SHALL WE PUT OUR BEST FOOT FORWARD?

We here at the Town and Country News have received numerous phone calls regarding Alpine. People call concerning the area, asking for information and usually they want to have the newspaper that represents Alpine. We of course, are delighted to aid them in any way possible.

Recently a man said to us, "You know, I always judge a town by its newspaper."

As we pondered this remark, we began to realize what a great responsibility we have, and also, what a great responsibility Alpine has. For if the people support a newspaper, it grows. If they do not support it, it dies.

We asked ourselves, and we ask you. What does this town want in its newspaper? Does it want accurate and up-to-date information? Does it want news of the area? Does it particularly want news of local interest? Does it want feature articles? Does it want county news? Does it expect the newspaper to attract new business? And most of all, does it want the newspaper to present an attractive picture of Alpine and vicinity? Does Alpine want to be proud of its newspaper?

All of these questions must be answered in the affirmative. Then, it is our responsibility to publish this kind of a newspaper.

Since our first issue, we have tried to constantly improve every paper that goes out of this office. We blush when we look back and see what to us, were awkward and unattractive papers. But as each week goes by, we try to improve something about this publication.

Most of our subscribers are in this area. But many people from many states subscribe, for the most part to find out about Alpine. A retired bank president in New York is an avid reader; an executive in Monterrey, Mexico, devours every word; an attorney in El Cajon is a reader; former Alpine residents in Canada wait each week to hear of the news of their old friends. And then recently we had a long distance phone call from San Francisco, and it was someone inquiring about Alpine and this newspaper.

For these people, and for ourselves, we want to "put our best foot forward." And it is for this reason we are constantly trying to improve the "Town and Country News." We want the image of this paper, to be the image of Alpine and the East San Diego foothills and mountain area.

We respect our readers and strive to give them the best. Will you help us to put our best foot forward by supporting your newspaper, the Town and Country News.

The following message was given by Emil Sachse at the stirring ceremonies held in Alpine Sunday, to honor those who gave their life for their country. We felt it would be of great interest to those who could not attend the gathering.

"The Alpine Chamber of Commerce wishes to take part in this national Memorial Day, honoring the dead of our past wars and present conflicts overseas. Young men today are fighting and giving their lives that we may continue our present way of life which affords us freedoms not enjoyed by all countries.

"We wish to remember the buried in all cemeteries throughout the world and those lost at sea. We are particularly proud and grateful for our small Alpine cemetery which was made possible by dedicated community-spirited persons to develop a beautiful area as a last resting place for our dead."

Alcoholics Unanimous

By Fred Tinker

To my constant surprise, a great percentage of the general public still have only a stereotype knowledge of what alcoholism is, despite the fact that the problem has had wide publicity in national magazines, newspapers, radio, television and movies. Entirely too many people continue to consider the alcoholic to be the derelict on Skid Row, not realizing that a person may live in Beverly Hills and sleep off his terrible hangovers between satin sheets, with a doctor and a nurse in constant attendance, and still be one of us.

Alcoholism is like any other disease in that it has no respect for age, sex, social status or anything else. Like any other disease, when it hits it hits, and it hits the old or the young, the ladies and the gentlemen, the rich and the poor, the well and the ill. I know other alcoholics who fought the bottle over half a century before they joined Alcoholics Anonymous, sobered up and stayed that way. I know other alcoholics who were lucky enough to realize their problem in their early teens and were able to get off the bottle before they went all the way down the ladder of misery, as most of our older boozers did.

Time and time, day after day, I hear some non-alcoholic say that such-and-such a boozehound is hopeless, that there's no sense in wasting time on him because he simply won't stay sober, no matter how hard his relatives and friends try to help him. This is false, thank goodness; I happen to know for sure that none of us are hopeless. Why am I so sure? We-e-e-e-ell, for one thing, that's what was said of me, many times, by many people, but I'm sober now and I've been sober quite a while and I intend to stay that-a-way for the rest of my life, God willing.

I'm not only sober but I've re-established myself in a nice little business, not counting this column, which yields a comfortable living with a minimum of working hours, leaving ample time for me to enjoy my hobbies of reading, studying, and writing such things as this column. Instead of being an expense to the community, I'm now a contributor to it; instead of being a disgrace to my family and friends, I'm now the guy to whom they point with pride. Yet, if you were to look at my police record you'd probably think I'd be a mighty poor risk for ever-getting-sober insurance.

If you've noticed that I plug Alcoholics Anonymous a lot, you should have guessed by now that I owe this wonderful fellowship my very existence. You may be sure I don't do it for monetary gain.

Being sober is not only a lot more fun than being drunk, it's also a heck of a lot cheaper!

