ALPINE COUPLE UNITE IN MARRIAGE

Dr. Roger Larson officiated. A reception was afterwards in Jane Dunn Hall. The newlyweds enjoyed a brief honeymoon in the north, are making their home at 2116 Tavern Rd. Danny is working in the plumbing business for

BROWN CO. NOW REALTORS

Bill & Charlene Brown, pioneer real estate here, were inducted yesterday morning at the breakfast session of the EC Valley Board of Realtors. It was in Carlton Oaks Country Club, Santee. Charlene as broker, became an active member, and Bill was named associate member.

Highlight of the program was a talk by Jas. Curto, attorney, and former real estate broker, on "Truth in Lending Law", which today is of interest to everyone.

Dick Brotherton.

Rachel Beaty was maid-of-honor and Barry McCall, best man. Bridesmaids were Debbie Place, sister of the groom, Terry Kennedy, Kathy's cousin, and Randa McCall. Nancy Kennedy, the bride's sister, was flower girl, and little Patrick Brotherton was ring bearer. Bob Ring, Gary Swain and Paul Kennedy were ushers.

CHULA VISTANS BUY HOME

Escrow has just closed on the sale of the nice home on 2-2/3 acres at the Willows. It was owned by the former sculptor and artist Helger H. O. Nicolaisen who died about a year ago. His sister Mrs. Asta Daughtry was the seller. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Bartels of Chula Vista. They will live here with their son. They plan many improvements. Sale was by Paul Harbeston with Brown Realty.

TWILIGHT RODEO STARTS TONIGHT
 The southland is getting ready to invade Alpine to enjoy a 3-day funfest of rodeo entertainment, the 2nd annual IRA event for this area.

It will be unique, starting at 6 pm in the Youth Center and is of championship claibre. Performances will be each evening, Aug. 8, 9, 10 at the YC.

An outstanding program has been lined up, includes seven major competition events in which cowboys will vie for attractive purses and International Rodeo Association Championship points. In addition to the contest events, spectators will be treated to the antics of rodeo clowns Buddy Young and Walter Davis, from Arizona. Headlining the contract acts will be actor-stuntman-trick roper, Troy Nabors of Scottsdale, Ariz., and the colorful Rock'N Ride Drill Team of Lakeside.

The YC will serve a real beef barbecue dinner all three days and breakfast will be served Saturday and Sunday mornings. An attraction will be the open-air dance on the tennis courts on Friday and Saturday nights, with country-western music by the "Memphis Six".

While many of the contestants entered will be professional members of the IRA, local cowboys can also vie for honors, but must pay the same entry fees for each contest as do the professionals. All contestants compete for the same prize money under a set of uniform rules.

Every community has its top hands, and one thing is in his favor: regardless of how well he does, he has a built-in cheering section!

Marianne Clay flew back Tuesday from Frankfort, Germany, having spent her vacation mostly visiting her friend the exchange student Marianne Furger, in Switzerland who had spent the last year here with the Clays. Due to the fog she had to land at Ontario, bus it to SD where her father Paul picked her up.

2 BIG PICNICS AT HOLIDAY RANCH

Tomorrow Local 1711 union of carpet and lino people 400 strong will enjoy their annual picnic at Holiday Ranch, 15141 Old Hwy 80, report Geo. and Phyllis Crusoe, owners.

Al Bahr Shrine of SD will also be there about 150 in numbers. Sunday the Sunlight Electric Co. of SD plans on their yearly company family picnic at this enjoyable recreation spot.

They report, like many others, that the freeway instead of killing their business really has helped it as it is so easy now to get off Interstate 8 and drive leisurely down or up Old Hwy 80 to the Holiday Ranch.

QUEEN CONTEST AUG. 17

Harbison Canyon's first Queen will be crowned Sunday, Aug. 17, during the annual HC Volunteer Fire Department pit barbecue, held this year at Frontier Town to accommodate the crowd. Tickets, adults, $2. children, $1. 6-12, and under 5, free, includes parking and swimming plus park facilities.

Carolee Meachum, Miss El Cajon, will crown the new Miss.

Margaret Lowthian spent last weekend in Santa Barbara attending a Rhodesian Ridgeback dog show, took two of her own to show, visited relatives on the way up and had a nice time.

