CROWD ENJOYS LUAU

Saturday night 150 visitors and guests at Alpine Trailer Camperrancho, upper Willows Road, as guests of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. David Arnst, enjoyed a delectable feast luau style, followed by a talented group of Samoans and some San Diego girls who really interpreted the ancient dances of the Islands.

The girls were taught by Star Suitonu, sister of Elisa Suitonu, from Hawaii, who herself did a remarkable Tahitian dance. The girls, foster daughters of

POP WARNER UNDERWAY

"With 21 enthusiastic youngsters, Alpine's Pop Warner football team is off to a grand start" says Manuel Moya, president of the association.

The boys were examined Thursday by Dr. EC Woodall, are issued uniforms on the 15th and will start practice the same day. The first outside game is played Sept. 15th. Coaches John LaChusa and Jim McElligott would like to see more young men come out for this worthwhile sport as they are in need of players.

Last year Alpine's team made an excellent showing and officials expect them to show considerable improvement. "It is fun, exciting, and an excellent character builder" says Moya.

PARSONS PLAN MEXICO TRIP

An interesting camping trip to Estero Beach, Mexico is being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parsons and their three children. They are planning on spending a week there, enjoying the peace and quiet that area has to offer. Mr. and Mrs. George Archer will be on their property to care for it while they are enjoying themselves.

Roy Provence, Tavern Road, drove home a spanking new Austin Cooper Friday night, is thrilled with it and has been spending the weekend breaking in the little sports car. He is planning to fix up his old volkswagon and sell it.

The only person we know who makes a success in running other people down is the elevator boy.

Maybe some 'White Power' might aid U.S.

Perhaps it is not too far-out to say that if the Whites took a little inspiration from the Blacks, there might be some changes made in this country.

There is a movement in "Black Power", to get things done, to end the poverty, slums, and so on, which it does not take an 11-man President's commission to discover.

Why not let the poor people of America start a "White Power" movement, to rid the country of political intrigue and many other detrimental phases of American life today. We had that back in 1776, and it worked!

Things are getting nearly intolerable in this great country. When Roy Wilkins, secretary of the NAACP accused the nation of giving away billions to countries that hate us, instead of using that money to better conditions for the Negro here-- also the rest of the population-- he perhaps voiced something that many a white man feels, and talks about, out in the grassroots.

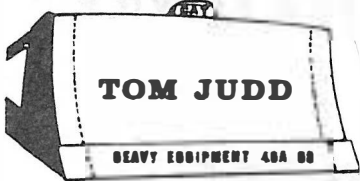

We feel for the good Colored people of this country who are as much mortified as any other segment of the population, over the race riots, burning and looting, but out of these excruciating events may come better conditions.

One point is that a large percentage of those rioters arrested had criminal records; young people who had gone wrong because they lacked inspiration, jobs, education, decent housing and so on.

Maybe this terrible shakeup in America will trigger some sort of a revolution for the betterment of the nation and its people. -CI

Mark Parsons, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parsons, spent last weekend in Rosarita Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arnicar and their 13 year old son Dolf. Mrs. Arnicar was Mark's summer school teacher, knew the boys would enjoy a wonderful time together.

ANGELINOS SEE RATTLER

Three children from Los Angeles, Janet, Stephen and Jeff Baird, niece and nephews of Mrs. Jerome Lipetsky, South Grade Road, saw their first rattle snake in the open last week when they were returning from a hike in the Cuyamaca Mountains. They looked over a log to see a lizzard and there sunning himself was a huge snake. He took cover under some boulders so Mrs. Lipetsky and her family continued down the trail. The youngsters have been visiting here for the past month, attended summer school, the YC program, camping, fishing, and Mrs. Lipetsky says "am sorry to see them leave, they were all so good and we did enjoy them."

The Knitting Bags, a group of women are making up a lovely afghan which is soon to be raffled. Also donations are coming in from the people so they will rejuvenate the old building and use it for meetings, entertainments and so on.