If you have an alcohol problem write to me, Fred Tinker, c/o Town and Country News enclosing a long self-addressed, stamped envelope. You'll receive a prompt, personal, confidential reply at no charge, of course. Enclose one dollar if you'd like my 7,000 word brochure, "Hope for the Alcoholic."

Write me a poem, send it to me. I'll print it here for all to see. It's lots of fun and simple to do. Just like I am writing to you.

INSPIRATION

To some, inspiration is just a word
Not to me, It's a voice I've heard.

It tells me what to say and do
That's when I write a verse or two.

It doesn't matter what it's about
I may write solemn or want to shout.

Depends upon the mood I'm in
It may depend on where I've been.

But I can write most any time
'Cause inspiration helps me rhyme.

It's not just me, you listen and hear
It comes as a whisper in your ear.

'I SAW A TREE AGAINST THE DAWN'

I saw a tree against the dawn,
And oh! My heart was filled
With strength and love to carry on
To hope, have, faith, to plan and build!

I saw a bird wing toward the sun
And heard its beautiful cry
And all my sorrows seemed undone,
And I began to trust and try.

I saw a river through the mist
Rush onward past its shore
And saw a bloom a bee had kissed,
And knew that I could doubt no more!

ALPINE LUTHERAN

A special event is planned for this Friday evening, June 4th, at the Woman's Club and is sponsored by the Lutheran Church.

Everyone is invited to attend and view two original documentary films, one on Japan and the other on Hong Kong.

These special films were made by the Rev. Edgar Hoenecke who is Executive Secretary for World Missions during his two visits to the Orient last year. The Rev. Hoenecke is serving as pastor to the Alpine church.

Both films are in full color and sound, and each one runs about 30 minutes.

The film on Japan, "Japan Harvest," depicts the living conditions in urban and rural Japan, especially in the Kanto Plain area. It takes the viewer to Tokyo, the largest city of the world and out into the rice paddies and manufacturing centers of this remarkable country.

It also portrays the Emperor Hirohito and the people of Japan as they live today in a very progressing economy.

The other film, "Hong Kong Is An Open Door," transports the viewer into this colony of contrasts, the fabulous city of Kowloon with all its bargain counters, the financial headquarters of the colony, Victoria, the incredible floating city of Aberdeen with its teeming 138,000 Tanka people, the resettlement refugee blocks of Kun Tong, the New Territories area under the shadow of the Bamboo Curtain and many other unforgettable sights.

There will be no admission charge but an offering will be taken for the Hong Kong Education Fund which provides scholarships and better living conditions for poor children who cannot afford to go to school at present.

The St. Louise de Marillac Thrift Shop has an almost completely new stock of goods for sale. The Thrift Shop is open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m. It is located right behind the Crest Post Office. "There is a rank due the United States among nations which will be lost by the reputation for weakness. If we desire peace, it must be known at all times that we are ready for war." The same man also counseled; "Avoid the accumulation of debt, not only by shunning occasions of expense but by vigorous exercise in the time of peace to discharge debts which wars have occasioned." If that sounds like the voice of a latter-day conservative on Capitol Hill, guess again. George Washington said it 175 years ago in his farewell address as the nation's first President.

FROM THE DESK OF

Dr. Bill

On my desk this morning is an article regarding smoking of tobacco. Coronary heart disease was three times greater in smokers than in non-smokers.

But this article fails to take into consideration the fact that probably even the coronary heart disease in non-smokers may be due to tobacco smoke inhaled second hand because they must unavoidably breathe the smoke others produce.

Also, the loss of life and the money loss from fires started by smokers would swell the death rate from tobacco by a very large percent. That has never been taken into consideration in any such study as far as I have been able to discover.

Sincerely,
YOUR DOCTOR BILL

Baking can be both fun and easy when you know the secrets. We can help you learn "All About Baking" because that is the theme for our Cooking Schools this month.

Our first school will cover "All About Cakes" and we will prepare Jelly Roll with Orange Filling, Apricot Chiffon Cake, Bonnie Butter Cake with a Nut Filling and White Mountain Icing.

At our second school, "All About Breads," we will discuss quick breads and yeast breads. We will prepare and bake a basic White Bread and show you the many different shapes it can be made into and also we will make an Oatmeal Cinnamon Bread and an Apricot Bubble Ring.

The programs are scheduled for June 8th and June 22nd. Both schools start at 10 a.m. They will be held in the comfortable Gracious Living Center at SDB&E's Eastern District Office, 104 N. Johnson Street, El Cajon.

Please plan now on being with us — and why not invite a friend to join you. There will be door prizes and admission is free.

