FREEWAY SIGNS TELL ALPINE

Here is Celeste's photo of Jerry Smith, resident Highway engineer with Editor Irvine by one of the new green signs below town that let motorists know just where they are.

Farther up one names Tavern Road exit, so everyone will know where to leave for Alpine Blvd. which succeeds Hwy 80 in name, shown at right below near Kuhl's woodshop.

SD COUPLE BUY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baddour and family have just purchased the 3-bedroom, 2-bath home on 3 acres belonging to Keith and Claire Lettermann, who bought a trailer and moved to Parker, Ariz.

The Baddours are all moved in and love their new home which is located at the East end of Alpine. Keith Brabazon built the dwelling.

Sale was by Neda Hill Realty.

make improvements for safety and esthetics all the time, has put into use a new type of dike or berm at the side, which he worked out.

"If a driver snoozes and drifts off to the side, the old vertical type will throw him over, or collapse a wheel" he says, "but the new sloping berm will allow him to pass over with no trouble and that might save accidents".

Tuesday night despite the drizzle, owners of dogs brought 247 to the school where the vets gave rabies shots.

ALPINE FACES SEWER PROBLEM

Growth, the freeway and population are making this community think hard about remedying its sewer problem, which was explained Wednesday night at the chamber of commerce meeting, with Pres. H. T. Magnussen in the chair. (As the Sun goes to press Wednesday, details will be printed next week.)

A plan to prevent a major water pollution problem in Lakeside and Alpine has been given out by county officials. It calls for abandoning the sewage plant

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

A crowd of 25 turned out for the monthly potluck announces Mrs. Louise Santoro, publicity chairman.

Several members are on the sick list with Kathy Stout out with the flu so Jeanette Stark took her place. John R. Reynolds is in EC Valley Hospital suffering with pneumonia and Edan Barber is at home convalescing from a mild heart attack. Both Jim and Gladys Pinkerton have been home with the flu and Emma Holmes, president, has been worried about her 5½ months old grandson John Eric. He spent the week in the hospital with pneumonia, comes home today.

John and Mary Peters are back from Minnesota to spend the winter here and Jeanette Smart has returned to her home in Indiana.

The Senior Citizens 200th Anniversary dinner will be held March 4 at El Cortez Hotel. Reservations are to be made before Feb. 16. Price, $4. for each person.

SECOND CLASS MAIL COSTS MORE

This year the Sun and other newspapers, magazines, and materials posted at 2nd class, are paying more. And it's going up in 1970, last of a 3-phase rise that was voted in 1967. Also upped were rates on controlled circulation pieces.

But due to the Sun's constant endeavor to hold down costs and use some time saving ideas, the subscription rate of $3. a year will stand, also the advertising rates.

You can tell your story in a 2-line Classified for only 75¢; try it and see.

KUHL OUT OF HOSPITAL

Tuesday Phil Kuhl, who operates a woodworking shop, 925 Hwy 80, got home from the hospital where he went in last Tuesday suffering from a mild stroke.

INCOME TAX PAINLESS?

Years ago there was a famous dentist who called himself "Painless Parker", and it's a bet that Alpine has the most painless income tax expert in the country.

She's Pat Naud, busy here at her attractive office, 2140 Hwy 80 just west of the library, where she processes returns in the H & R Block Income Tax office. (They run ads every year in Alpine Sun).

Pat is smiling, jolly and efficient, and loves her work. She lives with her husband Floyd, and their children on Arnold Way.

PUEBLO THEFT HAD ONE GOOD THING!

While the capture of the USS Pueblo and captivity of the crew was pretty bad, their malnutrition just reported by Navy doctors in SD, again prove that something good can come from every bad thing.

The point is that nutrition is just about the most important phase of life on earth. Doctors said that all of these men who had been in good health, during their year of pain and hunger, had lost weight from 8 to 70 pounds.

Their poor diet had been about 2000 to 2200 calories daily, but was low in protein and vitamins, and of course minerals. All of the men did not eat all the food offered as they found it unpalatable. Some sailors had loosened teeth, perhaps due to beatings, the doctors said, but it could be due to pyrorhea which comes from dietary wrongs.

zine in Hollywood, which I founded in 1933, edited it for 16 years, now the leading health journal of the US, I saw many cases of this trouble cleared up solely through proper, natural diet. Those poor unfortunates who never learned of the natural raw diet, had whole sets of teeth pulled, then had to wear dentures.