Hello: The papers are coming through fine. Usually have the Sun on Saturday and I sit down and read all the Alpine news. Renewal check enclosed for $3. -Mrs. Marie Frey, Oregon City, Ore.

One of latest examples of art executed by Richard Zuelke at the Fiberglass Menagerie here, is a huge spread eagle in full color. It was done for Granite Hills HS in EC, so Jim Rorie, owner of the unique shop which is selling animals all over the nation today, had a mate built, which is to be sold in the near future.

MENAGERIE GETS PUBLICITY

The Daily Californian of EC ran a 3-column photo and story of Mildred Rorie and the replica of Trigger, Roy Roger's famed horse which she and Jim produced at their Fiberglass Menagerie here. It was trailered to Roger's museum at Apple Valley Friday morning.

"Conductor, will you help me off the train?"

"Sure, but why?"

"You see, I'm stout and have to get off backward. The porter thinks I'm trying to get on and gives me a shove on again. I'm already past my stop now."

HORSE TALK

Cynthia Irvine Mc Taggart

Mike Scully is all smiles this week. His mother just bought him a beautiful 9-year old buckskin mare called Butter-milk. She is a fast and excellent gymkhana horse.

We knew Betty Rash couldn't keep off a horse, and when she sold her mare and colt last year wondered how long it would be before another one showed up in her corral. Sure enough, Sunday she and her husband Sam went to Lakeside and bought an 11-year old buckskin mare named Yalie. She says she is part Tennessee Walker and Quarter, has nice gates and has been well trained so hopes to enjoy riding when the evenings are cool. After they brought the mare home Rash parked their trailer in the back yard. When he went to work Monday, didn't realize the trailer was in the way, and he smacked into it wrecking the axle. It will have to have some repair work before they can use it again.

Thunder, Mike Scully's horse, before he got a nice buckskin, has been laid up with an abscessed back is much better now and can be ridden a little, but without a saddle. Mike's brother Frank just traded his gelding for an 11-year old gymkhana mare. She is black and quite nice so hopes to enter in some shows soon with her.

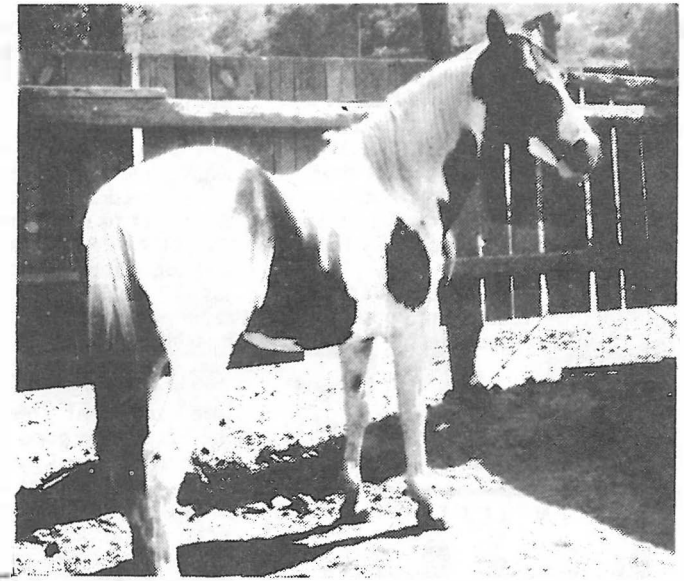

Jack Pingleton has a 5 year old chestnut mare for sale. Sounds like she has been well trained, call him, 445-4861 for more information.

Last week Bill and I were riding in the evening down on Japatul Rd and a huge Rattler went right in front of us. My horse Smokey almost stepped on him! He just kept on going and went off into the weeds. They are really out this time of the year and especially in the cool evenings.

Mandy Payne is counting the days till her horse Princess has her baby and she hopes for a filly. She is also taking care of Helen Nation's bay mare Termite for her and may buy her. Richard Zuelke was keeping the horse but didn't have time any more, so Mandy has the job now.

