OVER 50 AT SQUARE DANCE

Already the Youth Center is out-grown at the first session of the reorganizing Alpine Allemanders Saturday night when over 50 enthused steppers attended.

Beverly King, whose husband Don, was the caller, told the Sun Monday that they were delighted with the response to the stories in the Sun about the idea of getting square dances going again here.

FITZGERALDS SELL ALPINE CAFE

A Spring Valley couple are buying the Alpine Cafe, 2225 Alpine Blvd., will take over from Ervin and Alice Fitzgerald. They are Willie C. Lidia, and his wife Frankie. He is a truck-driver with Thomas Disposal of SV, while she is working in a cafe in S.D. Both are natives of Clinton, Okla.

"We will carry on as usual" he told the Sun Monday when in the office to place the liquor transfer ad, "and may make some improvements later on."

Mrs. Lil Heiser and Truman Heiser, the couple that sparked the reorganization of the fun club.

An adult class of 18 was started and the same number for teenagers, "so now we must have a larger hall" Mrs. King said, "as many more would have danced had there been room".

Next dance is slated for Nov. 21 at 8 o'clock in the Harbison Canyon school. A class for adults only will be Tuesday, Nov. 25 at 8 in the Youth Center. A teenage class will be slated later.

RATLIFF SELLING LOG CABIN

Jack and Antoinette Muncille, of Del Mar, will take over the famous Log Cabin Cafe and cocktail lounge on Jan. 1, Barney and Agness Ratliff, owners, revealed this week.

The newcomers will make their home here. The deal is in escrow, should close before year's end, due to lengthy procedures in transfer of liquor license and so on. The Ratliffs have owned and improved it since 1942.

PIONEER SAM LEMMON DIES

Services for Samuel H. Lemmon, 71, of Tollhouse, Calif., who died on Nov. 1, were in the Mary Barton Chapel there with burial in Tollhouse Cemetery. He was born in Marietta, Ga., lived in Tollhouse for four years.

Lemmon came to Alpine in 1922, was foreman on the Baron Long Ranch, now Viejas Reservation. He was a cattle rancher and retired carpenter, and a Navy veteran of WWI.

Survivors: besides the widow, Gladys, a daughter, Mrs. Sammy Lou Mendenhall, both of Tollhouse, a brother, Franklin Lemmon, of Phoenix; a sister, Mrs. Mary Clerc, of So. Carolina, and three grandchildren.

The couple developed the ranch which is now Alpine Trailer Camper-rancho at the east end of Willows Road. Later they sold out, moved to a ranch in Dehesa where they raised turkeys. He was an expert horseman also. Mrs. Maud Bratt of 2216 Tavern Road, is a sister of the widow. Lemmon came here before there was much of anything, had subscribed for the Sun ever since it started.

LIVELY MEETING OF CLUBWOMEN

Tuesday's session of the Woman's Club saw a crowded hall to hear an unusual talk on "Extending Awareness in Encountering Oneself", by John Logan, B. A. of SD. An indepth story is being written by Don Harris for the next issue. One of Logan's highlights was how he stopped smoking two packs of cigarets five years ago, quitting in 1/5th of a second!

Pres. Reenie Adams was in the chair. The "gift table", was loaded with all kinds of items, went over big, nearly all being sold.

Hostesses were Chairman Elizabeth West with Mrs. Frank Bornowski and Mrs. John Titus.

Advertise in the Sun, it pays off!

ENJOYS WINTER SUNSHINE

After the rain when Old Sol comes out, residents of Alpine start talking about its weather. "Where the sunshine spends the year", as the Sun has sloganized.

This is the nice patio of the new home of Bill and Charlene Brown in the Highlands where she is sunning herself. They run Brown Realty. Bill, an accomplished carpenter, does a lot of work around both office and home.

Mrs. Melanie Murrell, who manages Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates with husband Wm., is up after a few days in bed with a flu attack.

Auren Pierce, developer of Palo Verde has a crew pumping out Lago de Viejas so they can clean silt out of the neck of the lower end. Viejas Creek carries tons of soil off the large watershed above, which settles at the neck of the lake where it flows over.

PEOPLE ASK NIXON TO "TELL IT TO HANOI!"

Americans are so fed up with the Vietnam "war" and the noisy minority's cacophony which has been counted and counted, till now the great silent majority are getting busy with petitions to the President.

The press, radio and TV here have given considerable publicity to two petitions that are now circulating for signatures of the great mass of silent objectors. Soon they will be forwarded to President Nixon. The power of this thrust may aid him in getting the Hanoi business off our backs. We fervently hope and pray that it will.