One of the great fallacies of today is that man must eat meat to be strong and healthy. Most of the world is vegetarian anyway. In America we use too much flesh food, almost no one consumes more meat than the average US male. Yearly he eats his weight in it, about 173 pounds. Australians approach this figure, so do some parts of Argentina. But in Japan they consume only 12.7 per capita, or nearly 15 times less than we do.

To show what meat does to one, it is surprising to note that our great killer, heart trouble, closely parallels the dietary habits of each nation. Serum cholesterol of Japanese men in Japan was 125 mg, in Hawaii, 178 mg and in California, 206 mg. This was reported in the Journal of the AMA.

The frequency of atherosclerosis and coronaries in these areas corresponds to the cholesterol levels. Japan reports the lowest in coronaries, the rate for men being 1 tenth, and for women, 1 fourth that for Americans.

Finally, to quote from Today's Food, published by the Seventh-day Adventists, who practice vegetarianism, in view of the above facts; "From such statistics, one would have to be a mental defective not to recognize one of the greatest advantages of being a vegetarian, since 'a vegetarian diet can prevent 97% of our coronary occlusions'". The latter quote is from the AMA magazine.

VILLA FIRE LOSSES $1,000.

Fire of unknown origin Saturday at 10 a.m. heavily damaged Apt. 14 at Alpine Villa, 1559 Tavern Road. It started in a bed, reported Leroy Wedel, fire marshal. Occupant was Eugene Ammons who estimated his loss at $500, a like sum being damage to the apartment. The volunteer firemen responded quickly and contained the blaze. It was the first fire under direction of the new chief, Dale Bennett.

MORE SAFETY ON NEW FREEWAY

Instead of the usual asphalt funnel at the sides of the lanes on freeways, new US 8 here, according to Roger Smith, resident highway engineer, has flush grating-top drains. The old style, if a car drifted off into one, could flip the vehicle or collapse a wheel, causing a wreck.

"The grating style" says Smith, "allows a car to pass right over it with no danger".

BIG TALENT HUNT SHOW MONDAY

Alpine Chamber of Commerce's entry in the county-wide talent hunt for the 200th Celebration, the Irvine Ranch Twins, Cecile & Celeste, received a fine hand for their two songs at Circle Arts Theatre Friday night. Six acts of 21 performing were selected to appear Monday night at 8 in Civic Theatre with 7 others chosen Saturday night, all from a total of 44.

"All talent entered in the semi-finals and finals will be used during the 200th to perform at our various events in SD county," according to Maury Cohen, radio-TV producer for the 200th.

"We are amazed at how much and how good some of the talent in the county is," Cohen added. Events are being planned to display talent show winners during 200th events.

Tickets for the Jan. 20 show finals at Civic Theatre are available at 200th headquarters and the theatre box office at $1., $2.50 and $10.

NEW CHAMBER SECRETARY

Due to her husband's illness, Mrs. Ivy Kuhl, who has served as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has had to take a leave of absence. She is breaking in Mrs. John Titus, who will be on the job in her place. Mrs. Titus has been active in chamber affairs, is quite conversant with doings in Alpine. The office is at 2121 Hwy 80.

HORSE TALK

By the Double C's

Ginny and Mark Schutzer are buying Gracie and her 6-months old stud colt from her father. Mark intends to train the colt and keep him as they have a barn and corral where they are living on Hwy 80 next to Convalescent Center.

Bob Smith had his Appaloosa gelding Cheyenne down sick for a week with distemper or something. He said the horse was pretty sick for a few days but he doctored him daily and he is on the mend and feeling pretty frisky. He is the son of Blue Admiral, formerly owned by Margaret Lowthian.

Craig Taylor has gone into the raising of Thoroughbreds, had 3 all in foal and intends getting more. He still has Cynthia's mare Coco and also the Shetland pony. By the time he gets through will have quite a string of horses.

We just learned today that there are over 50,000 horses in SD County which means quick a heck of a lot of hay!

