MRS. JASENCAK WITH SMITH REALTY

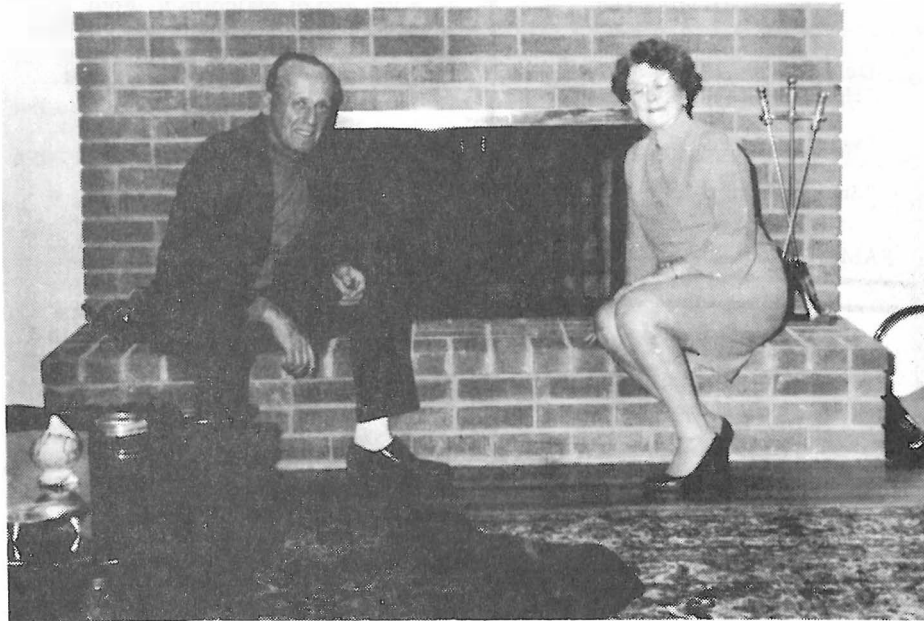

A new salesman, Mrs. Betty Jasencak of 2889 South Grade Rd., who has lived here a year with her husband Andy, has joined Al Smith Realty, 2530 Hwy 80. She is no novice, having spent eight years with Bob White Co., in Redondo Beach. Jasencak is retired as production manager for Kentile Floors, and both have become permanent Alpiners. She will cooperate with Archie Frogge, Smith's other salesman.

CABLE CUT DEADENS PHONES

Monday from 8:10 a. m. till 2 p. m. phones around here were dead while a crew of cable splicers worked hard and fast to restore service.

Don Lloyd, manager of the EC office which handles Alpine's switching plant on W. Victoria, says it is thought a road grader cut the 300 pairs of wires at 2 places about 1900 Arnold Way.

"I have studied this area for some time" she says "and I am sure it has a wonderful future since the freeway will allow the town to grow without the annoyance of heavy traffic on its main street".

She is the first to use Alpine Blvd. on her cards which the Sun is delivering to her this week.

NEW POSTOFFICE IN THE WORKS

The Ratliff corner of Arnold Way and Olivewood Lane, selected and approved by postal authorities for the new Alpine postoffice, is in the process of being acquired and the new structure built, says Postmaster H. T. Magnussen.

Several problems were encountered, but the sewer one still has to be settled before any more building will be allowed downtown.

WATCH TAX DEDUCTIONS
Martin Huff, officer of the tax board in Sacramento warns that "Some taxpayers are computing their state income tax liability and then deducting the $70 property tax refund recently set under provisions of Prop. 1A".

He says it delays allowance for deduction and that the only way is to apply through county assessors, so do not take it off your income tax return.

Alpine's average elevation is about 2100', lowest being under 1700, highest around 2700'.

OPTIMISTS TO AID FIRE VICTIMS

When the Clarence Brown home burned on Viejas Reservation last Christmas Alpine Optimists aided that family with clothes and goods. Now they are going to give some surplus to the Vaughans who lost all personal belongings when the Thompson house burned Sunday 2 weeks ago on Hwy 80

"If you have any goods you do not need, let us know and send it in" says Pres. Leo Manolakos.