House, labeled "Tell it to Hanoi!"

"Dear Mr. President: We, the undersigned, as members of the silent majority, feel that it is time to make ourselves heard. We want you to know that you have our support in your efforts to bring the war in Vietnam to an honorable close, and to win a lasting and a meaningful peace. Otherwise the efforts and expense - in lives and money - or the last four years will have been in vain. We feel that there is no honor in surrender. God bless America and you."

You have read, heard and seen how the nation turned out on Tuesday to honor all veterans. In Washington Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., told a cheering throng "The silent majority now has become very vocal indeed... We would rather die as free men than live as slaves".

In Alpine the move is being promoted by Mrs. Barbara Jones, with headquarters in Bailey's Cafe where petitions may be signed. She is aided by Mrs. Jean Cullum of the Harbison Canyon Store. Petitions are awaiting your signature also at: Alpine Beauty Salon, Hinkle Lumber, Florence's Market, Ratliff Liquor, Alpine Printing, Brown Realty, Alpine Hardware, Security Bank, Alpine Realty, Alpine Auto Parts and the Free Methodist Church, Grossmont, and, of course, the Alpine Sun, whose editor is a Navy veteran of WW1.

We believe that if this movement is backed up with profound prayers, we will achieve peace. -CI

SCHOOL TRUSTEE IS HOSPITALIZED

Rusty Johnston, school board member from Harbison Canyon, has been in EC Valley Hospital for two weeks. He has had no feeling in one leg since he fell off a heavy duty tractor October 27th and landed on a curb. An exploratory operation is planned to find out why he hasn't improved.

Mrs. Johnston says he would appreciate cards sent to the hospital.

DEADMAN'S CURVE IS NOW DEAD

New detour on I-8 has diverted traffic from the once killing curve which rounded remains of mountain at right. Detour goes through where solid rock and earth have been removed to make fill on east side.

As freeway is extended only slight curve will be needed to put traffic through, over big Sweetwater bridge and to Japatul offramps. That will be present end of the fine 4-lane route till more funds are budgeted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McCann of Lomita spent the weekend with their daughter Glo Newton and family, drove down, enjoyed the nice cool weather.

SCHOOL BUS CASE COMES UP TODAY

Alpine's school board and Supt. W. Edward Browning were due in Judge Hugo Fisher's Superior Court today at 2 to have a trial court assigned in the case of Aztec Bus Line vs the board in the contract award to Patchett's Bus Co. (See details in Sun for Oct. 17.)

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Knight, who left Monday for a stay with her mother in Cardiff, Wales. The newlyweds came back from a brief honeymoon to see the parents off. They drove to the LA area, saw Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and other attractions.

Timothy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Page. He is a splicer with Pacific Telephone in Spring Valley. Elizabeth is employed by Mrs. Eva McGuffie in her Alpine Beauty Salon. See photos next page.

Glo Newton started her stitchery class last Thursday, says "there are still several openings to those interested." She plans on starting another class if enough sign up at Alpine Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria Drive.

Some folks say the only way to stop the noise in the car is to let her drive.

Alpine Village Apts., is planning on its first big annual Christmas party in the recreation hall atop the hill, reports Mrs. Odessa Cracola, who is manager with her husband Dwane.

Here is Blackie and Allie Vigneault, long time residents of Alpine, having moved to Sleepy Hollow in 1952 when they chose Alpine as their home, now reside in a spacious trailer in Alpine Oaks Mobile Estates that they have occupied for 4 years.

Blackie was serving pancakes at one of the many breakfasts the park has for residents while Allie took it easy by the pool, when these pictures were snapped by the Sun editor.

Mrs. Vigneault is well know throughout San Diego County for her beautiful doll collection, has also been the main source of news for Alpine Oaks doings for the Sun. She or Blackie calls in the interesting events and work hard on many of the committes.

They are both solid citizens and Alpine can be proud to have them as residents.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Alice Villa had some sad news to report last week. Her faithful old black horse Lady got an obstruction in her intestines and several vets couldn't save her. She had Dr. Immenschuh come out Wednesday and put her to sleep. It is hard to take this way out, but an operation on an old horse probably would have proved fatal, plus the huge expense, so guess it is better this way.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the trail ride and breakfast Pine Valley Club is sponsoring Nov. 16, if you care to go. Yula Harris of Alpine Western Wear has them or Carl's Boot and Leather in EC. We hope to go up for the breakfast and get acquainted. Tickets are $1.25. We haven't a trailer so don't have a way to take the horses up; otherwise would go.