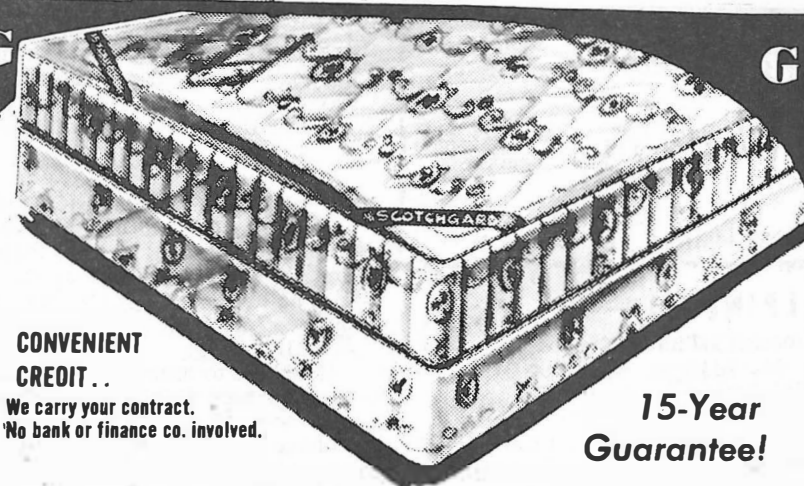

POSTOFFICE TO ASK BIDS

H. T. Magnussen, postmaster, has received word that they will advertise for bids on Alpine's new postoffice on Aug. 18. They will be opened on Sept. 23 in SD. If approved, work will start in due course. New office is to be on the Ratliff property, corner Arnold Way and Olivewood Lane.

TAX BURDEN IS FAST BECOMING INTOLERABLE.

The scores of loopholes and tax exemptions that a lot of wealthy people, churches and foundations make use of has bugged a New York man Frederick Walz so that he has done something about it. He is a sort of one-man army fighting such matters which throw an added load onto the poor already over-loaded taxpayer.

Walz bought a tiny plot valued at $100, pays only $5.24 tax a year. But he filed suit against the NY City Tax Commission, contended that state law exempting church property increased his tax, indirectly forced him to support churches in violation of his constitutional rights to freedom of religion.

He points out that churches benefit three ways: gifts are tax-deductible; they do not have to pay real estate taxes on land used for religious purposes; and, most controversial, they are not required to pay the standard 52% US corporate income tax on any business they own, even if unrelated to religion.

It is estimated that churches run these tax-exempt things as bowling alleys, parking lots, camps, cemeteries and schools, total about $100 billion! And it rises some $5.5 billion a year. This is at a time when it is said respect for organized, unionized religion, is declining, while the need for tax relief is apparent everywhere.

Once again the Supreme Court is going to have to make a memorable decision in the Walz case. At least every little taxpayer will be interested in seeing just how this question is handled.

It is indeed a fine line of decision as to just where religious aid and freedom begins and the load of taxation slips off onto the bending shoulders of the little taxpayer!

Residents of Alpine know that we need lower taxes, but at the same time we do not want to harm our churches, without which, where would the country go in these perilous times? - CI

KIWANIS' FAMILY REUNION DAY

Pres. L. J. Mohr of the Kiwanis Club says they will observe their 2nd annual Family Reunion Day Sunday. It is on over the US & Canada, sponsored by the club and Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge.

"Idea is to dramatize the family as the keystone of the nation's strength and morality", he says. The plan is to have family picnics, reunions and so on. Many other service groups and clubs are participating.

"A fine is a tax you have to pay for doing wrong. A tax is a fine you have to pay for doing okay."

NEW FAMILY BUYS MILLER PLACE

Ken Barth, known in show business as "Riot Halliday", in gun-fighting, rodeo and western TV and movies, with his wife Shirley and two youngsters have just bought and moved into the Otto Miller house, 1166 Midway Dr. Miller went to live in SD with a daughter.

Barth, native of St. Louis, and wife Shirley, born in St. Joseph, Mo., moved from Lakeside. He was a former logger in Oregon and N. Calif. They lived in Jacumba, picked Alpine to be near his work and because they love the mountain country. He is remodeling the house.

Their two children are Renee', 5 and Scott, 3½. Barth works with a partner, Steve Morytko, in staging shoot-outs and similar shows around the area. They will soon put on one as a benefit for the Guiding Hands of Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brooks and 3 children are spending this week in LA visiting his cousins Mel and Pearl Brooks of Granada Hills, to celebrate the first birthday of their son Michael.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Alpine's 2nd annual rodeo starts tonight at 6 and has been on our minds for several weeks. It is one event that most Alpiners enjoy and we hope it is a sellout. Besides the rodeo, there will be a dance on the tennis courts after each performance, a barbecue for those who don't want to cook, and even breakfasts, so plan on attending all 3 days and have a groovy time.

