HANSON PLACE SOLD

The beautiful stone two bedroom home located at 1451 Rock Terrace Drive built by Samuel Hanson has just been sold to Mr. and Mrs. William D. Smith, formerly of El Cajon. Smith recently retired from the Navy after 22 years of service. He came to California in 1942, his wife, a native of Ohio, came here in 1937.

New Couple Arrive

Newcomers to Alpine are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ronske of Villa Park, Ill. who rented the choice two bedroom 2 bath apartment owned by Will Kellogg. This was the last apartment available in the new Alpine Apartments located at 2115 Arnold Way. The Ronskes have purchased a lot in the Highlands, plan to build during the six months period of their lease. Charlene V. Brown of Brown Realty handled the lease.

ALPINE'S young horse enthusiasts met Sunday at the Youth Center to put first coat of paint on their private ring. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scully supervised the job, were main forces behind the success of the ring. Paint for the job was donated by Howard Barrett. First ride is Sunday starting from YC at 12:30, is open to everyone interested in joining club now being organized.

Oppose Sewer Plan

At presstime it was learned that a petition is being circulated along Old Hwy 80, that's the name now official in the Dunbar Lane area, protesting a proposed sewer system.

Property owners living in the area say they have ample septic tank equipment and that the idea is 10 to 15 years ahead of time and would work a hardship financially on them.

C OF C TO PRESENT TREES

The chamber of commerce has a lot of new ideas to keep the town growing and beautiful. At Wednesday's meeting it was voted to present every new resident with a tree.

Director Jack Spatz was named to obtain Monterey pines, 1½ feet tall, from a commercial grower, for this purpose.

LIVELY OAKS' RECORD BIRTHDAY

It was indeed a happy birthday when members of the senior citizens' club here sang that to one member, Mrs. Eleanor Mount, who had her 90th on Nov. 28. She is the grandmother of June Sortino, who brings her down to the meetings each Monday from Alpine Convalescent Center where she lives.

She is said to be the best canasta player in the club, says she "takes life as it comes", is bright and sassy at 90! She is a native of Terre Haute, Ind., pictured here with the youngest member, Mrs. Karl Stout, 55, who was born in Marion, Ind., formerly from Munsey, Ind. She has wintered here for 5 years, has a home in the Canyon.

Mrs. Mount has been in Alpine 1½ years, 3 years in California, likes it fine.

Joe: "My wife thinks she should have a dishwashing machine."

Moe: "Be thankful. My wife married one."

Enjoying hospitality of community-- and a delicious potluck dinner-- were Sgt. Carroll Meuse and his pleasant German-born wife who came up from Yuma to have belated honeymoon "on the town" engineered by the chamber of commerce. Sgt. Meuse, of medical corps, showed slides and talked on Viet-Nam from where he recently came.

Gene Sauter, owner of Alpine Hardware & Department Store, 2218 Hwy 80, has a scoop on getting some hard-to-find Levi's in blue, green and white. They are incidentally stocking up already for their usual Christmas layaways.

Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Reed, Alpine Terrace, are entertaining her husband's aunt Mrs. Lulu Busching, who came down by bus from Tacoma, Wash. to spend Thanksgiving and Christmas with them.

U.S. Sentiment Reflected in 'Honeymoon'.

This week's belated honeymoon for Sgt. Carroll Meuse and his wife, hosted by Alpine Chamber of Commerce and numerous citizens, may in a way reflect a national attitude to American fighting men who are in Viet-Nam today.

The gesture of giving the soldier and his wife the hospitable reception, pot-luck dinner, motel accommodation, meals, trips and so on, might be the concentration of appreciation from all over the country, to show that this great, free land is always ready-- as the Statue of Liberty indicates, to give a helping hand to all nations whose freedom becomes jeopardized by those who would enslave them, as the poor people of Viet-Nam have been treated.

We who were fortunate enough to meet the soldier and his wife, see his slides and hear him talk, could feel this sentiment in the affair. For centuries these natives have been enslaved, but now Old Glory is coming to their aid. For many decades the Chinese, the French, and others, ruled them, kept them in subjection. Now they are learning that America wants them to be free.

The unique idea of hosting this couple took on in a big way, and the press, TV and radio, seeing the unusual in a piece of news, gave it the publicity it deserved, and Alpine profited, but the main theme running through the affair, was appreciation for our fighting men. -CI

'HONEYMOON' WAS DANDY

That "belated honeymoon" of Sgt. Carroll Meuse and his wife which has achieved some famous publicity, has been a great success, and the chamber of commerce has received congratulations on its promoting the affair.

The potluck dinner Tuesday night was a signal success with a large attendance, highlighted by Meuse's slides and talk. The evening was ably planned by Mrs. John Titus as chairman of the entertainment committee.

