UPPER FREEWAY MAY OPEN JAN 1

No doubt motorists will be going over the eastern 4-mile section of US 8 before the Alpine section is done, avers Roger Kocher, resident highway engineer. He says they will complete all earth work in about 3 weeks and base paving will soon be started. Already they are pouring the upper Willows Rd. Interchange bridge, so the stretch may be in use by Jan 1. Work is being done by the Vinnell Corp.

SWISS STUDENT THANKS ALPINE

The Sun has received a cordial note from Marianne Furger, the nice young lady who was an exchange student here last year. She said the easiest way to thank the people is "to put my letter in the Alpine Sun", so here goes: Dear Alpine Friends:- Yes, I am back in Switzerland! After a most wonderful and interesting bus trip cross country with other AFS (American Field Service) students and a great boat trip I arrived in my hometown Berne. Tomorrow school starts again. Although it is good to be home again, I miss Alpine and all my Californian friends a lot. This past year seems to me like a wonderful dream. The letters I get prove that the dream was real.

After having lived for a whole year in your, now also my, community, I would like to thank you all for everything you did for me during this past year. I am really lucky and very happy that I was able to come to Alpine and to the Clay family who really gave me a second home! You can be sure that I will never forget Alpine, my second hometown and I hope that some day I will be able to come back!

--Thank you all again! Your Swiss Friend, Marianne Furger,
Any wishing to write her: Marianne Furger, Thunstrasse 93, CH- 3006 Berne, Switzerland.

FORMER ALPINE DROPS IN

Wm. Homes who formerly was in business here, left for Brawley in 1956 after 15 years in Alpine, came to town last weekend to visit friends. With Tony Morano, his wife's sister and husband, they drove down from Inglewood where he went a year ago from Paradise. From Brawley they had gone to live in Sedona, Ariz.

"The changes here are astonishing" he said to the Sun when renewing the old friendship.

BENNETT IS GENIUS MACHINIST

Alpine little knows it has a wizard of intricate woodworking in its midst, but it has in the genial, droll, soft-spoken Chas. E. Bennett, retired owner of the former Texaco Station, now owned by Bob Wilson.

Photo shows Bennett, 86, and in pretty good health except that he is slowly losing his sight, with two of his astonishingly beautiful inlaid hardwood objects of art, a lamp stand and a bowl.

He does his work on a machinist's lathe which he made himself, although he has, and has used a great deal, a professional lathe. His closely fitting joints are hard to detect as he matches them to 4 thousands of an inch, less than a human hair!

In both pieces he has fitted and glued several species of hard woods, some coming from the Orient. His finishings and polishing make them truly beautiful-- really museum pieces.

MAYBE WE SHOULD HAVE A WOMAN PRESIDENT!

Since the female sex has taken over in many phases of life here, perhaps she might make a good head of the nation!

This was brought up by an editorial in Liberty Bell, of Lemon Grove by Mrs. Maria Stille, of Descanso, titled "Now Hear This".

Before quoting her, did you read Tuesday that the State Department declares the seizure of the Pueblo was illegal, so there is no apology necessary? But our government is doing nothing to get our ship and men back.

Mrs. Stille quoted Lincoln: "If destruction be our lot, we ourselves will be the author and finisher. We must live through all times as free men-- or die by suicide".

She then describes how other civilizations faced this problem, went down to death, and into history. America is tottering on the same historical brink of destruction, self-inflicted. The erosion is moral, economic, spiritual and political. We have leaders weak and afraid and controlled by a political-socialist Mafia, who will not move lest they 'offend' the communist enemy-- the same enemy that not only destroys our domestic tranquillity but that of the entire world".

Then she swings out with a hard punch: "If I were President I would begin with the Pueblo. I would, as Commander-in-Chief, this day and without hesitation, send the following 'Declaration of Intention' to the Communist enemy:

"On January 1968, your North Korean comrades, without provocation, attacked and took captive our naval vessel, the U. S. S. Pueblo and her crew, killing one of them. Recently your Cambodian comrades seized our patrol boat, again without provocation. Mister, we want those ships and their crews returned to us immediately and intact.

We have been patient with you -- too patient. We have tried to reason with you in peace, but you are neither peaceful nor reasonable men. We have tolerated your threats to our security as long as we intend to do so. The "long twilight struggle" is over. You will heap no more shame and insults upon my people. We have come to the end of that rope with which you said we would hang ourselves, but we intend to use that rope to pull ourselves upward to national sanity, decency and world respect. We are a free people and as God is our guide, and my witness, we will not relinquish that freedom to anyone for any reason whatsoever.

