

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon,
Where there is doubt, faith,
Where there is despair, hope,
Where there is darkness, light,
and where there is sadness, joy,
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;

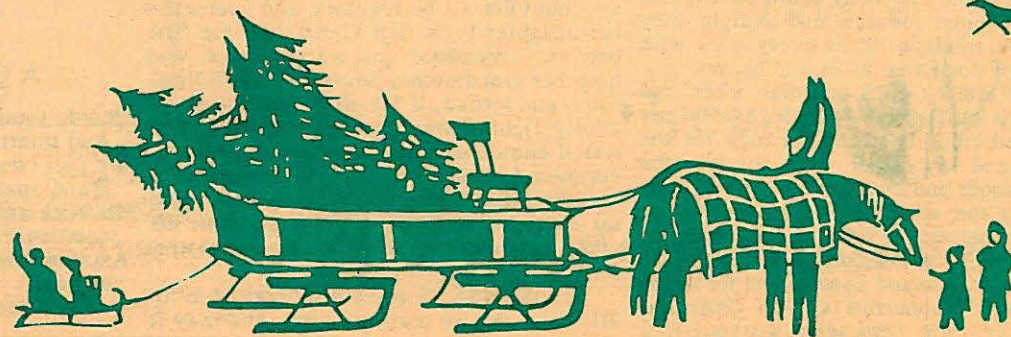

For it is giving that we receive—

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

And it is in dying that we are born
to eternal life.

Prayer for Peace, St. Francis of Assisi

Editorial

An article in a local daily paper by a San Diego pastor, tells us that "an eastern newspaper proclaims in its mast-head 'Give people light and they will find their way.'"

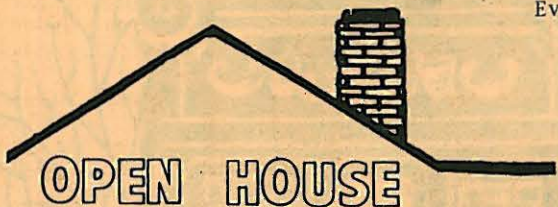

It is the desire of the Town and Country News, here in Alpine, to do just that, in the year to come. Our strong desire is to bring light to every situation that needs light. And we pledge to you, that as long as we publish a newspaper, you may be sure that we will report the truth, to the best of our ability.

We asked our local schools to submit a few Christmas poems for this special Christmas issue. We were not prepared for the avalanche of poems and stories that descended upon us. But we were so very glad to get them, and we did our very best to publish as many of them as we possibly could. It is our hope that you will truly enjoy the work of YOUR children.

OPEN HOUSE

By RUTH FULLER

CHRISTMAS IS THE season for remembering, and I remember more Christmases than I will ever admit. I remember the many Christmas holidays when my sister and my brother and I sat on the curb in front of our house awaiting the arrival of the parcel post wagon, and I remember how we called it the "Christmas Wagon" because it always stopped at our house, to the envy of all our young friends, and how it delivered so many mysterious and wonderful packages marked "Do Not Open Till Christmas" and we never knew the wagon had any other function because it served us so well at Christmas time. The Christmas Wagon never failed us, when we were young, and I have often wondered if the family so far away could ever really know how much pleasure and delight they gave three small children every year with the gifts of dolls and books and games.

I REMEMBER ONE Christmas when the church my father served as minister did not deliver the monthly stipend in time for the holidays and my father went out into the Oregon woods and cut down a lovely little fir, surely the most beautiful tree we had ever seen, and we all sat at the dining room table and made our decorations. We made flowers and chains and candles and we strung popcorn and cranberries and on Christmas morning we were persuaded that our tree was the prettiest we had ever seen. I REMEMBER THE Christmas my sister and I both received dolls and I decided my sister's doll was much prettier than mine. I tried to get her to trade, but she was adamant. And so I took my doll out into the yard and I dug a hole and I buried her. And then during the night, I awoke, repentant, thinking of my poor doll under a foot of damp soil and I called my father and he came out with flashlight and shovel and helped me dig her up again. I took her to bed with me repentantly and my mother could not understand why the sheets were full of sand and gravel. I REMEMBER MY brother's first bicycle and I remember war-time Christmases when we could not all be together, and I remember daughter Pat's first Christmas, the first one she understood and was aware of, and how her grandmother decorated her living-room and spread all the toys under the beautifully lighted tree and how Pat walked in, stared entranced at the beautiful scene, how completely overcome with the wonder of it all, she said, wide-eyed, "Oh-h-h-h," and sat down suddenly in a heap, and how she could not believe that all the treasures were for her. CHRISTMAS IS A very special time for all of us, for so many reasons, and may it always be so.

The Coming of Christmas

The does were softly creeping,
The snow so softly falling,
The stags so fiercely fighting
With Christmas in the air.

The fawns were happily playing,
The trees are happily swaying,
The squirrels so busily chatting,
With Christmas in the air.

The forest was slowly hushing,
The deer all slowly sleeping,
The squirrels want to know
what's happening,
For Christmas is here.

This Christmas tree,
Belongs to me.
With ornaments bright,
It glows at night.

Mary James

Christmas Morning

Christ was born on Christmas day,
So I feel so happy and gay.

Christmas is almost here,
So let's give a little cheer.

I will open my present to see,
Something in it just for me.

Pat Kemo

Christmas

Christmas is a joyful day
People seem to act so gay
I like Christmas Eve
For it's the day the gifts are received.

I hear the sleigh bells ring
I hear the church choir sing
The windows are covered with snow
Girls wear pretty red ribbons.

Children are getting impatient,
For they're getting impatient,
For they're getting tired of waiting
Christmas Eve goes very fast,
Then comes Christmas day at last.

Linda Haddock

Christmas Day

Christmas Day will be a day of fun
It comes and goes like summer,
For Christmas Day will pass on
Even then it is a day of fun.

David Widmer

Our Town

Christmas IS for children, there certainly is no question about that. And we were reminded again of that fact as we watched the very wonderful Christmas pageant put on by our own children here in Alpine and surrounding areas at the Alpine School.