The week's schedule is summed up thus: One day's stay at Tappy's Motel, courtesy of Mrs. Black, the rest of the week from the chamber; a 1-day tour of the back country and Palomar, plus dinner, from the Woman's Club; flowers for the honeymooners from Homeland Florists; dinner at Charcoal House in PV, gift of the owners; dinner at De Angelis Cafe, from the owners and Mrs. Black; a meal at McGuffie's, compliments of Agnes McGuffie, gift of 10 gallons of gas by Clark Haney; Mrs. DeLong offered a trip to the SD Zoo but there was a lack of time; and a breakfast with Mrs. Black.

All in all, the Meuses say they had a wonderful time. (See editorial).

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Partridge and their friends Bob and Iris Wilson enjoyed the installation dinner for incoming Lt. Governor Vischer H. Root at the SD Woman's Clubhouse recently.

Stanley and Akiko Palmer flew in from Japan last week, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kinsman, South Grade Road. They plan on visiting several months before returning to their home there.

ALPINE'S POP Warner team huddle around their favorite member June Sortino, presented her with a sweat shirt and hat with "Mamma Coach" written on front. June is proud of her boys, sees lots of improvement since they began games.

Horse Talk

By Cynthia Irvine

Scott Sortino and his family were sick Sunday morning when they waked up to find his horse Fancy with a badly cut lip. They called Dr. Immenschuh and even he said "it was the worst cut I have ever seen on a horse's face".

The twins were down at the YC ring helping to give it a first coat of paint and when he learned that Celeste had her camera, he sent for them to come up and get a picture of the gash before he went to work on her.

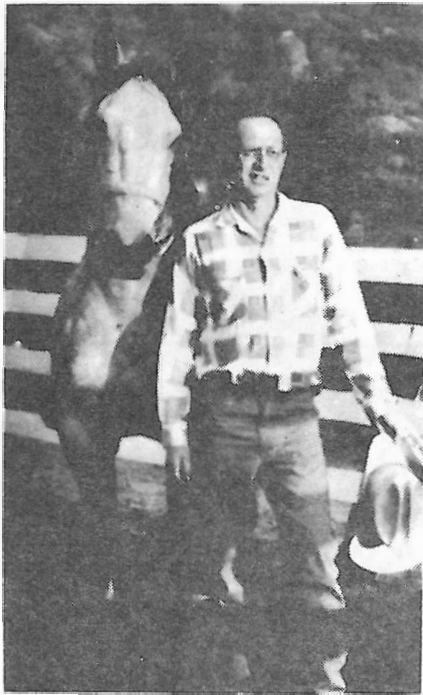

It took Immenschuh over 3 hours to sew her up and because of Fancy's age and the drugs he had to give her, he wasn't sure she would make it. He stayed until she was up on her feet before he left. He even missed the Parade which was too bad.

Fancy was in her corral when the accident happened sometime in the night but it is still a mystery as to how she did it. There wasn't anything sharp that she could have gotten into but June said "the vet did a marvelous job as he had to piece the skin together in places and did plastic surgery."

Wednesday morning Fancy was as frisky as ever and is eating good so it looks like she will recover.

A nice ride is being planned Sunday starting at the Youth Center for everyone, young or old who would like to go. This is the first event of the newly formed riding club. It starts at 12:30 and after the ride, punch and coffee will be available. A general meeting is scheduled for Dec. 12, 8 pm at the YC, anyone interested can attend. The club is in the planning stage and this is a good time to come and make your wants and desires known. The group wants to keep the club informal, inexpensive and yet have everyone included so that the most enjoyment can be gotten out of owning a horse.

Phone Book Reveals Kin

Dave Weisbach and family, who have been residents in Alpine for several years, got a phone call one day, after they had changed their unlisted phone in the book, from a lady in Chula Vista saying "is this the Dave Weisbach who used to live in Michigan?" After much excitement they discovered Dave was their nephew that they hadn't seen in 25 years, took a trip out to Alpine to see him and his family last week-end. This has been their first trip here, enjoyed the nice air and especially seeing Dave and his family after so many years. Dave's uncle and wife have lived in Chula Vista for several years, came from Chicago.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

The Mother Goose Parade was just about the best one we have ever seen and we all picked the Lion's Club Trophy as the Sweepstakes winner and we were right.

We were thrilled to see our friend Mary Fitzgerald and her court on the pretty float and she saw us in the grandstand as she went by and gave us a big hello. It was over-cast but it didn't spoil the parade one bit, and we were also proud of our El Cap band as they put on a top performance.

We were happy last Wednesday when Mrs. Madson gave us back our Siamese cat. She has had him for several months but her other male would attack Zuce so she had to get rid of him. Cynthia went over Wednesday and picked him up and he sure remembered his old home. He made a bee-line for our bedroom and curled up on the bed and promptly went to sleep. He is big and real pretty.

Mrs. Allie Vigneault called with some good news also. She sold all three of her Siamese kittens Sunday morning to people in San Diego. She and Blackie are leaving on a trip soon and didn't want to have so many animals to look after, so was glad to sell them.