There will be no more talk of apology or ransom. You cannot threaten us further with the death of our men in reprisal, for I believe as strongly as I believe in God Almighty, that they would far rather die a noble death as America's proud fighting sons have always died, than to live to see their country disgraced and degraded. Why? Because they are MEN Mister, American men! We know you could never understand the price of honor for to you, all men are no more than mere animal property of "the state".

I am fully aware of the gravity of what I am about to propose, and we may perish in the attempt, but hear my words! We will not bend with bowed heads to grovel in the dust.

This is our "Declaration of Intention"

For years Charles Bennett has grown fruit and flowers with the help of his wife, Ethel, who at her advanced age and ill health, is being cared for in Alpine Convalescent Center. Photo shows him with lemons from one of his trees.

He is a native of St. Louis, Mo, was born on Jan. 29, 1883, making him 86. In March, 1924 he came to California, to Alpine on Sept. 1, 1931 where he bought Tom Hill's garage business which was in the Butcher Building opposite Bob's Station, and owned by the famous vaudeville female impersonator, Julian Eltinge, who later sold it to Geo. Butcher. It is now owned by Brown Realty.

On Jan. 1, 1935 Bennett obtained the opposite corner (Bob's) erected frame cottages and a service station, handling

Texaco products. Desiring to retire, he rented the place to Wilson on Sept. 1, 1952, and one year later Bob bought him out, shortly after bulldozing the buildings and erecting the fine new station which he now operates.

The Bennetts retired to their house in the rear of the station where he has a garage housing his hobby shop and various machines where he has created the many lovely pieces. He even built some tiny gas and steam engines that work efficiently. See photo page 13

HORSE TALK

By The Double O's

Was too bad we had to choose the hottest weekend of the summer for our 2 day ride that Alpine Riding Club put on, but it all turned out to be just fine anyway.

Bob and Gary Menconi, Frank, Mike and Pete Scully and Mick Reed went up on Thursday and set up the tents that were provided by the Menconi's and got the campsite ready for us, so when we arrived Friday night at 9, all was ready. Doris Scully made several trips up with the hay and other things, so we all want to give them a big thanks for making the campout such a success. Highlight of the party was a genuine water fight and everyone got involved. It did cool us down and the weather was so warm we dried off in a few minutes. Nikki Menconi made a huge pot of delicious spaghetti for our dinner Saturday and nothing was spared to make the whole weekend a success.

The following rode up: Mike and Pete Scully, Gary and Nikki Menconi, Reenie Adams, Eileen Dun, Mary Ann and Janet McGee, Cecile and Celeste Irvine, Mick and Jackie Reed, Lori Moxey, Pam Weisbach, Linda Rushing and Ellen Hood trailered Tyger up. Parents driving up were Doris and Frank Scully, Bob Menconi, Al Adams and Alice Irvine.

The trip home was uneventful except for Pete Scully getting a huge black and blue spot on his arm where his horse Ginger tried to bit him when he took off the saddle. She should have been grateful to have it off after such a long ride.

Sunday the club is putting on a show at the YC ring and the trophies and ribbons were donated by Hal Hundley, new member. Most of the classes will be gymkhana and entree fee is 50¢. Show time is 10 a. m.

Marsha Manning is back in Alpine with her horse Pete. They went last year to Davis to live and she trailered him up, but is glad to be back here where all her friends are.

Jerry Webb's horse Abe cut his foot on barbed wire when he stuck it through to paw at some grass. It is healing nicely but she can't ride him till it is better.

Janet and Mary Ann McGee's cousin Susie Ryden has a gentle Appaloosa gelding for sale. He is 11 and has a nice blanket. She wants $225 and says he is a good beginners horse, as he has lots of horse sense. Call 448-1556 if you want more particulars.

Mary Bee Bowler has her old Pinto for sale too. She says he would be good for a beginner as he is around 24 years old and still has plenty of spunk. She only wants $95. for him so give her a call at 445-2950 or go see him.

Bill Fullmer decided to keep his horse Echo and is looking for a nice saddle to buy. He sold the one he had when he advertised the horse a few weeks ago so now is without one.

The comfortable home of Darrel Broker, electronics expert, on the west-ern extension of Tavern Road, is a busy spot these days.

Insurance covered the matter. They are drilling a new 12" well back of the house, formerly the Sanders' place, built on a part of the Fitzgerald Cottages property.