How we were thrilled to hear the beautiful clear and true voice of little Polly Harris as she sang one of the more unusual carols. She stood tall and was poised like a professional! She comes by the talent naturally as she is related to one of the famous Kingston trio members, brother of her mother, Jane Meade. But she was strictly on her own that night, and it took some of us grownups back many many years as we recalled the little lavender dress with the roses that our Mother made for our debut when we were seven — a debut in "Silent Night."

As we were making our way to the program we found ourselves surrounded by "Heavenly hosts," wise men, and the like. Seems that a school program brings out every single one of our some 3,700 population. And that's as it should be.

Once inside the auditorium we marveled at the way the chorus tackled the very difficult "Ceremony of the Carols" by Benjamin Britten. He is, as you know, one of the outstanding contemporary composers and the way those kids waltzed through some of those difficult passages — my!

And the beautiful scenery built by the youngsters themselves. As the nativity scene unfolded, a little girl was heard to say "Where are the sheep?" and later, "I want to see Baby Jesus!" She was all of three. How these young minds do take it in!

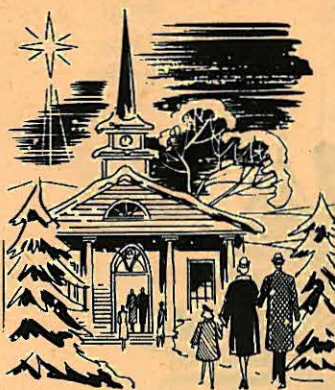

And not only did we have some unusual carols but we enjoyed a bit of the "Messiah" as the girls sang an aria from that famous oratorio. Most of the young people of this day and age have never heard of this great work, let alone the name of Johann Sebastian Bach. But that's what they were singing, Bach and Handel! Makes you stop and think that we have a great deal to be thankful for in our Alpine teachers. They realize the young ones are going to enjoy their "rock and roll" but they are giving them a fine foundation for the future and years from now they'll look back and appreciate what they have learned here in Alpine.

How wonderful it was to sit under the magic spell cast by these youngsters as they told the old story of the first Christmas. And we were able to enjoy it because these are OUR children, these are OUR teachers and this is OUR town.

A Child

People think they're strong
And smart, they say
We can conquer space, we Stand apart; But a child
So weak and white, can conquer sin. That can't be Accomplished day out or day in.

Mark Launt

ST. LOUISE DE MARILLAC

Of great interest to the area is a special High Mass composed by Mrs. Helen LaBrie which will be given Christmas Eve, preceded by a time of carols at about 11:30.

Special Masses will also be conducted at 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. Christmas Day.

The beautiful Nativity scene at the church was donated and erected by Salvatore Arbassio. It is bringing much Christmas joy to the many passers-by this Christmas season.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

"A Christmas Message"

Here it is again. That wonderful time of the year when people are cheerful and full of joy. The time when streets and stores are full of people busily rushing from store to store to find just the right present. Houses, stores and even the streets are shining with Christmas decorations.

But, what makes people so happy? What makes Dec. 25 the wonderful day it is? How did it all start? Almost everyone has heard how the Virgin Mary gave birth to Baby Jesus in the stable at Bethlehem and about the bright star that was followed and the presents given to the infant. This was the first Christmas.

But when Christmas comes around do you think of this story and thank God for all he has done for you? Or do you only think of giving and receiving presents?

Everyone enjoys gifts but it does little good if you do not have Him in your heart. This is the little He asks after He has done so much for us. MERRY CHRISTMAS AND GOD BLESS YOU!

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF THE WILLOWS

Next Sunday will be the final Sunday for Rev. Bray who will be going to Ocean Beach the first part of January. He has chosen as his topics, "Do You Hear What I Hear" for the morning worship and "Departure" for the 7:30 evening worship.

Of interest to the community is the gift of a beautiful portrait of Christ which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Huey as their Christmas gift to the church.

The Christmas program was an outstanding success and was enjoyed by parents and friends of the church.

The first Sunday of the new year, Rev. Sidney Shinall will be the guest minister.

ALPINE COMMUNITY

Last Sunday evening a large congregation witnessed the Christmas pageant beautifully presented under the direction of Beatrice LaForce. A generous offering of white gifts of food was turned over to the welfare committee of the PTA for distribution in Alpine.

On Christmas Eve the Candlelight Carol Service, one of the traditional hours of the Christmas Season will begin at 11 p. m., closing at midnight with the lighting of candles to commemorate the coming of the Christ Child.

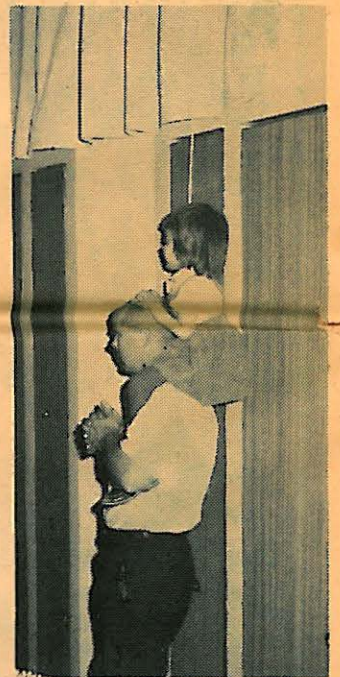

On Sunday, Dec. 26, the service of baptism of children will take place. Parents who may wish their children baptized are asked to communicate with Dr. Larson.

Beginning Sunday, January 2, and each Sunday thereafter, the first morning service will begin at 9:30 a. m. followed by coffee fellowship. The 11 a. m. service will be as usual with coffee hour at noon.

ALPINE LUTHERAN

Sunday School and Bible class are held each Sunday morning at 10:15. Saturday, the 25th, there will be a special Christmas Day Service at the church's temporary meet-place, the Alpine Woman's Club, at 9:00 a. m.

On Sunday, Dec. 26, there will be a special potluck at Grossmont College which will feature the Seminary Octet program.

Christmas is Here

High above in the sky
High, High, High.
You may see the lights,
Shining in the darkened night.
Christmas is here,
You may see the little deer.
Christmas trees are so bright,
Shining with green, yellow and purple lights.
So have a jolly Christmas
And a Happy New Year.

CHRISTMAS, 1965

Dear Friends,

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce invites your help and support.

