BARBECUE PARTY LIKES ALPINE

Popularity of this area is growing as was revealed at the recent YC barbecue, an annual event that attracts folks from all around the county.

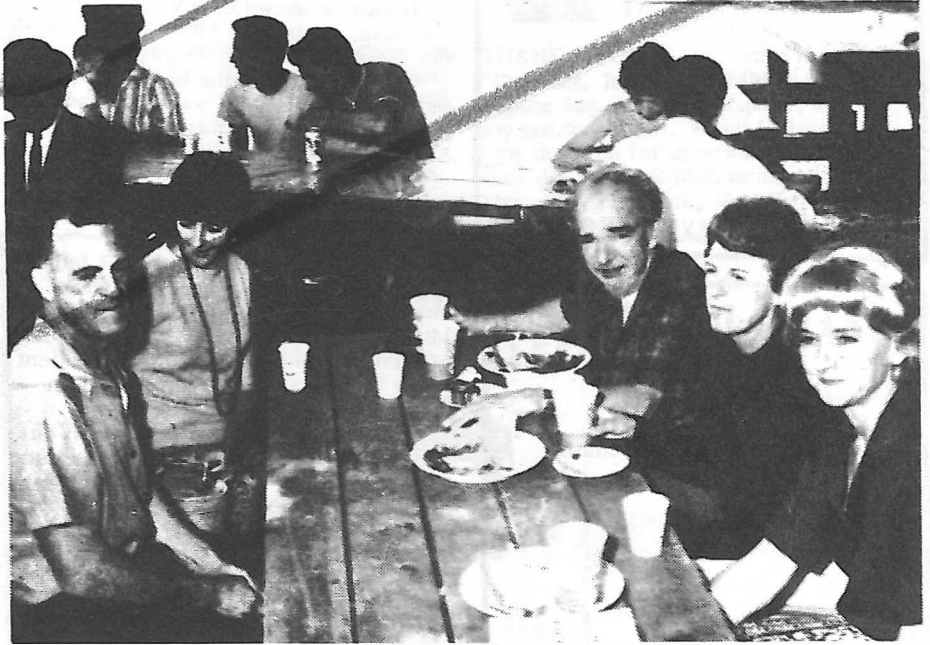

Here is one party of enthusiasts for the real pit barbecue the men put on to benefit the YC, who all had a fine time. From left: John L. Eitel, engineer, with United Marine Corp. of SD, who said "we enjoyed the day, and would like to live up here sometime".

C of C meet was warm

Talks on beautification and against fluoridation featured a 2 1/2 hour meeting of the C of C last Wednesday.

Dr. John E. Watson, Coronado dentist, said it was the first time in the 16 years he has opposed fluoridation that he had been asked to speak at a C of C meeting. He spoke in rebuttal to Dr. Norman Sperber, SD dentist, who had appeared earlier in the year.

DROP IN SEWER TAX RATE

As the result of a rise in assessed valuation here, the sanitation rate is due to drop slightly from the 1966-67 fiscal period of $1.38 to $1.31, for the current 1967-68 year, a decrease of 6.6¢. Final budget of $20,795 for Alpine was approved by supervisors Monday last week.

Reed Smith and wife who bought out the Houcks, owners of the Indian Trading Post, opposite Charcoal House in PV, are remodeling the store, plan on enlarging and adding antiques soon.

FORMER ALPINE WINNER 10 GRAND

Mary Fitzgerald, who was raised in Alpine and whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moats of La Mesa, still own property here, was the thrilling winner of over 10,000 in cash and prizes last Friday when she appeared on Hollywood Squares. Mary was 1966 Mother Goose Princess, was selected to appear on the program earlier but time didn't permit her to take part. Last week they called her and she flew up to Hollywood.

Besides $2,000 in cash she drove home in a 1967 Pontiac, got 500 gallons of gasoline, a Honda, color TV, Amana Freezer and Refrigerator, a House Trailer, speedboat & motor, a trip to the Bahamas for 2, also a week's stay in Las Vegas, plus other prizes.

Mary and her parents were thrilled beyond words.

It will be shown on TV Aug. 15 thru Aug. 23 in case you want to see the show and time is 10:30 a. m.