Welcome To Alpine

High on Victoria Dr. there is a lovely new home with one of the most unusual garages! But more about the garage later. Perhaps we had better start with the beginning of a dream.

For 40 years, Julius Chiappie fished off of the coast of California. He was the owner of a fishing company and planned for many years to retire, but not on a city lot. In Alpine, the Chiappie family has found the perfect retirement spot. Designing their own home, they have created a special spot where they can have comfortable and beautiful living and enjoy their hobbies.

The Chiappie family have two children. Jeanette Holm is their daughter and has three lovely children. Frederick is their son. He is attending Cal Poly and is planning to go ahead in animal science and eventually hopes to own his own ranch.

When Frederick was traveling in the Orient (partially at Uncle Sam's expense) he sent home some beautiful art objects to his parents. And their lovely home is filled with many things that would delight the eye of an art collector. Frederick is also an accomplished artist in leather craft.

Oh yes, that garage! As you enter, you find that the ceiling is completely covered in beautiful net. And it is the actual net that Mr. Chiappie used while fishing for so many years. And on the walls are mounted many beautiful and rare fish. Among them was louvar, the third to be caught off of the California coast, ocean sunfish, ragfish, leatherfish, garabaldie, and many others.

This is not an ordinary garage. Not at all. There is none of the usual clutter and the viewer finds it a pleasure to look upon and a fascinating experience to hear about the beautiful and rare fish. The Chiappie family is a welcome addition to Alpine. We know that many will want to get to know them and to see their unusual and beautiful home.

ALPINE OAKS LADIES POSE WITH GOODS FOR PROJECT SS HOPE — Dr. Elsie Wiczorowski who is a pediatrician in Chicago, served two months aboard the SS Hope anchored off Guinea, Africa. She wrote to the ladies at the Alpine Oaks and told of the great need there for bibs, slippers and crib blankets. The ladies then got busy and on Wednesday afternoons and two large boxes are now ready to send. These will do much to meet the need. (Leinhaupel Photo)

Trailer Living

By LILLY LEINHAUPEL

Alpine Oaks birthday tea on Wednesday, May 26th, was well attended. Honored guests were Pat Weideman and Nettie Howe. We were sorry that Rose Ginder and Bess Christian were away and missed their party. Mrs. Frew was ill and could not attend her party. Co-hostesses Ethel Clark and Hanny Waibel had such a pretty table with a delicious cake and tiny cream puffs.

We were happy to have Attie Provinzano's daughter, Mrs. Joseph Fortino and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Louis Fortino of Pueblo, Colo. join us at our birthday tea. They all plan to drive up to Berkeley to attend the graduation of Attie's granddaughter, Carol Fortino. After graduation, Carol will spend the summer touring Europe and will return to Berkeley for a graduate year and student teaching.

Pat Weideman celebrated her birthday on Sunday with her parents and brother and sister-in-law, by having dinner at the Rancho Bernardo Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armstrong have gone out to their little trailer at Agua Caliente for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Willaim Thompson entertained Bill's sisters, Kathryn and Beatrice of San Gabriel, at lunch on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Price Jackson of Inglewood, were down to help Nora and Jim Carpenter celebrate their fifty first wedding anniversary over the Memorial Day weekend.

The Park chairman Mable Thompson held a colored slide party on Saturday evening, May 29th. Homemade tarts and coffee were served early in the evening and Ed Bower showed slides of Alaska and Hawaii. A good way to keep us off the highway.

A big welcome to newcomers Rose and Ollie Faulkner from Quartz Hill, Calif.

OPEN HOUSE

By RUTH FULLER

I HAVE BEEN DOING A BIT OF DISCREET investigating and find that I am not old enough to retire, nor can I collect Social Security and I am appalled at the thought of searching for another job, because I really like the one I have. I have worked in a library most of my life and I am used to it. But now I have a real problem. Most of us have read humorous articles about people who incur library fines and people who forget to return books until their debt is astronomical and we all laugh and enjoy the predicament of the wrong-doer. I am not laughing any longer.

IN THE LIBRARY WHERE I AM EMPLOYED we are issued once a week, from the central headquarters a mimeographed list of culprits who have kept books or magazines out of circulation so long that legal action of a severe nature is about to be taken against them and the names of these unfortunates are listed publicly along with the titles of the volumes illegally in their possession. It is one of my chores to verify and check this list to make sure no error has occurred and that the book is not actually on our shelves. I picked up the list yesterday with no forebodings of disaster, no inkling of trouble and as I glanced at it casually I was stunned to see that my name led all the rest. There, in print, for all my fellow-workers to see, I was exposed for what I really am, a criminal in trouble with the law. What is more, after my name was the word "STAFF" in large letters so that there could be no mistake. Not only once did I appear, but three times. I had in my possession, not one, but three long-overdue books! I felt quite weak and had to get a cup of coffee from the staff room to steady my nerves. Incredulous, I studied the list. I said to myself, "But I'm sure I never had those books!" A small inner voice reminded me "That's what they all say!" and since there was nothing I could do until I explored my house and premises I hid the list under a pile of old magazines so my supervisor would not see it and lose faith in me.

