owns the property.

MRS. RANDAZZO LOSES MOTHER

Mrs. Sam Randazzo, formerly of Huey Lane, Alpine, now of Lakeside, called the Sun with the sad news that her mother had passed away Sunday evening at her home in Sd. Mrs. Margaret Smith, also a former Alpiner, will be buried at 1 Wednesday at Johnson Saum Mortuary with grave side services at Ft. Rosecrans.

Survivors besides Mrs. Randazzo, a sister, Mattie Sharood, 3 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

UNITED CHURCH EXPANDING

Many community churches around the nation are studying the Articles of Faith that may lead them into joining the United Church of Christ, explained Dr. Clarence McCall of Pasadena who spoke to last Sunday night's large family church dinner. He is superintendent of the work in Southern Calif.

He stressed the spiritual and economic advantages by uniting of the different denominations that make up the UC of C. He said there are now seven Protestant branches that are united and others are considering joining.

BEHRENS GRANDPARENTS AGAIN

Evelyn Behrens, she owns and operates Evelyn's Beauty shop at La Cresta, wrote the Sun with some wonderful news. "Just a note to tell you I have a new granddaughter. My daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lyday have a darling baby girl, 8 lb, 1 1/2 oz. She has black hair almost long enough to put a permanent in! They have a son, Sean 7. Isn't that wonderful."

We are almost as thrilled as she is as we have known Evelyn and her family for over 15 years.

All senior citizens over 50 are invited. Club dues are only 1$ a year. Sessions are Mondays at the YC 10:30 am, except the 2nd Monday when a potluck is enjoyed with everyone bringing their favorite entree to share.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bonato, Mr. and Mrs. Juan Bemis and Miss Peggy Monscheit of Alpine Circle Trailer Park spent last week-end in Las Vegas attending the Rural Electrification Convention. While there they all visited old shipmates who were together in Honolulu when Pearl Harbor was bombed. They report a good time with all the slot machines and nice vacation for everyone!

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargens, South Grade Road, are looking forward to a visit from their daughter Coral and husband Hal Memmler who live in Uruapan, Mexico. This will be her husband's first visit to Alpine and as a month's stay is planned, will try to give him a grand tour of the beautiful country here.

NO FIRE, JUST TESTING

HAGEMANS ENTERTAIN

Capt. (USMC) and Mrs. Richard Hageman, Tavern Road, are entertaining his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hageman from Laurel, Montana this week. They drove down, will leave soon to spend time with their other sons who live in the LA area. While here they visited the SD Zoo, will take in Disneyland before they return.

Richard and Ann Hageman rented the Willingham home on Tavern Road with their three children, Phillip, 7, John, 6, and Mary 4, some months ago and are now quite at home here. They are both from Laurel, Montana and love it here as it reminds them of their hometown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Randazzo, formerly of Alpine, are purchasing 500 transistor radios for the VietNam veterans in Navy Hospital. Sam is commander of the SD Chapter, Military Order of Purple Heart and his wife is president of the Ladies Unit. The organization has raised funds for the radios and Sam will distribute them among the boys.

'Our' Climate is Right!

Here is a note from a newcomer that speaks volumes for Alpine and its wonderful weather:

Dear Mr. Irvine; Enclosed please find money order for $2. for a year's subscription to your newsy Alpine Sun. My husband and I have enjoyed your paper very much. We make a trip to the market every Friday for our Sun and buy extra copies to send to our friends we left behind.

We are new here and this will be our home and we love our climate-- I guess I can call it "ours" now. as this will be our permanent home.

We are very happy here.

-Mrs. Wm. A. Wilson.

Thanks folks, thanks! -Ed.

Alpine friends of John Pingley, former head of the PV Fire Dept., and ardent civic worker, are glad to know that he is making recovery in Navy Hospital. With his wife Lee, he moved away a couple of years ago to Desert Hot Springs.

Mrs. Conrad Jiminez, Tavern Road, is hosting a Copper Party March 16th at her home.

Doctors Met on Ham Radio

Last week Dr. and Mrs. Frank Bornowski, 1981 Arnold Way, were delightfully surprised by a visit from old friends, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Schluntz, from Pacific Beach. He is a retired chiropractor, having practiced for 40 years in Keystone, Ia. Dr. Bornowski has practiced for over 30 years, coming here from La Jolla.

The two doctors met via ham radio, both being ardent fans, but at the time neither knew the other was sightless, Bornowski since he was 16, the other since he was five. It was not till two years later, after Dr. Schluntz had come west, and the two couples first met and discovered that the men were sightless. So they became fast friends, having so much in common. Both became quite successful chiropractors despite their handicaps, and have helped countless people back to good health.

SIR GEORGE'S GOT MANY COUPONS

In the Feb. 25 Sun the back page carried the ad for Sir George's Smorgasboard House down at EC Shopping Center, with a coupon good for free dessert and drink with any lunch or dinner. It was good till yesterday when they reported that many from Alpine and the back country had clipped that little yellow coupon, dined, and enjoyed the treat on the house. They plan on running more ads in the Sun.