For your information, our meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month in the Alpine Fire House at 8:00 p. m., and YOU are cordially invited to attend and be a part of this vital organization. Our business memberships are $20.00 per year — residential memberships, $10.00 per year.

Perhaps you ask — what has the Chamber of Commerce ever done for Alpine? We would like to list some of our past achievements which the Chamber of Commerce and its members have sponsored by their help and financial support. These achievements include:

The annual ALPINE VIEJAS DAYS HORSE SHOW held since 1962 with over 1,000 persons in attendance — a two-day affair with entries coming from as far as Arizona and New Mexico.

Sponsorship of prize-winning floats in the Mother Goose Parade and in 1964 the North Park Toyland Parade. This year's float won the Governor's Trophy (now on display in the Security Bank) — another community project with tremendous publicity value for our town.

Through the Chamber of Commerce, various community contests have been sponsored such as our recent Beautification Contest and the Christmas Decoration Contest.

YOUR Chamber of Commerce prints and mails Alpine's interesting brochure — telling the story of Alpine with facts about our 100% perfect climate. This brochure is mailed to inquiries from every part of the world.

Local civic ventures are undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce such as the maintenance of signs — working together with various organizations in Alpine in helping to secure the services of a resident deputy sheriff so needed in our area.

Your membership in the Alpine Chamber of Commerce is actually an investment in the present and future of a growing community.

May we count on YOU for support?

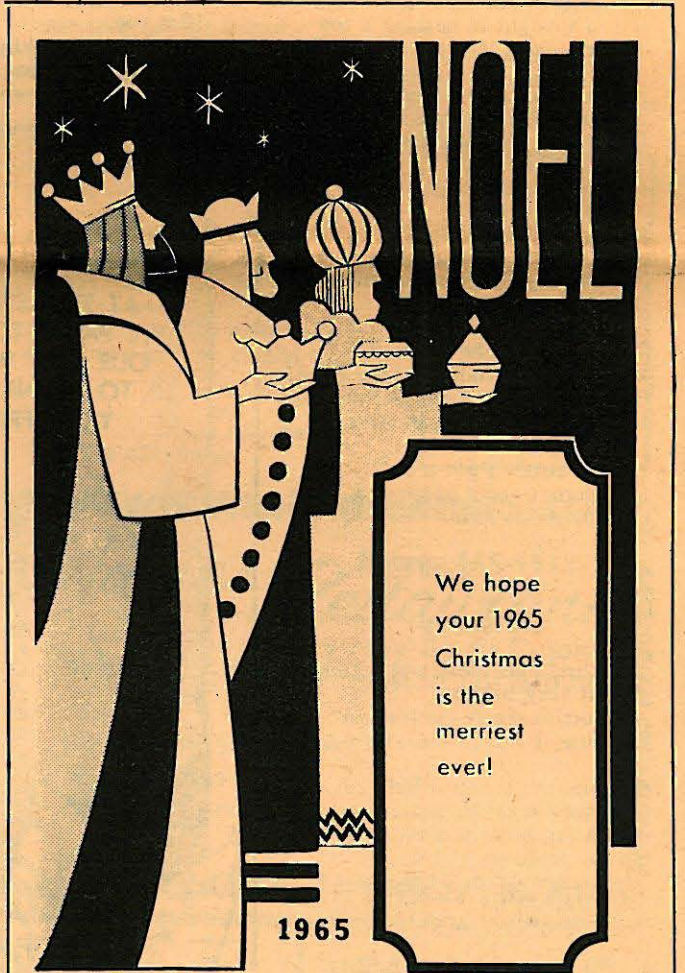

Sincerely,

Fred Rushing

LIBRARY NEWS

ALPINE — Angels don't often come to life but one is visiting the Alpine Library! She is a large, beautiful doll and stands on top of the filing cabinet.

The library is grateful to Mrs. Marie Carlson for loaning this Christmas angel.

An unusual leaflet graces the library mantelpiece — unusual, because it tells the story of the first Christmas in 17 languages: Arabic, Cheyenne, Dutch, English, Eskimo, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, India, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Polish, Russian, Spanish, and Turkish.

Library hours are Tuesday and Thursday, 1 to 5 and Saturday 10 to 2.

Because Christmas and New Year's come on Saturday this year, the library will be closed Dec. 25 and Jan. 1.

Christmas Joy

Christmas joy! Christmas joy!
It is a thought of getting a toy
Tell me isn't it a joy?

A Christmas trio a Christmas tree
O be thankful to thee
For letting the Lord fill your
Christmas
With Christmas trees.

Presents! Presents!
A child with a present
A child who fills his tummy with
The feast of a pheasant.

The dinner! The dinner!
We had a pheasant! A pheasant!
O boy we get to open our presents
We get to open our presents.

I got a doll! I got a doll!
My brother got a horse in a stall
Oh Christmas Joy
I got a toy.

Christmas

On Christmas there was a light
It was very bright.
You could see it everywhere
Because it was in the air.

Underneath it was a babe
And he was under a shade.
When this babe was older he died,
So we could stay alive.

And now we have Christmas,
Because of this man's kindness.
Amelia Bowler

Christmas Child

Child of God let us pray
For he came before us
For he is loved by all
He is even loved by me.
Please let me see and love him
Someday I will see the child
I know he will love me,
Like he always has, and still will
Susan Miller

Christmas

On Christmas day the bells ring
In winter the snow falls on the ground
In the winter the snow flakes fall like a poem.
You come out and find presents
under the tree.
And you find lots of plums,
And gum on the table to eat.

CHRISTMAS TIME

By PEGGY RALSTON

Many years ago there was a woman and a man. Their names were Mary and Joseph. Mary brought forth our ruler, Jesus.

He was born in Bethlehem inside a stable. Mary wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger.

Three kings came to see Jesus. They brought gifts. Three wise men came to see Him too.

Because the kings gave Jesus gifts, we receive them, too.

Alpine Oaks Ladies' Christmas luncheon was held on Wednesday, Dec. 15th, with 84 ladies in attendance. The tables were beautiful with cut glass bowls filled with tree ornaments and red candles as centerpieces. This writer was chairman and had as my committee, Rose Andrews, Hannah Waibel and Clara Dauer. Guests were Mmes. Theo Jones, Bette Cressey, Lucille Butler, "Buttons" Creighton, Elma Sheriden and Lillian Davis. New residents, Lottie Taylor, Allie Vigneault, Alma Kernan and Emily Gusitis, were introduced.