I WENT HOME AND SAID TO ROBERT, "I was never so upset in my life! In all the years I've worked, I'm the only staff member ever humiliated so publicly and what is more I know I never had those books!" Robert said we might as well look around because, after all, I often did keep books overdue so we began to search and I kept in mind the places patrons most often say they found volumes they thought they never had.

FIRST OF ALL, THE UPHOLSTERY OF the car — and sure enough, there was one of the missing books. I'd never even brought it into the house! Next likely hiding place is under the bed, so I peered beneath the covers — and among an assortment of debris, there was another! The last one we discovered neatly shelved with our own books.

SO I TOOK THE BOOKS BACK AND crossed my name off the list but I feel this is not the end of it. I am nervous and apprehensive and I do not know what they will do to me. Surely this is conduct unbecoming a long-time employee and it will not be forgiven lightly. I can say I am sorry and I am, and perhaps if I promise never to take home another book . . . but that wouldn't do, we need the circulation. I shall simply wait in fear and trembling and if there is one small smattering of good resulting from this unfortunate episode, it is that I can now feel deep sympathy for the forlorn and frightened patron, who stands, notice in hand and says "I'm sure I never had this book!"

Town and Country News
Dear Editor,

Since a recent discovery about a postal regulation of which I had no former knowledge, has come to my attention I would like to sound off — (something I frequently do, but never before in a letter to a newspaper).

I have cursed, discussed and given vent to my violent disgust over the junk that piles up in my mailbox, some of which I've even paid postage due in order to receive since the sender didn't have the nerve to use his name on the envelope — just an innocent looking return address which could have been that of a long lost friend or relative. Well, anyway, now I find that if I don't want to accept the mail, I don't have to. In fact, the sender even has to pay to get it back! Oh, so happiness! Now, when a statement comes for a bill which has been paid or an ad for something I have absolutely no interest in or even "the chance of a lifetime" offer comes my way, I don't have to accept it.

Since so many people I've mentioned this to have been particularly interested, I thought perhaps a few of your readers just might be enlightened by a few of the regulations which have become recent knowledge to me.

First class, or second and third class mail which states return postage guaranteed, may be sent back by merely marking it "Refused — return to sender" and sign your name.

Please understand, I don't do this with very much of the mail in my box because most of it is of some value but I do resent being on a sucker list for every darned publication, book company and appliance agency from here to Timbuktu. I'd sign my name but sure as I do, a few more will add me to their sucker list!

KID'S KORNER

Alpine School

By JOYCE DINIUS

Nancy Sockwell was the guest of Joyce Dinius Sunday night. Had lots of fun.

Vickie Bray missed school Thursday and Friday as she took her lamb to the El Cajon fair.

Nancy Sockwell and Jerrie and Joyce Dinius enjoyed Saturday when they went to Pacific Beach 9th Annual Surf Meet. We really had fun.

Friday, the eighth grade and seventh grade went to Julian for a softball game. Unfortunately the eighth grade lost but the seventh grade won over Julian's seventh grade.

Pam Weisbach and her family went to Lone Pine on a camping trip. Hope you enjoyed yourselves.

What started out as a good holiday weekend for Nancy Sockwell turned out kind of bad when she was out riding on Monday morning. Her friend's horse, a three year old mare, reared and fell over backward on Nancy. Mrs. Sockwell and Mrs. Dinius (and girls) took Nancy to Grossmont Hospital for some x-rays. Fortunately, Nancy had bruises and cuts but no broken bones.

Harbison Canyon

By BARBARA PRESLEY

Mrs. DeLong's and Mrs. Legler's class went to the zoo on Thursday. They visited the Children's Zoo, the seal show and the reptile house. Hope you had a nice time.

Mrs. Sparkes' room is making wooden wastebaskets. They have finished their plastic jewelry.

June 4th we are having our Spring Festival. In it will be the choir singing, a tumbling program and each classroom will put on a program.

Charges Changed

SAN DIEGO—S. R. Stevenson, Supervisor of the Cleveland National Forest, today has announced that new recreation charges are in effect at the following designated campgrounds:

Burnt Rancheria, Mt. Laguna, San Luis Rey, Observatory, Upper San Juan, El Cariso. Also included is the Mt. Laguna Picnic Ground.