Never before in the history of the show has a contestant walked off with all of the prizes. It was just a lucky day for Mary.

LAKESIDERS BUY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Cole of El Monte Road, Lakeside, have just purchased a beautiful acre on Anderson Road from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Luranc of E. San Diego. They plan to build their permanent home here as their daughter and family lives in the Highlands.

Luranc is reserving several acres on this slightly spot for his own dream home that he plans on building sometime in the near future.

Sale was handled by Al Smith of Smith Realty here.

"Was your friend shocked over the death of his mother-in-law?"

"Shocked? He was electrocuted."

Pat and Woodie Mitchell's latest arrival, a beautiful little sorrel filly, born to Applesauce, their blooded Appaloosa mare. If you haven't been in to see Alpine Western Wear lately, drop by and see the complete line of tack, supplies and new things they have. Their son Billy and wife run the store, have it fixed up real nice and pretty.

Art, Frogge, trailerite healthman now vacationing in KC, Mo. posts the Sun: "Hello Everyone! Have enjoyed my visit here with friends and relatives. Weather fine, crops look good. I'm headed back to good old sunny Alpine. See you soon. So long".

THANKS, FOLKS--

"Dear Mr. Irvine:- We think your little Alpine Sun a great newspaper and enjoy reading them. When finished we pass them on for others to enjoy and they do, for it is such an unusual paper". Mrs. Agnes Carrick, Van Nuys, Calif.

EDITORIAL

They had a strange gathering down at Rosie's, a beerbar in Solana Beach the other evening. A group of fellows were there to remember Charlie Booth, who had died the day after he was 73.

As my friend Don Lapham wrote in an editorial in his newspaper the San Dieguito Citizen, it was "Have a Glass of Beer on Charlie Booth Night". and there were no mourners for this was not his way of life. He was a kind, gentle person who for almost 10 years was foreman for the Citizen.

"He was from the old school", Don wrote, "a master compositor who could outperform men 30 years his junior. . . For his great talents he lived in the right era. He was a hot-type letterpress man to the core. Offset was for light-weights, those who were competent only with scissors and pastepots.

"If his last request sounds un-Christian, it was not intended to be so, for Charlie lived a Christian life. Death was unmentionable and a funeral something that could not be tolerated. To insult Charlie Booth was to mourn at his passing.

"It is with a small tear of regret that Charlie Booth, craftsman, philosopher and friend of many was buried yesterday in Miles City, Montana."

Often have I thought that I'd like to have a funeral like that-- let everyone have a good time, and no tears--we just go on into another room to continue the eternal song of the Universe!-CI.

INDIANS DANCE FOR RANCH SCHOOL

Saturday a group of real natives of St. John's Indian School, Komatke Village, Ariz., under supervision of Bro. B. Brophy, came out to McCall's Ranch School in a bus, gave several colorful dances in full regalia. They had been appearing in SD. Mrs. McCall invited them to stay for dinner, all had a nice time, and the youngsters of the school really enjoyed visiting with the braves and their genial guide, Bro. Brophy.

ADAMS ENJOY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Al Adams and daughter Julie are home after a pleasant trip that took them to several states.

They attended a convention of the National Turkey Federation in Park City, Utah. While there took in the fabulous gondola ride to the top of the mountain and all enjoyed a turkey barbecue that officials had planned for all. On the way home they saw Zion National Park, Bryce Canyon and the North and South Rim of the Grand Canyon.

While they were away daughter Randy and husband Barry Mc Call and Al's sister Helen Porter looked after their turkey ranch.

HORSE TALK

Cynthia Irvine Mc Taggart

Have you lost a horse lately? If so, you might try calling 445-2052. Mr. McElligott found a nice gelding in his back yard recently, vicinity of Hwy 80 and Smiley's Motel. He would like to find the owner.

I went up to see Margaret Lowthian Monday and she showed me her two young fillies out of mares that she is keeping. One was named Elf, Mr. Freeland's initials and the other Genie, after him. They are both quite outstanding colts. I also looked at the gorgeous matched saddles she has for sale. She had them made in Los Angeles and designed them herself. They have silver lacing on the horn and back seat and are well worth the $750. she is asking. Both have matched bridles that go with them.