In photo by pool are Darrel jr., 16, who goes to El Cap as a sophomore next week; his mother Madeline, and Broker, who is a pilot and would like to see an airport in Alpine. Their place is at the end of the new blacktop Tavern Road West.

He is building a heater for the pool, which will heat by electricity from a wind-driven aeromoter, a new idea in pool heating.

McGEE EXHIBITS CARS SUNDAY

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We were so tired when we got home Sunday from the weekend campout that we fell into bed and slept most of the afternoon. We learned later that most of the other riders did the same thing. We left Descanso early enough and got down the mountain but riding from the Indian Reservation home was a hot trip. All of us were glad to get off our horses and rest.

A lot of preparation went into the 3 day affair and we sure thank all those that had a hand in making it a huge success.

Whitney and Susie Sexsmith moved back to New York last week so the owners of their house on Victoria Drive are doing some painting and repairing before then rent it out again.

Linda Tyler and her mother drove up to Alpine last week to visit her piano teacher Ruth Burdett. They had just gotten back from a vacation in Texas, so Linda would have time to get ready for school. She is a music

Miss Ruth Burdett, spent 6 weeks of this summer almost asphyxiated every night by the smell of a skunk. It was either poisoned or died a natural death under her back porch. When the humane society failed to get it out, a friend took up the back porch and found it. She said it was an ordeal she doesn't want to go through again. She couldn't even stand to sleep in her back bedroom, the smell was so strong.

As the sun rises over Moscow this day, you will receive this document. Heed it well. Before that same sun reaches high noon you will have arranged for the release of our ships and their crews, every last one of them, including our honored dead. Since you control North Korea and Cambodia, as you do all your captive people, you will proceed forthwith, in the specified time, to make absolutely sure that those two ships are on the high seas, flying the stars and stripes, with full crews aboard and heading home.

I have ordered our Strategic Air Command into the sky, fully armed. I have ordered our missiles set for firing. I have ordered our troops and ships around the world to be prepared to attack. We are ready!

UNDERWATER FILM FESTIVAL DUE

The 4th annual exhibit of slides and movies of beautiful underwater scenes and action will play Friday and Saturday Sept. 20-21 in SD Civic Theatre. All proceeds go to provide grants to further development of underwater photography.

Among noted artists from across the nation are two local boys, Jack McKinney of SD with "Operation Grouper", and Shannon Fortune, of EC, with "Puka Diving".

Seats, all reserved, are $2.50, from the theatre box office or any diving shop in the area. This is one of the most unusual, engrossing and worthwhile shows of the year.

Ruth Burdett recently entertained her friend Angela Holland whom she had not seen in 45 years. They went to school together. Mrs. Holland got married, lived in Oregon until her husband died, then moved to LA. They had a wonderful time reminiscing.

Do not provoke me, Comrade. Do not provoke me.

Now, your hear this, Mister, and you hear it good! Unless the sun at high noon shines peacefully down on two free ships and two free crews, I shall give the command to fire. If you wish to bring the entire military might of the United States down upon your people, that choice is yours. We are fully prepared to live or die, to uphold the honor and freedom of all our people — be they 93 captured men or 93 million, two ships or two thousand. There will be no further communication on this subject. The hot line is forever dead. Your refusal to comply fully with this "Declaration of Intention" is all the answer required. My people are with me to the end. Make no mistake. Our decision is absolute and final.

Maria L. Stille - President.

When they are done, a bit below the east-erly ones, the Daley firm will have completed the smooth finished freeway from the present end all the way up to the W. Victoria bridge where the last of the solid rock is now being blasted and moved out

FAREWELL BBQ FOR TALAMANTES

Perhaps the largest group in Flinn Springs County Park Sunday was the big family of Bob & Ramona Rix and the Rios kin to honor SFC John Talamantes, USA, son of Mrs. Rix, of the eve of his departure for duty in Vietnam.

Pictured, left to right, front row: Mrs. Glen Hauk with little Roger Ruis & Rhonda Hauk; Grandpa Pete Rios, young Johnnie Elton, John Talamantes with his son Joey; back row: Mrs. Rix and her daughter Jackie Borer, Mrs. Talamantes, and Peggy Ruis. Four generations appear in this photo.

Grandpa Rios, 93, is jolly, humorous and quite active, having lived an outdoor life all those years. He still rides his horse, often goes up the steep road to Suncrest where he was born and tended cattle for many years. Rios canyon nearby, is named after the family.