The Land and Water Conservation Act of 1965 established new guidelines and fees to be used for certain designated recreational facilities all through the nation.

To gain entrance to these designated sites, recreationists may purchase either the seven dollar annual sticker or pay a daily visit fee of fifty cents per person. Daily visit fees are required in designated areas in lieu of the annual sticker for each person 16 years and older.

HORSE NEWS

By STEVE PENNER

LISA PIERCE OF Alpine, did quite well at the North County Fair. Lisa and "Mr. Rockman," her quarterhorse, took a second and a third in Showmanship in Hand, and a fourth in Equitation. She plans to enter the show at Rancho Santa Fe next weekend and do as good or better. Good luck Lisa!

LAST MONDAY MR. and Mrs. Ron Riley and friends rode in Cuyamaca Rancho State Park. It's good to see them and others using the fine trails up there. One of Ron's stallions, Poco Stripe, returned to Alpine after a two-week breaking-schooling stint in Ramona. Jack McSpadden did the training.

BLUE ADMIRAL OF Willow Glen Farm, a 3-year-old Appaloosa stallion has been doing real well in shows lately. His standings are as follows: In San Diego County Professional Trainers Point Standing, first in Appaloosa Western Pleasure, second in Open Western Pleasure. In addition to this, he also stands fifth in Pacific Coast Equine Western Pleasure. How 'bout that? . . . Many of us remember R. H. Marvel II, Margaret Lowthian's 4-year-old leopard Appaloosa mare. Marvel died recently, orphaning her second foal. Margaret feels very fortunate that she was able to get two foals from this mare, as Marvel had a serious gastro-intestinal disorder that should have been fatal a long time ago. Adios Marvel, we'll be watching your colts.

RUTH MC MANUS OF Deer Springs Ranch, Willows Road in Alpine, recently sold two walking horse mares. One was sold to Frank Sortino of Alpine Oaks Ranch and the rest went to Courtesy Chevrolet Walking Horse Stables in Ventura.

LOCAL MAN HONORED BY USS GALVESTON

ALPINE—Many a thrill has come to Maurice L. Storm of Rt. 1, Box 320, Alpine. But topping them all was a recent visit to the USS Galveston at the special written invitation of Cdr. James I. Moore who is the executive officer aboard the Galveston.

Many years ago, Morrie was stationed aboard the first ship named after the town, Galveston, Texas. In fact, that was from December, 1918 to July, 1919.

A casual conversation at a local restaurant, led to the location of Morrie by those in charge of the new ship.

When the USS Galveston docked in San Francisco, to Morrie's complete and happy surprise, he received a phone call, followed by a letter, inviting him and his lovely wife, to be guests on the USS Galveston on May 24th.

The Storms were the only guests for the day, and the red carpet was rolled out for them.

