ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS

Wm. Fulmer, 2153 Tavern Road, stopped commuting to the city, has started his own business Fulmer Graphics Design, with several clients in SD. He is consultant for Ryan Aircraft, but does most of his work free lance, is an expert in this line. He has a phone, 445-4101. He lives here with his wife Pat and two children, rides a horse, is fond of Alpine.

SPECIAL MEETING FOR ZONE TALK

Dr. John S. Campbell, president, Alpine Chamber of Commerce, has called a special meeting for Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 8, in the school auditorium. Purpose is "for the people to hear a presentation of facts on an application for zone changes being made by representatives through Security Title Insurance Co., on Tavern Road, north of the freeway".

MOST KIDS GLAD TO BE BACK

Here is the big playground at noon Tuesday with part of the energetic 652 that enrolled this year, 54 more than 1967, reports Supt. Paul Clay. A few may straggle in, with more during the year.

Most of the youngsters are really glad to be back at their studies, and teachers report all going smoothly. One problem is the increasing need for more room to keep up with the growing community, which with completion of new housing and big trailer park, more students will appear.

He adds that the county planning office has asked for an opinion from the community.

"I urge everyone to attend now that we have an opportunity to work with the planning commission" he concludes.

6TH GRANDCHILD FOR MAGNUSSENS

Last Friday Haakon Magnussen, jr., and his wife in El Cerrito, made the popular local postmaster and his wife grandparents for the 6th time with a beautiful girl baby. Sarabeth flew up to be with them, and Magnussen drove up, the couple returning Monday.

BAKE & RUMMAGE SALE SATURDAY

The Harbison Canyon Auxiliary is holding a combination rummage and bake sale at the Fire Hall from 9 to 5 Saturday to help their treasury. Mrs. Rachel Dowling is in charge, will accept any and all donations.

ASTROLOGY CLASS STARTS

Because so much interest was shown over Arthur Norris's Astrological display at Alpine Library last month Mrs. Erna Earl has decided to start a class in this ancient science. First one starts Thursday at 7 at her trailer in Log Cabin Trailer Court, Space 8.

Here is Leslie Wardwell of 1539 Tavern Road, having a long drink to cool off after noon hour play in Alpine's bright sunshine.

"Now I gotta save my pennies to buy a Sun" he said when he found out what the picture was for! Les is 12, in the 7th grade.

UNDERSEA FILM FESTIVAL IS ON

The 4th annual Underwater Film Festival shows tonight and Saturday at 8 in the SD Civic Theatre with two noted local divers of international fame as masters of ceremony. They are Ron Church, La Jolla, and Jim Stewart, Clairemont.

Unique and spectacular films and slides made underwater all by expert lensmen will be shown, different exhibits each night. Prices, $2.50 at the box office. Funds go to develop this type of work.

ART GROUP GETS NAME, OFFICERS

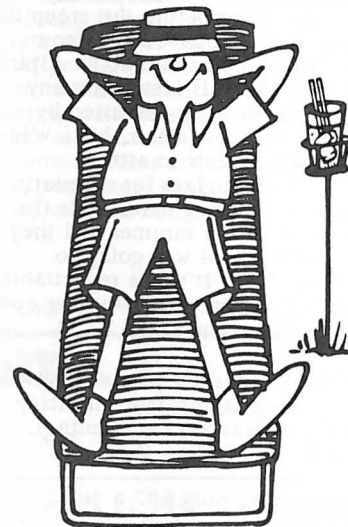

The Alpine Area Art Association became the name of the little body that has been forming at Mrs. Gibbs' shop, 2353 Hwy 80, on Wednesday night last week when it met.

They elected officers: Reed Durham, president, Glo Newton, 1st vice president; Betty Lee Brooks, secretary; Casey Derrin, treasurer and Elizabeth West, chairman, Norma Davenport, East Co. Art Association president shared her organization's by-laws and program goals.

Agnes Trestrail, former president of Poway Art Association, will speak at the next meeting, at the Rock and Hobby Shop, 1321 W. Victoria.

"Anyone interested in any phase of art is welcome in our group. Our next meeting is September 25, at 7:30. Please come and help us form our future program," invites Mrs. Newton.