Birthdays were celebrated as Hannah Waibel, Mildred Sevick, Mary Gray and Allie Vigneault were presented with individual birthday cupcakes. After devouring the delicious food, the ladies transferred the ornaments from the tables to the tree. A good way to get the tree trimmed.

The Leon Couchs are home again from a pre-holiday visit with Leon's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Brooks of Long Beach.

It's nice to have Bill and Katie Keeling here with us for the holidays. They will trek back to Phoenix after the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. C. Lambert are enjoying a visit from their daughter and family from Newport Beach.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 18th, 55 residents enjoyed a Christmas party at the clubhouse. Mrs. Theo Jones and Vera Jones served everyone with egg nog, which was followed by a cookie walk, musical chairs, which was a riot, and then a white elephant grab bag which was lots of fun. Refreshments were prepared and served by Bess Christian, Nettie Howe and Lilly Leinhaupel. A big thank you to all the ladies who baked and donated all the delicious cookies for the cookie walks, and to Catherine Clarke, Mildred Sevick and Mary Hodskins for assisting with the cleanup duty.

Welcomed into our family at Alpine Oaks are Mr. and Mrs. P. Gusitis who came to our park from Alpine.

Christmas Time

Christmas will be here soon
Just waiting for me.
Santa Claus will bring me
A surprise I hope?
But if you have not been good
Oh! dear, a surprise you will not have.

Lively Oaks Report

By JULIA SACHSE

The Lively Oaks had a small attendance of 21 as several of its members have left town to join friends and families elsewhere. It was a pleasure to welcome John and Mary Peters who return to Alpine every winter. Their summer home is in Grinnell, Iowa. At present they have an apartment at Tappy's Motel.

Two fine residents have been added to the club's membership, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Bownowski.

After a snack lunch, a short business meeting was held, at which time it was voted to postpone the installation of officers to January 10th. Mrs. Manila Colby will be the installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Emma Holmes.

On December 27th the club will honor the birthdays of 13 members. Home baked birthday cakes will be served.

A Christmas greeting card was received from former member Addie Provinzano who now resides in Colorado.

President Jeanette Smart received an invitation for the club to join the La Mesa Senior Citizens in their New Year's celebration to be held at the new Adult Recreation Center at 8450 University, La Mesa. Cards, dancing, refreshments and entertainment are offered. Donation 50¢.

We were proud to applaud Erna Earle and Marlo Stevenson, recipients of the Chamber of Commerce prizes for their suggestions to beautify Alpine.

Mr. Robert Cassidy read from a book entitled "The Life of Joel E. Johnson," recording the genealogy of one of Mr. Cassidy's ancestors.

The Hillbilly Band gave its Christmas program to the patients at the Alpine Convalescent Home.

Christmas

It is Christmas time in December,
It is a season you should always remember.

In winter the ground is covered with
snow,
Not many pretty flowers grow.

The snow is very clear and white,
It stings the nose with a tingly bite.

A Babe was born on Christmas day,
He lays in his cradle upon the hay.

The cow, the sheep and donkeys
are watching,
As people go by joyfully marching.

It is a good day for everyone,
For on this earth is a new born son,
Pattie Phelps

Christmas Memories

It was the night before Christmas
When a friend and I were taking a stroll;
And we noticed a small Christmas tree upon a little knoll.

And as we approached we could plain see,
The tree was not decorated for Old Mother Nature had left that to me.

We then ran home for horses,
And sleigh;
The horses were prancing and
Wanting to play.

Within minutes the horses
Were hooked to the sleigh;
We were laughing and Giggling as the horses galloped away.

Soon the little tree had its
Place in our home,
Brightly decked out, no longer
alone.

And that Christmas morning
our little tree;
Stood surrounded by presents as all Christmas trees should be.

NEWS BRIEFS

SQUARE DANCERS PLAN PARTY

SAN DIEGO — The Calico Twirlers and the Tip Toppers Square Dance Clubs are having a joint New Years Eve Dance at the U. A. W. Hall, 2266 San Diego Ave. Dancing will be from 9 p. m. to 1 p. m. There will be party favors and a buffet dinner. Calling is by Lee McCormack. The dance tickets are limited. Call 582-0992 for more information.

RADIOS PURCHASED FOR VOLUNTEERS

ALPINE — At its December meeting the Board of Fire Commissioners for the Alpine District voted to purchase seven radios for the recently adopted alarm system which alert the volunteer firemen by individual portable radios. The seven radios will mean 13 firemen will be instantly alerted any time an alarm is received at the fire station. By use of the radio alarm the firemen will be in constant contact while enroute from their homes to the station or location of the fire. Fire Chief Jack Blankenship returned to the Commissioners; a set of blue prints of Rio San Diego Municipal Water District water mains lying within the Fire District, bearing the Volunteer Firemen's recommendation of locations for the eventual installation of fire hydrants throughout the improved areas of Alpine and recommended the order of their installation. The Commissioners have approved the recommendations. Installation of an initial six hydrants has already been authorized and work should start in the very near future.

EDGEMORE NEEDS MORE GIFTS

SANTEE — Gifts are arriving daily at Edgemoor Geriatric Hospital in Santee, from generous people who wish to share Christmas with the patients there, but more are needed. The Edgemoor Hospital Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. Milton Doe, Christmas chairman is receiving and distributing the gifts. Many groups have contributed to make Christmas gay for the 500 patients whose average age is 77 and who are at Edgemoor for long term treatment or rehabilitation. All types of gifts will be appreciated and the time is very short. Anyone wishing further information may call the Auxiliary office at Edgemoor Hospital 448-2411.

CANYON STORE CHANGES HANDS

HARBISON CANYON — The present owners of the Harbison Canyon store, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, announce their retirement and also the sale of their grocery store. The Scotts have been a part of the business community for 16 years during which time they have operated the store. Although the store will be in new hands, the Scotts will be living in the Canyon. New owners, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Adamski are scheduled to take over January 4. Adamski has been manager of the Food Basket in El Cajon for sixteen years.