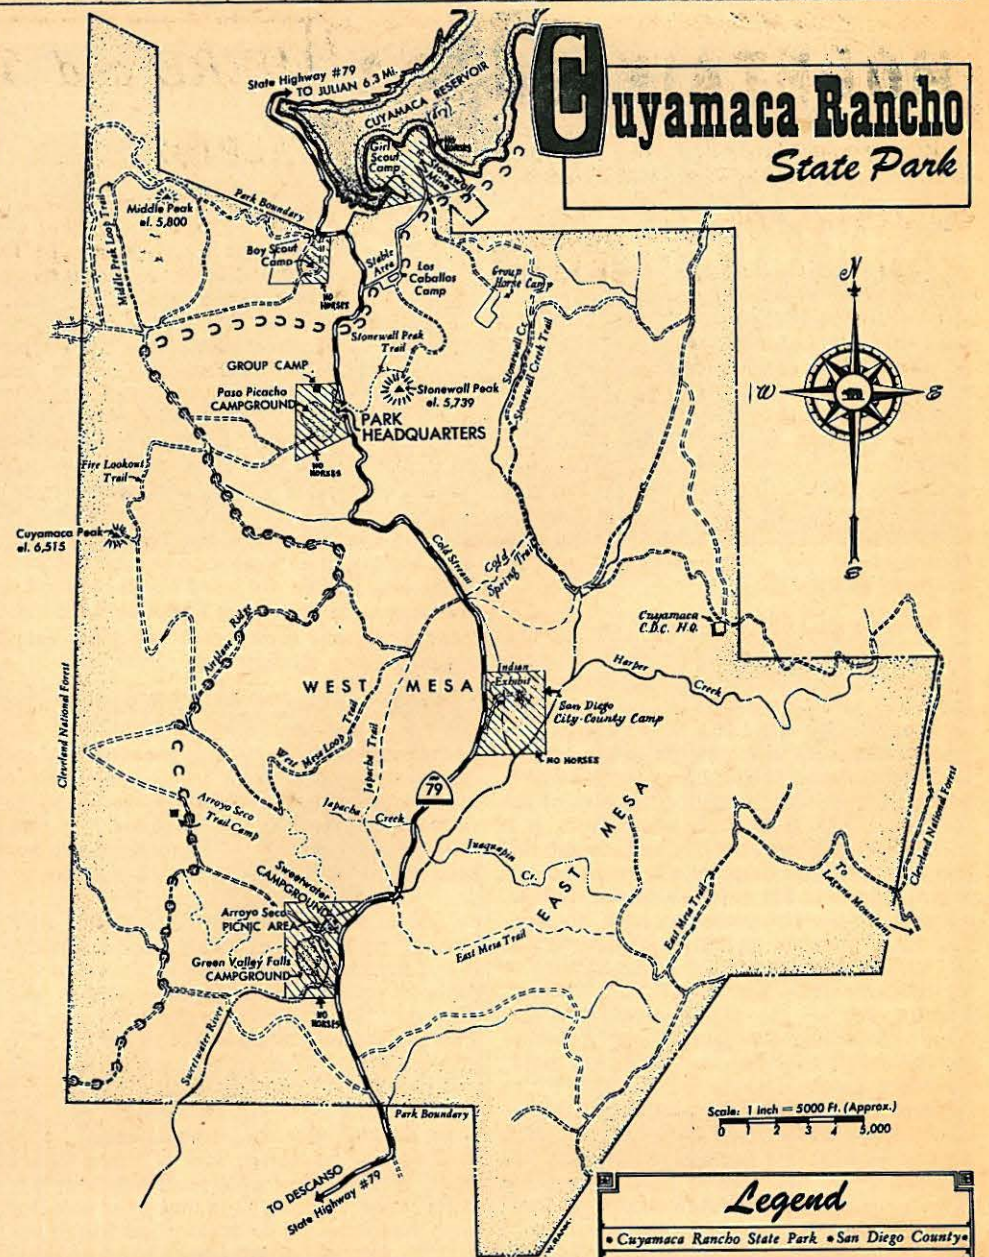

A tour of the ship was arranged, as well as luncheon with the officers of the ship.

The USS Galveston is the first of several ships in the United States which carry the Talos missile. The installation is complex and the sailors aboard the ship must be exceptional in their ability.

All in all, Mr. and Mrs. Morrie Storm had a wonderful day. A day full of memories of the past, and a day full of hope for the future, as they viewed the fine preparations that our country has made for our safety and for our freedom.

BEAUTIFUL HORSES: Recent competition at Gymkhana in Campo. There will be another Horse Show held at Jamul on June the 6 beginning at 12 noon.

In February 1959, the Galveston fired the first Talos missile ever launched at sea. The Galveston has participated in many major fleet exercises both with the Seventh Fleet and First Fleet units, visited eleven ports throughout the Far East and steamed over 75,000 miles.

MAN HONORED FROM THE AREA

HARBISON CANYON — W. E. (Bill) Cartwright of Harbison Canyon, was one of two men selected by the Navy publication, CruDesPac News, a monthly publication for Cruiser-Destroyer men as "Man of the Month," for the month of May. He is an instructor at the Force's Engineering School.

Chief Cartwright was in charge of construction of classrooms and shop facilities and in establishing the curriculum and is also the principal instructor of the course.

He has been cited with numerous letters of appreciation from Force ships for his cooperation and technical assistance on combustion control systems.

TEAM UPGRADES SURFING SPORT

By JOYCE DINIUS

The Harbour Surf team was started two years ago, with one of its goals, the betterment of surfing.

Members of the Harbour team are especially selected. There are no "bums," no "high school drop outs," and in fact, most of them are college students.

There is a close relationship between the members of the team and the spirit is high. They call themselves "one big happy family."

The Harbour Surf team is attempting to prove that surfers aren't just a bunch of "roughies."

Almost every member of Harbour Team is a member of Long Beach Surf Club. The rest are not attached to any group.

Last year they sponsored a team of ten which went to Hawaii.

Each member of the team is sponsored. They also went to Peru as representatives of the United States.

A few of the top members of the team are: Rich Chew, Mark Martinson, Steve Bigler, Pete Kobsev, Roy Crump, Cathy Applegate and Candy Robinson.

Two of the members, Steve Bigler and Rich Chew, have been on the cover of Surfer Magazine.

Rich Chew is ranked number one in the United States Surfing Association. However, he may be drafted soon.