Bob Smith has had quite a few anxious days with his gelding Cayuse who was bitten Friday by a rattler. Dr. Davis came up and had to insert a tube in the horses windpipe so he could breath as his nose had swelled entirely shut. Bob took it out Monday evening and he said Cayuse was feeling quite a bit better but had a close call. Bob is also the proud owner of a colt by Blue Admiral that he is anxious to start training. He named him Cheyenne. I hope to go up in a few days and get his picture for my column. I am now working full time for Daddy and like it a lot. I have much more free time and can walk to work so it has many advantages. I have been setting all of the copy lately so if you have noticed some mistakes, hope you will forgive me, as I have to get used to the touch of Mama's IBM.

Jackie Reed traded her horse Spooks for a 7 year old black mare that is due to foal in a few weeks. She is gentle and has a sweet nature and both Jackie and her mother are real pleased with her.

Ronny and Cathy Peterson, who just bought a beautiful Shetland pony, changed her name to Chiqueta. Their dad went down and bought them a new pony saddle and bridle so they are all set to go and couldn't be any happier if they tried.

The two husbands were commiserating with each other. "Don't you and your wife ever have a difference of opinion?" asked one. "To be sure," replied the other, "but so far I haven't made the mistake of letting her know."

POSTMASTER BACK FROM VACATION

Haakon & Sara Beth Magnussen are back by car from a 5-day trip to visit Haakon, jr., and family in Berkeley where he works and goes to school.

"We saw the bevetron at the laboratory where he is, a most amazing machine used in splitting the atom. We had a nice drive on 101, with only 20 miles of old 2-lane highway. The freeway is wonderful".

DANCERS PLAN PARTY

The Gypsy Squares, of SD, have scheduled a lively party for the night of Friday, Aug. 11, up at Stallion Oaks Guest Ranch, reports Ed Torgersen, owner of this popular place.

They have completed cement work around the pool and visitors are enjoying camping, swimming and horseback riding, he adds.

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

With 26 present a very enjoyable day was spent at an old fashioned box luncheon. Perry Welch was the auctioneer and a total of $24. was made on the boxes. Chances were sold on a pair of binoculars donated by Bert Jenkins and won by Juanita Cushing, bringing the total to $35.25 for the building fund. This was sponsored by Emma Holmes & Juanita Cushing.

We were happy to welcome as our guests Mrs. Charley Harrington (formerly Myrtle Hoffelder, past president) and her husband from San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sachse had as their guest Mrs. Dorothy Linville of Yuma, Ariz.

Our Hillbilly band will play at the Escondido Fair at 2 pm on Aug. 3rd. Auto license plates advertising Alpine as best climate will be sold at $3. each at the Youth Center this Saturday and proceeds will go into the building fund.

Mrs. Mary Shipp had as her house guests over the weekend, her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shipp from Yuma.

LT. GOVERNOR TO SPEAK IN SD

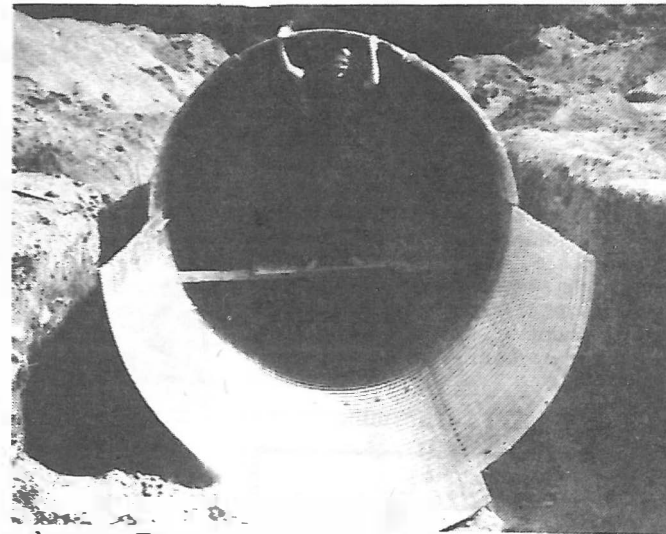

On Friday, Aug. 4, Robt. Finch, Lt. Governor, will address the Republican Associates at noon in Sea World's Atlantis Restaurant, 2595 Ingraham St. in SD. He will award prizes to winners in the group's membership contest, says Pat Hyndman, chairman. Alpine GOP'ers plan on going.