Dick Brotherton still has a nice strawberry roan for sale for only $135. He says it is a good kid's horse and very gentle, so if interested, call him at 445-4324. His sister is looking for a good saddle for her daughter that is reasonable, get in touch with Dick if you have one that you want to sell.

Sharron, daughter of Dick and Marilyn Brocius, celebrated her 10th birthday Saturday with a nice party and all went riding down at Armour's Bright Valley Stables. She hopes to get a horse of her own soon.

Terry Wooldridge is just about the luckiest rider around Alpine as she has been taking in all the local shows riding Val, the beautiful black quarter horse owned by Bob and Shirley Hale. Last Saturday they showed at the Tumbleweed Ring and so did Hale's son Monty. He rode Nacoma, his pretty Palomino. Next year they are registering Terry and the horse for points, so we can watch her climb the ladder of success, as she has done fantastic with Val in just the few months she has been showing him for the Hales.

Beverly Denny of Midway Drive has a beautiful 6-months old buckskin stud for sale. She has raised him from a foal, having had his parents and their parents. She was former owner of the Circle 7 Ranch in San Ysidor, moved to the Harold Wooldridge home and one acre where she now keeps 4 horses, owns others. Call 445-4892 if interested in the little colt.

YOU CAN REGISTER TODAY

If you have recently moved to Alpine, changed your address or turned 21, then you must reregister in order to vote. All day today, Nov. 14th, a registrar of voters will be at the Youth Center to register any and all from 7 to 9 pm.

Claude Bailey, a representative of New York Life, has started his advertising campaign this week in the Sun. His company specializes in life insurance plans for group, business, hospitalization and health, annuity and pension plans only. He is the son of Carmen and Jack Hoistad.

He was brought to Alpine as a young lad to improve an asthmatic condition and his parents bought the property which included the home, Bailey's Cafe and service station. Claude and his brother Paul were Cub Scouts, finally Claude ended up as Asst. Scoutmaster. He has a degree in accounting, worked in this capacity specializing in income tax until he joined NYLIC in March, 1968.

Bailey qualified last year, because of production volume, to go to the Star Club Convention of his company, enjoyed a week in Sun Valley, Idaho.

TO BEAUTIFY COMMUNITY

Next week, Nov. 16-23, has been designated as "Plant a Tree Week", by the new Alpine Historical Society. "Let's make our town one of the most beautiful along Interstate 8" says Pres. Richard Zuelke.

Various trees may be had from Pine Acres Nursery where Carl Rose and his wife have been in business for many years, 1267 Arnold, or from Alan House, Coyote Lane & W. Victoria. Special price, only $1.

"Everyone is urged to plant at least one and let us make Alpine a green tree area to become once again the lush Alpine of the early days", adds Zuelke.

The Society plans to purchase several to plant in strategic places to help carry out the beautification through tree planting week.

Suggested varieties for this area are Monterey pines, pepper, Arizona cypress, Chinese elm, pecan and many others. Your nursery man will be helpful in selections.

We know one gal who is very disappointed: "He not only lied to me about the size of his yacht," she told us, "but he made me do all the rowing."

Here is a closeup airshot of Vista Alpine Mobile Home Estates, by Editor Irvine when he flew over recently with Al Smith who has the realty office here. It looks west.

Today this beautiful park has 51 residents in new, modern homes and several reservations will be arriving this week, report Wm. & Melanie Murrell, managers.

CROWDING EYED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Class size, total enrollment and steady growth was reviewed by Supt. W. Edward Browning at Monday's board meeting. The increase in students is gradual but relentless.

"There are now more than 770 in our district" he says. There were about 650 at this time last year. Keeping the combination grades to a minimum and the individual class size within the limits set by the state is a continuous challenge".

Browning was pleased to report that the citizen's committee, established at the last meeting, had met one time and results of the discussion were fruitful. It was generally agreed that the problem of overcrowding should be studied with long range goals in mind and that professional help might be sought. This committee, of volunteer representatives of the community, will meet again next Monday, Nov. 17, to elect a chairman, set up a basic structure and begin work.

St. Peter was taking a new arrival on tour of heaven.

"What," asked the stranger, is that building with the bars on the windows?

"That's the jail," "We keep all the Texans there. The fools all want to go home."

Above, in west section, families with children are accepted, there being quite a little colony already. "We are getting some wonderful people here" says Murrell, "and the park has made a record with so many in such a short time since opening.