After our big weekend, the SD Sports Arena is presenting a fabulous Mexican rodeo starring Antonio Aguilar, his movie star wife and 8 year old son. The show is slated for Aug. 23-4, starts at 8:30 tickets are $4, 3, 2, went on sale Aug. 4. Besides the rodeo, Aguilar will put on an exhibit of his equestrian skills and sing, too. Last year it was a sellout and we thought it was great, so don't miss it.

A gymkhana horse show, point-approved by the So. Cal. Gymkhana Assn. will be Sunday at Miramar Naval Air Station. They are having 15 events with trophies and ribbons awarded to first five place winners in each event.

Anyone have a nice gentle pony or older horse they want to board out free for its' use? Barbara Jones has 3 small youngsters that would love to ride and care for a horse so thought there might be someone who has an animal just standing around. They would give it plenty of food, a nice corral and lots of love. If you have such an horse, call her at 445-4009. She is interested in buying one, if the price is right, but thought the first plan would be better till her youngsters are older.

A virus is going around Alpine and environs attacking horses, so if your horse is free from a cough or cold, keep him home. We checked with Dr. Immenschuh and he suggested we feed alfalfa and molassas and keep the horses blanketed at night. There isn't any drug that can be used against the bug so an ounce of prevention is worth a lot.

CLUB PLANS RUMMAGE SALE

The Woman's Club has slated Friday and Saturday, Aug. 15 & 16 for a big rummage sale in their clubhouse, reports Mrs. H.W. Johnson, Ways and Means chairman.

"Doors will open at 8:30 and close at 5:00 she says. She, with Mrs. R. J. Cook and Mrs. Grace Wilcox will be at the club on the 14th from 9 to 4 to receive rummage.

Clerk: "These are especially strong shirts. They simply laugh at the laundry."

Customer: "I know that kind; I had some which came back with their sides split."

ANTIQUES & ARTIFACTS SHOWN

Saturday the library opened August's art display with a unique and fascinating display of items from grandfather's time, from the collection of Grace Wilcox of Tavern Road.

In photo Grace, past president of the Woman's Club, holds a lovely tapestry that her daughter Merilu brought from Germany. It is a chalet. She also cuddles the lovable doll that she played with when a child near half a century ago.

Grace tells how her mother, with 7 living in the house, used to bake 15 loaves of bread every week. The grandpa rents, like so many in those good old days, lived with some of the children and her Grandpa Burson, a Civil War veteran lived with them.

INTERESTING IS NEW RESIDENT

Last week Edwin G. Bertin dropped into the Sun office to meet your editor and subscribe. He moved June 27 from SD, taking one of the fine new Alpine Village Apartments, accompanied by his wife, Ida.

