ZONING MAKES BETTER COMMUNITY

Dr. Anthony Corso was guest speaker at the last session of the Victoria Civic group in the Woman's Club, pointing out how zoning everywhere has upgraded communities in many ways.

MANY VISITORS HONOR PAINTER

At Sunday's reception for Justin Gurelle of Lilac Lane, nationally known artist and portrait painter, in the Alpine Art Chalet, 1321 W. Victoria, scores of new and old friends greeted the talented artist, many arriving an hour before festivities started.

TRIO BUYS CHOICE 28½ ACRES

A slightly parcel on the north side of Monterey Place, at the Tavern Road westbound offramp, opposite the new Richfield Station, has just closed escrow. The 28½ acres were bought as an investment by Harold Lutz and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dyke, of Alpine.

Sellers were George Millener and sister-in-law Frances Millener of Big Bear. He is with the state highway department there, was former Alpiners.

Presently Lutz and Dyke are brushing the 1325 foot frontage property, have undisclosed plans for the choice view piece. Sale was by Neda Hill Realt

SCHOOL BOARD SEEKS FUNDS

A $425,000 bond issue will be asked from voters in the school district with a loan of $385,000 from the state, as approved Monday night by trustees. Election will be with the state primary on June 2.

Taxpayers will also be asked to extend the district's present maximum tax rate of $1.98 for an indefinite period, reports Supt. W. Edward Browning. He added that funds for which authorization has been asked, when added to $700,000 in state loan funds for which this district is also eligible, would take care of building needs for the next four years.

Present enrollment of 800 may be expected to his 900 by next year, and 1300 four years later, was told in a survey by a US International University team. Schools were designed for only 720.

Browning added that passage of all the proposals would not cause an increase in the tax rate now.

PRESENT SCHOOL PROBLEMS FEB. 23

A meeting is slated for 8 p. m., Feb. 23, in the school auditorium when an expert view of the district's problems will be offered residents by the team of consultants from US International University, which the district retained to make a study for the Alpine Schools Citizens' Committee, says Chairman Malcolm Pappin.

Mobilhomes and new housing developments, says Supt. W. Edward Browning, pose serious problems to the schools, now overcrowded and lacking in room for expansion.

Nutritionists advise not peeling carrots, potatoes, apples where the vitamins and minerals lie under the skin. Use a brass wool cleaning sponge to remove dirt and a very thin layer of skin.

NORRIS SPEAKS TO ASTRONOMERS

The SD Astronomy Assn., says its prexy, Bill Lucas, is presenting Alpine's Arthur Norris in an illustrated talk "The Starry Universe", in Aerospace Museum, Balboa Park, one week from tonight, Feb. 20, at 7:30. The public is invited.

Norris, a dedicated student and accomplished astrologer, made the color slides which he will use. He has spoken much on travel which he illustrates with beautiful color slides.

PINGLETONS TO SCOTLAND DUTY
E.G. "Jack" Pingleton, SK2, USN, his wife Frances, daughter Denise, son Ernest, and Marguerite Ruis, foster daughter, are leaving for Thursto, in N. Scotland, where he will be on duty at the radio station for two years. He has four years to go for his 20-year retirement.

Pingleton rented his home on Willows Road to Adelaide LaChappa till the family returns to make their permanent home here. He visited the Sun to subscribe as "we couldn't do without that little paper which will keep us up on what's going on in our home town". He also placed a classified ad to sell his Monza, a good buy, he says.

MAY ABANDON OLD VICTORIA DR.
Supervisors have set Monday, Feb. 2, at 2 p. m. in the south chamber of the board, room 358, at city hall, 1600 Pacific Hwy., for a hearing to vacate and abandon East Victoria Dr., that curves up from Alpine Blvd., to the freeway fence.

Only two properties are involved, Gene Knox of the planning office told the Sun: Florian and Stella Brzezinski, of Lakeside, and Joellen Svensson, of Alpine. Both owners are in favor. The abandoned land would revert to the two parcels from which it was originally taken for the road.

Supt. Ed Browning says the school and houses nearby were without power for over half an hour last Friday week. The outage was due to a branch falling across high-tension wires, but the SDG & E crew soon were on the job.