A small boy was standing near the escalator watching the moving hand-rail. "Something wrong?" asked the manager.

"Nope," said the lad, "just waiting for my bubble gum to come back."

ARMISTICE DAY WAS 51 YEARS AGO

Alpine has many veterans who well remember Nov. 11, 1918 when the WW1 Armistice was signed, 51 years ago on Tuesday. Although it is now called Veterans' Day, to memorialize all Americans who died in its wars, older servicemen will always remember it as Armistice Day.

Bert Fuller, Cdr. USN ret., who aids veterans of all organizations as service officer, says he tried to get in, but he was too young, and on that memorable Nov. 11, he was only 15, back home in Indiana. He did get in when he was 17, spent his lifetime in the Navy.

Maj. James Snow, USMC, ret., of Alpine Village Apts., remembers it well for "I was in Honolulu meeting the wahinis", he jokes. He was a famous marksman, heaping many laurels on the Corps and himself.

"Sure I remember, aboard the USS Cheyenne in Galveston, Tex.", says Editor Irvine, chief yeoman who was Captain's writer.

ALPINE TV MOVES WESTWARD

Howard Range and his charming wife Rose Marie, who own and operate Alpine TV, have moved from their original shop in the Landt Bldg., to 2351 Alpine Blvd., vacated by CID Propane Co., which moved down to 1911 Alpine Blvd.

"We just needed more room" says Howard, "and now we have the front showroom and the service shop in the rear, which is a great improvement".

Helping Howard are Roy Yoder, of EC, an expert technician; Wayne Anderson, 17, an electronics worker who handles service calls. He lives in the Highlands, is an El Cap senior. Also aiding them is young Jeff Woodall who is proficient in servicing TV's and radios.

Alpine needs a carwash.

STRAUCH ROLLS PICKUP

Alpine has one very lucky resident who might have lost his life last Thursday night when he nearly totalled his pickup. His seatbelt saved him from ejection.

He was going south on Foss Road, around 2 a.m., in the rain, failed to make a curve, slid over the bank, rolled four times over boulders, came to a stop about 200' down a steep bank. The pipe racks on top helped lessen the shock of the roll.

This photo is not as spectacular as seeing the truck being hauled out laboriously and slowly by Buster's Garage. Carl suffered no broken bones, just lumps, cuts and bruises, and shock, from which he is about recovered, is back at his business, Carl's Readymix.

Here's one accident where "the other fellow" was not to blame, or was it Jupiter Pluvius?

AMIGOS INITIATE NEWCOMERS

Last Wednesday officers of Apine 4H initiated new members in an impressive candlelight ceremony in Fuller Hall. This is their regular community meeting and Martha Schwenck, one of the adults in charge, handed out awards to all who earned them.

Even back in the stone age, when women wrote their ages down, they were chiseling.

Joe: "What would you say to a girl who's so nervous she jumps into the nearest man's arms if she's frightened?"
Moe: "I'd say 'Boo!'"

Looking east on upper, east lanes bridge of freeway, workmen are busy decking 2-lane section soon to be paved.

At left may be seen the west-bound lanes, also nearing time of concrete surfacing by Morrison-Knudsen firm.

Robt. Winterbourne, resident hwy engineer says everything is going fine and on schedule. From big cut ahead, 1½ million yards of rock and earth are being trucked this way to make fills. Alpiners who seldom drive east of the Willows do not realize the magnitude, or speed of this big job.

Dwane Cracola, manager with his wife of Alpine Village Apts., is back by jet from Seattle where he visited his folks. He was gone for five days, had a fine trip.

DONNA DRAYER HONORED

A delightful bridal shower was given by Pat Griep, sister of Donna's fiance, Danny Spurlock, in her apartment on Wintergardens in Lakeside last week. She received many useful and beautiful gifts for her new home, 666 W. Victoria Drive, Alpine.

Mabel: "Sorry, but I don't go out with perfect strangers."

Bob: "That's fine, Baby, cause I'm not perfect."

HISTORICAL GROUP MEETS TONIGHT

Paperwork will be put aside for a few hours next week when the Alpine Historical and Conservation Society quits digging into the past and concentrates on the future, -- planting a few trees on the bank between the Alpine School and the Fire Station to aid the landscaping project underway there and to contribute its part in "Plant A Tree Week", November 16-22.

Urging other residents in the area to join in the planting program the society also asks all "oldtimers" who have pictures of events, personages, and buildings which were an integral part of Alpine's past and which can be donated or reproduced for the society's archives to bring them to the "kickoff" meeting at 8 tonight at the Woman's Club.