MR. AND MRS. Emil Sachse, Mrs. Katherine Black and Mrs. Goldie Vancil spent a pleasant Saturday evening at a card party and dance with the popular La Mesa Senior Citizens which was held at the Youth Center there. They came home with three prizes. . . . The Pierce family (Auren and Jeanne) had quite a weekend. Seems just about everybody won prizes. The three younger children competed in the County Fair in El Cajon and came home with all sorts of honors. And Bryan got a JV letter in track along with the trophy he received in the Grossmont League for his tennis performance. He also received a trophy for tennis. And, to top it all off, Lisa was honored with the privilege of crowning the Blessed Virgin in the May Procession. It was a candlelight service and traditional at the school. . . . Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Merrill, Mrs. Jack Muse spent the day with the Merrills last Friday. They have two little girls and the children were enjoyed by their grandparents. And also Mike Merrill has killed three rattlesnakes while hunting in the area. . . . Al and Renie Adams attended the showing of the Indianapolis Races at the Fox Theater in San Diego. . . . It has been reported that John Reynolds is back in the hospital. At the time of this writing it is not known just what is wrong with him, but we all wish him a speedy recovery. For those who wish to send cards, he is in the El Cajon Valley Hospital, Room 19. . . . The Senior Citizens should take a bow. They have now completed painting the Youth Center. Everyone will be grateful to this fine group for this wonderful donation of time and energy. . . . Lynn Graves, son of the Bill Browns, brought as his weekend guest to the Browns, Miss Marilyn Elder of Pico Rivera, recently.

It was translated into Vietnamese dialects by a student at San Diego State College. . . . Paul Hasbrouck was featured as drummer in the Pepperdine College Choraliens, Friday night, at the Tiki Room of Town and Country Hotel, San Diego. MOUNTAIN EMPIRE

ON FRIDAY, MAY 21, Peggy Fisher, Babe Johnson, Bess May and Evelyn Fors of Campo and Lake Morena attended a luncheon and meeting of the Visiting Nurses Association at Kona Kai on Shelter Island. The speaker was Miss Margaret Miles, Director of Public Health Department League of Nursing from New York, and her subject was the changing trend in nursing due, in part, to Medicare. Also on the program was the presentation of special awards to Nursing Association staff and some volunteer workers for outstanding work. The Mt. Empire area Association was organized on the following Monday, and the officers are Peggy Fisher, Chairman; Pat Chase, Vice Chairman; Evelyn Fors, Secretary-Treasurer; and Beverly Martin, Publicity, and their meetings will be held each month on the second Monday. . . . Mt. Empire Woman's Club members were entertained last week by Mickey Ellis at the Ridgecrest Trailer Park in Johnstown where she resides. All enjoyed a delicious potluck luncheon, followed by card games. The highlight of the day was disclosing the names of secret pals. The names of new pals will be drawn at the next meeting which will be held at the home of your reporter on June 9th. . . . Del Nielsen, formerly of Lake Morena, and now living in San Diego, motored to Texas recently with her daughter Pat who drove out for her. . . . The Homemakers met at the home of Peggy Fisher last week instead of at Pine Valley Park as planned. Fourteen attended and participated in a potluck luncheon.

MOUNTAIN EMPIRE

HARBISON CANYON

BARBARA HAMM ENTERTAINED her sister, June Ray, of San Diego, for the day, recently. . . . Barbara and son David flew from San Diego to Salt Lake City, Utah, over the weekend of May 22nd to be present at a wedding and spent the following week renewing old friendships and visiting Barbara's mother. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Iver Orcutt of Maple Valley, Washington, were guests in the Dick Bardsley home for a few days. The Orcutts are Dick's aunt and uncle. . . . Mrs. Esther May will be returning to her position in San Diego after having had a two-months vacation and rest. As a sort of going-back-to-work celebration, Esther and Sarge invited a group of friends to their home on Saturday. A potluck dinner was enjoyed in the patio. . . . Did you know that we have a ball club? Well, we sure do and under the management of Wayne Scott. Alpine's club was challenged recently and we came through with a winning score of 11 to 3. Any of you fellows interested in playing ball, contact Wayne. . . . The H.C. Volunteer Fire Department will be knocking on your door beginning on or about the 15th day of June and asking for that annual donation to help maintain and support your fire department. We, along with many other communities, are facing what could very well be one of the most hazardous fire seasons we have had to face, due to the late rains. When you are asked to give, remember that these men give generously and unselfishly of their time and in many instances, risk their lives to protect you and your home, so, give generously. . . . The Firemen's Auxiliary, at their regular meeting, held an election of officers and elected Mary Strobe, president; Frankie Mossburg, vice-president; and Marion Crawford, Secretary-Treasurer. The ladies have been working very hard in the last couple of weeks at cleaning and painting the interior of the fire hall, and at the meeting, laid many plans for a year brimfull of fund raising affairs to help our firemen with the finances of the department. May I remind you ladies that regardless of whether your husband is a member of the fire department or not, you are cordially invited to attend the auxiliary meetings and become a regular member.