OPTIMISTS PLAN BOX SOCIAL

Pres. Leo Manolakos says the club is fixing to have a jolly old-fashioned box social soon and all Optimists will have a chance to take their ladies out to a good time.

Don Roccoforte has taken over as program chairman, is looking for talent for this fall's programs. The club has been doing a lot of youth work lately, chiefly in horse activities.

Bill Mockler, former newsman of EC who lived with his family in Harbison Canyon, later as publicist for the SD Port of SD, has transferred to San Francisco. His wife used to be school secretary here.

EDITORIAL

PUBLIC DID NOT SEE ALL OF CHICAGO EVENTS.

Now that it is all over, the recent Chicago convention trouble assumes a slightly different look than the bloody scenes the public witnessed.

Our contemporary, Hal Davee, columnist of the Poway News-Chieftain, happened to be there, did a good story in retrospect. And J. Edgar Hoover sent out some explanation, too. These showed that the public yet does not fully realize just what went on, and that Mayor Dailey and his police were not altogether in the wrong. They had to handle rough stuff with rough stuff.

Besides, viewers did not see all that happened before the so-called police brutality. Davee says "They were as well organized as the police and just as zealous in their efforts to break the law as the police were to see that they did not"

Hoover and the police claim that there were outside influences and leaders who came in to promote trouble, and that there might have been assassinations. Chicago did not want another Dallas, Memphis or L. A.

"It was unfortunate that the flower children got mixed up with the hard-core-organized disrupters", Davee goes on, and some of the police "are Viet Nam veterans. They can take it as well as dish it out, but sooner or later, as humans do, they reach the breaking point-- particularly when they are referred to as pigs, facists, stoned with rocks and bombed with plastic sacks of defecation".

Yes, it is too bad the TV men were not around to show what caused the police to use that extra force in subduing disrupters.

We always liked Chicago, still think it's a great town! -CI

HAPPY LITTLE FAMILY

Here is Mrs. Yola Fidler, of 2221 Tavern Rd. recently moved in from Anaheim, with her two kiddies, Kenny, 16 months and Lori, 5, who is attending Alpine School in the 1st grade.

Mrs. Fidler's husband, 1st Lieut. Dave Fidler, USA, is on duty in Vietnam. She is presently entertaining her mother, Mrs. Muriel Newton, who came down from Long Beach. She is also visiting her son and his wife, Bob & Glo Newton, of 1905 Tavern Road. Both families love Alpine, and the lieutenant keeps up on local doings through a subscription to the Sun.

PTA MEETS TUESDAY

The first meeting of Alpine PTA will be Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 7:30 in the auditorium when President Shirley Widmer will bring before the group the important idea of dissociating from National PTA and becoming an Alpine Parents Group. This idea has many merits but needs to be discussed by parents and teachers alike. Mrs. Widmer urges all parents to attend.

The PTA apologizes for scheduling the 17th as a meeting date. This time was set early in the summer and they did not know school was going to start a week late. It was a regrettable mistake and the president and her committee ask forgiveness.

CLANCYS ENJOY NEW HOME

Here is entrance to unique log house recently finished and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Clancy on Eltinge Dr. He is a retired builder and an enthused flyer who would like to see an airpark here.

They came from Tucson, like Alpine and chiefly its climate. He is now busy landscaping the scenic site atop the hill.

The interior of this unique residence is tastefully decorated and they have numerous valuable antiques. One is an old "Laurel" cast iron stove which is backed by bricks where a fireplace might have been. It was shipped out from the midwest. Note the nickle-plated trim and the tiny mica squares on the front door.

They have been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Gene Giboney and family, from Visalia, and are giving the place a gradual housewarming.

STOUTS' BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Stout of 311 W. Noakes, Harbison Canyon, entertained their grandson Donny Minadeo with a birthday party at their home Friday evening.

There were 37 present and out-of-town guests were Chas. Minadeo and his son Mickey, Audrey Wilson and her son Bobby who drove down from Huntington Beach. From Indianapolis came Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hoover and their 2 children.

The Alpine Bakery made and decorated the lovely cake that was served with ice cream.