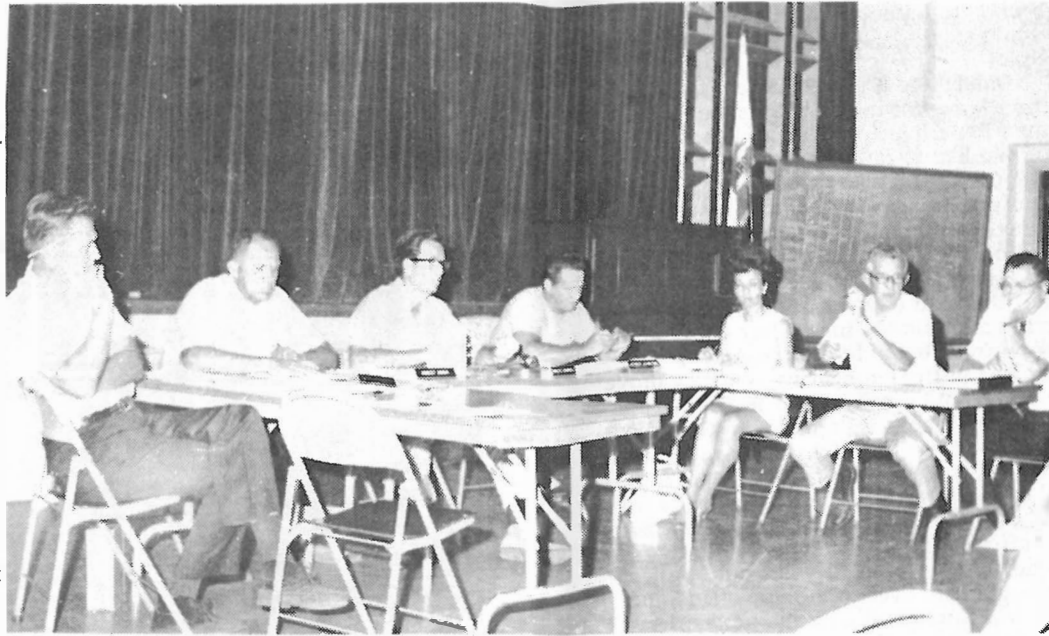

Bertin, a naval architect, was with Geo. Campbell at his machine works in SD from 1927 to 1954 when Campbell sold out, retired to his lovely home on South Grade Rd. He stayed with the new owners till 1964, retiring Jan. 1, 1965. They had lived in LM also.

Bertin is a native of San Francisco, Ida of West Point, N. Y. They have a married daughter in Lakeside, Margery McIntyre, also a son, Edwin, Jr., a cablesplicer with Pacific Telephone, lives in Clairemont. They are delighted with life in Alpine.

At the combined budget hearing and regular meeting Tuesday night the school board made final adoption of the 1969-70 budget, reports Supt. Paul Clay.

They ratified contract for the new superintendent, W. E. Browning.

Aug. 18 was set for the meeting to talk salaries when new money may come from the state.

Cafeteria lunch was upped from 35¢ to 40¢.

Bert Mendenhall of Lakeside was their choice of nominee to the assembly of the State School Boards Assn.

FORMER ALPINE RETURNS

Mrs. Bernice Nodell, who left Alpine several years ago after the passing of her husband, is back in Alpine, having just bought a lot with a cabin on it from Petra Nicholson on Harbison Canyon Rd.

Anna Jerney of Alpine Realty, handled the transaction.

ALPINE PTA BOARD MEETS

August's board meeting was Tuesday called to order by Marie Johnston.

Halloween Carnival plans traditionally dominate PTA activity at this time. Extensive committee work presented by Jane Marshall, Ways & Means chairman, offering a well-rounded evening of fun with attractions for all ages was enthusiastically approved. More details when arrangements have been completed.

Members also approved the program schedule for next year as recommended by the program committee, Billie Armbruster, chairman.

This year a Parent-Teacher Information course will be offered in Alpine, to start early in November.

On the first day of school the board will serve coffee in the auditorium to welcome mothers of kindergarten children and any newcomers.

Father: "My daughter's used to getting everything she wants. Can you give her that?"

Suitor: "Well, I can right now. She says all she wants is me".

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

We hate to see our summer vacation go by so fast. We have only a month left before school starts and that will fly by. We spent the first three weeks in Del Mar and hope to take one small trip before we get back into the grind. We both are working as usherettes for the Charger games and it is exciting. Last Saturday was the first game and there wasn't a seat left in the huge stadium, is quite an experience.

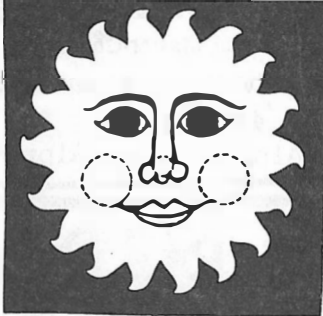

We are spending some of this weekend in Hemet as our cousins are starring in "The Wizard of OZ", which has had raves as far away as the LA Times. Peggy Arndt did the directing and her sister has the part of Dorothy, so we don't want to miss it. We have to be back here Saturday to work, otherwise would stay up and swim and have a good time.

Danny and Kathy Place are back from their honeymoon and all settled in their nice little house on Tavern Road.

We had to rush our German Shepherd dog Chris to the Vet's Monday. He got two ticks in one ear and the other had a fungus the doctor had to clean out, but is fine now and a lot more comfortable.

David Shortridge and his brother Bill Millard paid us a visit Sunday afternoon and had a nice swim. They came down to visit their Uncle George Allen. His wife is in Ireland visiting and they drove down from Long Beach to see him.

Betty Brooks is enrolling in Grossmont College for a few night classes, wants to finish, so she can get her degree.

Chuck Halliday, he is nephew of former Alpiners Ted and Nellie Keller, is off to Vietnam. Several years ago, when he was about 11 years old, Nellie brought him over to the Sun office and he was fascinated with the production of the paper. He still might go into the newspaper business when he returns from his tour of Army duty there.