ALPINE GOES OVER QUOTA

SAN DIEGO — Alpine has joined the growing list of elite communities in San Diego County with an over-the quota victory in the 1965 United Community Services campaign. This success announcement was made by the Rev. William Bray who served as Alpine UCS campaign chairman. The total amount raised to date is $852 against a $700 quota. Assisting Rev. Bray in the local campaign were Phil Hall, Alpine Postmaster as business division chairman along with Mrs. Jane Meade and C. K. Owens.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT C OF C

ALPINE — A group of over 30 people attended last week's Chamber of Commerce meeting. Attending were the three winners of the recent Chamber contest for promoting and beautifying Alpine. Ron Van Til, chairman of the committee presented $25 checks to Marlo Stevenson, Earna Earle, (who also won the grand prize) and Steven Brookes, eight, who won the prize in the youngest category. Various reports were given, among them the report of Al Adams, who gave a final summation of the prize-winning float in the Mother Goose Parade. Membership was discussed and Fred Rushing, president, commented that it is the Chamber's obligation to "sell" themselves to the community, since they "have something worthwhile of offer." The meeting was hailed as one of the best in recent times, and the Chamber is looking forward to a splendid year in 1966.

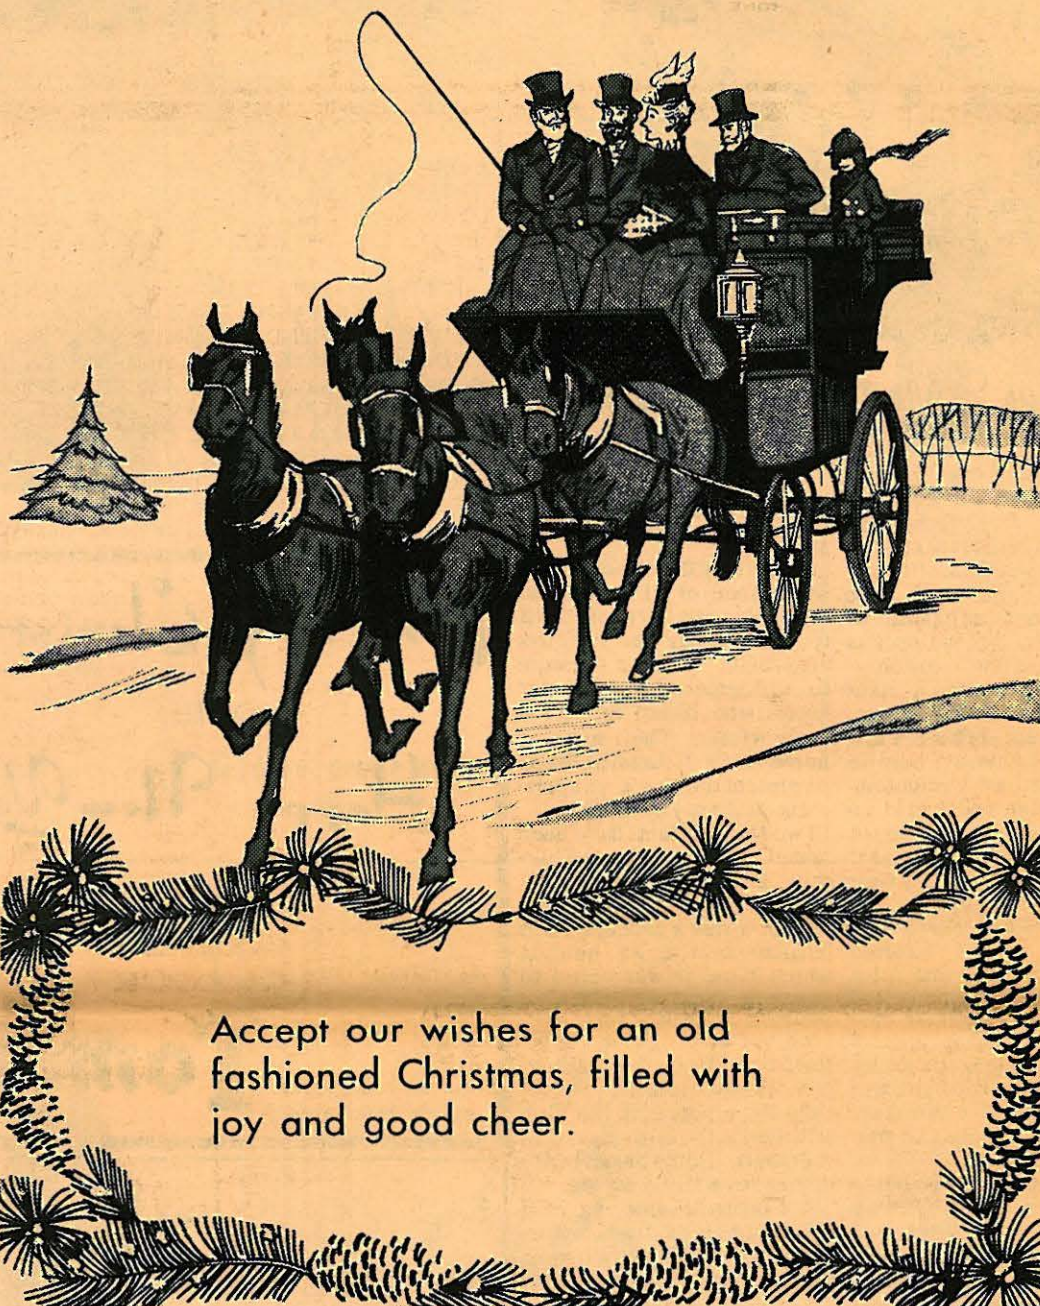

BROWN REALTY SELLS BUSINESS PROPERTY

ALPINE — Charlene V. Brown of Brown Realty Company reports the sale of the choice commercial property located at 2136 Highway 80 adjoining the Woman's Club. The property was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Cesario Sr. of San Diego. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lacko of Palo Verde Ranch. Mary Lacko with Virginia Scott own and operate the Alpine Active Sportswear Shop. They are making plans to enlarge and remodel the present building on the property. A more central location with ample room for parking and room to expand their present operation is necessary for the future, according to Mrs. Lacko and Mrs. Scott.

Turn Lights On!