Danny makes his home with the Stouts, started to the Harbison Canyon school Monday.

George Molner, his wife and 5 children moved from 3095 Hwy 80 to Campo last week. He is with Pioneer Sales and Service. The home is owned by Dr. Steward Dadman of SD.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Sunday's horse show sponsored by Alpine Riding Club was one of the nicest they have staged with a cool day added for comfort. Adult members helping with the show were Bob Menconi and Mick Reed doing the timing, Ellen Hood judging and Doris Scully who did all the leg work. The trophies and ribbons were donated by Hal Hundley, pilot for Continental Airlines and newest member of the club.

Trophy winners were Jackie Reed, western horsemanship, Marsha Manning, key hole, Mike Scully, flag race, Linda Rushing, pole bending, Mike Scully and Linda Rushing, ride & pick-up, Mike Scully, balloon spearing, Mike Scully, run, ride and lead, Marsha Manning, texas barrels, Mike Scully and Linda Rushing, 2 man relay and Pam Weisback, single pole. High point winner was Linda Rushing with Mike Scully second and JoAnn Villa third.

850 EL CAJON BOULEVARD

Wright is boarding her horse with Bob Smith until she can find a suitable place for him in El Cajon. She moved over here from Yuma last month and was glad to find such a nice corral. Mr. Mac trained the horse for her and she has had the horse for a long time, so doesn't want to part with him.

Margaret Lowthian moved into the little house on the back of Willow Glen Farm and is in the process of building new stalls for her horses. The houses and property in front was sold to some people from Michigan who raise dogs, so she moved.

Ed Roethel moved his prize Sardenian donkies to their home on Lilac Lane and they are very happy in their new corrals. He just keeps them for pets.

Eileen Dun has her little donkey up for sale. Mr. Mac and Bob Smith trained him to the cart and he is gentle and nice to ride. If you are interested call her or go see Clarence at their Victoria Drive home.

Hal Hundley, Alpine's noted airline captain with Continental, nearly became an astronaut the other day while riding his Arabian mare. She took off nearing home and he took off, too, landing safely in a sandpile and unfortunately unhurt. Hal, don't let her get "barn sour" or she will pull that trick every time you take her out.

LACKO ON CRUTCHES

For 3 weeks Martin Lacko, owner of Ideal Mfg. Co., 2144 Hwy 80, has been on crutches due to broken bones in a foot sustained when he fell 6' from a ladder while doing some repair work at his factory. This has delayed his work in finishing his shop and pent-house.

TWO JORDAN MARRIAGES

This is SSgt Steve Jordan, USAF, of Tavern Road, and his bride, the former Colleen Moore, of Alpine. He is stationed at Mt. Laguna, is slated for duty in Izmir, Turkey in November. Colleen is a nurse in Dr. Philip Broeckel's office in EC, will accompany Steve abroad. They were married in Spring Valley on July 13.

Tuesday night they went to the first anniversary party at Mrs. L. A. Moor's home, Colleen's mother, in San-tee, given for Al and Karen (Jordan) Moore, who were wed in Alpine last year. Al is to go to Vietnam soon. They had been living in Fallon, Nev. for the past year. It was a case of brother and sister marrying brother and sister.

The second marriage was on July 27 when Mrs. Ruth Jordan, mother of Steve and Karen, who has lived here for 18 years, was married to Wm. H. Wright of Harbison Canyon. They were also present at the anniversary party.

VAN DEERLIN ON FISCAL WARPATH

Possible legislative action to "stop the World Bank from handing out US taxpayers' cash to unfriendly governments", is being planned by Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin D-SD. Specifically he objects to giving a $5.3 million fish development loan to Ecuador, which in 8 years has seized 36 US fishing boats, fined them $410,000.

JERNEYS HAVE HOMEGROWN BBQ

Last Sunday a delightful informal sort of housewarming party was given by Ken and Anna Jerney at their modern new home on Star Valley Road.

It was in the spacious patio where about 25 enjoyed the real home-cooked meal plus plenty of raw items. Ken barbecued one of his homegrown pigs, and some chickens, served with apple cider and other juices to drink, plus Anna's delicious home baked bread. She is manager of Alpine Realty Co.