Service was Friday in EC Mortuary Chapel for Glen Bruce Morgan, 65, of 125 Willowside Terrace, who died on Wednesday. Burial was in Alpine Cemetery. Survivor: widow, Lidy. He was a retired accountant with the Ohio Electric in Cleveland. He was a native of Pennsylvania, had lived here 3 years.

NOTES FROM THE LUTHERANS

The Vacation Bible School at Alpine Lutheran is in the first of its fortnight session. The school is every morning Monday through Friday from 9 to 11:30. All children between 5 and 13 are welcome.

Pastor Paul Heyn is attending the convention of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod this week in New Ulm, Minn. The synod is a group of Lutheran Churches who are in full doctrinal agreement on the basis of the Word of God, the Bible. These churches are united in this fellowship to further the work of God's Kingdom. Matters to be discussed at the convention include home missions, world missions, Christian education.

On Sunday, Aug. 24, Pastor Karl Wegenroth, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Confessional Church of Germany will speak and conduct the service here. The Wisconsin church is affiliated with 9 churches in Western Germany and 7 in Eastern Germany. The time of service is 9 a. m.

JONES ENTERTAINS PILOT

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones, Arnold Way, entertained Barbara's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lansing and children over the weekend. He is a pilot for TWA, also a flight engineer, while his wife is a school nurse for the Riverside area. They loved the wide open spaces of Alpine and their children, 4 of whom came with them, loved the horse, took turns riding.

Have you heard the sad tale of the two blood corpuscles? They loved in vein.

KUHN STARTS TAXIDERMY SHOP

Opportunities are galore in Alpine. Today Darrell Kuhn, 20, son of Forrest Kuhn, 1865 South Grade Rd., has started a new line, taxidermy, and is already quite busy.

In photo young Kuhn, who went to ECV HS for 2 years in the adult taxidermy class is now going in for it professionally in his spare time. He works in Lemon Grove, was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, has lived here for 2 years.

Darrell can preserve for the sportsman almost any animal, fish, fowl, gamebird, etc. Shown here he is with 3 crows, a quail and an owl which he stuffed. His father is a carpenter, has just built a new home on the old Romaine place. Darrell's phone is 445-4757.

STALLION OAKS TO INCORPORATE

Plans are underway to form a corporation in which guests may become part-owners in this booming recreation ranch, says Ed Torgersen, owner. He has brought it up to the top in country entertainment including his recently opened Old West Motel. The beautiful campground for trailers, tents and campers is crowded every weekend he reports.

SHELL STATION MAY OPEN ANY DAY

Final construction work on the handsome new Carl's Shell Station, Tavern Rd. & the offramp, is supposed to finish today, reports Carl Batts, who will operate it.

"We hope to get open any day", says the affable newcomer to the growing Alpine business fraternity, "and I know we will be mighty proud of this, the first such station on the Coast".

They have the phone in but not connected, so put 445-4242 on your Sun's Yellow Pages directory. Carl promises pickup and delivery of cars that have to be serviced.

CLASS IN PARENT TRAINING

During the weekends of Aug. 16 & 23 at McCall's Ranch School and Summer Camp, a course in Parent Effectiveness Training, is being offered parents and adults who have youngsters in charge.

Being an effective parent "requires skills you can't get from recipe books on child-rearing" says Thos. Norden, consulting psychologist in La Jolla and regional director of the institute. Details from 459-1377, says Instructor Leonard Pellettiri.

Bill and Charlene Brown of Brown Realty enjoyed a nice vacation and business trip to Bakersfield and then on to Yosemite where they stayed at Hotel Wawona. They especially enjoyed the 2-hour scenic bus tour of the valley and took many color pictures of Yosemite Falls and all the others also places of interest.

RECREATION UP IN BACK COUNTRY

Jim Constantino, owner of Jim's Kamperville in EC, sees steady increase in recreation facilities, vehicles and so forth for the great hinterland of SD.

The Bureau of Recreation, US Forestry Service, reports the SD Convention and Tourist Bureau, says outdoor camping has jumped 80% this summer hereabouts. Camper sales rose 24% and vacationers are spending 40% of their leisure on the road, viewing scenery, visiting interesting towns.

"Local sales reflect this trend" says Jim, who operates the agency with his wife, Roberta, as one of the leading camper dealers around here. "And we are an area of mobile folks! Just think, we are within 30 to 40 minutes of the most beautiful scenery and campground areas in the world!"

FEY BACK IN HOSPITAL

After undergoing 2 major operations, Robt. Fey, who lives with his wife on W. Victoria, had to return for more treatment but for another cause, hardening of the arteries of the brain, is in serious condition. He is in EC Valley Hospital. His 2 sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Goodwin, of Rushville, Ill., and Mrs. Minnie Busby, of Mt. Sterling, Ill., accompanied by their husbands, drove out, are visiting Mrs. Fey, to be near Bob.