Roxann Rothenberg left for home Wednesday. She has been a student at McCalls' and also spent the summer there, but got homesick for her parents, will attend Madison High in Clairmont.

Charles Amos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Amos, they own Carl's Boot and Leather Shop, left for Fort Ord this week as a private in the Army Engineers.

Sgt. John Talamantes, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Rix, So. Grade Road, wrote home with the good news that the cast was taken off his leg. He broke it on maneuvers when he fell while jumping over a slippery ditch. He has been laid up for nearly two months, is glad to be walking again.

Lively Oaks Doings

Alpine's busy Lively Oaks are planning a "White Christmas" party for needy families on Dec. 10th and every member is asked to bring a can wrapped in white paper but labelled so that the contents will be known. More information regarding the party will be printed in the Sun as Emma Holmes, publicist, sends it in.

Their meeting Monday was quite lively with 36 present, and a Happy Birthday was sung to Mrs. Eleanor Mount, 90, their oldest member. Mr. Strand read them a poem from one of his book which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Welcomed back to the club was Fern Flitinger and Charlie Leitch and news from Ellen Scheik was encouraging, as she has been in bed for a few days, is steadily improving.

A nice card party with Mrs. Backstam as chairman turned out to be lots of fun and several won prizes.

RIXS HOLD FAMILY REUNION

Mr. & Mrs. Robt. Rix, South Grade Road, were elated when their son-in-law Robert Catlett arrived home from Viet Nam Friday. He spent 6 years in the navy, was discharged last week. He and his wife Byrldine and infant son Barton are leaving for New Mexico today to make their permanent home.

Their daughter Jackie and husband Ted Borer drove up from El Cajon with their 3 children to make Thanksgiving a nice family reunion. Another son, Sgt. John Talamantes, who is in Oklahoma, could not make the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Weisbach, Victoria Drive, are looking forward to seeing her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamina, who are driving to California via the northern route, are expected to arrive next week.

MRS. VANCIL ATTENDS SEMINAR

The all day affair put on by Calif. Federation of Women's Clubs at Disneyland last week, was attended by Mrs. Goldie Vancil. They talked on community improvement, membership and leadership. Main speaker was the national chairman of the federation. Several clubs were represented and Mrs. Vancil reports "a good time that was quite informative."

Alpine Lad on Oriskany

There was a joyful reunion last week when Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lucas of Alpine met their son, Lance Cpl. John S. Hibbard, USMC, as the carrier Oriskany, badly scarred from a fire off Viet-Nam Oct. 26, docked at North Island.

Hibbard, 22, enlisted nearly two years ago. He now regards Alpine as home, will spend his Christmas leave here.

He was in the middle of the ship when the blaze roared into forward passageways and compartments with choking smoke engulfing the entire vessel. Hibbard was part of a crew of 400 who battled the flames. Others routed comrades from their bunks, dumped bombs into the sea and performed other important duties.

Sailors working in the boiler room, five decks down, experienced great trouble breathing in the dense smoke.

There was a note of sadness as the ship edged towards the pier with the realization that 44 crewmen and pilots had lost their lives.

The Oriskany left this week for San Francisco to undergo repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Partridge entertained their old friend Ida Ruggles from SD for Thanksgiving, also a cousin of Mrs. Partridge, Wm. Kilmer, who is stationed at North Island, drove up for the day. Dr. Roger Larson, their usual guest on this day, had previously taken another engagement, came later for coffee. Ray jr. spent the weekend at home, is a student at UC at La Jolla.

Footballers to Mexico

Tomorrow at 10:30 a caravan of cars filled with anxious youngsters will leave the Youth Center to play Tijuana's Pop Warner team. The lads have been anxiously awaiting this game as have their friends South of the Border. The Mexican team spent days making and putting up posters announcing the coming match and everything is ready for the big day.

This game is significant in that it is the first international Pop Warner football competition ever played between the two countries and has caused quite a lot of excitement.

CARE OF THE BODY

THE MERITS OF CHLOROPHYLL
By Frances McTaggart

One of the most gratifying results of treatment with chlorophyll, say the doctors, was its ability to relieve itching and burning, and they state that this relief was almost immediate. But the physiological effect on the infected skin was as dramatic as the relief from itching and burning. 88 percent of these patients were "Clinically cured."

Dr. Homer Junkin, of the Paris Hospital, Paris, Ill., electrified the dental profession, with the announcement that he had succeeded in controlling trench mouth and advanced pharyngitis through the intensive use of the Green Liquid Chlorophyll. His method of application was to inject chlorophyll into the gums and the disease appeared to be cleared up in less than 30 days.

E. Bircher Research Scientist called chlorophyll "Concentrated Sun Power." He says in part, "chlorophyll increases the functions of the heart, affects the Vascular System, the intestines, the uterus and the lungs. It raises the basic nitrogen exchange and is therefore a tonic which considering its stimulating properties cannot be compared with any other."