June Brown, comely El Cap student who lives in Japatul Valley, has been put on as clerk to assist Mrs. Geo. Grube in sales at the new Alpine Home Bakery. She aspires to eventually be a teacher.

The wedding was a very swell affair they even used puffed rice.

This is Bert a registered Pinto stallion owned by Woodie Mitchell. He has won in quite a few national shows and is a really beautiful animal.

MERRILL HOME SOON FROM WAR

In a letter to the Sun, Mike Merrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Merrill, of the printing firm, 105 Willowside Ter., expresses thanks for the Sun, says he is just back from an R & R trip to Hong Kong, had a good rest.

"You asked how long it takes for the paper to reach me", he writes, "about a week and a half (2nd class), and sometimes our mail is late. Enjoyed the Cousins Four singing on the tape you sent, so am looking forward to hearing and seeing them in person. My best wishes always go with them.

"Well, I've just got 22 days I left before I take that 'freedom bird' back to the States and good 'ol Alpine. It's been a long haul but well worth it! I'll be leaving Vietnam on the 10th August, so better stop sending the paper. I have enjoyed the Sun very much and so have my buddies here, too. Thanks, very much, Clarke, for sending the Sun to me, also for your letters and tapes. Twenty-two days and a duffle bag shuffle! Regards to all, sincerely, Mike."

LUCK OF IRISH HOLDS GOOD

Mary Eva Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Moats, now of LM, who formerly lived here, and who won about $11,000 in cash and prizes on an LA show over TV, had her photo on Page 1 of the Daily Californian, of EC last Thursday.

INNOCATION IN BLASTING HERE

How two innocuous materials, ammonium nitrate, a fertilizer, and fuel oil, similar to diesel oil, when put together, are used to blow up solid granite for the freeway, was explained by Resident Engineer Jerry Smith this week when the Sun made this photo of a new rig used to blend the materials.

"This is the first time I have seen this done" he says "the truck shoots the prills, or tiny pearls of nitrate down a tin chute while being sprayed with the oil which makes it a dangerous explosive."

Heretofore all high explosives had to be gingerly handled, but now the two materials can be knocked around till mixed. Smith pointed out that the discovery was made when the ship loaded with nitrate blew up in a Texas harbor causing a major disaster. It was caused when leaking fuel oil contracted the prills and something ignited it.

A charge of 60% dynamite is put in the bottom of the hole, then the charge poured in. The dynamite is set off by a cap, thus igniting the main charge.

ASSEMBLING MONSTER CULVERT

Thousands of dollars are being spent putting in this huge 15' galvanized steel culvert under the bridge at Peutz Valley Rd., where the freeway will pass over on its way up to Alpine.

Crane at left is used to hoist weighty pieces of steel into place. The Sun's jeep is dwarfed at near end of culvert, backed down incline to show comparative size, came out under-4-wheel drive.

Culvert will connect with old concrete one now carrying storm water under present Hwy 80, built in 1933, mouth of which is just this side of jeep.

Freeway will pass over Peutz Valley Road, which will be extended south to connect with Harbison Canyon Road, at Arnold Way. Freeway construction is main topic of Alpiners these days.

CARE OF THE BODY

By Frances McTaggart

BE KIND TO YOUR FEET

The modern shoe is not always made to fit the foot- In many instances the foot is made to fit the shoe and as a result we run into foot troubles.

A large number of small bones enter into the making up of the feet and are firmly bound together by ligaments and tendons. Some of the muscles in this area are confined to the feet, others extend beyond and are attached to the bones of the leg almost as high as the knee. It is easy to understand, then, when ill-fitting shoes are worn, a great part of the leg is effected. When the feet hurt, we seem to ache all over.

Shoes should be neither too large nor too small, but should fit snugly and comfortably on all parts of the foot.