ALPINE BOY OUTSTANDING ATHLETE
Because of his distinction in soccer at SD State, Charles R. DeLong has been recommended by the college to be given recognition in the 1970 edition, "Outstanding College Athletes of America."

This honor was made on the basis of his accomplishments which include most valuable player award for SD State soccer team in 1968; captain of his team for '68 and '69; leading scorer for his school in '68; named to the SC Collegiate Soccer All-Star team two years straight, in '68 and again in '69.

DeLong has entered the stiff competition to be a member of the US Olympic soccer team. He will go to SF late in February for the next contest. If he makes this, will take the next step toward his Olympic goal.

HORSE TALK

By The Double C's

Our trip last weekend to Yuma was simply fabulous with gorgeous weather and the biggest parade and rodeo Yuma has ever seen. We left Friday afternoon as we had to be at the banquet by 6 so left the horses for Dusty Deniston to pick up and bring over that evening. The dinner was well attended and we met Governor Jack Williams and his wife, movie star Peter Brown and all of the officials of the rodeo.

The next morning we got up early, dressed and went over to the fairgrounds. We groomed our horses and Dusty trailered them to the starting point where we saddled up. Peter Brown, who was grand marshal of the parade came over and talked to us for an hour before things finally got going. He is a TV and movie actor, has his own recording studio, so invited us up to audition for his company. He was so nice, and really good looking.

Because this was the Jaycees' 25th anniversary, over 272 entries in the parade came from all over the western part of the US to enter, was the biggest parade Arizona has ever had and we were thrilled to be a part of it. Alpine Chamber of Commerce sponsored Cecile as Miss Alpine and Mama and Janice Douthit went along for the fun of it.

Here is a night shot taken of my little 8 months old quarter horse filly that I have for sale. Daddy took the picture while we were in Yuma. If anyone is interested in seeing her, call 445-2415.

The 2-day rodeo was outstanding with a record crowd to see it both days. We went Saturday, were happy to be in the Grand Entry and introduced as a matched pair. Was quite a thrill.

Don't forget the horseshow Sunday that the Singing Hills Riding Club is sponsoring at 5413 Dehesa Road. There will be 15 Arabian, half-Arab and open division classes of English, pleasure, hunt seat and jumping. Sounds like a day of fun for all those that go to participate or to see it.

Jerry Brown has been doctoring her Appaloosa filly Zoose who cut her hind leg somehow while frolicking around.

We have been invited to enter the 2nd annual Miss Ramona Pagenat Parade April 18 in Hemet but it is so expensive to get our horses trailered over, doubt if we will go. Was nice of them to invite us anyway.

Here is the newly formed Weight Watcher's class who meet every Thursday, Alpine Woman's Club at 7:30 pm.

Jean Bolton, lecturer, was on hand to explain how easy it is to take off the pounds and keep them off. She invites any and all interested to come and join.

Through the courtesy of Col. Owen Clarke & Maj. Ralph Lloyd of the Aerospace Museum in SD, visitors were treated to a rare honor, a large portrait of Maj. Rubin Fleet that Gruelle painted for the American Inst. of Aeronautical & Astronautical Sciences, loaned to the art association. He flew the first US airmail from Washington to NY. It will be displayed at the chalet through Feb. 28. Then it may be seen in the Aerospace Museum, Balboa Park. Photo shows the Gruelles standing by the beautiful painting.

Among noted visitors were Floyd Chandler, curator of the SD Art Institute; Pauline Duval Rey, and Lt. Col. & Mrs. Caryl Picotte.

The kindly Alpine painter came from a family of artists. He was born in Indianapolis in 1889. His father, Richard, was one of five noted artists, the Hoosier Group. Justin says painting just came natural; he can't remember when he started. His late brother, Johnny, was world famous for his Raggedy Ann dolls and books, popular today.

After study in his hometown, he went on to the Art Students' League in NY at age 16. For years he did commercial art for books and magazines, RKO Pictures (United Artists), helping make famous Chaplin, Pickford, Fiarbanks, Hart and others.

During WW2 Gruelle did murals for many art projects, later doing four for Liquidometer Corp of NY. His Early Bird, an aviation mural, is at the Smithsonian Institution to be in the new Aerospace Museum. He executed one for US Steel, Metropolitan Life and IBM for the World's Fair, Chicago, 1939-40. The steel firm donated theirs to the Pittsburgh Planetarium.