GIRL RUN OVER BY WAGON

Sharon Leonard, 16, was in good condition in EC Valley Hospital after she was run over by a hayride wagon last Friday night at Holiday Ranch, 15141 Old Hwy 80. One of the horses lunged, throwing the two girls off. The other was Paula Conter, 13, also of SD. The ride was sponsored by a Baptist church of Clairemont. The wagon carried 16 other teenagers.

INSTALL HUGE CULVERTS

Contractors are busy laying huge steel culverts to prevent erosion on the new freeway above town. This is a big 84-inch one, size shown by Celeste Irvine, standing on platform where workers attach thousands of big bolts to hold the 6 sections of galvanized steel together. Tube is filled around with DG and packed, then earth is bulldozed over, watered and thumped into place to harden and eventually carry the load of pavement and cars.

Mother: "Now, Junior, be a good boy and say "Ah-h, so the doctor can get his finger out of your mouth."

HILL BILLY BAND PLAYS IN EC

Alpine Lively Oaks' noted Hill Billy Band, led by Gladys Pinkerton, entertained the El Cajon Senior Citizens Club of Wells Park at their annual golden anniversary celebration last week.

Secretary Emily Manly of the EC group reported a fine time with 23 couples present who had been wed 50 years or more.

After the check-up the doctor said, "There's nothing wrong with you. All you need is a little sun and air."

"Yeah, I know," replied the man, "but my wife is dead set against children."

This looks like a tornado had hit Smiley's Motel, up at the Willows, but it was merely a huge bulldozer that made the rubble out of the neat front building, leaving only the fireplace on the line!

Owner Smiley stands in front, bewailing the system that is so much in a hurry that it could not allow poor Americans or Mexicans to come and take the building apart for valuable materials worth hundreds of dollars. All this will be pushed aside and burned, adding to growing air pollution.

TEENERS PLAN RUMMAGE SALE

Methodist Church young folks are ready for their big rummage, bake and snackbar sale tomorrow from 9 to 3 at the church, Palm & Lemon in LM, says Mrs Lois L. Dresser, publicist.

"Lots of goodies will be available on the bake table" she says, "besides all kinds of usable items, and a snackbar with coffee & donuts and other edibles. Come and have a ball!"

Husband: "I suppose you're mad at me for coming home last night with a black eye."

Wife: "Why dear, when you came home you didn't have a black eye."

MRS. WOOLDRIDGE ENTERS REALTY

A new salesman has been added to Alpine Realty Co., reports Mrs. Anna Jerney, manager. She is Lucille Wooldridge who comes from a position with Sea Coast Trust in SD. Alpine Realty features homes, ranches and acreage.

"We have had steadily increasing enquiries for houses and land in this area for the past few months", declares Mrs. Jerney, who believes that Alpine will forge ahead faster when the freeway is opened the end of next year.

BANANA BONANZA (Cont. from 7/21)

About the calories in bananas with which we are so concerned, an average size banana has about 88 calories only, three more than the gelatin desserts which are famed for their low-calorie content.

The percentage of fat in them is low and consists largely of the beneficial unsaturated fats, and they contain no cholesterol, a factor which prompts doctors to include this fruit in diets given to patients.

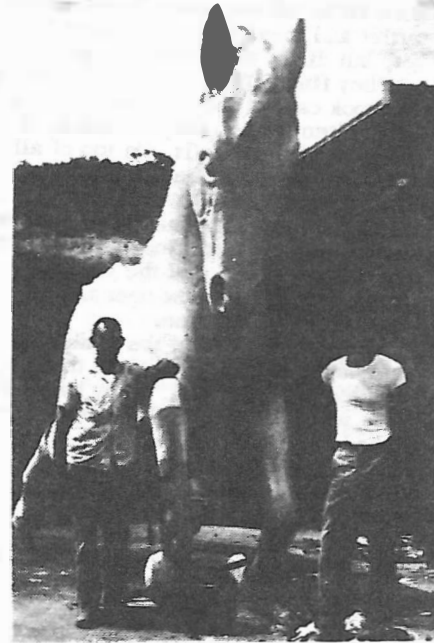

The carbohydrates in bananas aids in the body's protein storage and is highly digestible. Distress caused by eating them is due largely in eating unripe fruit. They should be eaten when entirely yellow flecked with brown spots and must be thoroughly chewed.