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

Emma Holmes, prexy for the club, invites all newcomers Monday to enjoy the potluck luncheon. She says "please bring a covered dish, coffee and tea is supplied by the club".

Membership is $1. a year and the group meets at 10 on Mondays, plays games till 12, have lunch, and continue till 4. Every 4th Monday cake and ice cream are served for all, as birthdays are celebrated for those born during that month.

FIRE DESTROYS WOOLDRIDGE HOME

Near total ruin by fire estimated at $12,000 of the $20,000 house of Clifford Wooldrige, S. Marshall Rd., was well and speedily controlled by Alpine volunteers directed by Chief Dale Bennett. It was at 9:07 Saturday night. Contents loss was $2,000.

"We had the fire knocked down in 2 to 3 minutes" says Bennett, "and yet it was as hot and as fast as any I've seen". The house was of pine logs. Cause of the blaze was undetermined. No one was home.

MAGAZINE HAS STORY OF ALPINE

Helen Ellsberg, Alpine's noted photo-journalist, wrote and illustrated a unique story in the Western Collector of San Francisco, for Feb. 1969. It describes how Dorothy Michel of 20 Willowside Ter., and a pioneer here, has one of the most unique and valuable pieces of a hobbyist's collections. It is a WAAC GI issue, corduroy robe covered with army patches which the boys saved for her. She was the oldest WAAC in the US at that time, was librarian at Camp Hood, Tex.

Dorothy, a cheery, friendly person, left the robe put away for 20 years, then brought it out when discussing collectors' items, and today it creates much interest, especially with the military.

She has an interesting story of how her father homesteaded in Peutz Valley next door to the Peutz family back in 1894. She is a native of SD, knows and loves this area.

WORLD PREMIERE

The world premiere of "Slightly Higher on the West Coast" a freshly styled theatrical presentation, opened Thursday at the Cassius Carter Center stage, for a limited run. It was conceived and directed by Craig Noel, has historical beginnings of California, many songs with music from the past as well as tunes of today and has been capsuled into humorous and dramatic episodes.

POOL TOURNEY STARTING

Ed Torgersen, owner of Stallion Oaks Guest Ranch, says they are off to a good start Sunday at 4 p. m. with the pool tournament. "We have a lot of nifty trophies, so get in the fun", he says.

Kid: "What is tact?"

Prof: "My boy, if you tell a girl that time stands still when you look into her eyes, that's tact. But if you tell her that her fact would stop a clock, look out."

ALPINE MAGNET FOR ASTRONOMERS

When the SD Astronomical Assn., had its star party here last week, and had to fold up early because of high cloud cover, the Sun's editor made photos, then left. Later it cleared some and W.F. Shorrocks, of SD, who had brought up his huge 12½' scope in his camper, set it up. This photo was made at the retired AV. Ordinance man, USN, explained it to visitors. It is an F4.7 Cave observatory model, weighs 350 #. Shorrocks loaded it himself, desiring to give fellow members and visitors something beautiful to see in the heavens, usually crystal clear in Alpine.

With him, at left, is J.G. Shears, of SD, who enjoyed the star party. Mike Sullivan, publicist for the group, subscribed to the Sun, as he is quite interested in this area. Astronomy is one fine form of recreation!

ARMY HONORS ALPINE'S SON

Capt. Lawrence L. Johnson, 28, whose parents are Mr. & Mrs. Delbert C. Coon of Alpine, received the Army Commendation Medal last month while serving in Vietnam. It was earned for meritorious service as a pilot in 199th Aviation Co. His wife, Sandra, lives in Lindsay, Okla.

I'm having a hard time meeting expenses these days. How about you?

TO VISIT ITALY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph De Angelis, owners of De Angelis Restaurant, 12861 Old Hwy 80, EC. and his brother Aniele, famous chef of the well known establishment, are off to Italy for a month's vacation, will reopen their eatery Sept. 12.

The brothers are going to see their 91 year old mother, Mrs. Carmela De Angelis who lives in Sorrento, plus their many brothers and sisters, who still live there. Fifteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. De Angelis made the trip there for a visit, while their mother flew over in 1961, are looking forward to some memorable visits.

Son: "Nope, I'm not going back to that job until they take back what they said."

Dad: "And what was that?"

Son: "'You're fired!'"