Margaret Lowthian is expanding her corrals as she has quite a few mares and 8 colts with two yearlings at Hale's Rock in H being trained by Dick De Matteis.

One of McCall's pupils is looking for a nice gentle young horse to buy. Call Blanche if you have one, 445-2676 or contact Ellen Hood, instructor.

Nikki Menconi was up and down Sunday night expecting to see her mare Velvet present her with a colt, however, she was disappointed and might even have to wait a month longer; horses are like people, unpredictable.

The Riding Club is taking a vacation this month, hopes to get started with monthly shows to start in February. Everyone was sort of tied up with the holidays and needed a rest so the club didn't hold a meeting. Next one will be held in February, First Tuesday, unless otherwise published. The car wash project will have to be shelved till we have nicer weather.

If you haven't seen the huge show "Holiday on Ice" at the Sports Arena, you still have time as it runs through next Sunday. We saw it on opening night and believe me, it was bigger & better than ever with a record breaking crowd to greet them.

Tuesday the killer dog on the loose struck again with the Bowles' rabbit being the victim. Mrs. Bowles took the little thing, cage and all and put it in the stall inside the barn. The dog got in, broke into the cage and killed the little creature. He didn't bother to eat it, just tore it to pieces for the sport. She found white hairs on the wire so knew it was the same dog that was written about in last week's Sun. This dog must belong to someone on Tavern Road and if the owner is found, he is responsible for any chickens, ducks, rabbits or anything he has des-

FREEWAY WARNING

When the oil strike is settled, the Daley Co., will be back on paving and the freeway will then be opened soon, reports Jerry Smith, resident highway engineer.

But he has some grave warnings, literally, about using the fast new lanes. "Never try to make a U-turn over the median space" he states, "for you might get a ticket, but worse, you could be killed!"

He says that, until the upper section and bridge of the Willows Interchange is done in about 3 months, the east end of present Hwy 80 will be closed at the Cleveland National Forest sign. Thus motorists going beyond that blockage, will have to enter the freeway at Tavern Road, then come off at Willows Rd. to reach that area.

New Westbound lanes of US 8, now open from upper Willows Interchange down to Willows Road, are now in use, and when the Alpine section is opened shortly, traffic will be completely on east and westbound lanes to SD.

"But Peutz Valley drivers will have to enter the freeway via old Hwy 80 and get on at Dunbar Interchange", Smith adds, "and of course leave the freeway at Dunbar and come east via the old route to get under the Peutz Road bridges".

They have no problem with through traffic on new freeways, Smith points out, "but local folks sometimes are confused as to where they get off and that sometimes gives us trouble. Just be careful until you learn your way home, and watch those signs; they are easy to follow. But if you do whiz past your offramp, never try to turn around on the freeway or median. It could be fatal".

Next issue will have a map of the Willows area which Smith is having made for the Sun, so clip it and paste on your windshield!

here with a $580,000 bond issue to join the Lakeside system, $80,000 being paid them for joining, the rest for lines, etc.

Joe Rushing, county officer, told the Sun that on Jan. 1 there were 132 connections serving about 1000 persons in this district. They pay $24 yearly for service. He spoke to the chamber meeting, answering questions.

The trouble is that the system discharges effluent into Alpine Creek which flows into El Capitan Reservoir, part of the SD water system. Due to this, the water control office will stop this after 1970.

W.C. Barney, head of the special services work, recommended the Lakeside deal as the most economical and practical plan, ordered by the supervisors, but both towns' boards (supervisors) would have to agree to the joint project. The plan would be eligible for a 33% federal grant.

An alternate solution would be Dehesa Valley with a new treatment plant, but cost would be $1,087,000. Population of Alpine's sewer area is now 1080 but will reach 5900 to 8400 by 1990. Total population now is around 4300.

The Lakeside project tax estimate would indicate a $1. per $100. rate at the start, reducing to 80¢ after 10 years. The federal grant would return a third of the costs.

Thus further building is limited till this problem is solved. When the system was voted in for $120,000 in Jan. 1953, the mains were planned to serve 5000 persons and the plant to handle a 1200 population volume.