In 1917 he married Mabel Brown, an Indianapolis contralto of some note, then moved to Norwalk, Conn., until they came to California in 1956, living in a studio cottage on Lilac Lane, later selling it and moving across the street.

In the Ontario Air Museum, Calif., are two lovely panels he did for the American Institute of A & A Sciences. If you do not get to visit the art chalet this month, you may see some of his fine work, the stations of the cross, locally at Queen of Angels Catholic Church, W. Victoria Dr.

BETTER LUCK NEXT TIME

Alpine did not score in the selection of a new campus site for Grossmont College as the committee seems to have hit on the Monte Vista Ranch, nearer to the main college. But Alpine may have a high school one of these days to serve this growing community and environs.

A second local site has been offered, the old Alpine Springs Ranch, of 272 acres on Alpine Blvd. near E. Victoria, owned by Roy Canady of Seattle, prominent land developer who summers in Del Mar. This property was formerly owned by the late Elmer Otto. It was offered at $1500 an acre, the other land at $3600.

The committee, seeing growth expanding eastward, consider it ideal for an eventual third campus. Oldtimers will remember it as the Jack Sheedy place. Early Catholic services were in a chapel fixed up by Sheedy. (See Sun for Jan. 16.)

LIVELY OAKS DOINGS

Because of the death of her brother, President Grace Palmer, who was unable to attend, turned the meeting over to First Vice-President Gladys Pinkerton, who presided over the monthly potluck luncheon. A nice turnout of 42 members came and Florence Sylvester of Reno was the guest of the day. She is staying here for the winter, enjoys the club meetings.

Bert Cassidy, chairman of new members, urges all senior citizens to come and get acquainted.

The club welcomed former Alpiners Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harris, who are living in Fallbrook.

There is no wholly satisfactory substitute for brains, but silence does pretty well.

ANTICS OF THE ARTISTS

By Mary Ann Williams

The Alpine Area Art Assn. meeting was on Feb. 4 at the Art Chalet. Pres. John Titus was missing due to the flu bug. Vice-president Glo Newton presided, gave the treasurer's report who was absent. Sabin Gray and wife and former Pres. Reed Durham and wife were on a trip to the desert and Mexico, so as program director, she conducted a college session.

Betty Kuhpaldt reported on local showings, advised that Alpine Beauty Salon is anxious to have paintings displayed.

John and Simone Titus were nominated as artists of the month for March.

The AAAA was invited to participate in Viejas Days at the YC and the Flea Mart in May. No action was taken pending further discussion.

After a coffee break all proceeded to do his or her own thing. So many interesting collages were produced that the first ballot ended in a 5-way tie: Bernice Gibbs, Betty Van Dusen, Donaldalda Shepherdson, Fern Addison and Katherine Chene. She was named No. 1, received a gift certificate from the chalet.

HISTORY GROUP MEETS TONIGHT

At 8 this evening in the Woman's Club, those interested in the history of Alpine may learn much and see a lot, for Pres. Richard Zuelke says they will have a display of Indian artifacts.

Florence Shipek, an anthropologist, of the U of SD, will speak, followed by Chief Clarence Brown of Viejas Reservation. The public is invited.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS TO BE AIRED

Alpine schools, which have a design capacity for 720 students, currently house over 800 and, at the present rate of influx, this would mean an enrollment of over 900 next year, according to Supt. W. Edward Browning. He also noted that model homes in the district and the possibility of additional family trailer home units indicates that there could be an increase in growth rate at any time. Browning spoke for the Superintendent's Committee of the Alpine Schools Citizens Committee week.

Dale Bennett, chief of the Alpine Fire Department, questioned the policy of accepting students from outside the district. Bennett, chairman of the Temporary Measures Committee, noted that these 15 students represented about one-half of a class. His committee is considering a recommendation for double sessions as a stop-gap measure, he said.

Mal Pappin, who heads the local citizens group, noted that Alpine is in a critical educational situation. He stated that the schools must place good educational practice in the forefront and that it is not enough to just consider tacking on classrooms here and there. "If it is resource centers, school libraries and a quality program that we need, we must determine that need and make our recommendations to the citizens of Alpine through the Board of Education accordingly," he said. "A helter-skelter policy of random building and remodeling can be unsound educationally and financially", he noted.