Be sure to leave your Christmas Decoration lights on tonight as the judges will be around before 10 o'clock to pick the winners of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce contest.

THE BEAUTIFUL HARP MUSIC THAT WAS PLAYED WITH THE ALPINE SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PROGRAM WAS PLAYED BY MRS. JO ANN FORD. (Town and Country Photo)

All Around Alpine

Among fifteen county residents who are prospective Grand Jurors for 1966, is our own Mrs. Elinore Hill who lives at Rt. 1 Box 29 here in Alpine.

Bea and Clayburn LaForce will be spending the Christmas holiday in La Jolla with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Cordtz. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Banks and their family will join the group. Mrs. Banks is the LaForce's daughter also. Of interest to her many friends here is the recent publishing of Bea LaForce's new play, "The Sign of the Red Braids" which is a play about a wig shop. Dominating the three scenes is controlled lighting which adds interest to the one-act play. Actually, the play is much longer than the usual one-act play.

Two of our lovely ladies in Alpine have been busy doing for others. Anne Hume and Agnes Ratliff have collected several large boxes of various items for the Tecate Mission. We know that they will be happy as they realize that they have brought joy to the needy.

Christmas guests at the Paul Clays are their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kline. The Klins will be here through the holidays along with their two youngsters. Julianne always enjoys a visit to Alpine.

Alicia Barrett has just arrived from Davis in Sacramento, to spend her holidays with her family who live on Tavern Rd.

Christmas Day

The time has arrived
It's Christmas again
I don't know how I survived.

It could wait no longer
It's just Christmas Eve
It's just a few more
Hours until the surprise.

Christ was born on Christmas Day,
Let us pray,
For his birth today,
He is Christ the new born King.

Christmas

Christmas is a time for Joy presents and games
Toys and clothes.

Then you get a big Dinner, dinner, that's All you think of.

Christmas, Christmas
Come some day and
Get a train or game or
A bike all day.

Keith Kelly

Christmas

Christmas is fun
For everyone.
Hustling and bustling
And shopping for gifts
Then it's the night of Santa's flight
The children up early
Sneaking around
Finding what's their's
And which is mine.

Mike W.

Christmas

On Christmas day the tree is put up
And the lights are on
Bright as can be.
We are in bed when
Santa Claus is here,
Seeing if we are good or bad.

Please don't forget to dial "1" for distance now. This applies on all long distance calls which you dial direct.

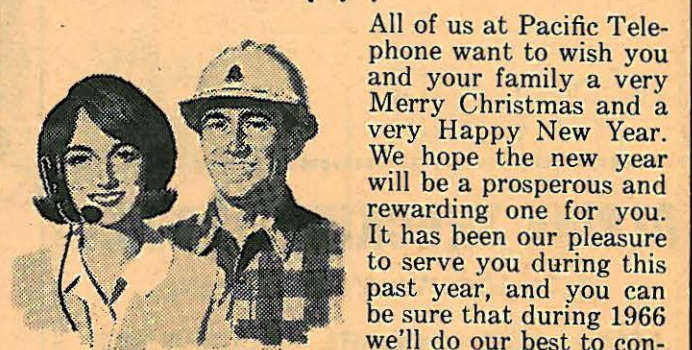

Just check your brand-new telephone book. Turn to the helpful front pages — there you'll find easy to follow instructions.

To call inside your local (toll free) calling area, just dial the seven digit phone number.

To dial outside your local calling area, dial "1" first. If the "area code" of the phone you're calling is different from yours (714), please remember to dial the area code — then the seven digit number.

Some of you used to dial "112" for access to long distance. Now you just dial the "1" instead — eliminates those two extra pulls of the dial wheel.

Remember that dialing "1" is a safeguard against placing long distance calls unintentionally.

service. Again, our sincere best wishes of the holiday season for you and yours.

Holiday Heart

Hearts that are heavy
Somehow are lighter
Days that are dreary
Somehow dawn brighter.

If I should tell you
Would you believe it
It's your holiday heart
Reach out and receive it.

It really is there
Throughout the year
But somehow at Christmas
It seems so near.

Remember, when giving
Of all you impart,
The best gift of all
Is your holiday heart.

Christmas Cookies

Cookies come
All shapes and sizes
Some are plain
Some surprises

Some may be Quite artistic
However done
I'm optimistic

The time of year
Is now upon us
Christmas is moving
Right in on us

Better hurry
Light the oven
Give them lots of
Time and lov'in

There's no mystery
There's no doubt
What all the fuss
Is all about

Lots of fun
In decorating
Little hands and
Eyes are waiting

Raisin's, nuts and
Lots of cherries
My arm aches from
Writing MERRYS!

My kitchen and I
Are both a sight
But my Christmas cookies
Are sheer delight.

Once on Christmas Day

Once on Christmas day,
I saw a pretty little
Christmas tree,
It was covered with a
Lot of pretty things,
Bells, balls and candy canes,
And with a little star on top.

Thomas Kyle

The Gift He Left Behind

The manger said "I'll hold Him"
The straw will keep Him warm
The barn said "I will shelter,
The winter chill, disarm."

The wind said I'll blow gently
To let the snow flakes light
Softly all around the babe
That will be born this night.

The star said "I'll shine brighter
The prophecy to fulfill
Alike to sheep and shepherd,
Camped upon the hill."

The man to his beloved said
"We'll rest here in our plight"
She quietly assented
She knew this was the night.

The gift of Heaven descended
How blessed became the earth,
All nature had a party in
This miracle of birth.

Many years have passed since then
And we weren't there 'tis true,
But the love He left behind
Is Christmas for me and you.

Marie Kramer

Snow Flakes

Snow flakes fall all day,
But not when you're with Aunt May,
They come down together
And are soft as a feather.

Linda Hensel

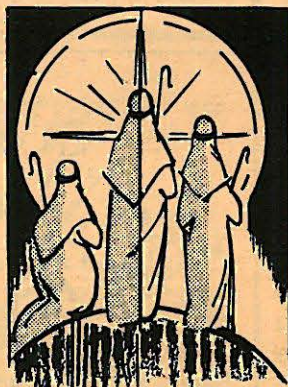

The Spirit of Christmas

Light a little Christmas tree
In someone's heart today.
Light the shiny star
With every word you say.