GOP ENJOYS LIVELY MEETING

Republicans of Alpine entertained three speakers recently in the school auditorium with Louis Landt as chairman. Assemblyman John Stull told some interesting highlights on the problems they face daily in Sacramento and how "we need to elect Republicans so we can control things". He answered many pertinent questions.

Hale Ashcraft, former assemblyman, gave a short talk urging unity and harmony in supporting the GOP ticket. "We don't want any 3rd or 4th parties", he stated. "and we are going to have to work hard this year".

Wm. R. Luckett, field co-ordinator of Republican Associates of SD County, also gave some good points on teamwork for the Nov. 5 election.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

Boy, were we glad we signed up early for school. There are over 8,000 students in Grossmont College registered and we will never know how many were turned away. We met quite a few Alpiners that we know plus those from El Cap and other areas. So far we like it and also our teachers but it is still school, a grind but a necessity, so we grin and study.

Last Thursday Betty Russell's husband took their little cocker spaniel with him to Alpine and left the window open. She jumped out and they couldn't find her but when they went back to look several business people had seen her. Mrs. Russell thinks she may have been taken in by someone and if so, please call her at 445-4506. She misses the little pet and its name is "Cutie", is light brown with a freckled face and has white underneath her neck and recently had pups.

It looks like the Girl Scout troop Mrs. Chris Vale organized last year is going to be a success again. They have 36 registered already and with Leath Judd as co-leader, a good year of activities is planned.

Kay Smith is back from Europe and had a marvelous time, in fact, she didn't want to come home. She spent the summer there and loved Italy the best. Her father run's Smith Realty here, is a great booster for Alpine.

Jerry Jackson is expecting her first baby in a few weeks. She married Terry Lembtke last year and is living near National City. Her step-father, Don Denius, used to own the Mobil Station here, now Gulf.

Donna Schwenck spent last weekend up at Camp Marshton getting acquainted with a lot of freshmen entering State Monday. She had a lot of fun and enjoyed the get-together.

The Barnhill kids were real happy before they left Alpine last week for Seattle. Their basset hound Sleepy got away and a man working on the freeway picked him up and took him home. They went looking and asked everyone if they had seen the dog and ran into this worker. He told them the dog seemed lost so took him home. Their friend Judy Dodson went down to Pacific Beach and picked him up for them so he could go north too.

PINES GIVEN TO NEWCOMERS

Today a total of 46 trees has been delivered to Alpine newcomers by Jack Spatz, chairman of the welcome committee, he reports for the fiscal year, Oct. 1 to Sept. 30.

He said "all were delighted and happy to be made welcome to the community in this way.

Mr. and Mrs. James Melton, parents of Mrs. June Smith, Tavern Road, drove out from So. Carolina to spend the winter here in Alpine and San Diego.

VISTA ALPINE HAS MANAGER

With completion of the handsome recreation building and its office in front, Vista Alpine Mobilhome Estates, 2400 Hwy 80 at the old entrance to Dinosaur Park, a manager has been put on the job.

He is Wm. J. Murrell, who is assisted by his charming wife, Melanie. In photo he is at left, talking to occupants of car that drove in for information. Man at right is Fred Memer, owner of the car, who came in with his wife and friends for data. Memer works with Martin Lacko at Ideal Mfg. Co., here.

The park office now has a phone, 445-2276 where reservations are being taken. "We have 6 to 15 callers in here every day now" he told the Sun when photo was made Tuesday.

Construction is moving along on this 30-acre site of the $800,000 park. It will spot 151 big, modern trailers which are expected to be moving in by Nov. 1. It is owned and being built by Christopher D. Sickles & Associates of SD, with Alex Doig in charge of the project. There will be two sections, one for adults, the other for families. Mail delivery will be to each trailer.

Richard & Anne Merrill had hardly risen the other morning when Jack Muse phoned from Whittier to say that their daughter Jennifer, his wife, had undergone a successful appendectomy the night before, was doing nicely. Merrills run the printing shop on Willowside Terrace.