Alpine may have to cope not only with a restricted program of education, but an inadequate one. Stop-gap measures can be costly and unsound. The committee feels that two problems cause the present dilemma. One is lack of adequate planning and keeping pace in school construction. The other is a need for more public information regarding the current crisis.

The next meeting of the committee is Feb. 23 at 8 pm in the Alpine Union School. At that meeting, Educational Consultant from USIU, recently hired by the board on recommendation of the ASCC, will discuss their findings to date. The public is invited.

Tuesday the water control board adopted a cease and desist order to Alpine Sanitation District, reports Dennis O'Leary, executive officer. This means that no new sewer connections can be hooked up to the present plant. A new system must be put in "as soon as possible", he says.

In the meantime John Stull is working on legislation to allow a bond election before the required six months passes after the $580,000 bonds failed in October which would have linked Alpine to Lakeside and on through to Metro later on.

HELEN SMITH HOME FROM SURGERY

Saturday her astonishing recovery from the car accident and the loss of one kidney by Mrs. Helen Smith, of Bailey's Cafe, allowed her to return to her home near Jamul, reports her daughter, Beverly Martin.

"She is making nice recovery" she says "but has to stay in bed till the stitches heal. We found out that she also had three cracked ribs".

Mrs. Smith diverted her car when dogs ran in front of her early Thursday three weeks ago.

Most people don't really need to be let into temptation-- they can find their own way.

BAPTIST CHURCH OF WILLOWS NEWS

By Clara Brabazon

We wish to remind everyone in the community of the "Music Convention" being in the church Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 pm. All the churches in the community will participate. There will be special music and group singing. Won't you come and bring your friends and neighbors?

Feb. 15th at 10:45 we will have a Baptismal Service. See Pastor Schacht if you desire to be baptized.

Tuesday evening we have a Woman's Missionary meeting. Instead of having the usual work period, the ladies surprised Dolores Schacht (who is going to be a grandmother shortly) with a baby shower. Dolores will be flying to Illinois to be with her daughter when the baby arrives and the ladies wanted to be sure she'd have all the necessities. Linda Heyser, Elan Bratt and Clara Brabazon were hostesses.

Our monthly family night will be Feb. 20 with Martha Gray, Nola Brabazon and Edwina Brabazon as hostesses for a chicken dinner.

Pastor Schacht and Merton Thomas attended the retreat at University of Redlands Feb. 7 and came back renewed in spirit.

The church has purchased a baby grand piano for the sanctuary. We are grateful for the Lord's leading and providing materials to be used to his glory. We are hoping the piano will be moved and ready to use for the music festival Sunday afternoon.

The SD Baptist Association meeting will be on Feb. 16 at Fairmont Baptist Church beginning at 4 pm. Chester Scott, a lay missionary from the Congo, a building contractor, will be speaker.

Here is part of the first nighter group at the school for Fred Stollenwerk's Grossmont College class in English essentials. On the 7th, they offered Oral Communications with Richard Manzell teaching, and Wednesday night in the Woman's Club Mrs. Elsa Dye taught a class in Contemporary Social Problems.

For details call W.A. Yuhl, 465-1700, Ext. 258.

DOUBLE TALK

By Cecile & Celeste Irvine

Anyone looking for a nice watchdog? Syd Love of San Diego has an Australian Shephard-Samoyed he would like to give to a good country home. He says the dog loves children and will make someone a nice pet. Call 488-0481 collect if interested.

Also Mrs. Yancy of Pt. Loma has a nice female 7 months old pup to give to a good home. This one has had all shots and likes kids. Call 222-6980 if interested.

We had a nice letter from Libby Wake and they all were shocked to learn of Richard Knapp's death. They didn't know anything about it till we wrote the news. It is really hard to realize.

She sent Mama a subscription to the Sun so they can keep up with what's going on here. Linda and her husband had a baby boy and named him Russell. They all say they miss Alpine and we bet they do as they were here many years.

If you are interested in the all-breed dogshow Feb. 22 sponsored by Silver Bay Kennel Club, getter get tickets early as it is always well attended. This year they are holding it at Del Mar Fairgrounds, 8 am to 7 pm in Bing Crosby Hall. We usually attend and always enjoy it.