Nucleus of the society's picture library will be prints shown from the files of the Title Insurance & Trust Co., of SD, and furnished by E.C. Bertin. The program is open to the public and all new residents interested in learning of Alpine's past are urged to attend, as well as those "benefactors" who wish to contribute their knowledge of local history to aid the society's records.

DON'S BARBERSHOP TO NEW LOCATION

Monday saw Don Roccoforte in his new building adjoining Al Smith Realty, at 2530 Alpine Blvd. He moved eastward from 2253, adjoining Alpine Printing Co. Hours are 8:30 to 6:30 Monday thru Friday, Saturdays from 8 a.m. Phone is the same, 445-4103.

Don's wife, Cottie, works as inspector of dental capsules at Koberly, Inc., in L.M. Their son Dominic, is three in February, is taken care of by a babysitter. They make their home in a nice trailer at Flinn Springs Mobilhome Park on Old Hwy 80.

Did you hear about the young lady who was craving one of those foreign sport cars. . one with the foreign sport still in it.

EVOLUTION OF A HIGHWAY

Here is the remnant of the small mountain that made Deadman's Curve so dangerous on Hwy 80, soon to become I-8. It now detours at right-- not visible through the cut in the mountain.

This is a history of travel from the old days when settlers went by horseback, buggy and wagon, and a stagecoach traversed the steep, narrow road, at far left. Next came, barely visible above, the wider, less steep auto road, and above, old Hwy 80.

At top of remaining mount are drillers at work for the Morrison-Knudsen firm which has about a year to go before the new freeway is opened. Note haziness of distant mountains, due to smog from SD. In foreground is the rising grade, made from the mountain. All has to be watered by the Errica firm, then tamped, before it passes state inspection.

TO OFFER BALLET LESSONS

Classes in the creative use of classical ballet techniques will be offered locally for boys and girls of all ages. Registration and the first class will be Sat. Nov. 15 at 12:30 at the Woman's Club. It will be $10 for 10 weeks.

This unique opportunity is being sponsored by the Youth Center and will be taught by Denise Willits and Susan Sweetland. For more information call 445-3695 or 4769.

DONNA DRAYER TO MARRY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Laske of W. Victoria Drive, announce the coming wedding of their daughter, Donna Drayer, 18, to Danny Spurlock, 21, also of Victoria Drive.

The wedding will take place Nov. 22 in the Linda Vista Lutheran Church at 11 A. M.

Linda is a senior while Danny is attending Mesa College. The young couple plan on making their home in Alpine after a week's honeymoon in the Cuyamacas.

A reception will follow the wedding in the Victoria Drive home of Mrs. Helen McGee, mother of Danny.

Wife: I was a fool when I married you.

Husband: I guess you were, but I was so infatuated that I didn't notice it either.

SEWER STILL EXPLOSIVE TOPIC

Here is the first blast for the sewer plant, corner Tavern & Alpine Blvd. It was published in 1955.

Today the sanitation problem here is still explosive, for there are two plans with adherents to both ways of handling the solution.

One is annexation to Lakeside, for which amounts of

$560,000 failed

Nov. 4, of which $80,000 was to be paid to Lakeside for connecting. Presently the election is being contested and supervisors have ordered an investigation.

The other plan is a new, costlier, but said to be efficient, by going down gravity to Dehesa, then to Otay where reclaimed water would be bought for farming.

Only a few thousands can be salvaged from the present plant, which cost Alpine $120,000, on which is still owed $45,000. The land is worth full cash value of around $25,000, according to an informal appraisal.

One thing is not to be exploded and that is the water board's edict that Alpine must stop running effluent into Alpine Creek which empties into El Cap Reservoir.

Ron Niccum, new owner of Shell station here is busy in a dealer course of Shell in LM for the next 4 weeks. He is now doing night lubes for customers. "Yes, I see the sunrise and sunset here every day", says Ron, as hours are from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m.

FIRE DAMAGES BATES' HOUSE

It took Chief Dale Bennett and volunteers three hours to get to a smoldering fire on the floor of a house at 2442 Alpine Blvd., occupied by Peggy Strickland. It is owned by Realtor Don Bates.

Mrs. Strickland had smelled smoke for some time, called the station at 12:04 a. m. Sunday. Due to a crack in the concrete of the fireplace which she had been using, the floor under it started smoldering.

"Damage was around $400. but had they let it go and it had ignited", reports Bennett, "the whole house could have been destroyed".