KING TAKES COBB BACK HOME

Eugene Cobb, who has been running Alpine Nursing Home till he closed it last year, then had a wreck in Mexico and became hospitalized, was taken back home by Wm. and Joyce King, formerly of Alpine. They went to Carlisle, Ark., where they own a farm. Cobb had been in Navy hospital, paralyzed. He is a vet of WW2, where he was first injured.

Bob Smith, Alpine Heights Road, gave us the news this week that his 89 year old mother, Mrs. Harvetta Smith of Compton, had passed away. She died of pneumonia, was buried there.

ABLETT'S HAVE HARROWING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ablett, Lemon Grove, she was school nurse here for many years, returned last week from a trip to Alaska and Canada in their camper. They drove up to Prince Rupert which is only 50 miles from Alaska and took the boat trip from there to Vancouver Island, with their camper on board.

Mrs. Ablett said "the scenery is beyond description but floods from recent years are still in evidence. Huge logs coming down the Rogue River were pushed up in the trees and are still there." She was the only one on board to catch two big salmon as they are scarce this year due to the heavy flooding which washed the eggs out from their inlets.

Labor Day found them in Oregon & from Gold Beach they drove on to a little place called Ricreal where they had to stop because it was late. On account of the holiday all parks were full so a service station attendant suggested they spend the night on the school grounds, which they did. About midnight two carloads of teenagers saw the camper alone and started to heckle the occupants. They drove around and around, throwing bottles and making a lot of noise, ruined Ablett's tail light and generally frightened them. Mrs. Ablett got out of the camper and drove into town with the two cars following and making it difficult to travel. "We were lucky more damage wasn't done as the young people in the cars were either drunk or under the influence of drugs", she said.

Aside from the unfortunate incident, they both enjoyed the trip up and were happy to return home safe and sound.

Mrs. Ablett recently retired as school nurse for Alpine's 3 schools.

STULL WARS ON UC HIRINGS

"We don't hire a poisoner to prepare food for the students' bodies, why should we hire destroyers like Eldridge Cleaver and Herbert Marcuse to poison their minds?" asks Assemblyman John Stull, R-80th, in attacking the UC employment of Cleaver who is said to have a criminal record. Stull says he will fight the move.

STATE TO HELP MANY AIRPORTS

California has allotted $1,194,865 to build two new airports and improving 35 others, reports Gordon R. Luce, official. The two new ones will be in Madera and Fresno Counties.

Note- Alpine fliers totalling around 25 have been trying for 16 years to get an airport here which could help the community a great deal. If Alpine had a strip, the state would thus give it aid, also perhaps federal and county-CI

ALPINE VILLAGE
GOING UP FAST

Tuesday they started pouring concrete and placing foundation blocks for the first houses, recreation hall and laundry of Auren Pierce's 290-unit development atop the hill on Arnold Way, as shown in photo with Ron Riley as foreman and his brother Dick, superintendent.

This first section of the two upper pads will be rushed to completion. Main entrance will be from Arnold Way onto a new road to be named Alpine Village Drive which leads to the top where the work is now progressing.

Some delay is being encountered by solid granite on the west end where they had to blast for the sewer main instead of merely bulldozing soil and DG. All houses will face outward with a scenic view.

HORSELESS CARRIAGE FOLKS MET

Gene McGee of Starbright Lane here put on quite a party for fellow members of the antique car group down at Big Oak Ranch Sunday. Fifteen ancient autos assembled after a tour of the area with some 36 adults and youngsters on hand. They had a lot of fun swimming, playing games, picnicing and otherwise relaxing.

"We did not have as big a crowd as expected" he says, "due to school starting Monday, but we had a good tour around Santee lakes then out Jamacha Road to the ranch". McGee, an ardent fan for old cars has 3, a 1912 Rio, a 22 T Ford and a 21 T which he is now restoring in his leisure.

STULL SPEAKS IN SOUTHLAND

This district's astute assemblyman,
John Stull, spoke yesterday to the Foothills Republican Women in La Mesa.
He appeared here recently to explain to the local GOP club, headed by Louis Landt. A sizeable gathering heard him in the school auditorium. His main object was to urge putting more Republicans in at Sacramento.