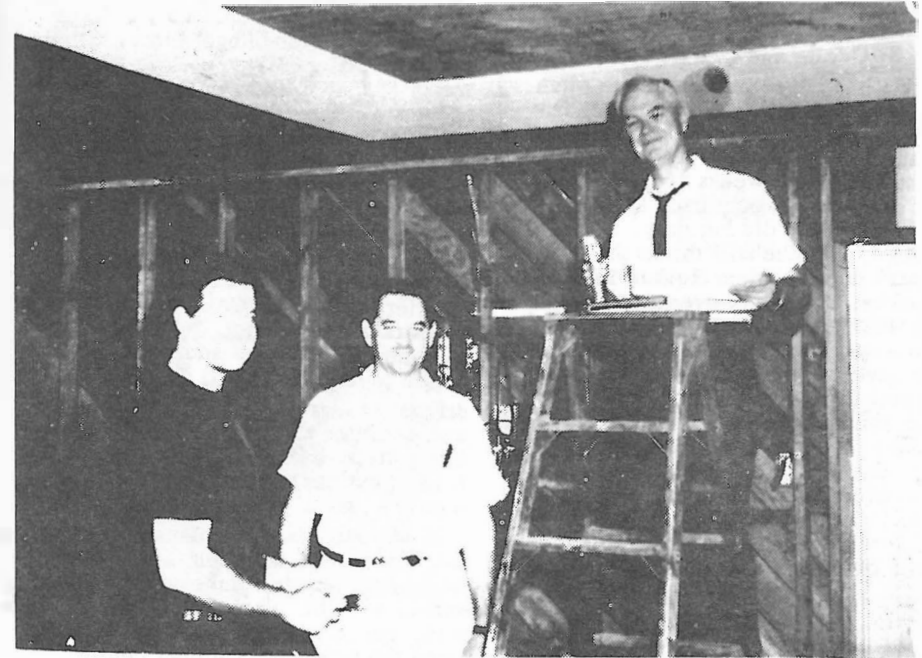

It may come as a mild shock to realize that the perfectly shaped foot is not necessarily a pretty one. It is too square and lacks in what we may call graceful lines, but this is the ideal shape to support the weight of the body plus any additional weight that a person may carry.

QUOTES TO QUOTE TODAY

It was in May 1962 that Defense Secretary Robt. McNamara came back from Viet Nam saying "Progress. . . has been great. . . Shows we are winning. . . There is no plan for introducing combat forces into South Viet Nam".

No plan is right! Yet nearly half a million men are fighting and dying there.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We had quite a nice surprise when we got home this past week-end. Our pet hen Chickedee presented us with 6 beautiful little babies. She finally got the urge to sit 3 weeks ago, so Mama got some fertile eggs from Rosalie Graf and Chickedee did her duty. She is quite a hen. She still thinks she is human because when Howard Barrett gave her to Cynthia over a year ago she wouldn't go a mother hen we had and would run to us to be picked up. We have had her picture in the paper several times and probably will again with this experience. The hen has had quite a different life than most chickens. She was raised in a bird cage and has never learned to roost, also was nearly eaten alive by some dogs, because she isn't afraid of them, but lived through it and now mother-hood, which we all think she deserves, although she is not the real mother.

Bob Smith's dog McGee brought in a little female dog last week and as she was sick he took her to the vet for treatment. No one claimed her so he has kept her. He had her spayed and calls her "Little Dog".

Lynn Kinikn's dog Patches is expecting her second litter of puppies soon and they should be real cute.

Ron Tyrrel is offering a $10 reward for the return of his two dogs that wandered away from home last Sunday night. One was a Chihuahua and the other a mixed black-haired female with brown paws and brown spots above the eyes. If you have seen licensed dogs or know where they are you can call him. 445-4186 or 445-4324. We know he would appreciate their return as they are pets of his children.

Mike Scully and Roger Jerney killed a 3-foot rattler on Tavern Road last Wednesday. They were coming home and saw it by the road but killed it before it could hurt anyone.