Perhaps someone's discouraged
And you can make them gay
Light a little Christmas tree
In someone's heart today.

You may find that if you help
Another find the way
You've lit a little Christmas tree
In your own heart to stay.

Marie Kramer

Peace On Earth

MERRY CHRISTMAS, ALPINE!

Isn't it wonderful to know that at least once a year we are all in harmony?

Let us all unite in wishing everyone the best and happiest Christmas ever. Let us pray for the blessing of Jesus who comes to us at this time each year to remind us of his love for us. Let us share that love with Him and most important, one another. Let everyone know Alpine has "A Holiday Heart."

Sincerely,

MARIE KRAMER

And the hoofs of his reindeer.

My Gift

What can I give him,
Poor as I am
If I were a shepherd
I would give him a lamb.
If I were a Wise Man
I would do my part
What can I give him
I will give him my heart.

David Judd

Mary

Mary had born a child
A child oh so dear
A child born in the night so mild.

Three Kings

Beautiful gifts
As if he were the King.

Susan Harris

The Magic of Christmas

Now that he is seven
And feels so big in size
Thinks he knows the answers
And is very, very wise.

Will he tell me sadly
There is no Santa Claus
And then proceed to tell me
He knows it's true because

The other kids were telling him
It's just a lot of guff
And your Mother has been making up
All that silly stuff.

When he looks me in the eye
Mother, is it true?
Was it all pretending?
Was it really you?

Will I take him in my arms
And wipe a tear or two
Because a part of childhood's lost
And I've lost something too.

Marie Kramer

Christmas Isle

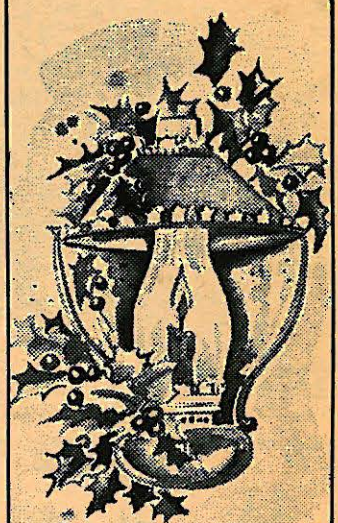

Here I am so sad and lost,
Walking through the snow and frost,
Nothing to make Christmas fun,
Nothing to do, all is done.

Now I'm walking on the wharf,
When I meet a small dwarf
"Come," he says, "come with me,"
"Come" he says, "come and see."

What could he possibly want me to see?
He went to a boat marked the Gabee,
He said to me, "Set to sea,"
And off we went, singing happily.

We sailed and sailed for a while,
And then we came to a very small isle,
Here there was a forest of Christmas trees,
He said, "Sit down, if you please.
He clapped his hands, and I woke!
In my bed? Ha, ha, it's a dream,
A joke, but soon the gifts will not be.

Dorothy Hall and Carmen Hoistad recently attended a performance of the "Antonio and the Ballets De Madrid" at the Civic Theater. The adjectives used by both Carmen and Dorothy were "magnificent!" and "superb!" In fact it was such a fine performance that there was a standing ovation.

A lovely open house was held at Supervisor Henry Boney's home recently. Beautifully decorated for the Christmas holidays, the Boney home was filled to overflowing with guests from all over the county. Among those from Alpine were the Auren Pierces and the Ron Van Tils.

Clair Burgener, just announced candidate for the California State Senate will be the guest speaker at the Alpine Kiwanis Club on the 20th of January. He will be running for the Senate in the 38th district, which includes Alpine, and his appearance will be of great interest to the community.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rash, who lives on Willows Rd., has put up a beautiful Christmas decoration including a manger scene. And it seems that a neighborhood cat, called "Sylvester" by the Rash family, has decided that the manger is just a dandy place to sleep and has taken it upon himself to use it whenever he wants a nap. Smart kitty!

FIRST SNOW OF THE YEAR!

HOLIDAY PITFALLS

'Twas the night before Christmas
And, like all other nights
I tucked in the children
And turned out their lights.
Pa, in his rocker, bobbed off with a snore
And I went to the sink to finish a chore.

The deep breathing of sleepers
Gave me my cue
That this was the night there was Still much to do!
From my secret places, where for weeks
They had lain,
Came games and toys and even a train!

There were dollies and trucks and
A big bag of blocks;
And lots of goodies with which to fill socks
All hung on the mantle in such bright array
To be filled with surprises for this Christmas Day.

Once more I checked to be sure all were sleeping,
And none of the little ones would do any peeping
Pa roused from his nap and went off to bed;
I was alone, so on the table the goodies I spread.

One by one, I took the socks to the table
And into the smallest I put all I was able.
This child, I thought, is small and might get sick,
So I put in some toys and just one sucker to lick.
The rest of his ration could go on the shelf,
But, as I filled the next stocking, I ate it myself!

As I tucked cookies and candy into each sock in turn,
I tasted and nibbled without much concern.
The chocolates and caramels just melted away,
And went down to my tummy in the pleasantest way.
Into each socking went to a few nuts to crunch.
Into my mouth went a generous bunch!

Odd, how these Christmas Eve duties can just wear one out!
I stopped for some coffee, then still fussed about,
Ridding the scene of all "Santas' Clues"
And — eating some candy that just wouldn't be used!

Now, 'tis the night before New Year's
And the gang is all here
To see the year in and to have some good cheer.
And each one in turn has a resolution to state;
Are you surprised to hear mine is, "I just must lose
Some weight!"

Christmas
Christmas is a nice day
A good birthday
The mail man comes
Children dance.

Bells in the church
Bells are a ringing
Bells are a turning
Bells are a turning.

Trees are up trees are down
Lights are on lights are off
Trees are good
Trees are dry.

Marianita
The Light
The lights of Christmas we all love to see,
But there's a light brighter than this to me.

It's in a child's face, that it can be seen
Like the boy on a new bike and he thinks it's just "keen."
Or a girl that's cuddling a new little doll
To me, this is the brightest light of all.
Their eyes are a-brightened, their face is a-glow
Their happy, excited, and it can't help but show.
So if you want to see the brightest light born
Just watch your child's face on Christmas morn.