The system was a project of the Sun, then in its 2nd year, backed by the new chamber of commerce which was founded by Editor Irvine aided by Cecil Lewinson and Carl McCall. They paid for the campaign with $300 donated by local businessmen.

CDR. McDONNELL DIES IN EAST

Fr. Bolton of Queen of Angels Catholic Church received a telegram that Cdr. Francis R. McDonnell, USN ret'd. had died in Baltimore at age 84. His wife, who had become well known for her love of felines, died here Oct. 21, 1967. (Sun Oct. 27, 1967).

In 1931 they built Cat's Acres, Alpine Heights Rd., buying 5 acres from their neighbor Claude Clerk. Later the commander went to live near his sister, Mrs. Thos. Vickery, in Maryland city. She and her son, Thomas, survive.

Fr. Bolton is recovering from a siege of pneumonia.

SET SUMMER SCHOOL DATES

July 1 through 31, 22 days, were selected Monday by the school board reports Paul Clay, district superintendent. Principal Mark Kerby of the Harbison Canyon School will be director.

Note- The Sun takes this opportunity to warmly thank Supt. Clay and his capable staff for their splendid cooperation and courtesy in aiding the Sun to cover activities and to know what is coming up by mailing us the agenda for all meetings. -CI

DEATH OF FORMER ALPINE ARTIST

News was received by the Sun that Winona Copper Hawken, former resident of Tavern Road, and well known artist, had died of cancer. The sad news came in a letter from her widower Russell Hawken, as the office had mailed them a Christmas Sun with its greetings marked.

"It was so nice of you to send the Sun", Hawken wrote "I enjoyed reading it from cover to cover and was happily reminded of the days at Winjo Rancho. I shall send it on to Joann Adams, who lived there with Winona, who has been ill for some time and is in a hospital near her home in Philadelphia".

Winona worked at Walker-Scott in SD as an ad artist, and during the early days of the Sun, helped out with her artistry on press nights.

SCHOOL TO ADD NEW TEACHER

At Monday's session of the school board it was voted to secure a new primary teacher as classes are now overloaded, reports Supt. Paul Clay. He is negotiating for a new building for the small remedial reading class which is using a building by the school on Tavern Road which will then house the new class.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, SANTEE GAZETTE

OF SUMMER

Now that current rain has cancelled the fire hazard, the volunteer firemen are breathing easier.

This was made at the summer blaze down on Midway & Arnold, shows Malcolm Huey, former chief, spraying some hot spots behind the burning front that seared several acres.

But remember, no burning without permit from the fire marshal,

REDONDO BEACH GETS THE SUN

In a note with his check for $6. to renew his subscription to the Sun, Henry J. Friel, sr., said: "Our son designed our present home in 1953, enjoys your Sun on all his visits to his Mother and Dad. So thought he would appreciate his own copy of the Sun".

The son is an architect in Redondo Beach, Friel & Linde, so more folks will be reading about Alpine.

NEW PAPER IN BACK COUNTRY

Jack & Jane Dew have gotten out 2 issues of a new weekly "The Beacon", of Campo. No publisher is named. The Dews plan on covering the area down to Imperial County.

This now gives the back country 3 newspapers, the Alpine Sun, 18 years old, and the 10-year old Mt. Empire Chronicle of Boulevard with its friendly editors & publishers, Dave & Naomi Woodruff. They cover the mountain villages including Julian.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frey were happy to entertain their friends, Mr. & Mrs. Marion Mowery, who drove down from Oregon City, Ore. to visit them.

They arrived in the pouring rain but were used to wet weather, so all enjoyed the visit. The Mowery's leave for home sometime next week.

TALAMANTES WINS DECORATION

Mr. & Mrs. Robt. Rix, South Grade Road, just learned that their son S 1/c John Talamantes, USA, artillery in Vietnam was decorated on Dec. 31 by the commanding general of the Republic of Vietnam. It was for gallantry in action. He also got the bronze Star for this bravery in an attack at 4 a. m. on Dec. 29. His battery commander and 3 others also won these honors. He is well, but all had the flu.

"They are in bad mountainous country" Mrs. Rix says "and have everything flown in, even water, are doing all right but need more support"