When buying bananas, choose a bunch that still has part of the stem or stalk attached to it, which contains a ripening enzyme. When green bananas are detached from the stem, the ripening process is incomplete. Have you ever had a banana that tasted flat or bland - well this is the reason?

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Jimenez, Tavern Road, entertained two of their nieces last week. Betty and Laura Santillan came up on the bus from Imperial, were treated to Finnian's Rainbow at Starlight, a trip to the Zoo and to the beaches and all had a grand time. They went back with their parents via Disneyland.

RORIE PUTS 'TRIGGER' IN GLASS

The largest job ever done in Alpine Fiberglass Menagery, is a rearing yellow Palomino horse, a replica of Roy Rogers' Trigger, who died last year, is stuffed in his museum up at Apple Valley. This 21' animal that weighs around 1100 pounds and cost several thousand dollars, left here yesterday aboard a huge trailer. It will become a landmark atop the museum.

The beautiful animal was sculptured by Richard Zuelke, Alpine artist, and was molded in several sections, then cemented together.

When asked how Rogers knew of Alpine's little industry Rorie, who runs the business with his wife Mildred, said "He contacted us through a Western store that knew us for the animals we make".

The task required over 3 months with several men working with Rorie & the artist. He had at first thought of flying the animal by helicopter instead of driving the 165 miles, but the tab was a bit too high, literally, $15,000.

BIKE THROWS JIM HANNAN

While spending the afternoon with his grandchildren in El Cajon, Jim Hannan, maintenance man for McCall's Ranch School, thought he would enjoy a little bike riding with the kids.

The family has recently moved to this new location and Jim didn't realize the incline was so steep. In the back yard. When he started down on the bike it slid on loose gravel and threw him off. He bit the ground and landed face down, sustaining a bad bruise on his right cheek.

His little granddaughter, seeing his bloody face, ran inside crying, "Grandpa's bleeding to death".

The wound is healing nicely and Jim says "no more bike riding for me" but does he really mean it. His only daughter, Marie Murphy and husband Bob have 11 children.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

They say everything happens in twos and whoever started that saying must have had lots of experience because it always seems to happen that way.

Our new bakery owner, Geo. Grube, called us Saturday and wanted to know the name of some newcomers to Alpine that had their picture in our Alpine Sun. We hurried, looked through and came up with the new DuPree family on South Grade Road. He said they had stopped by and asked where a doctor was and left with the word "snake bite". George had a batch of pizza in the oven and couldn't leave at the moment but would have gone with them if he had been free. He wanted to know if they had gotten to a doctor and also how they made out. We asked him to call back when he found out and he did. Their big Wineramer dog Kurt had been bitten on the face by a pretty big rattler and they knew he needed a vet, but didn't know where to go.

They finally were sent to Dr. Samter who took care of the dog and after all the excitement Mr. DuPree called us and gave us the details. On top of all this, their German Shepherd is in the hospital and had been there several days before this happened. He somehow fell out of their truck and had the pads torn off of his feet, but the vet said that he would grow new ones and be just fine in a short time.

The DuPree's killed the snake and were happy it wasn't a human that had ventured near him first. They had been doing some discing and had apparently flushed out the big snake.

Here is a good opportunity to get rid of unwanted kittens. Mrs. George Allen of Tavern Road is looking for a young female, and Doris Scully, also of Tavern Road, would like two. Call the Sun office for phone numbers or you can look them up.

Our cousin Julian Ajello, who is in the Naval Reserve, has been spending two weeks training in SD. He came up Sunday and spent the day but we had to go back to Hemet Saturday afternoon and missed him. He thinks he might get up next week and then we will be home and have a nice time. He lives in Sacramento, graduated from Cal Poly last June with a degree in electrical engineering.