Mrs. R.E. Carlson of Alpine read about the free German shepherd in our column and after seeing him, took the dog home. They were happy to get such a nice one.

Kevin Manion, he is publicity chairman for 4H Amigos, is down with the flu. He and his family just got over chickenpox and now they are all in bed again.

Sherri Jones took her pony for a ride and accidentally got into some poison ivy. It is all over her so Monday her mother took her to the doctor for treatment and shots.

We were lucky to get all the classes we wanted at Grossmont College as there are so many more students this semester. The school is just bursting at the seams. Sure hope they hurry and build another extension to accommodate the incoming freshman in Sept.

Saturday night there is a Valentine Dance at Stallion Oaks with a live band. Sounds like it might be fun.

POUR SPILLWAY FOR NEW LAKE

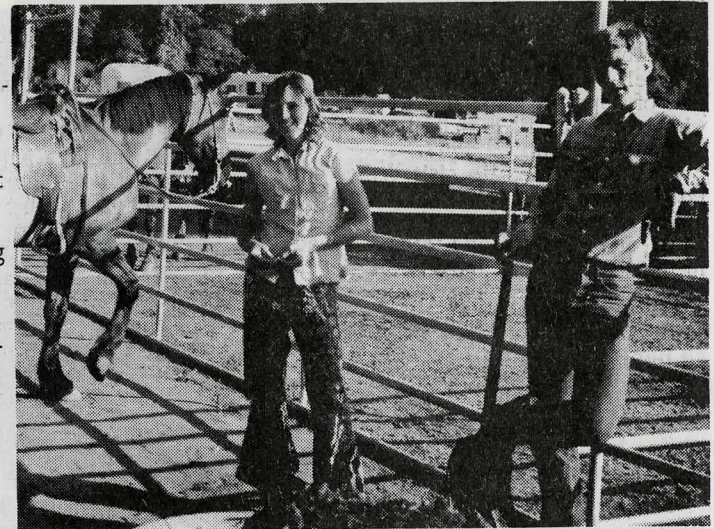

Down at Sleepy Hollow there is no snoozing for they are real busy getting the ranch ready for a Mar. 31 opening with the big show ring, training rings, trailer and camp grounds, barbecues and so on. Tuesday Dick DeMatteis, the trainer, associated with the Shilts brothers, said they were pouring the concrete overflow for the lake just excavated. (See photo in last issue).

STALLION OAKS DOES HAVE 'EM

Many think the name of Ed Torger's busy resort Stallion Oaks Ranch with its Old West Motel, is just a name, but they really do have horses, good riding ones, too.

Every weekend many come from all over the Southland to ride, hike and enjoy a lot of good recreation in the beautiful hills above Descanso.

Here are two young people, Yvonne Isaacs from Santee, and Dick Dufer, of Descanso, by one of the corrals.

McMAKIN OFF CRITICAL LIST

Responding well to treatment in Grossmont Hospital is John McMakin, 17, of 2436 Alpine Blvd., who suffered head injuries when he drove his car over rocks late Wednesday last week as he was returning home from a friend's house. He lay unconscious all night, was found next morning by a brother, Jim, and his brother-in-law, Ken Adams. Tuesday his mother, Margaret, said her son John, who attends El Cap, is in fair condition. She is chief telephone operator at the hospital. Fire Chief Bennett was called, gave first aid, then an ambulance took the unconscious lad to the hospital.

Arthur Godfrey on his CBS radio program the other day said something interesting about dogs: most popular is the poodle, then German shepherd, dachshund, beagle and chihuahua!

ALPINE FINDS COLLECTOR'S ITEM

Through an ad in Larned, Kansas, Wendell E. Smith was able to locate a pair of hoppers (Anti-Cow Kickers used when milking) his grandfather had made and patented July 2, 1907.

Smith and his wife visited the town last summer, wanted to obtain a set for his collection. He knew them only as "anti-cow kickers" and through an ad in the local paper, and friends, finally located a genuine pair.

The story of his trip, his many adventures, and finally victory is told in an interesting story in the February issue of "Relics, A Link to our pioneer Heritage" magazine.

Note- Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Long of Alpine loaned us their copy and we thought the story interesting enough to call Alpine's attention to it.