FORMER ALPINE GIRL TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Heyser of EC, formerly residents of Alpine Heights Road, who operate the P & L Department Store in EC, announce the engagement and Dec. 7 wedding of their daughter, Patricia Leslie, to Malcolm L. Ford, son of Malcolm V. Ford, of Mundy, Tex., and Mrs. J.D. Thompson, of EC. Patricia is a senior at Granite Hills HS and her fiance is a senior at ECVHS.

NO RESIDENT SHERIFF HERE

Someone phoned the Sun asking if there was a deputy on duty here, but there is none or he would be listed on the Sun's "yellow pages" directory under emergency calls. The Sheriff's office explains that most of the time deputies in patrol cars can be here in 5 or 10 minutes when called. The number for that is 232-3811.

YC MEETS FEB. 3

Time is fast approaching when work will commence on the addition to the YC building. Plans are complete reports Al Adams, president. Next meeting new officers will be nominated with installation in March.

SHOP TALK ENJOYED

When Ethel Andrews had a few hours off she leaves trusty hubby "Red" to run their Casino Inn, down on Hwy 80, drops in at the Log Cabin Cafe to visit friends.

Here she is shaking hands with Barney Ratliff, jolly owner of famous cabin, both laughing over something funny just said. Barney and his wife Agnes operate this place which has a tree growing up inside it, an old oak hundreds of years old, that is famous all over the nation.

Supt. Paul Clay reports that Leo Vinci, a custodian, left his job and has gone to his home in Indiana for a family reunion. He will return here to live. Taking his place is Al Jungenich, of Peutz Valley.

EDITORIAL

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL, THE WONDROUS!

When the nation dug down and contributed a large sum to the widow of Officer Tippett who was slain by Oswald, who killed Pres. Kennedy in Dallas, it showed the deep compassion of our people.

Every day in this nation someone expresses great compassion for others, following the Bible's admonition to love one another. We are moved to heart throbs when men risk their lives to save a puppy that has fallen into a well, or to rescue a child in like circumstances.

That fine movement of Scouting records such heroic deeds every day in some part of this great nation. Many other organizations and their work and good deeds reflect this principle, one that thrills the American who loves his country.

America the beautiful is not all. It is the wondrous, the truly great, the benevolent, the sympathetic.

As we watched that great inaugural parade in Washington Monday, we thrilled to the many bands, the marchers from the military and other organizations. When one reflects upon our servicemen and women who present their lives that this great, free land may survive, one is deeply thrilled.

Right in our county we just experienced a wonderful example. The SD Chamber of Commerce this week revealed figures on the Pueblo fund it raised to pay expenses of the families while here for the reunion with their sailormen.

Pres. Clayton H. Brace, reveals that they collected $52,556. from 10,000 donors in all 50 states, including even parents of the crew! Total cost was but $15,958., the El Cortez Hotel holding costs down, a commendable gesture.

The balance was turned over to bodies that perform outstanding services to all members of the Armed Forces, thus the Red Cross, the USO building fund, and the SD Armed Forces YMCA, each had a third of the surplus of $36,598.

Thank God for America, the beautiful, the wondrous! - CI

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

Because of the damp weather, only a few members turned out Monday for their regular meeting but those that were on hand enjoyed an afternoon of visiting and cards.

Katie Stout is back after a month's absence and Mr. and Mrs. John Peters brought guests from Iowa for a visit!

Monday's session celebrates January birthdays with cake and ice cream.

Allen and Betty Brooks received word that his sister and husband, Sheldon and Barbara Reich of Brooklyn, just received a baby boy, their second child, first being a little girl named Lori.

POSTAL GROWTH REVEALED

Postmaster H. T. Magnussen says that the last 2 quarters of 1968 were up 2.5% over the same period in 1967. Influencing this of course was the raise in postal rates, but that was for only one quarter.

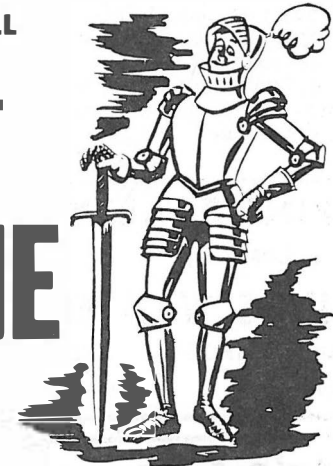

"However our cancellations rose about the same amount" he said, indicating a steady rise in mailings here.