The mosquitoes were quite bad and two Irishmen on a fishing trip took refuge under the bedcovers. Pat, peering out, saw a firefly.

"It's no use, Mike," "Here's one of the devils searching for us with a lantern.

KINIKINS ENJOY VACATION

Mr. & Mrs. Max Kinikin and their two daughters Maxine and Lynn returned Sunday from a weekend trip. They left Friday and drove through Arizona to Nevada where they spent the night. Reported the temperature as 110, quite hot! Then they left and went through San Bernardino to the Redlands. They all had quite a nice time.

RENTALS BADLY NEEDED HERE

Local realtors report a steadily increasing demand for rentals in this area, but few are available. The new Alpine Apartments, soon to open 12 new units, will help some, but there is a steady demand for 2- and 3-bedroom homes, report realtors, and the Sun has had a run on classified ads for housing.

GIDEONS IN PULPIT HERE

Sunday Community Church pulpit will be occupied by a businessman, member of the Gideons, who help travelers all over the world. He is a lay speaker, taking the place of Dr. Roger Larson who is on vacation in Canada.

"That gal I married is an angel, Joe" exclaimed Jim upon meeting his friend for the first time in quite a while. "You're lucky," "The one I married is still living."

PLAN VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL

Mrs. Richard Hageman who conducted Community Church vacation school last year has again agreed to work this year on this community project which opens at 9:30 am, on Aug. 21, in Jane Dunn Hall.

It is open to the entire community of young people.

BOULEVARD VS MANZANITA

Old timers who used to travel by horse & buggy are strongly for using the name of Bouevard for the town that has the postoffice, but some others are for Manzanita, nearby, where the PO used to be. So they are circulating petitions in that area. As there is already a Manzanita PO in Calif., that name could not be used for the town.

living on the 6-acre place, and Roy M. Franke, who will leave his position in LA soon to live here.

C.L. McFarland, who does hauling and mowing, and who lived on the place for the last two years, has moved down to the Findel Ranch, South Grade Road.

The house has 2 bedrooms with bath, and an enchanting view of the surrounding mountains. Range is a native of Waltham, Mass., while Franke was born in Philadelphia.

"We just pulled out of LA because of the smog and the growing congestion" Range told the Sun Monday when subscribing to the paper. They may start a TV and 2-way radiophone service in this area.

Dr. Waters said that research indicated that childbirth defects and ill health could be attributed to fluoridation and assailed the US Public Health Service & American Dental Association for support of the program.

He drew applause when he contended that attempts are made to force fluoridation on communities by city councils & other agencies rather than by a vote of citizens. He said that the Public Health Service had withheld grants from institutions whose researchers had reported it as not beneficial.

Dr. Waters charged that statistics are juggled and that adding fluoride to water may delay tooth decay but not prevent it. His statements were challenged by Dr. Vincent R. Bacino, a dentist from Fletcher Hills, who contended that he was wrong on all his information.

The first part of the program was devoted to a talk by Harry LaDou, executive chairman on the War against Litter, showed slides of scenic areas marred by trash. He said group action could help in removing eyesores.

ENGINEERS BLANKED CONTRACTORS

That ballgame last Thursday at the YC was a close one, the Highway Engineers knocking off the Daley Contractors by a mere 9-8 score, reports Jerry Smith, resident engineer. They plan another in the near future.

The soldier gazed at the beautiful dress of the leading lady.

"Who made her dress?" he asked his companion.

"I'm not sure, but I think it was the police."

MINORITY LEADER TALKS IN EC

Next Monday at noon in the Elks Club, 1400 E. Washington, Robt. T. Monagan, minority floor leader of the Assembly, will address Republican Associates. Tom Duffy will be chair man. He will reveal a lot about how the GOP is progressing in the capital. It is his first talk in the SD area since elected. Republicans from Alpine plan to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Granillo of Fresno, she is sister of Conrad Jimenez, spent several days visiting them. They took a tour of Universal Studios, Marine Land and had a wonderful time.
