

50 years and still serving our community

Miss Alpine Pageant

The first Miss Alpine was crowned in April of 1968.
She was 16-year-old Christine Higgins.

Over the last 50 years, hundreds of young women have participated in this great community ambassador pageant program, giving thousands of volunteer hours to many organizations throughout San Diego County.

The story of this amazing program will be told by Miss Alpine 1971, Celeste Irvine Damron, and the current Director, Kathy Foster.