Johnny Edwards made Staff Sgt. last week when he returned to Viet Nam, his second trip there. His dad came in with the news and gave us some too. He had his 62 Falcon stolen almost in front of his eyes. He was visiting a friend at the Frontier Motel in El Cajon and saw his car parked out in front. When he looked up again, it was gone and it took the police 10 days to find it. Someone had driven it clear up to Highland, Calif. and damaged the interior and exterior pretty bad. He was glad to get it back but has to spend quite a lot of money to put it in shape again.

A big party is being planned for Howard and Vincent Presley Saturday night. They are 12 next Monday and so are celebrating tomorrow night. Their sister Barbara, who is 14, got to take the bus to Brawley and spend the week-end with her cousin Cheryl Presley. Her cousin's parents have a boat and go water skiing all the time, so she will have a wonderful visit.

When we found out we got to go to Oklahoma and Arkansas with Daddy and Al Smith we were more than excited. Mama didn't want to go because of the heat so stayed home and looked after the horses and the ranch. We will be home tomorrow and have a nice report for our column for the August 11th issue.

We get to see the Will Rogers Memorial in Claremore, and Daddy is thrilled over that as he knew Rogers real well when he was director of publicity for Goldwyn Studios in Culver City. Daddy tells how he used to go riding with Bill-- he says Will never liked to be called Will and Daddy watched him do his first movie there. We stopped off in Arizona once and visited Will Rogers, jr., on his ranch and had a long chat with him as he had not seen him since he was a little shaver back in the studios.

Oh, Yes, we're going to get to see the Cowboy Hall of Fame and other places of interest while there. We are going in a 6-place Piper Cherokee and Daddy is going to do part of the flying with Al Smith's nephew, Roger, whose Daddy is a veteran pilot with Western. Daddy who is 74, is the oldest student pilot in S D County that they know of.

YOUNG LANDT GETS PROMOTION

Word has just been received here that Lieut. Geo. Landt, has won promotion, is now a First Lieutenant. His elevation came on July 6. He is with the 506th S&S Co., in Viet Nam, stationed at a supply base somewhere in the jungle north of Saigon. His twin brother, Louis Landt, jr., is also in the service.

If a child annoys you, quite him by brushing his hair. If this doesn't work, use the other side of the brush on the other end of the child.

To avoid that run-down feeling, cross the streets carefully.

Frank and Rachel Zirwes, genial couple who run the well known Strout Realty office in EC., are closing for the month of August to take off for a holiday in Alaska.

"Our oldest daughter, Mary Lovel", Zirwes told the Sun, "and her husband Clyde are homesteading in the wilds between Anchorage and Fairbanks. We haven't seen them for seven years, and want to forget business for a shorttime, and get acquainted with their family."

EXCITING LONG DISTANCE CALL

Wednesday night in the YC the Alpine Optimist Club put on an unusual program, a free surprise call from here to Germany from a local woman. It was by Mrs. Caroline Thanner to her brother, Quirin Zehelnair in Bavaria, Augsburg, Germany. She had not seen or talked to him for 46 years. As he did not have a phone, neighbors had to go get him, much to his surprise, and at 4 a. m.

Nat Potorff, Lakeside Optimists, secured the unique program for the new local club which it sponsored, now has 29 members. Jim Woodward of Pacific Telephone, who engineered the program called "Hello Around the World", gave a talk on modern long-distance all over the globe.

The club gave Mrs. Thanner the call to honor her for church and civic work. She talked nearly 15 minutes, was greatly thrilled as she came to the session expecting to be interpreter for a call to an Optimist group in Germany-- but it was her own call!

SUMMER SCHOOL ENDS TUESDAY

Instead of going to school Tuesday, all children that have attended the session are invited to an all day Luau at Shadyrock sponsored by HC and Alpine PTAs. The program starts at 10 with athletic demonstrations by the youngsters and a big Luau at 12, and then both children and adults will enjoy the facilities at the park. After swimming, the children will entertain the parents with dances and songs.