WEIGHT WATCHERS STARTS HERE

Because of the many request Weight Watchers International received from this area, they held an introductory class Feb. 5 in the Woman's Club with over 15 enthused Alpiners attending. Classes will be Thursdays at 7 p. m. in the clubhouse with Mrs. Jean Bolton of Lakeside, lecturing, answering questions, giving recipes to delight any palate, and offering encouragement to dieters who have failed in the past.

The program consists of a carefully-planned eating regimen allowing more than enough to eat, enables the overweight person to reach a goal and keep it.

Many testimonials were given at the initial meeting which not only inspired newcomers but gave them an incentive and the drive to improve themselves.

"If she can, I can" was the consensus of all who signed for the weekly sessions.

Mrs. Bolton says "you can start the program anytime, so come and see us."

BROTHER NEWSMEN ARE HONORED

The Calif. Newspaper Publishers Assn., has named the Daily Californian of EC for three awards in the 1969 competition. It won for best sports coverage, typography and general excellence. In L.A. Ed Beeler, managing editor, accepted on behalf of Richard A. Barker, editor and publisher. This brings to 13 the number of merits the paper has accrued in the last five years.

(The Californian subscribes to the Sun and it takes the Californian!)

Jones, about to drive off the 18th tee: "I'd sure love to make this a good long drive. That's my mother-in-law over there."

Smith: "Don't be silly, boy. You'll never hit her from here."

Here's Louis Landt in fighting stance which he will take on taxes, being last week appointed at the chamber meeting to head up a taxpayers' unit.

He believes in lowered property taxes, levying the load on sales and use taxes. He sees one way as slowing down so many new taxes. Landt heads up the Mt. Empire chapter of CRA, has worked long and hard for burdened taxpayers hereabouts.

Father looked hard at his wife and then his son. "That boy has taken money from my pocket!"

"Ernest," said the mother, "how can you say that? Why, I might have done it."

Father shook his head. "No, you didn't; there was some left."

CRA OPPOSING ELECTION CHANGE

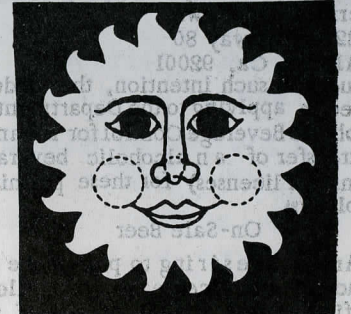

The simmering sanitation problem here has evoked a bombshell resolution from the Mt. Empire Calif. Republican Assn. passed unanimously on Feb. 2, recommending supervisors and state legislators to NOT take the step "toward an unAmerican and undemocratic process by overruling the voice of the people by the ballot box in the matter of introducing legislation that would rescind or reduce the six month waiting period between an unsuccessful election in a service district and the calling of a second election."

The resolution further asked, if such legislation passed, that cost be stood personally by supervisors, rather than taxpayers.

It was signed by Louis Landt, resolution chairman.

Betty B. Brookes of Alpine, a SD State senior, has been approved by the college faculty as candidate for graduation with a bachelor's or master's degree, says Pres. Malcolm A. Love. Some 1320 seniors and 176 master's degree candidates will be honored.

NO HOUSE NUMBER DELAYS HELP

Monday last week at 3:30 lack of a house number on South Grade Road, delayed Fire Chief Bennett and a rescuator which had been called for by Mrs. Robert Taylor to give aid to her brother-in-law, L. Eblen, 75, visiting them from N. Carolina. He fell, broke a hip, was in a dangerous condition.

Due to the report of 319 South Grade being given, Bennett could not find the house which delayed them 20 minutes till the location could be checked. Pacific Ambulance also was delayed in taking him to Heartland Hospital. Tuesday Mrs. Taylor said they had secured the correct number, 1263, which is now posted. Eblen leaves for home Sunday. Taylor, 69, is sufferer from emphysema, is bedridden. They have been here four years and the climate has helped him.

Note- Chief Bennett says the county is going to cite those who do not have proper numbers displayed as it is the law. "We will eventually lose a life through fire or accident if this is not remedied", says Bennett. You better get your number up so you can be found in case of emergency. The Sun worked two years to get the county to number houses here to prevent just this happening. -CI