P. C. HAMILTON

Service was Tuesday in Paris Mortuary for Pennell C. "Ham" Hamilton, 52, of 7482 Mohawk, La Mesa, who died in Naval Hospital Saturday after a lingering illness from cancer. Burial was in Alpine Cemetery. He at one time ran Agham's Refrigeration Service here, was a retired navyman. Survivors; widow, Agnes; mother; a brother and 3 sisters.

SOME EROSION FROM RAINS

The 3-inch rain of a week ago did quite a bit of damage to some of the new building sites. At Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates many banks were eroded which will take some earth and labor to remedy.

Likewise Pierce's Alpine Village Apts. lost a lot of earth on Arnold Way, causing small delays and expense to remedy. Overall damage around town was minimal.

My sister and I have been invited to ride in the Yuma Silver Spur Rodeo as a matched pair. Also invited was Jackie Reed and Nita Miller who are entering separately. Nikki and Bob Menconi, Mich Reed and our mother are also going with Mick, hauling the horses. This is Yuma's 24th annual rodeo and their biggest event of the year with a huge turnout. We are thrilled with the prospects of going and entering.

Alice and JoAnn Villa had to chase a Jack donkey out of their yard Monday morning as he was scaring their horses. They alerted the owners who came and picked the little guy up later in the day.

Blanche McCall is looking for a nice gentle Shetland mare in foal or with a colt by her side. She wants one for the younger children at the school.

I was excited last week when I was feeding the horses, as I am sure I saw Red's colt kick. She isn't due till the first of June but at least we are sure she is in foal. She throws beautiful colts so hope this one is outstanding & a buckskin or Palomino.

BLACK CROSS ENGLISH NOT GERMAN

If you have wondered what the white car with a black cross on its side meant, you must interview its owner, Don Bates, realtor.

"Lots of folks ask me why I have the German cross on there", he told the Sun when paying his ad bill, "so I explain that it was used by Admiral Nelson in the 1700's on an English sailing ship during the war. However it was also used on German fighter planes in WW1".

CHAMBER EYEING SEWER PROJECT

The sanitary district has had a reprieve. Pres. H. T. Magnussen says he called Joe Rushing of the county office asking for a month's delay, so the matter was changed from Jan. 21 to Feb. 18.

As suggested by Chairman LaForce, says Magnussen, "we wanted to get an engineer's study of the county's project for voting $580,000 bonds to connect to Lakeside, as discussed at last week's meeting, at which we voted $200 for this study. We want to go into this important matter with our eyes wide open".

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile and Celeste Irvine

We had a nice visit last Thursday from Maxine and Charlie Cabella and their little 3-months old son Joey. They drove up to Alpine to see Maxine's folks and show them their new 1969 Nova. Maxine's sister Lynn Kinikin came over too and all posed for a picture. Their baby is getting cuter by the day and they hope to return to Alpine to live soon. However, at present, there isn't even a barn to rent!

Mandy Payne Psycholka was thrilled Sunday night when she presented her husband Danny with a 7#, 9 oz. boy in Grossmont Hospital. Danny is in Vietnam, is expected home in June. She named the little fellow Douglas Carl and can hardly wait till her husband sees him. This is their first child.

Peggy Schwenck is back on crutches as she twisted the ligaments in her knee the other day while on a trip up north. She was carrying her 7-months old son Kenny when she tripped and nearly fell. She was lucky she didn't hurt it more.

Michelle Ruis Garcia had a baby girl last week and named her Honey Linette. She is Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rix's Betty Brooks got a nice tan-white collie for her children, named Ringo. She got the dog from Reed and Violet Durham who own Alpine Rock & Hobby shop. They couldn't keep the dog because he needed more room to roam and they didn't have it.

Sharon Rix's little baby boy has been sick with the flu but is better this week.

Anyone lose a nice young part German Shepherd female puppy. She was running lose on Hwy 80 and Henry McKie took her in for a day and then Mrs. Bowles was kind enough to care for her till the owner is found or till someone wants the dog. Call 445-3825 if this dog is yours or if you wish to own her.