REAGAN TO SPEAK AT BIG DINNER

The 17th annual $100 dinner to raise funds for GOP election campaigns is shaping up for the Nov. 3 date in Hotel del Coronado with Gov. Ronald Reagan as chief speaker. Forecast is for a record 1000. Reagan drew 900 at the 1966 one, who becomes the first to address this function on 3 occasions.

JIM KING FAMILY PAYS VISIT

Jim Wayne King, son of Jim King, Alpine's painter, of Irvine's Trailer Estates, was here for a few days, driving in from Sheridan, Mont, with his wife Frida Marie, and two of their sons, Carl, 17, and John, 14. They went sightseeing, swam, enjoyed the quiet of Alpine.

The Kings have two other sons, David, 21, due in SD Monday from Viet Nam. He is a L/Cpl in the USMC, will go to Phoenix, then on leave and out of the service. Jimmy, the other, is also a L/Cpl in the Army, is on duty in Germany, due back in September. King is with the Stauffer Chemical Co. Melrose Division, as maintenance man.

Students and their parents worked hard but Mrs. Rash and her daughter Dorothy are still taking donations. If you call 445-4010 she will be glad to come by and pick up anything you care to donate. She plans on carrying on with her effort to help members raise the remaining amount and you can help by cleaning out your attic, garage or cellar and donating unwanted items to her. She takes them to a Chula Vista Swap meet where the people of Mexico come over and buy most anything.

CLARKS ENTERTAIN OREGONIANS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wm Clark, Tavern Road, entertained his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arther Whitcome of Portland last week. They flew down, their first plane ride and also their first trip to Alpine.

Whitcome is a semi-retired mason-contractor while his wife Ruth is a secretary for several architects in Portland, has been 9 years with them, will retire in 1969.

They especially enjoyed Alpine Fiberglass Menagerie here, the beautiful rolling hills and the cool evenings. During the week Mr. and Mrs. Clark drove them over 500 miles, covering Tecate and all of the historical and interesting spots in and around SD. They thought the Rosecraft Begonia Gardens in Pt. Loma especially beautiful and returned home very happy and contented. Was the first time in 4 years that Clark and his sister had been together and they fully enjoyed every minute.

CHURCH TO HAVE HILLBALOO

Mr. & Mrs. Leo Young, chairman of the third annual Hillabaloo of St. Louis de Marillac Catholic Church, 2005 Crest Drive, Suncrest, say all is ready for the big event this Sunday Aug. 6. from 11 to 7.

"We will have an old-fashioned bazaar" Mrs. Young told the Sun, "with chicken dinner, booths, games, sale of homemade goodie, and fun for the kiddies". Fa. Chas Dollen, pastor, will be on hand.

A deaf woman entered a church carrying an ear trumpet. Soon after she had seated herself, an usher tiptoed over and whispered: "One toot, and out you go!"

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. I. Fey, he's custodian for Alpine Fire Department, welcomed their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fey and 3 children from Waukegan, Ill. They plan on spending 2 and maybe 3 weeks here and hope to take in all of the interesting new things in San Diego.

BOY DROWNS STORY From page 1 the Sun," and this time they just could not aid each other in that strong undertow. Officers said it was seen the boys were in trouble, but both drowned before aid could reach them. The other body was recovered quickly, but the water took Ted out and later a helicopter brought him back, but it was too late."

Ted was born in National City, was a graduate of El Capitan, enlisted Oct. 5, 1964. Funeral was Tuesday at Paris Mortuary with full military honors and burial planned for Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery. Ted attended the H. C. Community Church, whose pastor, the Rev. A. O. De Groat, conducted the services.

Prior to Ted's enlistment, he was a senior volunteer for the Harbison Canyon Fire department.

Ted's brother, Bruce, 17, plans to go in the Navy in October.