Ronald Rudolph
CHRISTMAS
By RON MOYA
You're in your bed. Everybody is asleep but you. All of a sudden "Crash!" What was it?
I got up from bed and ran to the stairs. There he was— Santa Claus! The next day after opening the gifts I told Dad what I saw and all he did was grin at me.

Christ's Bed
Where was he born?
He was born in the hay.
They say, in a manger,
Painted red, with no pillow,
for his little head.
It is true they said,
A star was over his bed.
Shepard came to see him,
Kings came to gift him,
Angels came to sing to him,
Where was he born?
In the hay
A star was over his bed.
Terry Wooldridge

I Hear Sleigh Bells
I hear sleigh bells coming down the road
To my house, they are coming,
And somebody is driving the sleigh
And a tune he is humming.

They jumped out of the sleigh,
And numbly walked into the house.
Not making the slightest sound,
Which did remind us of a mouse.

It was our relatives that came
We couldn't tell much about them
Because bundled up they look the same
But they brought us a candy cane.

It wasn't before long that they had to go.
We had finished our big candy canes
When they drove off in the snow.
I hear the sleigh bells going down the road.
Susan Harris

Christmas Time
Christmas time is getting near,
The stockings are all empty
Almost time to get the tree,
The candy's even minty.
The children will dream of
That jolly old man,
With gifts by the dozens it seems.
All the reindeers
If just one team will fly
Through the air and be home by three.

HARBISON CANYON

MR. AND MRS. Carl Wallenborn are going to Long Beach to pick up their daughter, Carla, who has been attending college there. Carla plans to work a while and then return to college in the San Diego area. . . . John Davies and Jim Dorff, who have been staying with the Dave Mishlers, left Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays at their homes. . . . Gordon Carbaugh came home from the hospital Wednesday. He is feeling much better, though the doctors have told him that complete recovery from an electrical shock is slow. . . . Connie Vidal had a party for the teenagers Friday night.

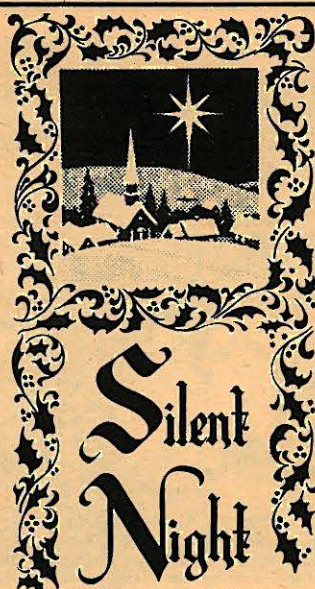

THE JOHNNY CAMACHO family moved from Francis Drive to El Cajon, and the Reid family is also leaving the Canyon soon. . . . Richard Sample left for the service about two weeks ago. He is stationed at the Naval Training Base. . . . There are many beautiful Christmas decorations up in our canyon and everyone is busily getting ready for the holiday season. There are fruit cakes to bake, candy to make, shopping to do and packages to wrap, that last bit of sewing to finish; getting ready to have company, or to be company. Now, with this beautiful sunshine after all the rain, most everyone is full of the holiday spirit, so MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

Marie Sez...

(BY MARIE CIOFAL)

There is another Christmas that is observed on Jan. 7; New Years on Jan. 14. This is the Greek Orthodox Christmas that we also observe.

It was the custom of the Ukranians in America to observe this holiday according to the European traditions. Hay on the table which was covered with a hand-made white cloth, hay on the floor surrounding the table, and candlelight.

This was to remind us that Christ was born in a manger. We were taught we must always remember the humble manger, thus the hay.

The traditional foods served were "Shvati Vecher Horivka," Rum and Vodka, honey, heated, then sprinkled with crisply fried bacon, chopped finely.

After that garlic cloves dipped in salt and bread which was traditional. Each course was symbolic, stemming from paganism and added to Christianity.

Herrings in many forms were added to the meal, reminding us that we lived on fish and bread mostly during advent. This was the last fish we need eat until lent, prior to Easter.

Other foods on the festive board were dried peas, dried mushrooms, pirahi (likened to ravioli) which we filled with a sharp cheese and mashed potatoes, parboiled and just before they were served, browned in butter with golden fried onions.

Another favorite was the traditional Kahasa, which was homemade.

The yearly allowance of hard fruit candies was such a treat because sweets were not allowed during advent. The children especially looked forward to this time.

At the end of the feast the father reads from his prayer book and "Kaloyadi." Christmas carols were sung in Ukranian. Carolers met to sing at each parishioners home after which they gathered at the church for a party.

Thus ended the wonderful day, the Orthodox Christmas Day celebration on January 7, many years ago in America.

CREST

YOUR CORRESPONDENT HAS been especially busy in her employment at this time of year and that, combined with illness has been responsible for the Crest news not being reported recently. She sends her sincerest greetings to everyone at this holiday time. . . . Mel McCormick of Mt. View Electronics at 300 Mt. View Road has a beautiful lighting display which lights up the whole area around his place. Be sure and make a point of getting by to see it as it is truly spectacular. . . . George Mora, former Crest barber, now located across from Stoney's Market on Jamaica Road sends Christmas greetings to all his friends on the hill and cordially invites them to drop in and say "hello."

MOUNTAIN EMPIRE

MR. AND MRS. Nick Martin of Lake Morena renewed their wedding vows at the Campo Catholic Church Sunday before last. They had just celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. . . . Houseguests at the Alden Farris home in Lake Morena recently were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis of Medford, Oregon. Mr. Davis is Mrs. Farris's brother. . . . Phoebe Thompson left last Monday to make her home in Corvallis, Oregon. She has been in Lake Morena for about a month readying her house there for rental. She was honored last week at the home of Margaret Rolland with a card party attended by Marie Lindemann, Ardelle Craft, Flora Skonberg, Gertude Haskell, Helen Smyth and Fay Farris.

THE HOMEMAKERS ASSOCIATION held a cake sale at the Stone House in Campo last Thursday, which was very successful in spite of the rain. The proceeds will be added to the Scholarship Fund. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Ison of Rancho del Campo left last Friday by car to spend Christmas in Amarillo, Texas, with their son Dale, his wife and two children. They will then visit Mr. Ison's father in New Mexico.