We were thrilled last week when our Aunt Bev sent us a clipping about our cousin Tyrone. Monday he took part in the historic 220-man Honor Guard Company which marched at the inauguration of Richard Nixon. Ty participated in the 21-gun salute and marched with the Old Guard (part of the Army's oldest infantry regiment which guards Washington, D.C.). He gets to continue Honor Guard duties for the rest of his year and a half years of service. He was issued a new uniform worth over $1,000 for the occasion and was hand-picked out of the 1st Battalion as one of the most outstanding soldiers and met the rigid requirements of height, build, bearing and character.

Now that the inauguration is over Ty will participate in special routine parades, reviews for visiting diplomats and dignitaries, military funeral, retirement ceremonies and retreat reviews. All in all, we are quite proud of our cousin and we know his parents are too.

room with their little dachshund Charlie Ruggles on the rug. He is named after the famous actor, whom Betty knew well when she was hostess in the Fox Studio's Cafe de Paris.

She worked there off and on for 20 years from 1933 to 1954, knew all the stars, directors and performers of that era. She was born in Kirksville, Mo. the home of osteopathy.

"My grandfather loaned money to Dr. Andrew T. Still, its founder" she says, "and otherwise helped the doctor get it started".

The Jasencaks built this lovely home, moved in on Jan. 18, 1968. It was built for them by Roy Peterson on half an acre.

Jasencak was born in Chicago. His hobby is baseball; hers, interior decorating and gardening-- and Charlie. They are very fond of Alpine and its beautiful scenic outlooks from their nice home.

One feature they had built in is an old-fashioned pantry, shown in this photo. "We call it our country store" they say, "for it is stocked with everything imaginable, like oldtime pantries used to be".

ALPINE BLVD. REPLACING HWY 80
 Don't forget that when the freeway, Interstate 8 opens, Highway 80 will be no more. Its new official name is Alpine Blvd., suggested by the chamber of commerce, approved by the supervisors and accepted by the state. Already signs are up but draped, telling of the Willows Road Interchange and exit to Alpine Blvd.

By and by, if you need new cards or stationery to show this new name, consult the Sun's printing department and keep up to date.

Or see the Millers at Alpine Printing Co., 2251 1/2 Hwy 80, opposite Texaco. Richard Merrill Co., 105 Willowside Terr. is also in this business, so you have three good opportunities to "buy in Alpine".

OPTIPRESS NOTES

Alpine Optimist Club, says Pres. Leo Manolakos, is working on two main projects; lighting the YC baseball field, the largest work, and promoting the annual oratorical contest.

"Our dinner meeting was postponed from the 15th to the 22nd", he says "so that we could attend the important chamber meeting on that night to discuss the sewer problem".

They plan a box social on Feb. 15 to raise funds toward paying for the 40 ft. light poles for the YC project.

ART CLUB MEETS FEB. 5

The next meeting of Alpine Area Art Assn. will discuss a big show this spring with nothing over $10. called "Starving Artists' Sale".

President Reed Durham reminds Alpiners that members' work is on display at the Security Bank here and also the Log Cabin Cafe.

DON'T PASS YOUR ALPINE OFF-RAMP

If you will be using the Tavern Road Interchange to reach downtown or your home via Tavern Road, or Alpine Blvd. (Hwy 80), be sure to take the Tavern Road offramp.

If you wish past that you will have to go clear up to Willows Road, turn and come back down Interstate 8 freeway to Tavern Road, to get off!

That is because Old Hwy 80 will be blockaded at the Cleveland National Forest sign above the Baptist Church till the freeway is completed from there up to Willows Interchange.

This photo looks east at a mile below Tavern Road, so remember where to depart the freeway.

"Never try to make a U-turn over the median, it could be disastrous", admonishes Jerry Smith, resident high-way engineer.

Friend: "So your daughter drives now, How long did it take her to learn?"
 Suffering father: "About two and a half cars."

McCALL MAY SURF IN HAWAII

After his year-end return from a trip to Hawaii, Brian McCall who has a surfing camp in SD says he may establish one in the Islands, he was so enthused over the trip. He took 3 SD girls and a counselor over for the big Makaha championships. Margo Godfrey, a summer employe of McCall's Surfing Camp in SD, took first in the senior women's finals, while Sharon Weber, also a McCall employe, made fourth. He reports a grand time in the Paradise of the Pacific.