DEERHORN VALLEY

LOW CLOUDS AND a touch of cool weather somewhat marred the latter part of the long Memorial Day weekend. But this is inconsequential in comparison with those who became highway fatality statistics. We might all well seriously reflect upon the rate of mass suicide that we are subjecting ourselves to and each one of us take positive corrective action. . . . A touch of excitement last Saturday evening when Ron Sherby discovered that he, his pump house and house guest were acting as targets for a group of "great white hunters." Ignoring Ron's protest the group composed of two men and a youth, continued to fire at objects on Ron's property. During that time, Ron got down to the lodge and notified the sheriff. No positive results have been forthcoming from the Sheriff's Office, as yet. . . . A birthday party was held in Deerhorn Valley Lodge last Monday afternoon in honor of Lisa Wallin's seventh birthday. Among the children attending were Reba Ellis of our community, Christie and Vicki Hagen of Point Loma, Lorie and Scott Freeman of Spring Valley and Karen and Rick Wallin. . . . For an opportunity to meet your friends and neighbors, discuss community affairs, listen to an interesting agenda, and enjoy refreshments in a social gathering, following the business meeting, don't forget the monthly meeting of the Deerhorn Civic Club this Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at the U.C. camp building. Plans will be completed for the annual steak fry so SEE YOU THERE!

THE CREST

MR. AND MRS. Don Frisch of the Crest attended the Cubic picnic held at Holiday Ranch. There was a free roast beef dinner, dancing, entertainment, and games for adults and children. A highlight of the afternoon was an egg-throwing contest in which Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ricketts participated. Ask Tom how he liked the egg. . . . Greenfield Junior High's Coleen Cross was awarded the trophy for the most outstanding choir girl of 1965 in a ceremony last Thursday evening. . . . At Granite Hills Senior High the Spring band concert was given last Friday evening. Duane Cross was given the junior award and trophy for outstanding choir boy. And the Cross twins, Judy and Joyce, were each awarded a loving cup for the most outstanding choir girls. They have received this award for the last two years. Congratulations to the Cross family.

HERE IS SOME news that should have been included in the church news, but your editor didn't notice it in time. So we will just run it with the rest of the Here and There column this time. . . . Crest Community Church is holding a contest on all four Sundays of June with awards to be made on the first Sunday of July. Mrs. Lilly Hackett of 2045 Crest Dr., is confined to her home with illness and would appreciate prayers, cards and visits. . . . Forty-nine attenders of the Crest Community Sunday School went together to see the "Greatest Story Ever Told." Fifteen members of the Crest Community Teenage Club went to the Lemon Grove Rollarena for a skating party last Tuesday evening. The youth group meets on Sunday evening at six. . . . St. Louise de Marillac's chairman for the annual summer fiesta, announced the name of the affair. It will be called the HILLABULOO! She would appreciate hearing from anyone interested in helping with the Hillabuloo. She may be reached at 444-3645. . . . Mrs. Ann Wilger has been appointed chairman of the raffle tickets and will begin distribution this week. The prize is a one hundred dollar bond.

SAFETY COMMISSION WARNS OF HOURS

The Portland, Oregon Traffic Safety Commission points out that more accidents occur between four and six in the evening than during any other period of the day. Memo to spring cleaners: Don't ignore your vacuum cleaner while going about your major chores. It may look mighty innocent, sitting there in the closet, but your vacuum is really a powerhouse of energy in getting spring cleaning done. If window screens are on the agenda, be sure to dust them with the dusting brush of your cleaner. Before hanging the screens use a small paintbrush to lightly coat each side with kerosene. Then wipe carefully with a clean, soft cloth. This ensures cleanliness and will keep screens safe from rust. A vacuum cleaner is also handy for cleaning standing radiators. First, cover the entire radiator with an old blanket or towel, after dampening them thoroughly. Attach the hose to the blower end of the cleaner, place the other end on the covered radiator — and then turn on the cleaner. All you have to do is discard the dirt-filled material. Other suggestions: —Use the soft dusting brush attachment when cleaning venetian blinds. The work goes faster if the blinds are turned flat and each side cleaned. —Give mattresses a good airing and follow with a thorough vacuum job, using the upholstery nozzle. The crevice tool will remove lint around seams. —When putting away winter clothes, try the crevice tool to clean out trouser pockets and the upholstery brush for hats.
